ANNUAL REPORT ON THE FINANCES

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., November 20, 1935.

SIR: I have the honor to make the following report:

BUDGET RESULTS

Receipts

Total receipts of general and special funds during the fiscal year 1935 were $3,800,500,000, as compared with $3,115,600,000 in 1934,

RECEIPTS OF GENERAL AND SPECIAL FUNDS, FISCAL YEARS 1926 TO 1935, BY PRINCIPAL SOURCES

an increase of $684,900,000. Income taxes, miscellaneous internal revenue, agricultural adjustment taxes, customs, and seigniorage on silver all showed substantial increases.

Income tax receipts, which were 26 percent of total receipts in 1934, increased to 29 percent of total receipts in 1935. Miscellaneous internal revenue, though showing a substantial absolute increase in 1935, declined in relation to total receipts from 47 percent in 1934 to 43 percent in 1935.

Income taxes.—In the fiscal year 1935 income tax receipts aggregated $1,099,100,000 as compared with $818,000,000 in the fiscal year 1934, an increase of $281,100,000. Receipts during the first half of the fiscal year 1935 were based largely on incomes for the calendar year 1933, and receipts during the second half, on incomes reported for the calendar year 1934. Receipts during the second half, therefore, reflected the higher levels of corporate and individual incomes during the calendar year 1934 as compared with 1933, as well as the changed provisions contained in the Revenue Act of 1934, which then became effective for the first time.

Collections of current corporation income taxes increased $144,000,000 in 1935 over the preceding year, about 62 percent of this increase occurring in the second half of the fiscal year. Among the changed provisions in the Revenue Act of 1934 affecting corporation income tax collections were the elimination of consolidated returns (except for railroad corporations), the imposition of a surtax on personal holding companies, and new provisions with regard to reorganizations. In addition, the Treasury changed its administration of depreciation allowances. The last-named factor, together with the special efforts of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to collect back taxes on incomes, resulted in an increase of collections of $45,000,000 during the fiscal year 1935.

Approximately 79 percent of the increase of $93,200,000 in current individual income taxes during the fiscal year 1935 was collected during the second half of the fiscal year and reflected, in addition to the higher level of individual incomes in 1934 as compared with 1933, the net effect of changes in the rate structure and in the capital gains and losses provisions incorporated in the Revenue Act of 1934.

Miscellaneous internal revenue.—Receipts from miscellaneous internal revenue taxes were $1,657,200,000 in the fiscal year 1935, as compared with $1,469,600,000 in 1934, an increase of $187,600,000. Collections from the leading revenue-producing taxes of this class are shown in the table on page 2.

In 1935 approximately 86 percent of the total miscellaneous internal revenue collections came from the following sources, which are arranged in the order of their revenue-producing importance: Tobacco taxes, manufacturers' excise taxes, taxes on fermented malt liquors, taxes on distilled spirits and wines, the estate tax, and the capital stock tax.

Increased revenue was obtained from taxes on distilled spirits and wines, gifts, fermented malt liquor, estates, and tobacco. These increases more than offset declines in the collections from manufacturers' excise taxes, documentary stamp taxes, and certain other miscellaneous internal revenue taxes.

The increased rates of tax on estates imposed by the Revenue Act of 1934 were not reflected to any marked extent in collections until May 1935, since under that act returns were not required to be filed until one year after the death of the decedent. The increase of $36,400,000 in collections from the estate tax was caused mainly by the increase in the taxable value of estates of decedents in the year ended June 30, 1934. Collections from the gift tax increased by $62,500,000 to $71,700,000 in 1935. This increase was due more to the larger amount of gifts—probably made, at least in part, in anticipation of higher income and estate taxes—than to the higher rates of gift tax under the Revenue Act of 1934, applicable to gifts made during the calendar year 1935.

Collections from the tax on tobacco manufactures increased $34,000,000 in 1935 to a new high level of $459,200,000. As in other recent years this was the result of increased consumption of cigarettes.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-five was the first full fiscal year during which the repeal of the eighteenth amendment was effective. This factor, together with an increase in the consumption of tax-paid distilled spirits and wines, accounted for a $105,400,000 increase in revenue from this source. Increased consumption of fermented malt liquor resulted in additional revenue of $46,600,000. Total revenue of $411,000,000 from liquor taxes for the fiscal year 1935 exceeded that for any year in the pre-prohibition period except 1918 and 1919.

The decline of $47,700,000 in revenue from manufacturers' excise taxes in the fiscal year 1935 was in most part due to the decline in collections from the tax on gasoline. During part of the preceding fiscal year the 1½ cents per gallon rate imposed by the National Industrial Recovery Act was in effect, whereas during the whole of 1935 the rate was 1 cent per gallon. The repeal of taxes on candy and soft drinks and the modification of taxes on furs and jewelry also contributed to the loss of revenue from manufacturers' excise taxes.

Collections from the capital stock tax and excess-profits tax increased, and new taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1934 on the processing of coconut and other oils gave rise to substantial revenue. The expiration, however, of the tax on dividends, effective December 31, 1933, and of the tax on checks, effective January 1, 1935, resulted in reduced collections from those sources. A decline in revenue from documentary stamp taxes was in large part due to the lower revenue from taxes on stock transfers, reflecting a contraction in the volume of stock trading. Another factor contributing to the decline was the reduction, in the Revenue Act of 1934, of the stamp tax on sales of produce for future delivery from 5 cents per $100 to 3 cents per $100.

Agricultural adjustment taxes.—Receipts from agricultural adjustment taxes totaled $521,400,000 in 1935, an increase of $168,300,000 over receipts from this source in the fiscal year 1934. This increase was due mainly to the fact that none of these taxes was in effect during all of 1934 and for some commodities only during a small part of the year. Processing and related taxes on peanuts and rice and the cotton ginning and tobacco sales taxes did not become effective until the fiscal year 1935.

Collections of processing and related taxes combined were higher in 1935 for all commodities represented in both years except for cotton and paper and jute products. By far the largest increases occurred in the cases of hogs, on which the tax became effective November 5, 1933, and the last increase in rate, March 1, 1934, and of sugar beets and sugar cane, on which taxes did not become effective until June 8, 1934. Receipts from taxes on hogs, wheat, and cotton accounted for 77 percent of total collections of agricultural adjustment taxes during the fiscal year 1935. For a further discussion of agricultural adjustment taxes, see page 30.

Customs.—Customs receipts in the fiscal year 1935 amounted to $343,400,000, or $30,000,000 more than in the fiscal year 1934. The additional revenue from customs resulted from an increase in imports of distilled spirits and wines and from a relatively large volume of imports of agricultural products.

Miscellaneous receipts.—Miscellaneous receipts of general and special funds increased from $161,500,000 in the fiscal year 1934 to $179,400,000 in 1935. These receipts include such items as proceeds from Government-owned securities, Panama Canal tolls, seigniorage, tax on the circulation of national bank notes, fees, fines and penalties, rents and royalties, and sales of Government property. An increase of $57,500,000¹ in receipts from seigniorage more than offset decreases in certain other sources of miscellaneous receipts.

Expenditures

Total expenditures for general and special (including recovery and relief) accounts amounted to $7,375,800,000 for the fiscal year 1935, as compared with $7,105,000,000 in 1934, an increase of $270,800,000. The trend in total expenditures and in the principal classes of expenditures for the fiscal years 1926 to 1935 is shown in the chart on page 6. A comparison of expenditures on a functional basis for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 appears in the table beginning on page 7, and another classification of expenditures for the two years is given in the table beginning on page 10.

Expenditures for 1934 and 1935 shown on the chart as "Recovery and relief" are not strictly comparable with such expenditures for the fiscal years 1932 and 1933. For 1932 and 1933 these expenditures include only those made from funds of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and subscription to stock of the Federal land banks. Other expenditures in 1932 and 1933 traceable to the economic depression and all such expenditures in earlier years were made from regular appropriations and general Treasury accounts. Recovery and relief expenditures for 1934 and 1935 shown in both the chart and the table on page 7 include those classified as emergency expenditures in the daily Treasury statements of those years and also general expenditures for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, refunds of processing taxes on farm products, and subscription to stock of Federal land banks. The classification of expenditures on a functional basis shown in that table follows the classification in compilations of the Bureau of the Budget.

Expenditures for the operation and maintenance of regular departments and establishments of the Government (exclusive of public debt charges) aggregated $1,732,100,000 in 1935, an increase of $26,800,000 over the preceding year. The principal items of increase in this class of expenditure were: $53,900,000 for national defense, to provide replacement and improvement of equipment for the Army and to meet provisions of the naval treaties of 1922 and 1930; $49,000,000 for veterans' pensions and benefits, as the result of the application of new laws or revised rules pertaining to service-connected disabilities; and $12,000,000 on account of the postal deficit. These increases were largely offset by a decrease of $50,200,000 in regular expenditures for public buildings, due to the completion of a major part of the original public building program of 1926 for the District of Columbia, and by lower expenditures for regular river and harbor works and for refunds of customs and internal revenue receipts. Additional expenditures for some of these purposes were made from recovery and relief funds and are shown as such.

³ Additional expenditures for these accounts included under "Recovery and relief."

⁷ Exclusive of $333,600,000 included under "Federal Emergency Relief Administration" and $18,800,000 under "Commodity Credit Corporation."

Public debt charges amounted to $1,394,500,000 in 1935, as compared with $1,116,500,000 in 1934, an increase of $278,000,000, of which $213,700,000 represented larger statutory debt retirements, and $64,300,000, increase in interest payments. The public debt and expenditures on its account are discussed in detail on page 12.

Total expenditures for recovery and relief amounted to $4,249,200,000 in 1935, or $34,000,000 less than in 1934. This total is net, after taking into consideration the earnings of and repayments of loans to certain agencies of the Government.

Expenditures for agricultural aid aggregated $872,300,000 in 1935, an increase of $6,400,000 over 1934. Increases in rental and benefit payments and in refunds of processing taxes arose chiefly because such payments during 1934 were not made for the full fiscal year and also because additional commodities were made a part of the program in 1935. This subject is analyzed in greater detail on page 30. Due largely to these increases, expenditures of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration were $452,700,000 higher in 1935 than in 1934. This increase was partly offset by net repayments of loans in excess of expenditures of the Commodity Credit Corporation in the amount of $60,100,000, as against net expenditures of $183,100,000 in 1934. Recovery and relief expenditures of the Farm Credit Administration decreased $204,900,000, chiefly because of the expenditure in 1934 of $199,900,000 of the $200,000,000 made available to the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under the act of May 12, 1933.

Total expenditures for relief amounted to $2,341,700,000 in 1935, as compared with $1,844,400,000 in 1934, an increase of $497,300,000. Expenditures for the Federal Emergency Relief Administration (including the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation) were $1,814,300,000 in 1935, an increase of $1,106,900,000 over 1934, chiefly as a result of larger outlays for direct relief. To a large extent these outlays supplanted work relief through the Civil Works Administration, which was nearly terminated by the end of the preceding year. Expenditures for the Civil Works Administration were $11,300,000 in 1935, as compared with $805,100,000 in 1934. Owing to the drought in the summer of 1934, loans and relief expenditures made by the Department of Agriculture in stricken agricultural areas amounted to $80,600,000 in 1935.

Expenditures for emergency public works increased from $642,400,000 in 1934 to $1,020,400,000 in 1935, because of larger expenditures for loans and grants to States, municipalities, etc., for public highways, river and harbor works, national defense, etc. Loans to railroads showed a slight decrease.

Total aid to home owners declined $91,400,000 in 1935 owing to the fact that expenditures for the purchase of capital stock of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation amounted to $46,000,000 in 1935, compared with $153,000,000 in 1934. This decrease of $107,000,000 was partly offset by expenditures of $15,900,000 by the Federal Housing Administration, created under the act of June 27, 1934; of $1,700,000 for the Resettlement Administration, established by Executive order on April 30, 1935; and of increased amounts for emergency housing and subsistence homesteads.

Earnings and repayment of loans received by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in 1935 exceeded direct loans and expenditures by the Corporation, resulting in net receipts of $135,400,000 as compared with net expenditures of $565,800,000 in 1934. Expenditures for the Tennessee Valley Authority increased from $11,000,000 in 1934 to $36,200,000 in 1935, largely for construction in connection with the water-control program.

Expenditures classified as "miscellaneous" decreased $148,300,000 in 1935, chiefly because the Treasury's purchase of $150,000,000 of capital stock of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, as provided in the Banking Act of 1933, was practically completed in the fiscal year 1934.

Expenditures for general and special accounts, including those for recovery and relief, for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are shown also in the table below, with recovery and relief expenditures separated into two classes, nonrepayable and repayable.

THE PUBLIC DEBT

The fiscal year 1935 closed with the gross public debt outstanding at $28,700,892,624.53 as compared with $27,053,141,414.48 outstanding on June 30, 1934, an increase of $1,647,751,210.05. The net changes brought about during the year in the amounts of the various classes of securities which make up the outstanding debt are shown in the following table, in which the amounts of the various classes outstanding at the beginning and at the end of the year are compared:

² Excludes $88,736,850 estimated amount of outstanding first-, second-, and third-called Fourth 4½'s on which interest has ceased.

Open market issues during the year aggregated $12,099,919,493.75, and maturities and redemptions aggregated $11,234,065,275.00, with a resulting increase of $865,854,218.75 in this class of debt outstanding. Open market transactions during 1935 are summarized in the table on page 14.

² Includes First Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption June 15, 1935, and estimated amount of Fourth Liberty Loan bonds included in second and third calls for partial redemption Oct. 15, 1934, and Apr. 15, 1935, respectively.

⁷ Includes $335,686,600 Treasury notes, series B-1935, due Aug. 1, 1935, redeemed June 15, 1935, in exchange for Treasury notes, series B-1940.

These transactions occasioned a considerable alteration of the composition and of the final maturity of the interest-bearing debt outstanding. The composition of the debt divided between six types of obligations, from January 1926 to June 1935, is shown in the chart on page 13, in which the total interest-bearing debt outstanding each month is taken as 100 percent. The various maturities, by years, of the interest-bearing debt outstanding as of June 30 for each of the last four years are shown in chart 5 on the page opposite.

On the basis of the interest-bearing debt outstanding on June 30, 1934, and on June 30, 1935, the computed annual interest charge was reduced from $842,301,133 to $748,878,754, and the computed average rate of interest borne was reduced from 3.181 to 2.715 percent. The reduction of $93,422,379 in the computed annual interest charge, notwithstanding an increase of over one billion dollars in the outstanding interest-bearing debt, was brought about through money market conditions which permitted the issue of new debt at low rates of interest, as is indicated by the reduction of 0.466 percent in the computed rate. Actual expenditures for interest during 1935 were $820,926,353.45.

CHART 5.

Exclusive of consols, postal savings bonds, United States Savings Bonds, and special obligations issued to governmental trust funds and agencies. Certificates of indebtedness are included with Treasury notes.

Issues during the year

Net new issues during the year were confined to sales for cash of $967,861,000 of Treasury bonds and notes on December 15, 1934, weekly sales of Treasury bills in moderate amounts, the total for the year being $648,863,000 in excess of maturities, and the sale for cash, on a bid basis, on June 3, 1935, of $98,708,000 par amount of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48. Otherwise the open market issues were offered only in exchange for maturing or called obligations.

INTEREST-BEARING DEBT OUTSTANDING¹ AND COMPUTED RATE OF INTEREST THEREON, BY MONTHS, JANUARY 1919 TO JUNE 1935

On September 10, 1934, in addition to exchange offerings made to the holders of second-called Fourth Liberty Loan bonds, an issue of 2-year 1½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1936 was offered in exchange for 1½ percent Treasury certificates of indebtedness maturing September 15, 1934. The subscription books were closed on September 13, 1934, and $514,066,000 of the $524,748,500 maturing certificates were exchanged for the new Treasury notes.

On December 3, 1934, the December 15 financing was announced, there being offered for cash $450,000,000 of 15-18 year 3½ percent

Treasury bonds of 1949-52 and $450,000,000 of 1½-year 1½ percent Treasury notes of series E-1936. In addition, the 1½ percent notes and an additional issue of 2½ percent notes of series A-1939 were offered in exchange for 2¼ percent Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, of which $992,496,500 were maturing on December 15, 1934. The subscription books for the cash offerings were closed on the opening day, December 3, and those for the exchange offerings were closed on December 6, 1934. Cash subscriptions aggregating $2,334,467,500 were received for the 3½ percent Treasury bonds of 1949-52, of which $491,377,100 were allotted, and cash subscriptions aggregating $3,036,069,900 were received for the 1½ percent Treasury notes of series E-1936, of which $476,483,900 were allotted. With respect to the exchange subscriptions, $210,-132,500 of the maturing certificates were exchanged for the 1½ percent Treasury notes of series E-1936 and $765,192,500 were exchanged for the 2½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1939. Accordingly, exchanges aggregated $975,325,000 and only $17,171,500 of the maturing certificates were not exchanged.

In addition to the exchange offering of bonds for third-called Fourth Liberty Loan bonds on March 4, 1935, an issue of 5-year, 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 was offered in exchange for 2½ percent Treasury notes maturing March 15, 1935. The subscription books were closed on March 8, 1935, and $513,884,200 of the $528,101,600 of maturing Treasury notes were exchanged for the new series.

On May 27, 1935, tenders were invited for an additional issue of \$100,000,000 of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48. Tenders aggregating \$270,077,000 were received up to May 29, 1935, and tenders aggregating \$98,708,000, at prices ranging from $103\frac{2}{32}$ down to $103\frac{1}{2}$ inclusive, were accepted. The average price of the bonds issued was $103\frac{1}{32}$ and a total premium of \$3,082,863.87 was received.

On June 24, 1935, tenders were again invited for an additional \$100,000,000 of the same bonds. Tenders aggregating \$461,341,000 were received up to June 26, and those ranging in price from $103\frac{2}{32}$ down to $103\frac{1}{32}$, aggregating \$112,669,000, were accepted. The average price of the issue was $103\frac{1}{32}$, and a premium of \$4,005,378.18 was received—payment being made on July 1, 1935.

On June 10, 1935, an issue of 5-year 1½ percent Treasury notes of series B-1940 was offered in exchange for 3 percent Treasury notes of series A-1935 maturing June 15, 1935, of which $416,602,800 were outstanding, and for 1½ percent Treasury notes of series B-1935 maturing August 1, 1935, of which $353,865,000 were outstanding. The subscription books were closed on June 13, 1935, at which time $402,741,800 of the notes maturing June 15 and $335,686,600 of the notes maturing August 1, or a total of $738,428,400, were exchanged for the new notes.

The refunding of the First and Fourth Liberty Loans, the calls of the 2 percent bonds, the issue of United States Savings Bonds, and an account of the cumulative sinking fund, are discussed separately in the pages following.

Details of the open market transactions are set forth in the statement appearing as table 25 on page 394, in which each separate issue offered, matured, or redeemed during the year is shown. All official circulars and public statements, relating to these transactions during the fiscal year are included among the exhibits appended to this report.

Second Liberty Bond Act—Further amendments

The act of February 4, 1935, further amended the Second Liberty Bond Act in several important particulars, so as to permit more flexibility and economy in Government financing.

Before the amendment in question, the act authorized the issue of $28,000,000,000 of bonds, which authority was not recurring, and in addition authorized the issue of $10,000,000,000 of notes outstanding at any one time and $10,000,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness or Treasury bills outstanding at any one time. In lieu of this authority, the act of February 4, 1935, established a revolving authority for the issue of bonds, providing that not exceeding $25,000,000,000 may be outstanding at any one time, and at the same time consolidated authority to issue notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills so as to provide that not exceeding $20,000,000,000 of these classes in the aggregate may be outstanding at any one time. The former language authorizing the issue of bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills was modified so as to bring the language of the several sections of the act into agreement as to the purposes for which such securities might be issued.

The new act also gave authority for the issuance of United States Savings Bonds, a new type of security, to be issued on a discount basis, with maturities not less than 10 nor more than 20 years with provision for redemption prior to maturity at the option of the holder, and at an issue price to afford a yield not in excess of 3 percent per annum, compounded semiannually. The act also repealed authority for further issues of postal savings bonds after July 1, 1935, and made provision for the conversion of postal savings deposits into Savings Bonds. It further authorized the use of the Postal Service for the sale of these bonds.

The act of February 4, 1935, will be found as exhibit 31 on page 243.

Cumulative sinking fund

The appropriation available for the cumulative sinking fund during the fiscal year 1935, including an unexpended balance of $79,354,835 brought forward from the fiscal year 1934, was $573,183,652.

Fourth Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on April 15 and October 15, 1934, and April 15, 1935, in an aggregate face amount of $421,407,750, and First Liberty Loan bonds, called for redemption on June 15, 1935, in an aggregate face amount of $151,592,250, were redeemed at par for account of the fund, and an unexpended balance of $183,652 was carried forward to the fiscal year 1936.

Tables covering transactions on account of the fund for the fiscal year 1935, and since its inception on July 1, 1920, will be found on pages 398 and 399 of this report.

The refunding of the Fourth Liberty Loan 4¼ percent bonds of 1933-38, begun during the fiscal year 1934, was continued during 1935. On October 12, 1933, an amount estimated at $1,880,428,200 of the outstanding bonds was called for redemption on April 15, 1934. In response to an exchange offer made at the time of the call $874,-863,900 of first-called bonds and $25,852,650 of uncalled bonds were exchanged for 4¼-3¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1943-45. In April 1934, $827,494,000 of first-called bonds were exchanged for 3¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46, and a balance of $178,070,300 remained for cash redemption. The second call, for the redemption of $1,246,231,800 of the outstanding bonds on October 15, 1934, was issued on April 13, 1934.

On September 10, 1934, an additional issue of 3¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46, and an issue of 4-year 2½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938, were offered, both in exchange for Fourth Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on October 15, 1934. The subscription books for the Treasury notes were closed on September 24, and those for the Treasury bonds on October 11, 1934. Through these offerings, $456,898,300 of the second-called Fourth Liberty Loan bonds were exchanged for 3¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46 and $596,416,100 were exchanged for 2½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938. There remained outstanding for cash redemption $192,917,-400 of the Fourth Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on October 15, 1934.

On October 12, 1934, the third call was issued for the redemption on April 15, 1935, of approximately $1,869,346,100 of the outstanding Fourth Liberty Loan bonds. For the refunding of those bonds, announcement was made on March 4, 1935, of an offering of 20-25 year 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 to be issued in exchange for the called bonds. This exchange offering of Treasury bonds of 1955-60 was terminated on March 27, 1935, at which time $1,558,-022,650 of the Fourth Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on April 15, 1935, had been exchanged for the new Treasury bonds, and of the called bonds approximately $311,323,450 remained outstanding for cash redemption on or after April 15.

On April 14, 1935, the fourth and final call was issued for the redemption on October 15, 1935, of the remainder of the outstanding Fourth Liberty Loan bonds not previously called, the amount included in the final call being estimated at $1,246,230,750. No action for the refunding of these bonds was taken before the close of the fiscal year.

Up to the close of 1935, of the $6,268,094,150 of the Fourth Liberty Loan bonds outstanding October 12, 1933, $4,339,547,600 were exchanged for other issues, $593,578,950 were redeemed for cash, and there remained outstanding on June 30, 1935, approximately $88,736,850 on which interest had ceased and approximately $1,246,230,750 called for redemption on October 15, 1935. On the basis of the exchanges to the end of the fiscal year 1935, the annual interest charge was reduced $53,711,182.

A brief summary of the refunding operations to June 30, 1935, follows:

Refunding of First Liberty Loan

On March 14, 1935, all outstanding First Liberty Loan bonds, including those of the original issue and those subsequently issued on conversion were called for redemption on June 15, 1935. The First Liberty Loan, in the form of 3½ percent bonds, was originally issued June 15, 1917, in the total amount of $1,989,455,550. Subsequently three conversion privileges arose, and the 3½ percent bonds were in part converted into other First Liberty Loan bonds bearing interest at 4 or 4¼ percent, and the 4 percent bonds issued on conversion were largely converted into 4¼ percent bonds. At the time of the call, First Liberty Loan bonds, divided among the four issues, were outstanding as follows:

First 3½'s.....	$1, 392, 226, 250
First converted 4's.....	5, 002, 450
First converted 4¼'s.....	532, 489, 100

On April 22, 1935, announcement was made of the offering of additional issues of 20-25 year 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60, and of 5-year 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, both in exchange for First Liberty Loan bonds of any series, called for redemption on June 15, 1935. The Treasury bonds and the Treasury notes then offered were identical in all respects with the bonds and notes offered on March 4, 1935, and formed a part of those respective issues.

The bonds and the notes were offered at par, with the right reserved to increase the issue price of either the bonds or the notes, or both, by public announcement effective at any time fixed by the Secretary but not earlier than April 29, 1935.

The exchange offering of 1½ percent Treasury notes was terminated on May 2, 1935. On May 3, 1935, public announcement was made that the issue price of the 2½ percent Treasury bonds offered in exchange would be increased to 100½, effective after May 7, 1935. The exchange offering of Treasury bonds was terminated on May 23, 1935.

First Liberty Loan bonds aggregating $1,610,886,550 were exchanged, $746,406,550 for 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 and $864,480,000 for 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, and $322,323,400 of the called bonds remained outstanding for cash redemption pursuant to the call. A summary of the refunding operation follows:

Outstanding March 14, 1935.....	$1, 933, 209, 950

The official call and the official circulars governing the redemption and offering the exchange issues are presented as exhibits 11, 13, and 14 beginning on pages 210, 217, and 222 of this report. A statement showing details of the refunding appears as exhibit 15 on page 223.

Redemption of 2 percent bonds

On March 11, 1935, calls were issued for the redemption on July 1 of the outstanding 2 percent consols of 1930 and for the redemption on August 1, 1935, of the outstanding 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal loans of 1916-36 and 1918-38. The 2 percent consols in the amount of $646,250,150 were issued between 1900 and 1907 under the act of March 14, 1900, in refunding a like amount of outstanding 3, 4, and 5 percent bonds. Under section 18 of the Federal Reserve Act $46,526,100 of the consols were refunded into 3 percent bonds and notes, reducing the amount outstanding to $599,724,050, the amount called. Two percent bonds, in the amount of $84,631,980, were issued under the act of June 28, 1902, to provide funds for the construction of the Panama Canal. These bonds were issued in two series, $54,631,980, dated August 1, 1906, making up the series of 1916-36, and $30,000,000, dated November 1, 1908, making up the series of 1918-38. Under the Federal Reserve Act, $5,677,800 of the former and $4,052,600 of the latter series were refunded into 3 percent bonds or notes reducing the amounts outstanding to $48,954,180 and $25,947,400, respectively.

For many years the only outstanding bonds available for deposit as security for the issue of circulating notes of national banks were the 2 percent consols of 1930 and the two series of 2 percent Panama Canal bonds. As an emergency measure, by a provision of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act approved July 22, 1932, the circulation privilege was attached to all bonds of the United States bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 3½ percent per annum for a 3-year period, terminating July 22, 1935. Retirement of the 2 percent consols of 1930 and the 2 percent Panama Canal bonds, and the expiration of the authority to use other bonds as security for the issuance of circulating notes of national banks will eventually result in the elimination of national bank notes as a medium of circulation and to such extent will accomplish a simplification of the currency system of the United States.

At the time the calls were issued it was announced that in retiring the called bonds the Treasury would make use of part of the balance of gold in the General Fund resulting from the reduction in the weight of the gold dollar, and that gold certificates would be issued to the Federal Reserve banks in an amount about equal to that of the bonds retired, a like amount of gold being withdrawn from the General Fund as security for the gold certificates issued. The gold certificates issued to Federal Reserve banks will form added reserves against which Federal Reserve notes may be issued in replacement of the national bank currency retired. It was subsequently decided that such gold certificates should be issued to the Federal Reserve banks only as rapidly as the national bank currency in circulation is actually retired, in order to avoid a temporary increase in member bank reserves during the interim between the redemption of the 2 percent bonds and the actual retirement of the national bank currency. The gradual retirement of the national bank currency and the issuance of gold certificates to the Federal Reserve banks in accordance with this program is now in progress.

Deposits in the Treasury by national banks of moneys for the retirement of national bank notes, principally in anticipation of the retirement of the 2 percent bonds, together with deposits by Federal Reserve banks for the retirement of Federal Reserve bank notes during the fiscal year amounted to $553,936,922.50 or $306,626,602.50 in excess of expenditures for the redemption of such currency. Such unexpended deposits for the retirement of national bank and Federal Reserve bank currency are carried as "noninterest-bearing debt" and account entirely for the increase in this item shown in the table on page 12.

The public announcement concerning the retirement of the 2 percent consols and the 2 percent Panama Canal bonds, the official calls for redemption, and the official circulars governing the redemption of these bonds, are included as exhibit 10 on page 204 of this report.

United States Savings Bonds

United States Savings Bonds, a new type of Government security, were placed on sale beginning March 1, 1935. These bonds, authorized under the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended by the act of February 4, 1935, are issued on a discount basis. Bonds of the initial series, the sale of which is limited to the calendar year 1935, will mature in each instance 10 years from the first day of the month in which issued. The issue price of these securities was fixed at $75 for each $100 face amount, and at this price the investment yield is about 2.9 percent, compounded semiannually, if the bonds are held to maturity. The bonds are fully registered and are not transferable. They are issued in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500, and $1,000 (maturity value), and a single ownership is limited to $10,000 (maturity value) of bonds issued in any one calendar year. A Savings Bond may be redeemed prior to maturity (but not within 60 days after the issue date), at the owner's option, at fixed redemption values which increase each 6 months after 1 year from the issue date. If redeemed prior to maturity the investment yield is less than if the bond is held to maturity. For the sale of United States Savings Bonds the Postal Service has been utilized, and these bonds are on sale at about 14,000 post offices, including those of the first, second, and third class, and a few of the fourth class.

During the period March 1 to June 30, 1935, United States Savings Bonds in the aggregate maturity value of $128,487,450 were sold, for which cash aggregating $96,365,587.50 was received. Redemptions, on the basis of daily Treasury statements (revised), amounted to $172,068.75 in May and $358,818.75 in June, or a total of $530,887.50. Sales by months and denominations follow:

It should be noted, however, that most of the tables in this report showing the public debt outstanding on June 30, 1935, include only United States Savings Bonds sold and reported by the Post Office Department in March and April, less redemptions to June 30. Sales are taken into the Treasurer's books as part of the public debt between one and two months after the close of the month in which the sales are made. Accordingly, actual sales during May and June did not appear in the public debt until after the close of the fiscal year. In the interim, necessary for verification, the cash receipts from sales of such bonds by the Postal Service were carried as a special account in the General Fund to the credit of the Postmaster General. Postal Service reports of sales through June 30 appear as exhibit 7, page 199.

Department Circular No. 529, offering United States Savings Bonds for sale, and Department Circular No. 530, prescribing regulations governing the bonds, both dated February 25, 1935, will be found as exhibits 6 and 33 on pages 197 and 246 of this report.

GENERAL FUND OF THE TREASURY

All cash receipts of the Government are deposited in the General Fund of the Treasury and all expenditures are made from it. The balance in this fund represents the cash balance of the Government. The net change in this balance from the close of the previous fiscal year is accounted for as follows:

EMERGENCY LEGISLATION

During the fiscal year 1935, further appropriations and allocations of funds were made for the purpose of continuing the Federal program to furnish relief and to aid recovery. An increase in the capital structure of certain corporate agencies of the Government was authorized, funds were appropriated for an extensive emergency public employment program, and the borrowing limits of the Treasury were raised by amendments to the Second Liberty Bond Act. These amendments are discussed on page 18 of this report.

On June 30, 1935, the amount of capital stock and obligations that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was authorized to have outstanding at any one time was $6,050,000,000, exclusive of indefinite authorizations for which there is no statutory limitation. By the act approved January 31, 1935, extending the life of the Corporation, the authorization had been increased in the amount of $100,000,000 to enable the Corporation to subscribe for, or make loans upon, nonassessable stock of national mortgage associations organized under the National Housing Act and of other mortgage institutions. The same act increased from $50,000,000 to $75,000,000 the authorization to subscribe to preferred stock and purchase capital notes of insurance companies.

During the year the Reconstruction Finance Corporation made further sales of its notes to the Secretary of the Treasury in the net amount of $400,000,000. As of June 30, 1935, the total sold to the Treasury amounted to $3,655,000,000 excluding the original $500,000,000 of the Corporation's capital stock purchased by the Treasury. Notes issued by the Corporation directly to banks from which the Corporation purchased capital stock increased by $14,957,000 to $249,771,667 during the fiscal year.

An amendment, approved May 28, 1935, to the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, increased the bond-issuing authority of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation from $3,000,000,000 to $4,750,000,000 in order to enable that Corporation to provide further relief to individual home-mortgage borrowers.

The Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, approved April 8, 1935, provided funds for additional emergency activities of the Government. A direct appropriation of $4,000,000,000 was made to provide relief and work relief and to increase employment by providing for useful projects. It is to remain available until June 30, 1937. An additional amount not to exceed $880,000,000 was reappropriated from the unexpended balances of funds of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and of other emergency appropriations. The $4,000,000,000 appropriation was made available for the following classes of projects in the amount indicated after each class:

Highways, roads, streets, and grade-crossing elimination.....	$800,000,000
Rural rehabilitation and relief in stricken agricultural areas, water conservation, etc.....	500,000,000
Rural electrification.....	100,000,000
Housing.....	450,000,000
Assistance for educational, professional, and clerical persons.....	300,000,000
Civilian Conservation Corps.....	600,000,000
Loans and grants for projects of States and local governments.....	900,000,000
Sanitation, prevention of soil erosion, reforestation, flood control, rivers and harbors, miscellaneous.....	350,000,000
Total.....	4,000,000,000

It was further provided that the President might increase any one or more of the foregoing limits by 20 percent of the appropriation.

The following table summarizes all funds appropriated for emergency purposes and allocated to governmental organizations, expenditures therefrom, and unexpended balances on June 30, 1935. As shown in the table, $2,211,000,000 of the $4,000,000,000 appropriated under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 remained unallocated on that date. Practically all of the funds made available under this act were allocated by December 15, 1935. A subsidiary table shows the details of revolving funds in which repayments and collections from previous loans are offset against payments for current loans made by Federal lending agencies.

⁶ Excess of processing tax, deduct.

REVENUE LEGISLATION

Revenue legislation during the fiscal year 1935 included the extension for two years of the temporary taxes and of the increased postal rates provided for in the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended; an amendment to the Revenue Act of 1934 relating to publicity of income tax returns; and additions to agricultural adjustment taxes.

Extension of temporary taxes and increased postal rates

Public Resolution No. 36, approved June 28, 1935, amended the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended, by substitution of "1937" for "1935" wherever it appeared in title IV, and parts I, II, III, and IV of title V. The taxes which were continued in effect until June 30 or July 31, 1937, by this legislation include: (1) the various manufacturers' excise taxes; (2) taxes on the importation of coal, petroleum and products, lumber, and copper; (3) the miscellaneous taxes on telegraph, telephone, radio, and cable facilities, transportation of oil by pipe line, and stamp taxes on bond transfers and deeds of conveyance; (4) the changes in rates of stamp taxes on issues of bonds of indebtedness, issues of capital stock, transfer or sale of capital stock, and sale of produce on exchanges for future delivery; and (5) the reduced exemption for the tax on admissions. The increase in first class postage rates, and authorization for the President to proclaim modification of certain postage rates, were continued in effect until June 30, 1937, by the same resolution.

Publicity of income tax returns

Public No. 40, approved April 19, 1935, substituted for section 55 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1934, which provided that certain items from income tax returns should be available for public inspection, a new section providing that, subject to regulations made by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, all income returns filed for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1934, shall be open, upon the written request of the Governor of a State, to inspection by any official, body, or commission, lawfully charged with the administration of any State tax law, if the inspection is for the purpose of such administration or for the purpose of obtaining information to be furnished to local taxing authorities. A copy of Public No. 40 appears as exhibit 42 on page 266.

Revision and extension of agricultural adjustment taxes

The Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, provides for the following types of taxes: (1) A tax upon the first domestic processing of basic agricultural commodities with respect to which rental and benefit payments have been proclaimed, and of any commodity found and proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture to be competing to the disadvantage of the processors or producers of any basic commodity; (2) a tax upon floor stocks of any article processed wholly or in chief value from any commodity with respect to which a processing tax is imposed, which are held at the time the processing tax becomes effective or the rate is increased; and (3) a compensating tax upon the importation, during the period when a processing tax is in effect with respect to any commodity, of articles processed wholly or partly from that commodity.

At the beginning of the fiscal year 1935, processing taxes, floor stocks taxes, and import compensating taxes were already in effect with respect to the following basic agricultural commodities specified in the act, as amended—wheat, cotton, tobacco, field corn, hogs, sugar beets and sugar cane; and similar taxes had been imposed upon certain paper products, jute fabric and jute yarn which were found to be competing to the disadvantage of cotton processors. Taxes had also been imposed by the act of April 21, 1934 (Public No. 169) upon the ginning, in excess of an allotment, of cotton harvested during the crop year beginning June 1, 1934; and by the act of June 28, 1934 (Public No. 483) upon the first bona fide sale of certain tobacco harvested thereafter and prior to May 1, 1935, for which tax-payment warrants to the extent of an allotment had not been issued.

During the fiscal year 1935, in addition to these taxes, which continued in effect, processing and import compensating taxes on peanuts became effective October 1, 1934, as a result of the proclamation by the Secretary of Agriculture of rental and benefit payments with respect to peanuts. A proclamation of the President eliminated the initial floor stocks tax in this case. The taxation of rice under the Agricultural Adjustment Act was stipulated by Public No. 20, approved March 18, 1935, which provided that processing and import compensating taxes with respect to rice become effective April 1, 1935. The cotton ginning tax was continued for the crop year beginning June 1, 1935, by requisite proclamations of the President and the Secretary of Agriculture issued under authority of the act of April 21, 1934. The tobacco sales tax was continued in effect for the crop year beginning May 1, 1935, by a proclamation of the Secretary of Agriculture issued under authority of the act of June 28, 1934.

Changes in rates of a number of agricultural adjustment taxes were made during the fiscal year in accordance with the procedure provided for in the acts imposing these taxes. A summary of the rates of processing tax which have been applicable to each commodity since the enactment of the Agricultural Adjustment Act on May 12, 1933, and of cotton ginning and tobacco sales tax rates since the imposition of these taxes, together with effective dates, appears as exhibit 44 on page 267.

ESTIMATES OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

Actual receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year 1935 and estimates for the fiscal years 1936 and 1937 are shown in the table below. Estimated expenditures are based on the latest information from the Bureau of the Budget. More detailed estimates of receipts are shown in table 15, on page 357. All estimates of revenue are based on the assumption that the existing tax structure will continue during the period covered.

Total internal revenue (exclusive of agricultural adjustment taxes and taxes imposed by the act to levy a tax upon carriers and upon their employees, by the Bituminous Coal Conservation Act, and by the Social Security Act) and customs receipts are estimated at $3,660,000,000 (on Treasury statement basis) for the fiscal year 1936 and at $4,400,000,000 for the fiscal year 1937. Actual receipts from these sources in the fiscal year 1935 were $3,100,000,000.

² Detail on basis of checks issued.

NOTE.—Excess credits and adjustments in italics to be deducted.

A large part of the estimated increases in receipts from these sources in 1936 and 1937 reflects estimated higher income tax and estate tax collections which, owing to the nature of the Federal tax structure, do not promptly reflect improvements in business conditions. Current income tax collections in a given fiscal year are based upon corporate and individual incomes of the two preceding calendar years ending with December of the fiscal year. Current income tax collections during the fiscal year 1935, therefore, did not reflect until the second half of that year either the higher levels of incomes of the calendar year 1934 or the effect of the Revenue Act of 1934. During the full fiscal year 1936 the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1934 with respect to income taxes will be effective, and in the last half of that year collections will reflect the higher income levels of the calendar year 1935. Income tax collections during the last half of the fiscal year 1937 will be based on the anticipated higher incomes of the calendar year 1936 and, moreover, will reflect the effects of the Revenue Act of 1935. Estimated estate tax collections in the fiscal years 1936 and 1937 are based upon the estimated higher values of estates in the fiscal years 1935 and 1936, respectively, and in the last 7 months of 1937 will also reflect the upward revision in estate tax rates and the lowered specific exemption under the Revenue Act of 1935.

Fiscal year 1936

Total internal revenue and customs receipts (on Treasury statement basis) are estimated at $4,228,000,000 in the fiscal year 1936, an increase of $607,000,000 over such receipts of the fiscal year 1935. Of this increase, it is estimated that $551,000,000 will come from higher income tax and miscellaneous internal revenue receipts. The balance of the increase reflects a moderate increase in receipts from agricultural adjustment taxes and customs duties, and also from the taxes imposed by the act to levy a tax upon carriers and upon their employees and by the Bituminous Coal Conservation Act which will be collected for the first time during the last half of the fiscal year 1936.

Current corporate income taxes are estimated to yield $615,000,000, an increase of $150,000,000 over collections of the fiscal year 1935. Collections from current individual income taxes are estimated at $629,000,000, an increase of $181,000,000 over collections in the preceding fiscal year. The estimated increase in income tax collections in 1936 reflects the higher level of incomes upon which they are based and also the effect of the Revenue Act of 1934 which will be fully reflected in collections for 1936.

The continued special efforts of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to collect back taxes and the change in the Treasury's administration of depreciation allowances are expected to increase collections from that source by about $4,000,000 over the relatively high collections during the fiscal year 1935.

Total miscellaneous internal revenue taxes are estimated to yield $1,873,000,000 (on Treasury statement basis), an increase of $216,-000,000 as compared with receipts in the fiscal year 1935. Practically all sources of miscellaneous internal revenue are expected to contribute to this increase.

Estate tax collections are estimated to increase by $51,000,000, reflecting an increase in the value of taxable estates of decedents during the fiscal year 1935 and, for the first time, the full effect of the upward revision in estate tax rates under the Revenue Act of 1934. Gift tax collections, which in 1935 were almost eight times as large as those of the fiscal year 1934 owing, at least in part, to a large amount of gifts probably made in anticipation of higher income and estate tax rates, are expected to continue at a relatively high level since it seems probable that a large amount of gifts were made in the calendar year 1935 because of the same factors.

Revenues derived from taxes on alcoholic liquors are estimated to increase $92,000,000 in 1936, reflecting mainly the upward trend in consumption of tax-paid distilled spirits because of improving quality, lower prices, enforcement activity, and increasing incomes. Tobacco tax collections are expected to show a moderate increase owing to an estimated increase in the consumption of small cigarettes. The estimated increase of $24,000,000 in documentary stamp tax collections reflects estimated increases in refunding of security issues and greater activity in trading on stock exchanges. Collections from the manufacturers' excise taxes are also expected to increase moderately, chiefly as the result of anticipated higher collections from the taxes on motor vehicles and gasoline. The decrease resulting from the repeal of the tax on checks effective January 1, 1935, which yielded $26,000,000 during part of the fiscal year 1935, will more than offset estimated increases in collections from certain other miscellaneous taxes.

Revenue from taxes imposed under the Agricultural Adjustment Act and related legislation are estimated at $524,000,000 (on collection basis), or $2,000,000 less than collections in the fiscal year 1935. Estimated increases in collections from the processing taxes on wheat, cotton, peanuts, and the new taxes on rice and rye will be more than offset by decreases in the processing taxes collected on hogs, sugar, and tobacco. The expected lower collections from the taxes on tobacco are due to a reduction in rates on that commodity effective October 1, 1935. The 1936 estimates assume the continuance and collection of these taxes in their present form and do not take into account the effect of court injunctions restraining the collection of these taxes.

The act to levy an excise tax upon carriers and an income tax upon their employees imposes an income tax of 3½ percent of the compensation (not in excess of $300 per month) of each employee, as defined by the act, and an excise tax on carriers equal to 3½ percent of the compensation (not in excess of $300 per month) paid by them to their employees. The taxes become effective March 1, 1936, and only one quarterly payment in the estimated amount of $33,000,000 will be received from these taxes during the fiscal year 1936.

The Bituminous Coal Conservation Act, approved August 30, 1935, levies a tax of 15 percent on the sale price of bituminous coal at the mine, with the provision that coal producers who accept the Bituminous Coal Code shall be entitled to a credit of 90 percent of the amount of the tax. It is estimated that about $6,000,000 will be collected from this tax during the latter part of the fiscal year 1936.

Total customs receipts (on collection basis) are estimated at $352,000,000, an increase of $7,000,000 over collections in the fiscal year 1935. Duties collected on imported distilled spirits and wines are expected to decline by about $8,000,000 largely because of improvement in the domestic product and of the effect of the reduction in duty on whisky, aged 4 years or more, from $5 per proof gallon to $2.50 per proof gallon under the Canadian trade agreement effective January 1, 1936. Collections of duties on other commodities are estimated to increase by about $15,000,000 over collections of the preceding fiscal year.

Total receipts from miscellaneous revenues and the realization upon assets are estimated at $183,000,000, an increase of about $4,000,000 over receipts of the fiscal year 1935.

Fiscal Year 1937

Total receipts from internal revenue taxes and customs duties for the fiscal year 1937 are estimated at $5,494,000,000, an increase of $1,266,000,000 over estimated receipts from these sources (on Treasury statement basis) for the fiscal year 1936. Of this increase, $433,000,000 is estimated to come from taxes imposed by the Social Security Act which will be collected for the first time in the last half of the fiscal year 1937, and $75,000,000 from increased collections from taxes imposed by the act to levy a tax upon carriers and upon their employees and by the Bituminous Coal Conservation Act. Total internal revenue and customs receipts exclusive of these items are estimated at $4,947,000,000, an increase of $758,000,000 over the estimate for 1936 and of $1,326,000,000 over actual collections from these sources in the fiscal year 1935.

Total income tax collections are estimated at $1,943,000,000, an increase of $509,000,000 over the estimate for 1936. Of this increase, estimated current corporation and current individual income tax collections account for $212,000,000 and $307,000,000, respectively. The major part of these estimated increases will occur in the second half of the fiscal year 1937, reflecting the anticipated higher incomes of the calendar year 1936 as compared with 1935 and, for the first time, the effects of the Revenue Act of 1935. The major provisions of that act affecting revenue from income taxes based on incomes for calendar years beginning subsequent to December 31, 1935, include: Corporations, the substitution of a graduated tax (except in the case of railroad corporations which continue having the privilege of filing consolidated returns) ranging from 12½ percent on net income not in excess of $2,000 to 15 percent on net incomes in excess of $40,000 for the single rate of 13¾ percent in effect under the Revenue Act of 1934, the allowance of only 90 percent of dividends received from domestic corporations as a deduction from gross income, and an increase in rates of tax on personal holding companies; individuals, increased surtax rates on surtax net incomes in excess of $50,000, the graduated rates ranging up to 75 percent on surtax net incomes in excess of $5,000,000 as compared with a maximum rate of 59 percent on surtax net incomes in excess of $1,000,000 under the Revenue Act of 1934. It is estimated that the increased revenue from current corporate and individual income taxes in the last half of the fiscal year 1937 due to the Revenue Act of 1935 will be $42,000,000 and $62,000,000, respectively. Collections from back taxes on incomes are estimated to be $180,000,000 or $10,000,000 less than for the fiscal year 1936.

Total miscellaneous internal revenue collections are estimated at $2,103,000,000, an increase of $230,000,000 over the 1936 estimate (on Treasury statement basis).

Collections from the capital stock and excess-profits taxes are estimated to be $66,000,000 greater than the 1936 estimate. This increase is entirely due to the Revenue Act of 1935. Under that act the rate of tax on capital stock was increased from $1 to $1.40 per $1,000 of the adjusted declared value. The rate of tax on excess profits was changed from 5 percent under the Revenue Act of 1934 upon net incomes in excess of 12½ percent of the adjusted declared value of capital stock to 6 percent of net income in excess of 10 percent and not in excess of 15 percent of adjusted declared value, and 12 percent on net income in excess of 15 percent of adjusted declared value. In consequence of the changes in excess-profits tax provisions, corporations are expected to declare a higher capital stock valuation than under the 1934 act. The increase in the capital stock valuation and the higher rate of tax form the basis for the estimated increase in revenue.

Estate tax collections are estimated to increase $77,000,000 over the 1936 estimate reflecting the estimated higher taxable value of estates and beginning in December 1936, the effect of the Revenue Act of 1935. Under that act the graduated additional estate tax rates imposed by the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1934, were increased to a maximum rate of 70 percent on net estates in excess of $50,000,000 and the specific exemption was reduced from $50,000 to $40,000. The 1935 act provided further that the estate tax imposed under its provisions shall be due and payable 15 months after a decedent's death and that the executor has the option, with certain exceptions, to report the value of the gross estate as of the date of the decedent's death or one year after death.

Gift tax collections are estimated to decline by about $35,000,000 from the 1936 estimate, based on the assumption that gifts made in the calendar year 1936 will be in smaller amounts. Collections in the last half of the fiscal year 1937 will be under provisions of the Revenue Act of 1935 which increased the graduated rates of tax on gifts and decreased the specific exemption of $50,000, allowed under the 1932 and 1934 revenue acts, to $40,000. It is estimated that the changed provisions in the Revenue Act of 1935 with respect to estates and gifts will provide $52,000,000 additional revenue in the fiscal year 1937.

The upward trend in the consumption of alcoholic liquors and tobacco manufactures, chiefly small cigarettes, is expected to continue during the fiscal year 1937 and collections from these sources are estimated to increase by $52,000,000 and $26,000,000, respectively, over the 1936 estimates. Collections from the manufacturers' excise taxes and miscellaneous taxes are also estimated to increase moderately.

Total agricultural adjustment taxes are estimated at $547,000,000, an increase of $23,000,000 over the estimate (on collection basis) for 1936, chiefly because of estimated increases in consumption of cotton, wheat, and hog products. As in the case of the 1936 estimate, the estimate for 1937 assumes the continuance of existing taxes and rates of tax.

Collections from the taxes imposed by the act to levy a tax upon carriers and their employees are estimated at $102,000,000, an increase of $69,000,000 over the estimate for 1936. Since the act provides that these taxes shall terminate on February 28, 1937, the 1937 estimate provides for only three quarterly payments of this tax. The tax imposed by the Bituminous Coal Conservation Act is estimated to yield about $6,000,000 more than the 1936 estimate as the result of a full year's collection from this tax in 1937.

The Social Security Act, approved August 14, 1935, provides for two types of taxes which will be reflected in receipts during the last half of the fiscal year 1937. Title VIII of that act imposes with respect to employment (a) an income tax on wages (not in excess of $3,000 per year) of every individual (excluding certain occupational groups and persons 65 years of age and over) and (b) an excise tax on each employer equal to certain percentages of wages paid by him with the same salary limit and occupational and age exclusions. The rates of tax with respect to each of these taxes will be 1 percent during the calendar years 1937, 1938, and 1939, with rates increasing in subsequent years to a maximum of 3 percent after December 31, 1948. It is estimated that $305,000,000 will be collected under title VIII during the last half of the fiscal year 1937.

Title IX of the Social Security Act imposes an excise tax upon employers of eight or more persons (with certain occupational exclusions). The rates of tax range from 1 percent on wages with respect to employment during the calendar year 1936 to 3 percent after December 31, 1937. The taxpayer is allowed a credit for all contributions paid into State unemployment funds not in excess of 90 percent of the tax. If all States had adopted approved unemployment compensation systems by the beginning of 1936, the Federal Government would receive in January 1937 an amount equal to 1/10 of 1 percent of the total taxable pay roll. Inasmuch as it is improbable that all States will adopt approved systems before January 1, 1937, and since the law requires that the entire tax shall be paid to the Federal Government in cases where States have not adopted approved systems, the estimate of $128,000,000 from Federal collections of this tax during the latter part of the fiscal year 1937 is larger than it would be with complete State coverage.

Total customs receipts estimated at $354,000,000 are at about the same level as the 1936 estimate. Collections from duties on distilled spirits and wines are expected to decline $6,000,000 from the 1936 estimate chiefly as the result of the reduction in duty on whisky, aged 4 years or more, under the Canadian trade agreement. Revenue from other dutiable imports is estimated to increase $8,000,000 over the estimate for 1936.

Miscellaneous receipts are estimated at $160,000,000, a decrease of $23,000,000 from the estimate of the preceding fiscal year.

SILVER, SILVER CERTIFICATES, AND NATIONAL BANK NOTES

Silver

The Executive order of August 9, 1934, required that all silver situated in the continental United States on August 9, 1934, with certain stipulated exemptions, be delivered to the United States mints within 90 days. The proclamation of August 9, 1934, directed the United States mints to receive for coinage or for addition to the monetary stocks of the United States any silver which the mint is satisfied was situated on August 9, 1934, in the continental United States, including the Territory of Alaska. For silver so received the United States mints were to return to the depositor an amount equal to 50.01 cents per fine troy ounce. The provisions of the proclamation were supplementary to the proclamation of December 21, 1933, with respect to the coinage of silver.

On November 2, 1934, the Executive order of August 9, 1934, was amended so as to exempt permanently from the requirement of delivery thereunder silver which at the close of business on November 7, 1934, fell within certain stated categories.

Regulations were issued on July 5, 1934, relating to the exportation of silver, and on August 17, 1934, relating to the importation, dealing in, and exportation of silver. Regulations relating to newly-mined silver were issued on April 16 and May 15, 1935.

On April 10, 1935, the President amended the proclamation of December 21, 1933, as amended, by increasing the amount returnable by the United States mints and assay offices to producers of domestic silver mined on or after April 10, 1935, from the equivalent of 64.64 cents per ounce to the equivalent of 71.11 cents per ounce. On April 24, 1935, the amount returnable with respect to such silver mined on or after April 24, 1935, was further increased to 77.57 cents per ounce.

On May 20, 1935, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, issued an order prohibiting, with certain exceptions, the importation into the continental United States of foreign silver coins and other conventional pieces or forms of silver commonly used in any foreign country as money or coin. In accordance with this order the silver regulations of August 17, 1934, as amended, were further amended.

Acquisitions of silver by the Treasury from all sources during the fiscal year were 437,798,807 ounces, at a cost of $232,435,879. Under the proclamation of December 21, 1933, as amended, 30,863,349 ounces were received; 112,301,335 ounces were received under the proclamation of August 9, 1934; 293,737,702 ounces were purchased under the authority of section 3 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934; and 896,421 ounces were received in deposits of gold bullion and in exchange for Government stamped bars. It is estimated that the total acquired was 12 times as much silver as was produced in the United States in the same period, 17.5 times as much of that production as was available for monetary use, 2.2 times the total world production, and 2.9 times the current world output available for monetary use.

The proclamations and orders issued during the fiscal year with respect to silver appear as exhibit 38, page 256.

Silver certificates

The Gold Reserve Act of 1934 authorized the President to issue silver certificates "against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates." Under this act, silver certificates became issuable against any unencumbered silver in the Treasury irrespective of the authority under which the silver was received. It was decided, therefore, to provide a single or consolidated series of silver certificates for issuance against any free silver held in the Treasury. This series of new silver certificates has been given the designation, Series of 1934. The issuance of silver certificates of this series was begun on August 7, 1934. During the remainder of the fiscal year $422,488,000 of these certificates were issued and $91,276,072 redeemed.

In a series of orders (summarized in the letter of the Secretary of the Treasury to the President, September 10, 1934, approved by the President September 12, 1934, and supplemented by the letters of the Under Secretary of the Treasury to the Treasurer, March 1 and April 5, 1935), the issuance and maintenance as part of the money circulation of the United States of silver certificates were authorized and directed in a face amount equal to the total of the following items:

(a) The amount of silver dollars held by the Treasury.

(b) $80,000,000, being an amount approximately equal to the monetary value of all of the silver bullion in the Treasury on June 14, 1934, not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates. This amount does not include silver held in the stabilization fund on June 14, 1934.

(c) $1,560,000, being the amount of silver certificates of the series of 1933 outstanding on March 12, 1934 (including those held in the Treasurer's cash). Silver certificates of the series of 1934 will be issued in lieu of silver certificates of the series of 1933 as they are redeemed or otherwise received into the Treasury and retired.

(d) A sum equal to the amount heretofore or hereafter returned to the depositors for silver received at the United States mints and assay offices on and after June 15, 1934, whether under the proclamation of December 21, 1933 (relating to newly-mined domestic silver), or under the proclamation of August 9, 1934 (relating to the nationalization of silver stocks).

(e) A sum equal to the cost of all silver heretofore or hereafter purchased under the authority of section 3 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, whether purchased from the stabilization fund or from other sources.

Since there was a considerable reserve stock of silver certificates of the series of 1928, the Treasurer was directed to issue them until the stock was exhausted. The last of these certificates was issued on July 6, 1935. On June 30, 1935, the amount of silver certificates outstanding was $810,040,419, representing an increase of $315,044,005 during the fiscal year.

Statements and official orders issued during the year relating to silver certificates appear as exhibit 39, page 262.

National bank notes

Steps were taken during the year which will eventually lead to the retirement from the monetary circulation of the United States of circulating notes of national banking associations. A discussion of the action taken appears on pages 22 and 23.

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

During the fiscal year 1935, collections of internal revenue in the amount of $2,773,000,000,¹ exclusive of agricultural adjustment taxes, exceeded collections in the preceding fiscal year by $472,000,000. Agricultural adjustment taxes amounted to $526,200,000,¹ which exceeded collections from that source in the preceding fiscal year by $154,800,000.

Back taxes on income

Efforts to obtain more prompt payment of back taxes on income continued unabated during the year, and the total collected amounted to $185,600,000. The collections during the year exceeded estimates based on established quotas for the several collection districts. Back tax collections usually represent the concrete result of the investigation of income tax returns by Bureau representatives.

Close investigation of and attention to "tax sales" cases were continued during the fiscal year. These cases often involve apparent sales, fictitious in fact, of stock or other securities to relatives or to close business associates for the sole purpose of claiming deductions from income for tax purposes.

The policy of closely examining taxpayers' claims for depreciation deductions to prevent more than reasonable and consistent charges on that account resulted in a reduction in depreciation allowances in the approximate amount of $288,000,000 during the year. Additional tax resulting from these disallowances was estimated in the amount of $35,916,414, of which $25,032,112 was agreed to by taxpayers.

Alcohol tax administration

A concentrated attack was directed during the year against the illicit manufacture of and traffic in nontax-paid spirits. In addition to the general enforcement accomplishments, a specialized investigative effort has been directed at the larger syndicates trafficking in nontax-paid spirits, with the result that a great number of the larger organizations have been placed under indictment in the leading metropolitan centers of the country.

The enforcement of the act of June 18, 1934, relating to substances used in the illegal manufacture of distilled spirits, has brought about a very material reduction in the sale of corn sugar, brown sugar, black strap molasses, oak chips, and other materials generally used in making unlawful liquors. The law requiring a stamp to be placed on bottles of distilled spirits, as well as the law authorizing the Treasury to regulate the use of bottles, has also aided materially in reducing transactions in unlawful liquors.

Brewers were required to provide meters for the measurement of beer for tax payment. These meters, which are now in operation at all breweries, insure more accurate measurement of beer for tax payment, and have permitted the removal of a large number of store-keeper-gagers heretofore required to be present when beer was measured in tanks.

Research work was performed in the laboratory of the Alcohol Tax Unit to develop satisfactory methods for determining whether race horses have been stimulated with narcotic or other drugs and for assaying opium. Research work was also carried on with the view of developing more efficient denaturants for the purpose of preventing the diversion of tax-free denatured alcohol to illegal uses, and a new specially denatured alcohol formula containing sucrose octa acetate was adopted for the manufacture of rubbing alcohol compounds. During the past few years substantial quantities of rubbing alcohol compounds have been used for beverage purposes, but it is believed that the new denaturant will prevent this diversion.

A detailed description of the work of the Bureau of Internal Revenue will be found on pages 108 to 133 of this report.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES OF THE TREASURY

The Department's building operations, carried on under several different programs and appropriations, resulted in the completion during the fiscal year of 152 projects with a total limit of cost of $262,594,557 and the placing under contract of 443 projects with a total limit of cost of $68,707,433. At the end of the year additional projects were in the following stages: 219 projects with a total limit cost of $39,693,417 were on the market for bids or in the final stage of preparing specifications; plans were being prepared for 73 projects at a limit of cost of $19,221,810; land had been acquired for 6 additional projects to cost approximately $949,000; and sites for 28 projects to cost approximately $4,420,000 had been selected or were in process of selection.

The original public building program

The Public Building Act, approved May 25, 1926, and subsequent acts enlarging the regular building program made general authorizations of $702,296,794 and total specific authorizations for buildings and land of $496,366,798. Of the 735 construction projects previously under contract in this program, 702 had been completed by

June 30, 1935, leaving still under contract 33 projects with a total limit of cost of $12,792,575.

Building program in the District of Columbia.—The program for Federal buildings in the District of Columbia under the public building program of 1926 has been practically completed, except for minor items for the Archives Building. The buildings for the Department of Labor, the Department of Justice, and the Interstate Commerce Commission, the South Building of the Department of Agriculture, and the addition to the Federal Warehouse were occupied during the year. The addition to the Internal Revenue Building is rapidly nearing completion, and the National Institute of Health will be ready for occupancy on all floors by September 1935. Bids had been received for the new Interior Department Building to be constructed under a transfer of funds from the Public Works Administration amounting to $11,110,000, but award of the contract had not been made at the end of the fiscal year; and bids were being taken for an extension to the Archives Building under an allotment of $3,610,000 by the Public Works Administration.

Program under the Public Works Administration

During the fiscal year 1935 the total number of allotments for public building projects made by the Administrator of Public Works was reduced from 465 to 442, but the total limit of cost under these allotments was increased from $67,410,788 to $70,850,768. At the end of the fiscal year 27 of these projects had been completed under a limit of cost of $2,978,675; 283 were under contract under a limit of cost of $45,806,288; and bids had been received or were being solicited, or specifications were being completed on 101 projects, to cost approximately $16,559,295; 17 were in the drawing stage; and 14 were awaiting the purchase or selection of sites.

Program under the Emergency Appropriation Act

The Emergency Appropriation Act approved June 19, 1934, provided $65,000,000 for public buildings throughout the country, the projects to be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General. During the year, 355 projects estimated to cost approximately $65,166,945 were selected, of which one was completed at a total limit of cost of $50,000, and 160 were placed under contract at a total limit of cost of $22,901,145. At the end of the year bids had been received, or the work had been placed on the market or was in the specification stage, on 118 projects to cost approximately $23,131,500. The remaining 76 projects were in the drawing stage or awaiting the acquisition of sites.

Program for other departments

Funds to the amount of $13,588,161 were transferred to the Treasury Department by other departments for 37 projects involving the rehabilitation, extension, and remodeling of old buildings, construction of new buildings, repair of sea walls, etc. Projects totaling $2,288,861 were under contract at the end of the fiscal year, the value of work on the market or in the specification stage was $11,110,000, and drawings were being prepared for projects to cost approximately $189,300.

Detailed information with reference to all building programs and appropriations will be found in the abstract of the report of the Procurement Division on pages 148 to 152 of this report.

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

Total customs receipts during the fiscal year 1935 amounted to $343,353,000 as compared with $313,434,000 in 1934. This increase of $29,919,000 reflects chiefly larger collections from duties on liquors and wines and on certain agricultural products, which more than offset small decreases in duties on sugar and other commodities.

The fiscal year 1935 was the first full fiscal year during which the repeal of the eighteenth amendment was effective. Collections from duties on imported liquor and wine aggregated $41,019,000 in 1935 as compared with $24,024,000 collected during the last 7 months of the fiscal year 1934 subsequent to repeal.

Largely in consequence of the drought in the summer of 1934, there were during the fiscal year 1935 comparatively large imports of certain agricultural products including grains, fodders and feeds, meats, butter, and vegetable oils.

Imports of sugar in the fiscal year 1935 were 2,774,700 short tons as compared with 1,359,300 short tons in 1934. This increase was due to the postponement to the latter half of the calendar year 1934 of a large part of the year's quota of imports of Cuban sugar in anticipation of reductions in duty from 2 cents to 1.5 cents per pound on June 8, 1934, and, under the Cuban trade agreement, to 0.9 cent per pound effective September 3, 1934. The increased volume of sugar imports permitted under the quota practically offset the effect of the reduction in duty on Cuban sugar.

The value of dutiable imports entered for consumption in the fiscal year 1935 was $752,153,000, an increase of 24.3 percent over 1934 and 77.1 percent over 1933. The value of imports entered free of duty constituted 57.9 percent of the total value of all imports entered for consumption during 1935 as compared with 63.6 percent for 1934.

Foreign trade results and customs receipts are summarized by fiscal years in the following table:

A more detailed statement of the activities of the Bureau of Customs is presented on pages 98 to 104 of this report.

NONFISCAL ACTIVITIES*Coast Guard*

The Coast Guard continued to perform during the year its usual duties, which are of great importance to maritime and general public interests. The principal activities were: The International Ice Patrol in the vicinity of the Grand Banks of Newfoundland along the trans-Atlantic steamship lanes and related ice observation and oceanographic cruises and surveys; patrol of the coast—including aircraft patrol—to aid vessels and persons in distress; patrol of the waters of the north Pacific Ocean, Bering Sea, and southeastern Alaska, for the enforcement of laws and regulations for the protection of the fur seal and sea otter, game, fisheries, and fur-bearing animals of Alaska, and of other laws in Alaska; supervision of the anchorage and movements of vessels at ports and other places where Federal regulations are in force; enforcement of the customs, navigation, motor boat, and other laws of the United States; prevention of smuggling of liquor and other contraband; removal of derelicts and other obstructions from the paths of navigation; and the preservation of life and property at sea and along the coasts. During the year, 5,825 persons were saved or rescued from peril by the Coast Guard.

A more detailed account of these and other operations of the Coast Guard will be found on pages 87 to 94 of this report.

Public Health Service

The work of collecting, compiling, and publishing current reports of disease prevalence in the United States and throughout the world was continued during the year. Preliminary mortality rates for a large group of States for the calendar year 1934, showing a slight increase over the minimum rate for the United States recorded in 1933, were made available.

The International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation was ratified by the United States on June 13, 1935, and will become effective November 22, 1935.

The Consular Regulations of the United States of America were amended to authorize American consular officers in foreign ports to authenticate foreign certificates of deratization and of deratization exemption.

Recommendation was made for favorable consideration on the part of the United States of a proposal submitted by the International Office of Public Health to amend article 25 of the International Sanitary Convention of Paris (revised 1926) to permit the repeated fumigation under special circumstances of ships coming from plague-infected ports. Instructions were issued on March 5, 1935, requiring, until further notice, all vessels coming from River Plata ports, South America, except Montevideo, to be considered as potentially dangerous from the standpoint of introducing plague and to be treated accordingly at United States ports.

The privileged quarantine treatment accorded vessels of the United States Navy which carry naval medical officers has been extended to vessels of the Coast Guard which carry medical officers of the Public Health Service.

Medical officers of the Public Health Service were authorized, when requested by immigration officials, to make the physical examination of nominees selected by immigration officials for appointment as immigration patrol inspectors.

In an effort to restrict the introduction of malaria, medical officers of the Service on the Texas-Mexican border were directed to make microscopic examinations of the blood of all arriving persons suspected of having malaria, and to notify the State health authority of any infected persons who were permitted entry.

A new quarantine station has been completed at Port Townsend, Wash., to serve the various ports of the United States located on Puget Sound and its tributaries.

In addition to trachoma eradication, psittacosis control, plague-preventive measures in California, Oregon, and Hawaii, certifications of sources of drinking water used on common carriers, and assistance to rural health organizations, the Public Health Service participated actively in the work relief program of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. Under this program and in cooperation with the State health departments, sanitary outdoor toilets for rural homes were constructed, malaria-control drainage projects were carried out, and abandoned mines were sealed to prevent the pollution of streams by acid wastes. In connection with work relief projects for the control of endemic typhus fever, emphasis was placed upon rat-flea surveys, rat extermination, and the promotion of rat-proof construction of buildings.

The new administration and laboratory buildings for the National Institute of Health in Washington, D. C., and the laboratory building at the Rocky Mountain Laboratory, Hamilton, Mont., were completed and occupied during the year.

Late in the fiscal year an epidemic of poliomyelitis occurred in North Carolina. With the aid of State and local authorities and the cooperation of the medical profession, the Service began a carefully controlled study designed to test the efficacy of a vaccine in the prevention of this disease.

Activities pertaining to venereal-disease control work have included investigative projects in the clinic and the laboratory, studies of the prevalence and trend of syphilis and gonorrhea, and continued cooperative work with State and local health departments. Among the investigative projects the evaluation of various serodiagnostic tests for syphilis was highly successful and received much favorable comment. Several thousand transient citizens infected with venereal diseases were treated at the Public Health Service Clinic, Hot Springs National Park, Ark. The admissions to this clinic have markedly increased during recent years.

The United States Narcotic Farm at Lexington, Ky., the first institution of this character, was completed and opened for the reception of patients on May 29, 1935. The Service continued the supervision and furnishing of medical, psychiatric, and technical services for the Federal penal and correctional institutions under the control of the Department of Justice, and special studies dealing with the country's medical and scientific needs for narcotic drugs and the medico-social problems of drug addiction were continued. Cooperation was also continued with international, national, and local official and voluntary agencies interested in various phases of narcotic and mental hygiene problems with which the Public Health Service is concerned.

The marine hospitals and other relief stations of the Public Health Service continued to furnish hospital and out-patient care to American merchant seamen and other legal beneficiaries. By the act of April 8, 1935, these benefits were extended to employees of the Works Progress Administration who are beneficiaries of the Employees' Compensation Commission. Seamen continued to be the most numerous class of patients. In addition to the customary medical services furnished to other Government agencies, the Public Health Service also assumed during the year medical supervision of 19 relief units in the Treasury Department and other organizations.

The activities of the Public Health Service are more fully presented on pages 161 to 170 of this report.

Bureau of Narcotics

The Bureau of Narcotics has continued to direct its principal enforcement activities against major narcotic law violators and has made further progress in eliminating the sources of supply of illicit narcotic drugs. Through the continued exchange direct with foreign countries of information relating to illicit shipments, and with the active cooperation of the Bureau of Customs, the supply of narcotics available to the domestic illicit traffic from smuggled sources has further decreased, as evidenced by a marked decrease both in seizures at ports and borders and in the total drugs seized. Due to greatly increased activities on the part of narcotic enforcement officers, seizures in the internal traffic showed a marked increase, but, as heretofore, the drugs seized showed upon analysis a high degree of adulteration, a further evidence of the shortage of the actual drugs in the illicit market. Prices in the illicit market continued high. The total violations reported by narcotic officers showed an increase of approximately 35 percent over the previous year.

The decreased supplies of smuggled narcotics available to the illicit traffic have forced peddlers and addicts to turn more and more to the channels of legitimate domestic medical supply. This renders the robbery of wholesale and retail stocks, the forgery and false execution of narcotic prescriptions, and the improper prescribing and dispensing of narcotics, the major enforcement problems. Of the total violations reported during the year, approximately one-third involved persons registered under the law.

The Bureau has continued to receive the cooperation of State and municipal enforcement agencies, whose activities have become more and more effective with the adoption and enforcement of the uniform State narcotic law. This law, approved by the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and by the American Bar Association nearly 3 years ago, was adopted with little or no amendment during the fiscal year 1935 in 18 States: Arizona, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and West Virginia. This makes a total of 26 States which have adopted this legislation, the law having been adopted previously by Florida, Kentucky, Nevada, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Virginia.

A more complete account of the activities of the Bureau will be found on pages 138 to 140 of this report.

ORGANIZATION CHANGES

No major changes in Treasury organization have occurred during the fiscal year 1935, but much has been accomplished in improved administration in the various branches of the Department. Changes in organization which should be specifically mentioned were as follows:

Treasury Department Order No. 8 of September 17, 1934, established in the Office of the Secretary a Division of Research and Statistics, which, in addition to other duties mentioned in the order, took over the functions formerly exercised by the Section of Financial and Economic Research in the Office of the Secretary.

By Treasury Department Order No. 9 of September 26, 1934, all medical relief activities in the Treasury Department in the District of Columbia, not then a part of or under the supervision of the United States Public Health Service, were transferred to that Service and placed under the supervision of the Surgeon General.

By Treasury Department Order No. 10 of April 23, 1935, the functions of purchasing and the storage and distribution of stationery supplies were transferred from the Division of Supply to the Procurement Division and placed under the immediate supervision of the Assistant Director, Branch of Supply. The remaining functions of the Division of Supply dealing with printing and binding and miscellaneous subjects were retained and the name of the Division changed to the Division of Printing.

The above Treasury Department orders are contained in exhibit 49, page 279, of this report.

On December 1, 1934, Miss Josephine Roche was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, supervision of the Public Health Service being assigned to her. A revision of Department Circular No. 244 (exhibit 50, p. 281), was made on December 7, 1934, covering this assignment as well as the assignment of all other bureaus, offices, and divisions of the Department to the supervision of the Secretary, the Under Secretary, the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary, and the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury.

Attention is invited to the attached reports of bureaus and divisions of the Treasury Department and to the exhibits and tables accompanying the report on the finances.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Combined statement of assets and liabilities of governmental corporations and credit agencies

Under Executive Order No. 6869 of October 10, 1934, a copy of which appears as exhibit 51, page 282, every executive department and independent establishment of the Government holding assets or incurring liabilities and every corporation in which the Government of the United States has a proprietary interest is required to furnish to the Secretary of the Treasury, not later than the fifteenth day of each month, a statement of its assets, liabilities, capital, and surplus, as of the close of business on the last business day of the preceding month. The order further provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be published monthly on the daily statement of the United States Treasury a combined statement of the assets, liabilities, capital, and surplus, reported pursuant to the provisions of such order. Prior to the issuance of the above order, the first combined statement of assets and liabilities of governmental corporations and credit agencies as of June 30, 1934, was released on August 29, 1934. The statement as of June 30, 1935, appears as table 37, on page 411 of this report. Following is a summary statement of the proprietary interest of the United States in these corporations and agencies as of June 30, 1934 and 1935.

Accounting and disbursing of emergency relief funds appropriated under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935

Section II (A) of Executive Order No. 7034, dated May 6, 1935, directs:

(A) The Secretary of the Treasury, (1) through the disbursing and accounting facilities under the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits of the Treasury Department, to make provision for all disbursements from the funds appropriated by the "Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935", subject only to such exceptions as the Secretary may authorize, and to maintain a system of accounts necessary to enable the President (a) to exercise Executive control over such funds, (b) to provide current financial and accounting information for governmental agencies concerned, and (c) to make a complete report to the Congress concerning expenditures made and obligations incurred, by classes and amounts * * *.

Pursuant to the provisions of this order, the Secretary of the Treasury issued on June 18, 1935, Regulation No. 1 prescribing administrative procedure for the maintenance of a system of accounts and disbursements under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935. This regulation was approved by the President and issued as Treasury Department Circular No. 543, a copy of which appears as exhibit 52, on page 283.

With a view to providing effective accounting controls and in order to facilitate disbursing operations, there have been set up in each State a Treasury accounts office and a Treasury disbursing office. For administrative expediency these offices are located in the same cities as the Treasury procurement offices and the State headquarters of the Works Progress Administration.

Accounts are maintained showing in detail the status of the funds allocated by the President for various projects and purposes, and at frequent intervals reports are prepared for the information of administrative officers and others concerned, showing obligations, expenditures, and balances under each project and under various classifications, such as States, Government establishments, etc.

Obligations of foreign governments

The United States received during the fiscal year 1935 payments aggregating $666,391 on account of the indebtedness of foreign governments, of which $62,000 was for account of principal, $566,330 was for account of interest, and $38,061 was for account of annuities under the moratorium agreements.

The following statement shows the payments due during the period July 1 to December 31, 1934, and the amounts actually paid on account by certain governments:

Receipts from Germany

During the fiscal year 1935 the United States received no payments from the Government of Germany under the debt-funding agreement of June 23, 1930, covering the costs of the American Army of Occupation and the awards of the Mixed Claims Commission, United States and Germany.

Army costs.—A payment amounting to 9,300,000 reichsmarks due September 30, 1934, on account of the costs of the Army of Occupation was postponed to March 31, 1935, under the provisions of the debt-funding agreement. In accordance with the provisions of the agreement such postponed payment bears interest at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum. The payments aggregating 53,200,000 reichsmarks, which were previously postponed, became due on March 31, 1935, and there also matured on that date a payment of 9,300,000 reichsmarks. These principal sums together with interest falling due on September 30, 1934, and March 31, 1935, amounting to 1,759,937.50 reichsmarks, have not been paid by the Government of Germany.

There has been no change in the Army cost account from that shown in the statement appearing on page 39 of the annual report for 1932.

Mixed claims, United States and Germany.—The payments of 20,400,000 reichsmarks each, due on September 30, 1934, and March 31, 1935, from the Government of Germany on account of mixed claims awards were not made under the provisions of the debt agreement of June 23, 1930. The interest amounting to 6,630,000 reichsmarks due on those dates also has not been paid.

Annuities under moratorium agreement.—The semiannual installments of the annuities under the moratorium agreement with the Government of Germany dated May 26, 1932, aggregating 3,058,098.90 reichsmarks, which were due during the fiscal year 1935, were not paid by Germany.

The status of the indebtedness of Germany to the United States as of June 30, 1935, is summarized in the following tables:

Treasury administration of alien and mixed claims

The Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928 authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to make payments on account of (1) awards of the Mixed Claims Commission, United States and Germany, for claims of American nationals against the Government of Germany; (2) awards of the War Claims Arbiter for claims of German, Austrian, and Hungarian nationals against the Government of the United States; and (3) awards of the Tripartite Claims Commission for claims of American nationals against the Governments of Austria and Hungary.

The time within which claimants could file applications for awards from the Mixed Claims Commission, United States and Germany, and the Tripartite Claims Commission, United States, Austria, and Hungary, has been extended from time to time. The time within which such applications may be filed will expire on March 10, 1936.

The restrictions imposed by Public Resolution No. 53 of June 27, 1934, as to payments, transfers, and deliveries of property under the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, as amended, were removed in certain cases, pursuant to Executive Order No. 6981, dated March 2, 1935. A copy of this order will be found as exhibit 53, page 288 of this report. A copy of Public Resolution No. 53 will be found as exhibit 39 on page 253 of the annual report for 1934.

Mixed Claims Commission: Claims against Germany.—The Treasury made payments up to September 30, 1935, in the aggregate amount of $135,379,216.93 on account of awards of the Mixed Claims Commission, from which there has been deducted $676,896.68, representing one-half of 1 percent authorized by the Settlement of War Claims Act, making net payments to claimants of $134,702,320.25. Of the deductions so made, $650,025.64 has been covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts or reserved for such purpose in accordance with the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, as reimbursement to the United States for expenses incurred, and $26,871.04 has been paid to the German Government or reserved for payment to that Government in accordance with the agreement of December 31, 1928, and the act of Congress approved June 21, 1930, for defraying such expenses as were incurred by that Government in connection with the adjudication of the late claims.

The following summary shows the awards certified to the Treasury by the Secretary of State, by classes, number and amount of the awards, the amount paid on account, and the balance due thereon as of September 30, 1935:

3 Of this amount, $646,025.54 has been covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. A further sum of 10 cents will be covered into the Treasury at a later date.

4 Of this amount, $24,150.09 has been paid to the Government of Germany. A further sum of $8,720.95 is payable in connection with the adjudication of late claims under the agreement of Dec. 31, 1928.

War Claims Arbiter.—Under the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, it was the duty of the War Claims Arbiter, within certain limitations, to hear the claims of German, Austrian, and Hungarian nationals and to determine the fair compensation to be paid by the United States for ships seized, patents sold or used by the United States, and a radio station sold to the United States.

War Claims Arbiter: Claims of German nationals.—The Treasury has completed payment of 50 percent of the amount of all awards made by the War Claims Arbiter in favor of German nationals as required by paragraph 7 of section 4 (c) of the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928. Fifty percent of the award in favor of the estate of a German national was paid during the fiscal year following removal by the President of the restrictions of Public Resolution No. 53, approved June 27, 1934, upon recommendation by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The following summary shows the number and amount of awards in favor of German nationals certified to the Treasury for payment and the payments made on account:

Tripartite Claims Commission: Claims against Austria.—The total amount of awards, including interest, certified by the Tripartite Claims Commission to the Treasury for payment was $370,032.14. All of these awards against Austria have been paid, except one in the amount of $135.06. Sufficient funds have been retained in the Austrian special deposit account to pay this award. No payments were made on these awards during the fiscal year 1935.

Tripartite Claims Commission: Claims against Hungary.—The awards entered by the Tripartite Claims Commission against Hungary, in favor of American nationals, amounted to $199,975.57. During the fiscal year 1935 the Treasury made payments to American nationals on account of such awards amounting to $14,570.12. As of June 30, 1935, awards aggregating $9,194.88 had not been paid because claimants had not filed applications as required by law.

Railroad obligations

Total receipts during the fiscal year on account of railroad securities owned by the United States, which were acquired under the Federal Control Act, as amended, and the Transportation Act, 1920, as amended, amounted to $6,871,047.15, classified as follows:

During the fiscal year 1935, $33,600 was received from the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad Co. on account of equipment trust notes. This payment represents the concluding payment on equipment trust notes given to the Director General of Railroads by various carriers on account of equipment acquired by him and allocated to them after termination of Federal control. The total interest, aggregating $45,338,918.25, includes an adjustment of $44,546.87 in the amount shown in the 1934 annual report.

Section 204.—There have been no transactions under section 204 since June 30, 1931. Total payments under this section have amounted to $10,967,801.80.

Section 207.—A statement showing the principal amount of obligations of carriers acquired pursuant to section 207 of the Transportation Act, 1920, as amended, receipts on account of principal, and obligations outstanding June 30, 1933, appears as table 38 on page 370 of the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1933. There has been no change in the status of such obligations since that date.

Sections 209 and 212.—There have been no transactions under these sections since June 30, 1934. Total payments to carriers have amounted to $532,006,103.30.

Section 210.—This section established a revolving fund of $300,000,000 to be used for loans to railroads under the conditions set forth in a certificate of the Interstate Commerce Commission authorizing each loan, and also for paying judgments, decrees, and awards rendered against the Director General of Railroads. No new loans are being made as the time for making application has expired. The net expenditures by the Director General during the fiscal year under this section, after deducting repayments, amounted to $5,649.29, making net expenditures by him on this account of $33,636,686.95 to June 30, 1935.

Total loans (including renewal loans and repayments thereof aggregating $59,800,000) to June 30, 1935, amounted to $350,600,667, repayments amounted to $324,628,010.64, and loans outstanding as of that date amounted to $25,972,656.36. Repayments during the fiscal year 1935 were made by the following carriers:

Trust funds invested by the Treasury

Adjusted service certificate fund.—Investments for the account of the adjusted service certificate fund, created by the act of May 19, 1924, were made during the fiscal year 1935 in special issues of Treasury obligations bearing interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum in accordance with the procedure outlined on pages 118-120 of the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for the fiscal year 1925.

Investments made during the year amounted to $213,600,000, of which $50,000,000 represented funds appropriated by Congress under the provisions of the act approved March 28, 1934; $158,300,000 represented the principal proceeds of maturing notes reinvested; and $5,300,000 was derived from interest on investments. During the year $175,900,000 face amount of securities (including $158,300,000 of maturing notes and notes amounting to $17,600,000 redeemed to meet current payments from the fund) were redeemed on account of the adjusted service certificate fund, the proceeds of which, together with interest thereon, were credited to the fund.

According to reports received by the Treasury from the Veterans' Administration, net expenditures of the fund during the fiscal year 1935 amounted to approximately $57,000,000, of which about $31,400,000 represented the net increase in direct loans to veterans.

A statement of the fund as of June 30, 1935, as shown by the books of the Treasury (exclusive of fund assets held by the Veterans' Administration on account of bank loans on adjusted service certificates redeemed amounting to $52,000,545.20 and direct loans to veterans amounting to $1,132,533,489.19) is as follows:

Longshoremen's and harbor workers' compensation fund.—This fund was established under the act of March 4, 1927 (44 Stat. 1444, sec. 44), to provide for the payment of compensation for disability or death resulting from injury to employees in certain maritime employments, and for the maintenance of employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation. Each employer is required to pay into the fund the sum of $1,000 as compensation for the death of an employee of such employer resulting from injury where it is determined that there is no person entitled under the act to receive compensation for such death. Fifty percent of each such payment shall be available for the payments on account of injury increasing disability, and 50 percent shall be available for the payments on account of maintenance for employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation.

The fund is administered by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission. Moneys not required for immediate disbursement are invested by the Treasurer of the United States.

District of Columbia workers' compensation fund.—This fund was established under the act of May 17, 1928 (45 Stat. 600), which extended the provisions of the act entitled "Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act", approved March 4, 1927, including all amendments thereto, to apply in respect to the injury or death of an employee of an employer carrying on any employment in the District of Columbia, irrespective of the place where the injury or death occurs. The fund is derived from collections of awards against employers made by the United States Employees' Compensation Commission, as compensation for death of employees resulting from injuries, in each case where no person is found to be entitled to such compensation, under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act as extended to certain employments in the District of Columbia. Fines and penalties collected in connection therewith are also credited to the fund. One-half of each such collection is available as compensation for injuries increasing previous disabilities, the other half being available for maintenance of employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation. Any portion of the fund which, in the opinion of the Commission, is not needed for current requirements, is invested by the Treasurer of the United States.

United States Government life insurance fund.—Under the provisions of section 18 of the act approved December 24, 1919, as amended March 4, 1923, the Secretary of the Treasury is required to invest in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or in bonds of the Federal land banks all moneys received in payment of premiums on converted insurance in excess of authorized payments. The act approved March 3, 1927, as amended by the Emergency Adjusted Compensation Act of February 27, 1931, authorized the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to make loans to veterans upon their adjusted service certificates out of the United States Government life insurance fund. All of the funds available for investment during the fiscal year 1935 were used to make loans to veterans or invested in obligations of the United States. The Administrator of Veterans' Affairs reported outstanding loans to veterans from this fund, June 30, 1935, on policies and adjusted service certificates, aggregating $590,149,480.94. The net increase in loans on adjusted service certificates during the year amounted to $37,255,710.36.

Monthly reports are made by the Treasury to the Veterans' Administration of all securities in the fund and the principal cost thereof as the result of investments made by the Secretary of the Treasury, and periodic verifications of the security holdings are made through reports rendered to the Administrator by the safe-keeping offices. The investments as of June 30, 1935, were as follows:

National Institute of Health gift fund.—By the act of May 26, 1930 (46 Stat. 379), the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to accept unconditional gifts for study, investigation, and research in the fundamental problems of the diseases of man, and for other purposes. It was also provided that he may accept conditional gifts, upon the recommendation of the Surgeon General and the National Institute of Health. Any such gifts are to be held in trusts and invested by the Secretary of the Treasury in securities of the United States.

During the fiscal year the Secretary of the Treasury accepted an unconditional gift of $900 made by the Edgar O. Crossman Memorial Committee, composed of the coworkers and friends of the late Edgar Orrin Crossman, M. D., formerly Medical Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, as a tribute to his accomplishments in the medical care and treatment of former members of the military and naval forces of the United States. Other unconditional gifts amounting to $62 were also accepted, making a total of $962 received for this fund.

There were also accepted during 1935 two conditional gifts from the Rockefeller Foundation amounting to $20,000, of which $5,000 is for the purpose of the publication of a history of county health work and $15,000 is for the purpose of aiding in any way the completion of the statistical and epidemiological dental survey made by the Public Health Service in cooperation with the American Dental Association and State and Territorial health officers, or for any purpose connected with the presentation to the public of facts obtained by this survey.

In order to meet expenditures of the institute for the account of the Chemical Foundation donation, $1,000 face amount of 4¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1947-52 were sold. The receipts and expenditures during the year were as follows:

General railroad contingent fund.—The general railroad contingent fund was created by paragraph 6 of section 15 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act, approved June 18, 1910, as amended by the act of February 28, 1920 (41 Stat. 489). Under the provisions of this section any carrier which received for any year a net railway operating income in excess of 6 percent of the value of the railway's property held for and used by it in the service of transportation was required to place one-half of such excess in a reserve fund established and maintained by and for use of the carrier, the other half to be paid to the Government for deposit in the general railroad contingent fund.

Under the provisions of section 15 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended by section 206 (a) of the Emergency Railroad Transportation Act, approved June 16, 1933, the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to liquidate the general railroad contingent fund and to distribute the fund among the carriers which have made payments under that section.

A statement showing the distribution by the Secretary of the Treasury of the general railroad contingent fund as of October 31, 1933, is included in the annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury for the fiscal year 1933 as exhibit 40, page 270. Additional refunds were made during the fiscal year 1934, as shown on page 69 of the annual report for that year. During the year ended June 30, 1935, the Treasury made a refund of $30,000 to the Genesee & Wyoming Railroad Co. Only one item remains unpaid, $2,388.61 due the Central Railroad Co. of Arkansas. The existence of this corporation has terminated, and it is impossible to make a refund until it is determined who is entitled to receive payment.

Pershing Hall Memorial fund.—Under the act of Congress approved June 28, 1935 (Public No. 171, 74th Cong.), $482,032.92 of the fund entitled "Recreation Fund—Army", created by the War Department Appropriation Act approved March 4, 1933, was authorized to be appropriated for effecting, under certain conditions, a settlement of any indebtedness connected with Pershing Hall, a memorial already erected in Paris, France, under the auspices of the American Legion, Inc., to the commander in chief, officers, men, and auxiliary services of the American Expeditionary Forces, to the end that such memorial as so freed from debt may be perpetuated. It is also provided that any balance remaining after settlement of such indebtedness shall be retained by the Secretary of the Treasury as a special fund to be known as the "Pershing Hall Memorial Fund." The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized (a) to invest and reinvest any part or all of the corpus of this fund so remaining in interest-bearing United States Government bonds and retain custody thereof; and (b) upon request of the American Legion, Inc., the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the National Treasurer of the American Legion, Inc., from time to time any part of the earnings upon the fund for use in the maintenance and/or perpetuation of Pershing Hall. Although funds were authorized to be appropriated, no funds were appropriated during the fiscal year 1935.

Special funds

Colorado River Dam fund.—This fund was established under the act of December 21, 1928, to provide for the construction of works commonly referred to as the Boulder Canyon project. All revenues received in carrying out the provisions of the act are payable into the fund. Expenditures are made out of the fund under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to advance to the fund, from time to time, within the appropriations therefor, such amounts as the Secretary of the Interior deems necessary for carrying out the provisions of the act, except that the aggregate amount of such advances shall not exceed $165,000,000. Of this amount, $25,000,000 shall be allocated to flood control, and shall be repaid to the United States out of 62½ percent of revenues, if any, in excess of the amount necessary to meet periodical payments during the period of amortization, as provided in section 4 of the act. If the $25,000,000 is not repaid in full during the period of amortization, then 62½ percent of all net revenues shall be applied to payment of the remainder.

The Secretary of the Treasury is required to charge the fund, as of June 30 each year, with such amount as may be necessary for the payment of interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum accrued during the year upon the amounts advanced from the general Treasury and remaining unpaid, except that if the fund is insufficient to meet the payment of interest the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, defer any part of such payment, and the amount so deferred shall bear interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum until paid.

Under an opinion of the Attorney General of the United States, dated December 26, 1929, funds advanced from the general Treasury for the construction costs of the all-American canal are not subject to the interest charge. To date, funds aggregating $2,421,248.41 have been advanced from funds amounting to $9,000,000 allocated from the appropriations made in the National Industrial Recovery Act, approved June 13, 1933, and the Emergency Appropriation Act of 1935, approved June 19, 1934, for the construction of the all-American canal.

The Boulder Canyon Project Act provides for the repayment of these advances, and the Secretary of the Interior has made provision for such repayment to begin upon the completion of the canal.

On June 30, 1935, the liability of the Colorado River Dam fund to the General Fund of the Treasury amounted to $86,766,956.75, representing advances in the sum of $80,358,083.40 and interest in the amount of $6,408,873.35. Upon recommendation of the Secretary of the Interior and in accordance with the authority contained in section 2 of the act of March 3, 1933, the Secretary of the Treasury deferred for 1 year the payment of the total amount of interest due on June 30, 1935, of $6,408,873.35.

The status of the advances made to the fund as of June 30, 1935, was as follows:

Advances to reclamation fund.—Under the act of Congress approved June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), there was established in the Treasury a special fund known as the "reclamation fund", representing receipts from the sale of public lands in certain States and Territories to be used for the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands. Pursuant to the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 835), the Secretary of the Treasury advanced to the reclamation fund from the General Fund of the Treasury $20,000,000. The act of June 12, 1917 (40 Stat. 149), provides for the reimbursement of the money so advanced through the transfer of $1,000,000 annually from the reclamation fund to the General Fund of the Treasury beginning July 1, 1920, and continuing until full reimbursement is made. Beginning with the fiscal year 1921 there has been returned to the General Fund $1,000,000 annually, making a total of $10,000,000 for the 10 years ended with the fiscal year 1930. The Deficiency Act of February 6, 1931, provided for a suspension of the annual payments for a period of 2 years and the act of April 1, 1932, as amended by the act of March 3, 1933, provided a further extension until the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1936.

The Deficiency Act approved March 4, 1931, appropriated an additional advance of $5,000,000 to the reclamation fund from the General Fund, all of which was advanced between April 28, 1931, and November 30, 1931.

The following statement shows the status of the account as of June 30, 1935:

Division of Deposits

The Division of Deposits is charged with the administration of matters pertaining to the designation and supervision of Government depositaries and the deposit of Government funds in such depositaries. The regulations of the Treasury governing the deposit of public funds in depositaries are incorporated in Department Circulars Nos. 176 and 92 as amended.

The following statement shows the number and classes of depositaries maintained by the Treasury and the Government deposits held by such depositaries on June 30, 1935:

Number of depositaries and amount of Government deposits held on June 30, 1935 by class of depositaries

Depositaries	Number	Amount

Federal Reserve member bank depositaries:
To credit of Treasurer of the United States.....	1,545	7,324,547.36
To credit of other Government officers.....		29,210,792.92
Insular depositaries (including Philippine treasury):
To credit of Treasurer of the United States.....	3	3,036,966.49
To credit of other Government officers.....		2,274,967.08
Foreign depositaries:

To credit of other Government officers.....		1,583,599.58
Special depositaries.....	2,226	779,020,320.27
Total.....	4,799	925,656,836.36

¹ In addition 257 branch banks are carried on the depositary list of the Treasury under the designation of the parent banks.

² Includes 1,974 national banks and 1,252 State banks and trust companies, of which 1,835 held deposits on June 30, 1935.

During the fiscal year 1935, approximately 1,200 changes and adjustments were effected within the depositary system. These adjustments are summarized in the following table:

	Member bank de- positaries	Special de- positaries
Designated.....	92	211
Discontinued.....	75	326
Balances increased.....	250	127
Balances decreased.....	115	23

The work of the Division of Deposits during the year was greatly increased as a result of the establishment and operation of new Government activities requiring depository facilities. The sale of United States Savings Bonds by postmasters throughout the country and the transfer of accounts of all clerks of United States courts and United States marshals from the books of depository banks to the books of the Treasurer of the United States under the provisions of the Permanent Appropriation Repeal Act, approved June 26, 1934, necessitated extensive revision of depository arrangements. Funds of the Philippine Government also were transferred from the books of depository banks to the books of the Treasurer of the United States. The liquidation of Government claims against depository banks declared insolvent proceeded with orderly dispatch.

Treasury Circular No. 176, dated September 2, 1930, was amended by the addition of an eighth supplement, dated April 23, 1935. This supplement will be found as exhibit 48 on page 279.

Section of Surety Bonds

On June 30, 1935, there were 64 domestic companies holding certificates of authority from the Secretary of the Treasury under the act of Congress approved August 13, 1894, as amended by the act approved March 23, 1910, qualifying them as sole sureties on recognizances, stipulations, bonds, and undertakings permitted or required by the laws of the United States, to be given with one or more sureties. There were also 1 domestic company and 5 branches of foreign companies holding certificates of authority authorizing them to act only as reinsurers on bonds in favor of the United States. The only change in the outstanding certificates of authority during the year was the issuance of one additional certificate of authority.

Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants

The Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, in the name of the Secretary of the Treasury, issues all warrants on the Treasurer of the United States, and under section 10 of the act of July 31, 1894 (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 255), keeps the official accounts relating to the receipt, appropriation, and expenditure of the public moneys, covering all departments and establishments of the Government. Other duties of the Division include the preparation of the annual digest of appropriations and the combined statement of receipts and expenditures, and the handling of duplicate checks, outstanding liability claims, budget matters, special deposit accounts, etc. The Division also maintains budgetary accounts relating to the apportionment and obligation of public funds covering all executive departments and independent establishments.

Statements of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the fiscal year 1935, compiled by this Division, are shown as tables 1 and 2, pages 296 to 315 of this report.

Division of Disbursement

The Division of Disbursement, organized December 16, 1933, under the provisions of section 4 of Executive Order No. 6166, has gradually absorbed the disbursing functions formerly exercised by the principal departments and establishments of the Government located in Washington, D. C., including the emergency as well as the regular Government activities, with the exception of the Post Office Department, the Panama Canal, and that portion of the War and Navy Departments relating to national defense.

On June 30, 1935, the total personnel of the Division was 1,189. During the year the Washington office of the Division issued 26,210,425 checks, and in addition made twice a month approximately 25,000 payments in cash to Federal employees located in Washington.

The Division of Disbursement continued the offices established in Oklahoma, Massachusetts, and North Dakota, for the purpose of disbursing relief administration funds in those States, and, at the request of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, established similar offices in Ohio, Louisiana, and Georgia.

Nineteen regional offices were established during the year by the Division of Disbursement in the following cities:

Albuquerque, N. Mex.
Atlanta, Ga.
Boston, Mass.
Chicago, Ill.
Cleveland, Ohio.
Dallas, Tex.
Denver, Colo.
Helena, Mont.
Kansas City, Mo.
Los Angeles, Calif.

Minneapolis, Minn.
New Orleans, La.
New York City, N. Y.
Philadelphia, Pa.
Portland, Oreg.
Salt Lake City, Utah.
San Francisco, Calif.
Seattle, Wash.
St. Louis, Mo.

As of June 30, 1935, the disbursing functions of 298 separate offices had been transferred to these regional offices. By Executive order the time for completing the consolidation of disbursing functions was extended to December 31, 1935.

The Division continued the work of making disbursements in connection with emergency purchases of livestock, seed, and commodities under the drought relief program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in offices established for this purpose at Minneapolis, Kansas City, and San Francisco. An additional office for this purpose was also established in Chicago. As the work under this program drew to a close, the separate disbursing offices were closed and the remaining work was transferred to the regular regional disbursing offices. A temporary office was established and operated for about 6 months at Lexington, Ky., for the purpose of making rental and benefit payments on tobacco under the Agricultural Adjustment Administration program. There has also been established an office in the Philippine Islands, principally for the purpose of making rental and benefit payments on sugar, but in addition the disbursing functions of other Federal offices located there have been absorbed.

The duties of the Division of Disbursement in connection with disbursements under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 have been referred to above.

DIVISION OF APPOINTMENTS

Number of employees

There were 16,958 employees in the Treasury Department in Washington on June 30, 1935, a net increase of 1,593 for the fiscal year. The principal increase occurred in the Procurement Division as a consequence of the expanded public works program. In the Bureau of Internal Revenue additional personnel was required for the administration of various new tax laws. The principal decrease was in the office of the Treasurer of the United States.

In the field service the force expanded from 45,245 on June 30, 1934, to 48,908 on June 30, 1935, a net gain of 3,663. The largest increases occurred in the field forces of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Bureau of the Mint, the latter as a result of activities connected with gold and the operation of the Silver Purchase Act.

The number of employees in the departmental service of the Treasury, classified according to bureaus and offices, at the end of each month, from June 30, 1934, through June 30, 1935, is shown in table 49, page 436 of this report. A comparison of the number of employees in the departmental and field services of the Treasury on June 30, 1934, and June 30, 1935, is contained in table 50, page 437.

Retirement of employees

During the fiscal year 1935 there were 596 persons retired from the departmental and field services of the Treasury Department. Under the provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act, as amended, and of section 204 of the Economy Act of June 30, 1932, 207 persons were retired from the departmental service of the Treasury Department, 18 of whom were retired at their own option before the compulsory retirement age; and 237 were retired from the field service, 17 at their own option. Under the provisions of section 8 (a) of the Independent Offices Appropriation Act of June 16, 1933, which provision expired June 30, 1935, 100 persons in the departmental service and 52 in the field service, who had served 30 years or more, were retired because of necessary reduction of force.

Three employees in the field service, who had reached the retirement age, were retained under the authority of the President provided in section 204 of the Economy Act.

Table 51, page 437, shows the number of persons retired and the number who have passed the compulsory retirement age retained in the departmental and field services of the Treasury from August 20, 1920, to June 30, 1935.

BUDGET AND IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

The Budget and Improvement Committee is responsible, under the direction of the Budget officer, for the preparation and examination of Treasury estimates of appropriations and for the improvement of administrative methods and procedure within the Treasury Department. In addition to examining all estimates, the committee makes inquiries as to the reserves which may be set up under the various appropriations and considers other matters affecting expenditures of the Department.

Subsequent to the submission of the regular estimates of appropriations for the fiscal year 1936, supplemental and deficiency estimates aggregating $116,856,994 were received. After examination by the Budget officer, with the assistance of the committee, these estimates were reduced to $116,781,619 and submitted to the Acting Director of the Bureau of the Budget.

Reserves amounting to $2,631,670 were set aside from ordinary appropriations for the fiscal year 1935 by the Acting Director of the Bureau of the Budget. During the year $1,273,822 was released by the Acting Director, after approval of the committee, leaving $1,357,848 in reserve at the end of the year. For the fiscal year 1936, the Acting Director set aside $225,350 in reserve.

For the fiscal year 1937, heads of bureaus and offices submitted estimates for annual and permanent and indefinite appropriations aggregating $1,690,654,931. After examination by the Budget and Improvement Committee, items aggregating $40,573,475 were disapproved in estimates for annual appropriations. There was approved and submitted to the Acting Director of the Bureau of the Budget for annual appropriations, $243,429,238; for permanent and indefinite appropriations and special funds, $3,030,468; trust funds, $17,596,750; interest on the public debt, $805,000,000; and public debt retirements chargeable against ordinary receipts, $581,025,000, making a grand total of $1,650,081,456.

COAST GUARD

The following is a summary of the principal operations of the Coast Guard for the fiscal year 1935, including comparisons with the preceding year:

Protection to navigation

International service of ice observation and ice patrol.—This service was conducted during the season of 1935 by two cutters and one 125-foot patrol boat, the cutters being assigned to ice patrol duty and the patrol boat to oceanographic observations. One of the cutters sailed from Boston, Mass., on March 9 to determine the extent of ice conditions in the Grand Banks region. It was found that icebergs were approaching the North Atlantic Lane Route, United States Track "C." Accordingly, the patrol was inaugurated on March 14, and steamships were routed to the more southern track "B" a month earlier than usual. The patrol boat sailed from Boston on March 19 to join the ice patrol force, and the other cutter sailed from New York on March 22. Throughout the season the two cutters, basing at Halifax, Nova Scotia, maintained a continuous patrol in the ice regions, each vessel standing duty in the Grand Banks area for periods of 15 days. The patrol boat, basing at St. John's, Newfoundland, prepared and furnished the patrol force throughout the season with current maps indicating the direction and velocity of the masses of water in the Grand Banks area. In addition to furnishing information to individual ships upon request, the position of all ice sighted and reported was broadcast four times daily by the vessel on patrol. This information was disseminated in radio broadcasts by the Hydrographic Office. The ice season was normal, reaching its peak during the period April 22 to May 8, when 341 icebergs were reported south of the 48th parallel and 20 south of the 43d parallel. The southernmost berg reached as far south as the 41st parallel during the early part of July. On July 9 the patrol was discontinued. The patrol boat, with the view of gaining further knowledge of conditions bearing upon the ice menace in the North Atlantic, sailed on an oceanographic survey of an extensive and little-known area lying several hundred miles east of Newfoundland and south of Greenland to determine the effect that conditions prevailing in this region may have on the drift of Arctic ice. The patrol boat will continue this oceanographic survey until about September 1.

Winter patrol.—The President, on the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury of November 9, 1934, designated 14 Coast Guard vessels to perform special winter cruises along the coast for the season of 1934–35 to aid distressed vessels. The vessels engaged on this duty cruised 69,087 miles, and afforded assistance to 70 vessels whose values including cargoes amounted to $2,072,195. There were 609 persons on board the vessels assisted. The vessels boarded in the interest of United States laws numbered 436.

Anchorage and movements of vessels.—During the year the Coast Guard maintained supervision over the enforcement of the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of Commerce governing the anchorage and movements of vessels in ports and in localities where Federal regulations are in force. At the larger ports, Coast Guard officers, designated as “captains of the port”, perform this duty, and also cooperate in the enforcement of the regulations promulgated by the Interstate Commerce Commission governing the handling of explosives by vessels. In smaller localities periodic inspections are made, and a surveillance is maintained to insure compliance with the published regulations.

International yacht races.—International yacht races were held off Newport, R. I., September 15 to September 25, 1934. Under authority of law, the Secretary of Commerce requested the Coast Guard to patrol and enforce the regatta laws during this event. Fourteen Coast Guard vessels, seven Navy vessels, a Navy seaplane, and several private craft conducted the patrol under the command of a designated Coast Guard officer.

Enforcement of customs and other laws

The usual duties of the Coast Guard in connection with the enforcement of the customs, navigation, and motor-boat laws of the United States and the customary assignment of Coast Guard vessels at the principal ports of the country to assist the customs authorities were continued during the year. Assistance was also afforded to other branches of the Government in the enforcement of Federal laws.

Liquor smuggling.—The resumption of liquor smuggling on the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coasts near the close of the fiscal year 1934 presented a problem which the Coast Guard was not fully prepared to meet because of material reductions in appropriations, personnel, and facilities. As the result, however, of a deficiency appropriation, the coordination of efforts with other Treasury agencies engaged in the prevention of smuggling, and through the co-operation of foreign governments, the smuggling of bulk cargoes of alcohol was greatly reduced in volume at the end of the fiscal year as compared with the peak of April 1935. Numerous seizures of foreign and domestic vessels and cargoes were made during the year. The prompt realization of the renewal of smuggling emphasized the value of the maintenance of a highly specialized intelligence organization within the Service. Furthermore, the maintenance of an adequate preventive force for scouting the waters off our coast assures prompt action if the traffic recurs.

Patrol in northern waters.—The regular annual patrol of the waters of the North Pacific Ocean, Bering Sea, and southeastern Alaska for the season of 1934, in progress at the beginning of the fiscal year 1935, was carried on by nine Coast Guard vessels. The vessels cruised 78,116 miles, assisted 6 vessels, boarded 60 vessels, afforded medical and dental aid to 3,055 persons, and transported 273 persons. The dental clinic on shore at Unalaska afforded relief to 563 persons. The patrol for the season of 1935 was in progress at the close of the fiscal year.

Northern Pacific halibut fishery.—The patrol, conducted annually by the Coast Guard for the Bureau of Fisheries, Department of Commerce, in the interests of law enforcement, was performed during the year by three cutters and one 125-foot patrol boat. These vessels cruised 5,949 miles between September 20, 1934, and April 27, 1935.

Communications

Telephone and telegraph lines and cables.—The Coast Guard owns and operates a coastal communication system consisting of telephone and telegraph lines of approximately 1,522 miles of pole line, 2,699 miles of open wire aerial circuits, 31 miles of aerial and underground cables, and 642 miles of submarine cable. A number of line and cable replacement projects, begun during the previous year, were completed, and the new circuits were placed in service. Underground entrance cables and new switching facilities were installed at many stations. Old lines were replaced and partial replacement was made at various points. New submarine cables were laid in several localities in place of old cables no longer serviceable.

A scientific investigation was made of submarine cables purchased during recent years, and improved designs and specifications were prepared which will add materially to the life of cables purchased and laid in the future. Investigations were continued covering new methods and apparatus to be employed in increasing the efficiency and life of the telephone plants.

Radio.—The construction of a new radio traffic station at Jacksonville Beach, Fla., was completed; and also new radio stations at the air stations at Salem, Mass., St. Petersburg, Fla., Biloxi, Miss., and Port Angeles, Wash. The addition of these new stations has greatly increased the efficiency of communications in the divisions in which they are located. The radio traffic stations at Winthrop, Mass., and Rockaway Point, N. Y., and the minor radio station at New London, Conn., were turned over to the Navy for a trial period of 2 years.

The program for the standardization and improvement of radio installations on vessels and aircraft was continued. Radio equipment has been designed and developed to meet the special needs of aviation and practically all interference to radio reception caused by electrical induction has been eliminated on planes. The development of radio-direction finders for aircraft has progressed, and all Coast Guard aircraft are now equipped with direction-finding apparatus. The installation of radio equipment in lifeboats and at Coast Guard stations has progressed and has proved definitely, in many instances, the value of such a plan.

The Coast Guard continues to make analytical studies of distress cases off the coasts of the United States in which radio plays an important part. The number of distress calls, made direct to the Coast Guard, is steadily increasing, indicating a growing dependence of shipping on the service.

An officer of the Coast Guard continued to represent the Treasury Department on the Interdepartmental Radio Advisory Committee.

Equipment

Floating equipment.—On June 30, 1935, there were in commission in the Coast Guard 36 cruising cutters, 52 harbor craft, 4 special craft, eighteen 165-foot patrol boats, twenty-eight 125-foot patrol boats, eleven 100-foot patrol boats, six 78-foot patrol boats, fifty-eight 75-foot patrol boats, 82 picket boats, and 24 miscellaneous patrol boats. Eighty-five seized boats were also in use. This floating equipment does not include the primarily life-saving boat equipment attached to Coast Guard vessels and stations.

The program for the construction of seven 327-foot cruising cutters is still under way. During the year five 165-foot cutters, four 110-foot harbor cutters, and nine 165-foot patrol boats were completed and placed in operation.

A number of harbor craft were transferred from the Bureau of Customs during the year, and 26 of these boats are in operation at the present time. Three cutters were sold, one was transferred to the Federal Emergency Relief Administration for the use of the State of Michigan, and one was decommissioned. Six harbor craft were disposed of, three were decommissioned, and two 100-foot patrol boats were transferred to the Navy Department.

In addition to the work performed during the year by the repair depot on vessels of the service, routine and major repairs to vessels were made under contract with private shipyards and the various navy yards. Major repairs were accomplished on four cutters. Ten 125-foot patrol boats were sheathed, and new engines installed in six other boats of this class.

Small boats.—The first 52-foot motor lifeboat, embodying many modern improvements, was completed at the Coast Guard depot during the year and assigned to the Sandy Hook Coast Guard Station, N. J. The second such boat will be completed in August 1935, and will be assigned to Point Adams Coast Guard Station, Oreg.

The pulling and motor self-bailing surfboat designs have been revised to the extent that balsawood buoyancy blocks have been substituted for the side air cases and the planking has been slightly modified on the interior to give a flush surface, which insures a much higher degree of water-tightness than was formerly obtainable.

Work is in progress on the design of a boat to supersede the 26-foot motor launch. Requirements of this boat call for better seaworthy qualities and slightly higher speed with increased carrying capacity.

Contracts were awarded during the year for two 30-foot rescue boats of the sea skiff type, nine motor speed boats, and numerous skiffs, dories, and other miscellaneous boats.

Experimental investigations and tests in the related fields of special metals, woods, marine equipment, fittings, and outfits were continued, as were also special investigations and research in connection with the accelerated corrosion of sheathing and other definite problems evidenced by service needs.

Aviation.—During the year air stations were established at Biloxi, Miss., Salem, Mass., St. Petersburg, Fla., and Port Angeles, Wash. The air station at Gloucester, Mass., was decommissioned when the Salem air station was commissioned.

Funds were allotted for building new air stations at Charleston, S. C., and San Diego, Calif., and for a new hangar and shops at Cape May, N. J. Contracts were awarded for the building of two airplanes, a radio test plane accepted by the Coast Guard on September 19, 1934, and a convertible seaplane accepted on February 20, 1935. Nine Grumman and ten Douglas amphibians were procured on Navy contract during the year and are now in service. Six more Grumman amphibians are being constructed under Navy contract.

The following statement indicates the activities of the various air stations and air patrol detachments of the Coast Guard, and shows the number of planes checked by Coast Guard (life-saving) stations:

Number of planes sighted and checked at Coast Guard (life-saving) stations--	15,617
Miles cruised by aircraft-----	527,756
Area in square miles searched-----	6,601,192
Hours in the air-----	5,709
Vessels identified by aircraft-----	16,225
Planes identified by aircraft-----	2,049
Cases of assistance rendered by aircraft-----	143
Emergency cases transported by air-----	42
Stills located and destroyed-----	159

Fifteen commissioned officers of the Coast Guard were graduated from the Naval Air Station, at Pensacola, Fla., as naval aviators, and 10 enlisted men of the Coast Guard were graduated from the same station as aviation pilots.

Officers of the Coast Guard established the following world's records for amphibian planes: On December 20, 1934, attaining a speed of 191.734 miles per hour; on June 25, 1935, attaining a speed of 173.945 miles per hour over a 100-kilometer course with a payload of 500 kilograms (about 1,100 pounds); and on June 27, 1935, attaining an altitude of 17,877.243 feet with a payload of 500 kilograms.

Ordnance.—During the year the new shoulder line-throwing equipment was perfected. With a modified .30 caliber Springfield rifle and a special projectile, a much greater average range has been attained than was previously possible.

The use of the light type wrecking outfits has been extended to the 165-foot and 125-foot patrol boats. They are now equipped to handle minor demolition operations independently, thereby saving time and expense in the removal of obstructions to navigation.

The installation of sound-powered telephone systems for fire control and intercommunication has been completed on all electric-drive cutters and greater efficiency in battle practice is expected as a result. To the same end, deflection converters are being installed on 13 rangekeepers and the instruments are being modified for use with 5"/51 caliber guns. One 3"/50 caliber antiaircraft gun has been replaced by a 5"/51 caliber gun, and as soon as funds are available similar changes will be made on other vessels of the same class.

At the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury training of armed civilians of the Department in the use of small arms was conducted in the United States, in San Juan, P. R., and in Honolulu. At the close of the year 4,564 men were in training. About 3,000 men had completed the requirements for preliminary qualification, and 1,324 had fulfilled the requirements for advanced qualification. The ships on which systematic training has been conducted have made excellent scores in battle practice and their records have stimulated greater interest throughout the service. Marked improvement was shown in small arms practice.

The cooperation of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, which has made possible greater efficiency and economy in expenditures, is gratefully acknowledged.

The academy, stations, bases, repair depot, engine school, repair base, etc.

Coast Guard Academy.—During the fiscal year 69 cadets were appointed to the academy, 54 resigned, and 31 were graduated from the academy. Twenty-six of the graduates received permanent commissions as ensigns and five received temporary commissions as ensigns. There were 84 cadets under instruction at the end of the fiscal year.

The 1935 practice cruise left New London, Conn., on June 1, 1935. The itinerary includes United States and foreign ports.

Stations and bases.—On June 30, 1935, 242 Coast Guard (life-saving) stations were in an active status, and 3 shore bases were in commission. Rebuilding, repairs, alterations, additions, and improvements were completed during the year at a large number of shore units, and contracts were awarded and major work was begun at a number of other shore units.

Repair depot.—In the course of the year 11 Coast Guard vessels and boats were overhauled, reconditioned, or repaired at the repair depot, Curtis Bay, Md. The boat building shop at the depot constructed 161 standard and miscellaneous boats.

Engine school and repair base.—The consolidation of the reclamation plant, formerly operated at Base Nine, Cape May, N. J., with the engine school at Norfolk, Va., has worked to great advantage, since it has enabled students to take an active part in the work of reconditioning the various types of internal-combustion engines and in the conversion of aircraft engines for marine use. On June 30, 1935, there were 36 students under instruction, and it is expected that in the future 100 men will complete the course each year. During the year the engine school and repair base completely rebuilt 37 engines, of which 11 were installed in vessels and 23 were shipped to various units in the field. Approximately 250 pieces of electrical equipment, such as starters, generators, and magnetos were reconditioned mostly by students under instruction. Repair parts for certain engines were stocked and issued upon requisition.

Engineering competition

The engineering competition, which is conducted to stimulate efforts of the personnel and promote a spirit of friendly rivalry, tends to maintain the personnel and material in the highest possible state of readiness and efficiency. During the year 30 cruising cutters and 46 patrol boats took part in this competition.

Personnel

On June 30, 1935, there were on the active list of the Coast Guard, 477 regular and 7 temporary commissioned officers; 84 cadets; 73 chief warrant officers and 519 regular warrant officers; 154 temporary warrant officers, 152 of whom were on duty with the War Department under orders contained in Executive order 6169; 9,095 enlisted men, and 286 civilian employees in the field, 243 of whom were per diem civilian employees at the Coast Guard depot, Curtis Bay, Md.

Recruiting.—Four main recruiting stations were in operation at the beginning of the fiscal year, and 3 main stations and 2 substations were opened during the year. Of 10,873 applicants for enlistment, 1,068 were enlisted, 3,038 were rejected because of physical disability, and 6,767 rejected for other causes. Loss in personnel, other than through expiration of enlistments, was very low, and 82 percent of the men eligible to reenlist did so upon the expiration of enlistments.

Training.—The training courses provided for enlisted men were availed of by a number of men who desired advancement along lines for which special training was necessary. The Coast Guard Institute at New London, Conn., continued to provide means to study for advancement in rating, and to prepare for further training in school courses. The facilities of the Fort Trumbull Training Station were also utilized for the training of men after which they were assigned to field duty. Educational courses of the International Correspondence Schools of Scranton, Pa., and a radio course of the Capitol Radio Engineering Institute of Washington, D. C., were also furnished. During the year 535 Coast Guard Institute educational certificates, 154 International Correspondence Schools diplomas, and 5 Capitol Radio Engineering Institute certificates were awarded.

Ordnance training was carried on at the Armorers' School at the Coast Guard Depot, Curtis Bay, Md., and at the Naval Gun Factory at Washington, D. C. Men were also assigned to the Navy Parachute Matériel School, Lakehurst, N. J., Navy Sound Motion Picture Technician's School, Navy Yard, Brooklyn, N. Y., and the Navy Aviation Instrument School, Philadelphia, Pa.

Awards of life-saving medals

The Secretary of the Treasury, under the provisions of law, awarded during the year seven silver life-saving medals of honor in recognition of bravery exhibited in the rescue or attempted rescue of persons from drowning in waters over which the United States has jurisdiction or upon an American vessel.

Appropriations and expenditures

The following table shows the amounts appropriated for the Coast Guard for the fiscal year 1935, together with the balances of appropriations from the previous year, and the expenditures and unexpended balance of each appropriation. This includes an additional allotment of $294,868 from the National Industrial Recovery appropriation, and allotments from special funds for rebuilding and improving Coast Guard stations, building or purchase of vessels for the Coast Guard, and working fund, Treasury, Coast Guard (Procurement Division, emergency construction).

Changes in the condition of national banks

The total assets of the 5,431 licensed national banks on June 29, 1935, aggregated $26,061,065,000, in comparison with assets of $23,901,592,000 reported by 5,422 licensed banks on June 30 the previous year. The deposits of the licensed banks in 1935 aggregated $22,518,246,000, or $2,585,586,000 more than the amount reported for licensed banks a year earlier. The loans and investments totaled $18,085,103,000, or $1,038,807,000 more than on June 30, 1934.

The assets and liabilities of licensed national banks on the date of each report from June 30, 1934, to June 29, 1935, are shown in the following statement:

Reopening and reorganization of national banks

On July 1, 1934, there remained in conservatorship, pursuant to the President's proclamation of March 6, 1933, 95 national banks with total deposits of $98,079,000. During the fiscal year 1935 the program with respect to reorganizing unlicensed national banks was completed, the last remaining conservatorship having been terminated on February 6, 1935.

Of the above-mentioned banks, 83, with deposits aggregating $91,059,000, were licensed to reopen under old or new charters or were absorbed by other national banks; 4, with deposits of $491,- 000, were placed in voluntary liquidation or received authorization for the sale of their assets to State banks; and 8, with deposits of $6,529,000, were placed in receivership.

At the close of the banking holiday, March 16, 1933, there were 1,410 national banks unlicensed (including 10 State banks in the District of Columbia, which are under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency), with total deposits of $1,955,072,000. In addition there were 6 banks for which licenses were granted but later revoked and 1 bank which suspended business prior to the banking holiday, bringing the total unlicensed banks to 1,417, with deposits of $1,971,960,000.

These 1,417 unlicensed banks were disposed of as follows: 1,096, with deposits of $1,808,060,000, were reorganized under old or new charters or absorbed by other national banks; 31, with deposits of $11,513,000, were placed in voluntary liquidation or acquired by State banks; and 290, with deposits of $152,387,000, were placed in receivership for liquidation under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency.

² The number of licensed banks in various classifications in this summary differs from the number of banks in similar classifications in the table on p. 98, owing to the fact that only such banks as were in active operation during all or part of the fiscal year are included in this summary, whereas the figures in the table on p. 98 concern the number of banks based on their corporate existence, whether or not they were active during the period.

Summary of changes in membership in the national banking system

The authorized common capital stock of the 5,463 national banks in existence on June 30, 1935, was $1,292,854,881, a decrease during the year of $61,573,860; and the authorized preferred capital stock was $526,035,287, an increase of $113,071,687. The net increase in capital stock was $51,497,827. During the year charters were issued to 128 national banking associations, of which 25 had common stock only, aggregating $2,535,000; the remaining 103 banks had an aggregate of $7,077,000 common stock and $7,903,000 preferred stock.

During the year 899 existing national banks took advantage of the provisions of the act of March 9, 1933, and increased their capital by the issuance of preferred stock of an aggregate par value of $119,263,000, while 218 banks with preferred stock effected retirements of an aggregate par value of $13,426,813. Although charters were issued during the year to 128 banks, there was a net decrease of 170 in the number of banks—that is, from 5,633 to 5,463—by reason of voluntary liquidations, receiverships, and consolidations.

BUREAU OF CUSTOMS*Collections*

The fiscal year 1935 was the second successive year since 1929 in which customs collections increased over those for the preceding year. Total collections of $346,514,550 represented an increase of 10.3 percent over 1934 and 37.9 percent over 1933. This increase was largely the result of increased collections from duties on imported liquors and wines and on imports of relatively large quantities of agricultural products and their derivatives, largely in consequence of the drought in the summer of 1934. Collections of duties on imported liquors and wines in 1935 amounted to $41,018,755 as compared with $24,023,703 collected during the last 7 months of the fiscal year 1934 following repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

Entries of merchandise.—The number of entries of merchandise increased 12.1 percent, from 2,140,414 in 1934 to 2,399,263 in 1935. All types of entries contributed to this increase.

Vessel, airplane, and highway traffic.—The number of vehicles and passengers entering the United States from abroad increased in practically all cases during the fiscal year 1935 compared with the preceding year, as shown in the following detailed statement:

Drawback transactions.—The number of drawback entries increased 11.9 percent in 1935, 17,319 such entries having been made in 1934, and 19,377 in 1935. Drawback payments amounted to $13,813,853 in 1935 as compared with $8,076,988 in 1934, an increase of 71 percent. Of the notices of intent to export with the benefit of drawback, 160,609 original notices were filed in 1934 and 177,777 in 1935; and 50,608 in 1934 and 66,814 in 1935 were forwarded to other districts for final disposition. The total number of notices of intent handled during 1935 was, therefore, 15.8 percent greater than during 1934.

Under authority of section 318 of the Tariff Act of 1930, the President, by proclamations dated November 8, December 21, and December 22, 1934, and January 7 and April 1, 1935, declared an emergency to exist and authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to extend the time during which merchandise imported during 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932 may remain in warehouse under the provisions of sections 557 and 559 of the Tariff Act of 1930; the time during which proof may be furnished that wool or camel's hair imported or withdrawn from bonded warehouse conditionally free of duty, under bond, during 1930, 1931, and 1932 has been used in the manufactures prescribed in paragraph 1101 of the Tariff Act of 1930; and the time within which articles manufactured or produced with the use of merchandise imported during certain periods of 1930, 1931, and 1932 may be exported with the benefit of drawback under section 313 of the Tariff Act of 1930. Pursuant to these proclamations, the Secretary of the Treasury issued Treasury Decisions 47367, 47473, 47474, 47486, 47519, and 47662 granting the extensions authorized in the proclamations.

Enforcement activities

Seizures.—The total number of seizures made during 1935 for violations of the customs laws was 20,896, a decrease of 17,945 from the previous year. The greater part of the decrease reflected the decline in the number of lottery seizures from 22,883 in 1934 to 9,313 in 1935, due to the practice which has been adopted of transferring a large portion of these cases to the Post Office authorities. The number of liquor seizures also declined following repeal of the eighteenth amendment and was 5,224 in 1935 as compared with 11,721 in 1934.

Although the number of seizures declined during 1935, the total value of seizures increased to $2,403,910, of which $222,214 represented the value of seized distilled malt and fermented liquor which was not included in the value of seizures reported for 1934. On a comparable basis, the value of seizures was $2,181,696 in 1935 and $1,115,492 in 1934, or an increase of 95.6 percent in 1935. The greater part of this increase was due to larger seizures of alcohol, amounting to 138,040 gallons valued at $1,417,493, as compared with 44,924 gallons valued at $345,443 during 1934. The quantity of liquor seized declined from 148,173 gallons in 1934 to 23,273 gallons in 1935. Seizures of malt liquor also declined from 9,865 gallons in 1934 to 668 gallons in 1935. Liquor seizures during 1935 were confined almost entirely to the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and the Rio Grande River, and the majority of alcohol seizures were made along the Atlantic coast.

The number of merchandise seizures during 1935 increased almost 80 percent from 3,057 to 5,448, with a corresponding increase in value from $227,104 to $307,712. The value of narcotic seizures also showed a moderate increase, from $40,869 in 1934 to $65,663 in 1935.

In connection with the violation of customs laws, 714 automobiles, 99 boats, and 6 airplanes, with an aggregate value of $390,828, were seized, a decrease of 72 automobiles, 62 boats, and 8 airplanes from the number seized in 1934. Customs officers also effected 2,594 seizures for other agencies of the Government, and detained 713 persons for violation of immigration, narcotic, and other laws.

Fines, penalties, etc.—Collections of fines, penalties, etc., because of violation of laws pertaining to the Customs Service, aggregated $1,445,848 as compared with $774,366 during 1934. Of these amounts, $165,441 for 1935 and $88,249 for 1934 represented the net proceeds from the sale of the seized articles by collectors of customs.

Sales by order of court yielded $274,961 in 1935, or almost seven times the amount received from this source during the previous year. A large portion of the sales by both the collectors and the courts consisted of liquor and alcohol.

Undervaluations and false invoicing, aggregating $313,299, were responsible for over one-fifth of the collections of fines, penalties, etc., for 1935. Penalties for failure to declare foreign merchandise during the last 2 years were responsible for only 5 percent of the total fines collected, whereas in 1933 and prior years they constituted from one-fourth to one-half of all fines collected.

Smuggling

Through the activity and vigilance of customs field officers, substantial progress was made during the year in the detection and suppression of smuggling. The work of the customs personnel with respect to violations of customs laws and related statutes continued an important factor in the successful conclusion of a number of smuggling cases.

The system of handling criminal cases in connection with smuggling has resulted in securing a high percentage of convictions. All criminal cases incident to seizures effected by the Customs Service were investigated, reported, and followed through the courts by customs agents who collaborated with the United States attorney in the actual presentation of testimony during trials.

During the year an investigation into the smuggling of grain established the fact that there had been smuggled into the United States approximately 22,000 bushels of wheat valued at $27,000, including duty. Many individuals were indicted in connection with this movement, and a majority of them pleaded guilty and were sentenced by the Federal courts.

The Customs Agency Service, in cooperation with the customs border patrol, developed a major conspiracy case involving the smuggling of approximately 90,000 pounds of butter over the international boundary between Canada and the United States, which resulted in the institution of criminal proceedings against six individuals.

Many investigations into the smuggling of lottery tickets and foreign sweepstakes were made. The principal seizure was effected at Philadelphia, where 600,000 tickets, having a sale value of $900,000, were found concealed in a shipment of baled rags.

Other smuggling-prevention activities covered a large field of commodities, including fish nets, jewelry, watch movements, and telephone sets. In one case, involving the smuggling of diamonds and watch movements from a Belgian concern, the apprehension and conviction effected by the customs personnel put an end to a notorious organization known to have been in existence for at least 6 years.

During the year close cooperation was maintained with all enforcement agencies of the Government, and in particular with the coordinators (Coast Guard officers assigned by the Secretary to coordinate enforcement activities looking to the detection and prevention of the smuggling of liquor, alcohol, and narcotics) of the areas including the several customs agency districts.

Intensive investigation of liquor-smuggling activities of a British Columbia distillery company was conducted during the year, resulting in the indictment of two of its controlling officers by a Federal grand jury at Seattle on charges of conspiring to violate the Tariff Acts of 1922 and 1930. After an investigation by customs personnel of another Canadian corporation on similar charges, an offer in compromise of $225,000 was made by the company.

The increased activities of the Customs Service with respect to the prevention of smuggling of narcotics resulted in the seizure of comparatively large quantities of these drugs, and the indictment and sentence of several members of large narcotic-smuggling organizations.

Miscellaneous

Under the provisions of the act approved June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. L. 998, ch. 590), for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of foreign trade zones in ports of entry in the United States, the Foreign Trade Zones Board (composed of the Secretary of Commerce, Secretary of the Treasury, and Secretary of War) on June 29, 1935, issued regulations for the administration of the act. Many legal questions arose and were considered by the Bureau of Customs in connection with the formulation of these regulations.

The Bureau of Customs also participated actively in the consideration of the many legal questions arising in the administration's reciprocal tariff bargaining program. During the year reciprocal trade agreements providing for substantial reductions in duties at home and abroad were negotiated with 5 countries, and on June 30, 1935, negotiations were pending with 13 other countries. In addition to assisting in the formulation of the text of these agreements, particularly the parts which result in modifications of the tariff laws, the Bureau of Customs prepared and disseminated information and instructions to facilitate the administration of the provisions of agreements in effect, and to interpret language in the agreements about which controversies had arisen.

Investigative Unit

Port examinations.—During the fiscal year the Port Examination Commission of the Customs Agency Service made examinations of the accounts and procedures in seven collection districts, including New York, with the result that numerous irregularities in the manner of transacting customs business were corrected.

Undervaluation.—Investigation of undervaluation cases continued as an important factor in the work of customs personnel both at home and abroad. Because of the increased vigilance on the part of officers at all ports there was an apparent decrease in the efforts of dishonest importers to evade the payment of lawful duties. Recoveries made as a result of the investigations aggregated $120,948 as compared with $284,590 in 1934.

Criminal cases.—Many investigations were conducted during the year into the false invoicing of imported merchandise. Special attention was also given to the question of the foreign market value of merchandise imported from Mexico. Numerous cases have been discovered where merchandise from that country has not been assessed with the correct amount of duty. It is believed that as a result of these investigations appraising officers throughout the United States are for the first time afforded correct information as to the value in Mexico of imported merchandise, which covers a wide range of commodities.

Employees of the Investigative Unit have played a major part in the results, elsewhere referred to in this report, accomplished by the Customs Service. Many investigations were conducted into the false invoicing of imported merchandise, and a vigorous effort has been manifested by the customs agents to correct this unlawful practice.

It was found in one case that the importer was effecting a fraud upon the revenue by deducting an improper amount as trade discounts. The result of the investigation was reported to the United States Attorney General for proper action. In another case involving the same practice, the Attorney General accepted $20,991 from the importer as an offer in compromise in satisfaction of the Government's claim for duties, interest, and forfeitures value accruing on a series of importations made at Los Angeles, San Francisco, and Seattle.

Customs foreign service.—The foreign service officers of the Customs Service continued their efforts to establish foreign market values of merchandise exported to the United States, and were called upon from time to time to make investigations with respect to dumping, to the end that imported merchandise might be properly appraised. They also rendered invaluable service through their cooperation in the detection of narcotic smuggling.

Customs information exchange.—This branch of the Customs Agency Service is directed by supervising customs agents and is the medium employed for disseminating all classes of information with respect to foreign-market values, classification of imported merchandise, and other pertinent and related customs data. It is likewise a clearing house for requests for foreign investigations by appraising officers and for reports submitted by Treasury attachés. The following statement summarizes the activities of the exchange during the year:

	Number
Appraisers' reports of values received.....	13,323
Appraisalment appeal reports received.....	2,284
Changes in value circulated.....	2,453
Requests for investigations abroad.....	1,582
Reports received in response to requests for investigations abroad.....	1,847
Reports received of original investigations by Treasury attachés, and price lists received from American consuls.....	5,554
Differences in classification reported.....	474

The exchange issues weekly bulletins, one giving a memorandum of various price lists and Treasury attachés' reports received, and the other a list of requests forwarded for investigations abroad, so that appraising officers interested in the same line of merchandise may request copies of these reports.

The supervising agent prepared memoranda for the Assistant Attorney General during the past year in cases where it appeared to him desirable to call to the attention of that officer certain questions of law and fact with regard to pending cases where documentary evidence was collected by the exchange.

Summary.—The following statement shows the results achieved through the activities of the Investigative Unit during the year insofar as direct results have a monetary measure or can be measured by a count of individual cases:

	Number
Ports examined.....	254
Drawback investigations.....	1,662
Foreign investigations conducted by members of the domestic service.....	1,069
Arrests.....	1,164
Convictions.....	701

Indictment cases pending.....	211
Seizures made.....	1,783
Seizures appraised.....	1,769
Seizures released or pending.....	243
	Amount
Appraised value of seized merchandise.....	$1,287,273
Merchandise entered free but found dutiable.....	24,091
Fines, penalties, and forfeitures incurred, exclusive of court fines.....	901,867
Ball forfeitures.....	245,218
Fines imposed by United States courts.....	130,965
Increased and additional duties collected.....	120,948
Deposits as offers in compromise.....	731,460
Proceeds of sale of seized merchandise.....	105,435

The actual recoveries and penalties covered into the Treasury as a result of either direct or indirect activities of the Customs Agency Service during the fiscal year aggregated $2,259,984, representing an increase of over $301,757 over the previous year.

BUREAU OF ENGRAVING AND PRINTING

Deliveries of currency, securities, stamps, and miscellaneous work by the Bureau during the year amounted to 366,380,624 sheets, as compared with 315,905,581 sheets for the previous year, an increase of 50,475,043 sheets. A comparative statement of deliveries of finished work follows:

¹ Includes $3,997.50 and $10,994 for salaries of employees transferred to the Procurement Division and the Division of Disbursement of the Treasury Department, in the fiscal years 1934 and 1935, respectively.

² An additional amount of $6,916.79 was received from sale of by-products and useless property and was deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

Spoilage of currency increased from 2.52 percent for 1934 to 3.33 percent for 1935.

The following dies for new postage stamps were engraved during the year:

Issue	Denomination cents
Special delivery air mail.....	16
Connecticut Tercentenary.....	3
California-Pacific International Exposition, San Diego.....	3
National parks, series 1934.....	2 to 10, inclusive

An increase in the volume of new orders was sufficient to keep the entire force of the Bureau operating full time in the last 5 months of the fiscal year. The rotating furlough was eliminated on February 1, 1935.

The greatest demand for work during the year occurred in connection with the printing of checks, bonds, revenue stamps, and silver certificates. All orders received were urgent, and extra shifts were frequently established until sufficient engraved stock was available.

The largest bond orders came from the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and aggregated more than 10,000,000 sheets. The manufacture of dies and plates for the various denominations of United States Saving Bonds required a large amount of original engraving. In addition, certificates of indebtedness, Treasury notes, and bonds were printed in connection with the Treasury financing program.

The printing of checks for the Emergency Relief Administration necessitated extra shifts. Special stamps were prepared for bottled distilled spirits and, as a protection against their illegal use, a number was overprinted on each stamp, requiring an increase in the size of the stamps and necessitating the purchase of 500 numbering machines. A design was approved and die engraved for the new series of 1935 silver certificates.

The Bureau sponsored an exhibit of printing at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago, and a similar exhibit at the California-Pacific International Exposition at San Diego.

COMMITTEE ON ENROLLMENT AND DISBARMENT OF ATTORNEYS AND AGENTS

On September 1, 1934, the Committee on Enrollment and Disbarment of Attorneys and Agents was reorganized and its number reduced to three. The first work of the reorganized committee was to revise the regulations governing the enrollment and disbarment of attorneys and other agents. The new regulations made the committee a purely administrative and judicial body and relieved it of its former prosecuting functions. An attorney, not a member of the committee, represents the Government before the committee; all complaints must be filed with him, and it is his duty to institute proceedings looking to disciplinary action. The committee conducts the hearings, ascertains the truth or falsity of the charges, and determines what kind of disciplinary action to recommend to the Secretary.

The following statement summarizes the work of the committee for the year 1935:

	Number

Since the organization in 1921 of the Committee on Enrollment and Disbarment, 39,163 applications for enrollment have been approved and 540 disapproved. One hundred and seventy-four practitioners have been disbarred from further practice before the Treasury Department, 122 have been suspended from practice for various periods, and 162 have been reprimanded. In 14 cases the order of disbarment has been terminated and the practitioner restored to good standing before the Department.

BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

General

Internal revenue collections.—Collections from internal revenue and agricultural adjustment taxes during the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are shown in the following summary, classified according to the administrative organization responsible for the audit of returns. A detailed statement of collections appears in table 7, page 341 of this report.

Refunds.—In the foregoing statement of collections no deductions were made on account of refunds, which during the fiscal year 1935 were paid from the several appropriations as follows:

Refunding taxes illegally collected, 1934 and prior years.....	$16,970,410.93

In addition to the above amount, there were certain repayments as provided under specific appropriations for the redemption of stamps, representing the return to the Government of stamps purchased by the taxpayer in excess of his requirements. The stamps so redeemed during the fiscal year, including interest, totaled $1,426,049.97. Total refunds and redemptions of stamps, classified by appropriations, are shown in the following table:

If the above refunds and repayments during the year were deducted from the gross collections of $3,299,435,572.18, the net collections for the fiscal year 1935 would be $3,241,887,369.21. The gross collections, however, are used for comparative purposes in this report.

Additional assessments.—Additional assessments resulting from office audits and field investigations amounted to $332,105,910.44, as shown in the following summary:

² Includes $29,847,939.06 from the Miscellaneous Tax Unit, $24,140,323 from the Accounts and Collections Unit, and $18,787,032.85 from the Alcohol Tax Unit.

³ Includes $1,898,517.27 from the Processing Tax Division and $13,797,615 from the Accounts and Collections Unit.

Cost of administration.—The amount expended and obligated in administering the internal revenue laws for the fiscal year 1935 was $42,719,338. This does not include the amounts expended for refunding taxes illegally or erroneously collected and for redemption of stamps, which are in no sense administrative expenses. The amount expended and obligated in administering the agricultural adjustment tax laws for the fiscal year 1935 was $4,851,674. A summary comparison for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 of the amounts obligated under the various appropriations for administrative expenses, the amounts of taxes collected, and the cost of collecting each $100 of revenue is as follows:

Amounts expended, obligated, and collected, and the cost of collecting each $100 of revenue, fiscal years 1934 and 1935

² Includes approximately $10,700,000 for administrative expenses of the Alcohol Tax Unit, the first full year after the consolidation of the Bureau of Industrial Alcohol with the Bureau of Internal Revenue, and restoration of salary cost for the entire Internal Revenue Service.

Income Tax Unit

The Income Tax Unit is charged with the duty of auditing and closing all income tax returns except those filed on form 1040A. Returns filed on form 1040A (returns of individuals reporting income, chiefly from salaries and wages, of less than $5,000) are audited in the collectors' offices under the supervision of the Accounts and Collections Unit.

³ Includes some returns with respect to which final notices of deficiency (90-day letters) were mailed prior to the beginning of the year.

Additional revenue.—Additional revenue made available for collection (exclusive of jeopardy assessments) was $179,039,568.49 as compared with $194,030,746.36 the previous year. The field forces of the Income Tax Unit secured agreements to the immediate assessment and collection of $23,797,541.50, while $155,242,026.99 was assessed after consideration in Washington.

The additional revenues are classified in the following table to show the additional tax, interest, and penalty, and also the procedure involved in reaching a settlement with the taxpayers.

Additional taxes were also assessed under the jeopardy provisions of the several revenue acts, as follows:

Final notices of deficiency (90-day letters).—During the year 14,529 final notices of deficiency (90-day letters) were mailed by the Income Tax Unit, as compared with 13,003 for the previous fiscal year.

Petitions were filed with the Board of Tax Appeals involving 31 percent of the returns with respect to which 90-day letters had been issued. This compares with 41 percent during the fiscal year 1934.

The following table shows the number of tax years involved in petitions filed with the Board of Tax Appeals during the fiscal years 1932 to 1935, inclusive:

NOTE.—The amount involved in claims filed during the year was $99,952,466.13 as compared with $176,132,959.94 the preceding year. Of the claims adjusted during the year the amounts rejected totaled $104,526,409.83 as compared with $113,340,642.51 the preceding year.

There were also allowed during the year 10,179 collectors' claims, of which 8,935 recommended abatements or credits and 1,244 recommended refunds. A collector's claim usually lists a number of items in favor of different taxpayers; those settled during the year covered 17,333 items for abatement or credit and 47,506 for refund.

Audit in the field.—There were 356,906 returns for all years pending for verification in the offices of the 38 field divisions of the Income Tax Unit on June 30, 1935, compared with 310,566 returns on hand June 30, 1934.

Changes in tax liability were recommended by the field forces in 165,361 returns, or in 32 percent of the 520,958 returns disposed of by the field forces during the year. In the case of 134,218 returns, or 81 percent of those changed, taxpayers agreed with the conclusions of revenue agents. The total additional tax recommended by revenue agents during the fiscal year was $265,967,439.62, compared with $203,510,465.96 in the preceding fiscal year.

The Technical Staff

The Technical Staff, organized November 16, 1933, considers (a) proposals for the settlement without further litigation of income, profits, estate, and gift taxes asserted in deficiency notices mailed under the various revenue acts and (b) questions involving determinations of Bureau policy, specific cases, and other matters assigned or submitted to it by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. In addition to its regular settlement work, the jurisdiction of the staff has been enlarged to include certain classes of compromise of income tax cases (excluding cases involving fraud or cases under the supervision of a court), applications for extension of time within which to pay income taxes under sections 56 (c) and 272 (j) of the Revenue Act of 1932 and the corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts, and the review in behalf of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of final closing agreements executed pursuant to section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1928.

On July 1, 1934, the technical staff had on hand 3,770 docketed cases pending before the Board of Tax Appeals. During the year the staff received 3,347 Board dockets, considered to a conclusion 3,058 Board cases, and settled 1,616 cases. The deficiencies proposed on cases recommended for settlement by the staff totaled $39,781,-473.88; the recomputed deficiencies (without eliminating the enforced credits in estate tax cases) were $21,287,302.03, making a settlement effectiveness of 54 percent. The settled docketed cases involving only income taxes showed the same settlement ratio with respect to the deficiency asserted in the statutory notice. During the fiscal year the staff considered 1,379 so-called "90-day status cases" of which 970 were disposed of without petitions being filed with the United States Board of Tax Appeals. These cases involved proposed deficiencies of $2,288,791.15 and recomputed deficiencies (not reduced by enforced credits in estate tax cases) of $1,217,869.73, or a settlement effectiveness of 53 percent.

On July 1, 1934, the staff had on hand 1,251 compromise cases; 1,500 cases were received during the year and 2,064 cases were disposed of, leaving a balance of 687 cases on June 30, 1935.

There were 448 extension-of-time cases turned over to the staff on February 26, 1935; between that time and June 30, 1935, 296 cases were received and 560 disposed of, leaving 184 cases on hand June 30, 1935.

In addition 462 final closing agreements submitted pursuant to section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1928 were reviewed by the staff in behalf of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Miscellaneous Tax Unit

The Miscellaneous Tax Unit administers all taxes other than the income and excess-profits taxes and the taxes applicable to alcoholic beverages. The unit consists of six divisions, the titles of which are indicative of the general type of taxes administered. Certain taxes, such as the tobacco taxes, occupational taxes, stamp taxes, certain excise taxes, estate taxes, etc., have been collected for many years. Others, such as the processing and related taxes imposed under the Agricultural Adjustment Act and similar legislation, the tax on transfers of interests in silver bullion, taxes on the refining and production of crude petroleum, certain new excise taxes, and a more involved capital stock tax, have resulted from recent legislation and have operated to increase greatly the volume of work in the Miscellaneous Tax Unit, with a consequent necessity for an increase in the personnel.

The total collections of miscellaneous taxes for the current fiscal year amounted to $1,781,647,593.50, an increase of $238,635,176.10 over the prior year.

Estate Tax Division.—Estate tax collections for the year amounted to $140,440,682.34, an increase of $36,455,394.30 over the preceding year. Gift tax collections amounted to $71,671,276.89, and exceeded collections for the previous year by $62,518,200.83. Transfers of property by gift during the year were valued at $505,844,720, as compared with $101,792,574 in the previous year. In addition to the estate and gift taxes actually collected, deficiencies in the amount of $21,742,842 were asserted in 242 cases upon which collection was withheld pending a review of appeals filed with the United States Board of Tax Appeals.

As a result of the audit of estate tax returns by the Bureau at Washington, deficiencies in tax amounting to $19,209,108.70 were assessed in 55.4 percent of the cases closed, as compared with $13,185,549.91 assessed in 52.5 percent of the cases closed in the prior year. Deficiencies in the gift tax were assessed in the amount of $345,383.51 in 2.4 percent of the cases closed, as compared with $138,097.51 assessed in 2.3 percent of the cases closed for the previous year.

The administrative work in connection with estate and gift tax returns is summarized in the following table:

Tobacco Division.—Collections of tobacco taxes for the year amounted to $459,178,625.46, which represents the largest annual collection from this source since these taxes were first imposed. The collections show an increase of $34,009,728.42, or approximately 8 percent over the previous year, and $8,839,564.96 more than the previous high collections in 1930. The sum of $385,459,570.66, or 84 percent of the total tobacco taxes received, was collected on small cigarettes, which represents a new high in collections from this source; but collections on large cigarettes and small cigars declined.

A detailed comparison of the tobacco taxes collected during the last 2 fiscal years follows:

Silver Tax Division.—The Silver Tax Division was organized in July 1934, for the purpose of administering the tax imposed under the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, approved June 19, 1934. Collections of silver tax for the year amounted to $1,149,390.48; and adjustments by way of refunds and redemptions amounted to $4,770.26.

Sales Tax Division.—The yield from the taxes administered by the Sales Tax Division was $491,477,138.80, a decrease of $61,636,702.29 from the previous year. This decrease is due mainly to a reduction in the rate of tax applicable to gasoline from 1½ cents to 1 cent a gallon, effective January 1, 1934; the repeal of the tax on checks as of January 1, 1935, and of taxes on candy, soft drinks, and boats; the reduction in the rate of tax on sales of produce for future delivery; and the elimination of the tax on articles made of fur selling for less than $75 and on articles of jewelry selling for less than $25.

There was no legislation enacted during the current year which repealed or modified any of the taxes administered by the Sales Tax Division. The manufacturers' excise taxes and other taxes imposed under the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended, which would have terminated at the end of this year, were continued in effect until June 30 or July 31, 1937, by Public Resolution No. 36, approved June 28, 1935.

There were 8,269 sales tax credit cases totaling $3,139,846.29 on hand at the beginning of the year; 11,763 cases amounting to $4,990,122.03 were received; 15,519 cases amounting to $6,259,598.66 were disposed of, leaving on hand at the end of the year 4,513 sales tax credit cases amounting to $1,870,369.66.

A total of $737,974,518.22, representing 1,131,858 items, was approved by the Commissioner on miscellaneous assessment lists. There was included in these lists $29,847,939.06 representing 32,454 additional assessments resulting from office audit and field investigation. The interest paid and assessed on the miscellaneous tax lists amounted to $4,174,607.53. The miscellaneous lists do not include the processing and related taxes, the taxes on the transfers of interest in silver bullion, or the taxes collected on the sale of stamps.

During the year there were received and examined 607,720 returns filed by taxpayers in connection with taxes administered by the Sales Tax Division.

The number of offers in compromise submitted in settlement of liabilities incurred in connection with sales, tobacco, estate, gift, narcotics, capital stock, and miscellaneous stamp and special taxes, and the aggregate amounts thereof received and disposed of are shown in the following table:

The number of offers in compromise considered during the year was 534 involving a total amount of $91,828.96.

Assessment of 697,992 items representing a tax liability of $588,-218,914.52 was made during the year on the processing tax lists. This amount includes 5,652 additional assessments totaling $4,898,-517.27 as a result of office audit or field investigation.

Capital Stock Tax Division.—Collections of capital stock tax during the year amounted to $91,508,121.29, an increase of $11,339,777.16, or approximately 14 percent over the preceding year.

As the result of the audit of capital stock tax returns 5,673 assessments involving $894,806.71 were made.

The claims for refund and abatement of capital stock taxes, penalties, and interest received and adjusted in the Capital Stock Tax Division are shown in the following table.

Alcohol Tax Unit

On June 30, 1935, the following legitimate producers and distributors of alcohol and alcoholic beverages, and users of tax-free alcohol, were under the supervision of the Alcohol Tax Unit: 36 alcohol distilleries; 89 whisky, rum, and gin distilleries; 137 brandy distilleries; 70 alcohol warehouses; 137 whisky, rum, gin, and brandy warehouses; 1,107 wineries; 88 bonded wine storerooms; 702 breweries; 383 rectifying plants; 4,510 wholesale liquor dealers; 40 denaturing plants; 68 bonded dealers in specially denatured alcohol; 4,155 bonded manufacturers using specially denatured alcohol; and 5,966 hospitals, laboratories, and educational institutions using tax-free alcohol.

Enforcement Division.—The Enforcement Division is responsible for the investigation, detection, and prevention of willful and fraudulent violations of the internal revenue laws relating to distilled spirits, wines, and fermented malt liquors. The Division plans and coordinates the enforcement functions of the 15 administrative districts, supervises the activities of the investigators, and provides for their general instruction.

During the year 15,712 stills having an aggregate mash capacity of 2,853,739 gallons were seized, and in connection therewith 21,373,107 gallons of mash were found and destroyed. Investigators also seized 863,375 gallons of spirits and 4,837 automobiles and trucks. The total appraised value of property seized amounted to $5,632,145.

A total of 31,625 persons were arrested for Federal liquor law violations, but, in the case of 2,104 persons, the arrests were made by State and local officers on information furnished by investigators of the Alcohol Tax Unit. During the year, 25,408 cases were reported to United States attorneys.

During the year, 283 applications for pardon, and 3,377 applications for parole were received; and 282 applications for pardon and 2,841 applications for parole were examined and reports submitted.

Audit Division.—There were on hand at the beginning of the year 5,728 claims for refund, redemption, abatement, and uncollectible claims, aggregating $1,202,406.35. During the year 20,587 claims were received, in the amount of $7,695,095.31. Of the claims to be disposed of, 19,064 were allowed and 1,943 were rejected, in the aggregate amount of $5,405,245.47, leaving on hand at the end of the year 5,308 claims, aggregating $3,492,256.19, classified as follows: 442 refund claims amounting to $707,076.97; 420 redemption claims,

At the beginning of the year 14,991 offers in compromise, aggregating $176,578.69, were on hand; and during the year, 45,362 offers were received, the total amounting to $600,682.54. Of the foregoing, 49,809 offers, amounting to $387,962.38, were accepted; 1,013, amounting to $60,628.20, were rejected; and 82, amounting to $9,597.25, were withdrawn; leaving 9,449 offers, aggregating $319,073.40, at the end of the year.

The audit of floor tax returns required by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 was completed during the year. There were 75,804 returns filed, reporting floor taxes aggregating $8,699,139.17.

The Tax Section certified to the Commissioner 1,304 assessment lists, which carried 24,673 items, totaling $18,787,032.65, listed by the Section, and 213,357 items, aggregating $19,283,749.68, listed by collectors.

Laboratory Division.—The Laboratory Division comprises a chemical laboratory in Washington, D. C., and 14 branch laboratories located throughout the country. These laboratories perform all the chemical work for the Bureau of Internal Revenue and Bureau of Narcotics, as well as work for the Federal Alcohol Control Administration and Bureau of Customs.

A new distillery procedure was initiated which transferred the major portion of the manual labor previously performed by Government officers to distillery employees. This procedure made it possible to release 133 storekeeper-gagers from distillery supervision for assignment to the Retail Liquor Dealer Section.

Accounts and Collections Unit

The Accounts and Collections Unit, which is the central administrative organization for the 64 collection districts, is divided into 3 divisions: The Collection Accounting Division; the Collectors' Personnel, Equipment, and Space Division; and the Disbursement Accounting Division.

Collection Accounting Division.—There were filed in collectors' offices during the year 8,313,342 tax returns, compared with 9,144,268 for the previous year, a decrease of 830,926. Of the total tax returns filed in 1935, there were 5,295,352 income tax returns compared with 4,933,376 filed during the previous year, an increase of 361,976.

Approximately 2,140,000 individual income tax returns, filed on form 1040-A, were audited and closed in collectors' offices during the year, and 4,242,479 information returns were verified. In connection with this audit work 60,268 income tax returns were investigated.

A total of 10,432,005,552 revenue stamps, valued at $941,713,682.42, was issued to collectors of internal revenue and the Postmaster General, compared with 9,351,968,114 stamps, valued at $833,901,971.05, issued during 1934. Stamps returned by collectors and by the Postmaster General amounted to $45,068,828.09, compared with $52,946,424.83 for 1934.

After the appropriate administrative procedure, collectors of internal revenue transmitted to the Bureau, or otherwise disposed of, 238,251 claims as compared with 151,470 during 1934, an increase of 86,781. The number of claims on hand at the close of the fiscal year 1935 was 7,481, compared with 6,878 at the close of the previous year. The increase in the number on hand at the end of the year was due principally to the increase in the number of claims filed during the year and to the necessity of corresponding with processing taxpayers for additional information before the claims could be forwarded to the Bureau.

During the year an average of 2,205 deputy collectors made 576,120 revenue-producing investigations in connection with the verification of returns, the discovery of delinquent returns, and the serving of warrants for distraint. The amount of tax involved in these investigations was $81,001,961, including $54,178,708 collected and $26,823,253 reported for assessment. The average number of investigations made per deputy was 264, and the average amount of tax collected and reported for assessment was $36,735. The average salary of the deputy collectors during the year was $1,970; and the average travel expense, $463. It will be seen that for every $2,433 invested in the services of a deputy collector $36,735 was returned to the Government in collections and amounts recommended for assessment.

The $81,001,961 collected and assessed for the fiscal year 1935, represents the largest amount produced by the field deputy collectors since 1920 when the present system of keeping production records went into effect, and the greatest amount in the history of the Bureau. The amounts involved for the various types of work were:

	Collected	Reported for assessment
Verification of tax returns.....	$4, 129, 111	$11, 183, 739
Delinquent taxpayers.....	15, 108, 117	15, 639, 514
Warrants for distraint.....	34, 941, 480	-----
Total.....	54, 178, 708	26, 823, 253

There were 118,221 warrants for distraint served by deputy collectors during the year, and on June 30, 1935, there were 62,132 warrants in the hands of the field forces for collection as compared with 52,425 on June 30, 1934.

Special attention has been given to the discovery of the various classes of delinquent taxes and to the collection of back taxes. That these efforts have been successful is evidenced by the fact that the total collections of such back taxes during the year, amounted to $185,641,136.64, which is $18,641,136.64 in excess of the estimates for the year.

The supervisors of accounts and collections submitted 105 reports covering their examinations of the accounts of the various collectors' offices compared with 100 reports submitted during 1934. Every collector's office was examined at least once and most of them twice during the year.

Collectors' Personnel, Equipment, and Space Division.—The organization of the processing tax divisions in collectors' offices was further strengthened and perfected to facilitate the collection of the processing, import compensating, and floor taxes imposed upon the various agricultural commodities under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended. A force of 1,606 permanent and temporary office and field employees was authorized to handle this work in the collection districts.

It was necessary during the year to set up a special section in each collector's office in cotton producing districts to administer the tax collection provisions of the Bankhead Cotton Control Act. During the ginning season, when the work was at its peak, there were 391 permanent and temporary office and field employees assigned to the several districts.

In order to carry out the tax provisions of the Kerr-Smith Tobacco Control Act it was necessary to authorize additional assistance in the several tobacco-producing districts. During the period when this work was at its peak there were 85 temporary office and field employees.

Through the cooperation of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration special projects were inaugurated in certain collection districts for the purpose of investigating miscellaneous taxes on the manufacture of jewelry, radios, furs, sporting goods, cosmetics, admissions and dues, and documentary stamps. The first project was started in the third New York collection district on November 1, 1934. Similar projects were subsequently inaugurated in the first and second New York collection districts, the Chicago district, the Milwaukee district, the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh districts, the Buffalo district and more recently projects were authorized in the Los Angeles and San Francisco districts. Approximately 800 workers were employed and, while two of the projects were in operation only a comparatively short time, $5,021,911.80 in taxes have been collected or reported for assessment. The organization of these forces was accomplished under the direction of the supervisors of accounts and collections in charge, and in addition to the workers assigned to the miscellaneous tax investigations, approximately 330 relief workers were assigned to the District Supervisors, Alcohol Tax Unit, for conducting investigations and making inspections of retail liquor dealers.

Disbursement Accounting Division.—The Disbursement Accounting Division is charged with keeping the internal revenue appropriation accounts and expenditures and is responsible for the administrative examination required by law of the accounts of 64 collectors of internal revenue, 38 internal revenue agents in charge of divisions, and 15 supervisors in charge of alcohol tax districts, including the Philippine Islands branch of the collection district of Maryland, and internal revenue salary payments made by the collector of customs at San Juan, P. R. The administrative examination of the accounts of District Supervisors, Alcohol Tax Unit, was transferred to this division effective July 1, 1934, together with some of the personnel previously engaged on that work. The appropriation, accounting, and the auditing work has been considerably above normal throughout the year as a result of the Bureau's administrative duties in connection with assessing and collecting the processing taxes.

Office of the Assistant General Counsel

The activities of the office of the Assistant General Counsel for the Bureau of Internal Revenue embrace the whole field of Federal taxation in connection with the preparation and presentation to the United States Board of Tax Appeals of defense in all appeals; the review of refunds, credits, and abatements, in excess of $20,000; the deciding and advising in various administrative and internal revenue tax matters referred by the Secretary of the Treasury, the Under Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, by the General Counsel for the Department of the Treasury, by the Commissioner or the Assistant to the Commissioner, by the heads of the administrative units of the Bureau, by collectors of internal revenue, by other branches of the Government, and by individual correspondence; the preparation, at the request of the Department of Justice or of United States attorneys, of data for use in the prosecution or defense of tax cases (civil and criminal) in suit, and otherwise complying with their requests for assistance in such cases; and the preparation, revision, and publication of regulations, Treasury decisions, mimeographs, and rulings for the guidance of the officers and employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and others interested. The office is divided into six divisions, viz, Appeals, Civil, Interpretative, Penal, Review, and Legislative and Regulations.

Assistant General Counsel's Committee.—The Assistant General Counsel's Committee, formed on July 5, 1933, is composed of five members. The committee receives and passes upon cases from all divisions of the office referred to it by the Assistant General Counsel, the special assistants, and the general assistants. During the fiscal year 1935 the Committee received 256 cases and disposed of 237, leaving 19 cases pending.

Reorganization Section.—The Bankruptcy, Receivership, and Reorganization Section received 1,654 reorganization cases during the year and closed 164 cases involving claims of $8,093,075.94, which were settled for $3,847,764.03. A total of 1,249 bankruptcy and receivership cases were closed involving claims of $6,457,088.57, upon which $2,554,482.86 were collected.

Appeals Division.—Cases involving income, estate, and gift taxes filed with the Board of Tax Appeals are in the immediate charge of this Division. During the year 5,867 cases were closed while 3,816 new cases were filed. At the end of the year there were pending 23 gift tax cases involving $452,164; 504 estate tax cases involving $73,240,290; and 9,896 income tax cases involving $419,955,963; or a total of 10,423 cases involving $493,648,417. Of this number, 9,405 were pending before the Board and 1,018 were in appellate courts on appeal from Board decisions.

Civil Division.—The Civil Division, in cooperation with and at the request of the Department of Justice, assists in the handling and preparation for trial of civil internal revenue cases arising in the Federal district courts, the United States Court of Claims, and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, together with a limited number of cases originating in State courts. The trials of such cases and arguments upon appeals are conducted by the Department of Justice pursuant to the President's Executive order of June 10, 1933.

The Division's major activities during the fiscal year are shown in the following tables:

Compromise Section.—The Section is charged with the responsibility of considering and passing upon all offers submitted in compromise of tax liability arising in the Miscellaneous Tax Unit of the Bureau, except those involving criminal prosecution, fraud penalties, or specific penalties. It is also charged with the solution of legal problems arising in the collection of taxes from banks in liquidation, from taxpayers who have made assignments of assets for the benefit of creditors, and from estates of deceased taxpayers.

During the fiscal year 493 cases handled in this Section were closed by acceptance of offers in compromise and the collection of filed claims in the aggregate amount of $2,747,961.38. The following table shows the volume of cases handled by this Section:

Interpretative Division.—This Division is charged with the preparation of opinions relating to the administrative construction of internal revenue laws and the editing of matter for publication in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. During the year it disposed of 3,039 jacketed cases, an increase of 802 over the preceding year, in addition to miscellaneous work.

Penal Division.—The Penal Division, in cooperation with the Department of Justice and the various United States attorneys, passes upon criminal internal revenue cases; prepares opinions on liability for percentage penalties for fraud (occasionally for negligence or delinquency), and on acceptance or rejection of offers in compromise of tax cases in which such questions are involved. The Division also prepares opinions interpreting or construing percentage penalty and criminal statutes, and opinions on all questions of law involved in a case where there is also a question of percentage penalty or crime. It decides upon questions as to whether cases that have been closed by agreement under section 606 of the Revenue Act of 1928, and similar provisions of the other revenue acts, should be reopened, because of "fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact", and upon informers' reward claims under section 3463 of the Revised Statutes.

The following table summarizes the work of the Division during the last two fiscal years:

Cases received and disposed of by the Penal Division during the fiscal years 1934 and 1935

Review Division.—This Division reviews cases involving refunds, credits, and abatements of internal revenue taxes. It prepares public decisions in accordance with Treasury Decision 4264 in all cases where the overassessments exceed $20,000; prepares reports to the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation in cases involving credits or refunds in excess of $75,000, as required by section 710 of the Revenue Act of 1928; and participates in conferences and negotiations in other Bureau agencies on cases involving proposed overpayments.

There were 585 cases disposed of during the year involving reductions in taxes aggregating $76,532,905.86. In 141 of these cases memoranda were prepared. The allowances were reduced by adjustments in this Division in the amount of $2,829,048.32. Some of the principles involved in these adjustments also affected the disposition of other cases pending elsewhere in the Bureau. Public decisions were promulgated in 406 cases, and memoranda were submitted to the Joint Congressional Committee in 23 cases.

As heretofore this Division has regularly afforded conferences in cases in which issues appeared to require action contrary to the taxpayer's contentions.

Legislative and Regulations Division.—This division is charged with preparing, reviewing, and revising regulations under the various revenue laws, and considering defects in, and proposed amendments to, such laws; preparing reports on revenue legislation introduced in the Congress; and rendering assistance in the drafting of new revenue legislation. During the year it received 803 cases and disposed of 513.

Intelligence Unit

The principal work of the Intelligence Unit consists in the investigation of tax-fraud cases. This work is performed in cooperation with internal revenue agents and deputy collectors. During the year there were 621 investigations of alleged evasion of income tax and of this number 159 cases were recommended for prosecution. On this charge there were 50 convictions, with 1 acquittal, and a percentage of convictions in cases actually disposed of in court of 97.67 percent. Investigation of these cases resulted in recommendation for assessment of additional taxes and penalties aggregating $20,212,161.

In addition to the collections by the Bureau of Internal Revenue of taxes, penalties, and interest, amounts are covered into the Treasury by way of fines imposed in criminal cases; in some jurisdictions the courts have imposed an additional penalty by requiring the defendants to pay the costs of the investigations, that is, the salaries and expenses of the agents incurred during investigations.

There were also investigated during the fiscal year 147 cases of charges against employees in the Internal Revenue Service resulting in the separation from the service of 89 employees and the prosecution of 15, of which number 11 have been convicted and 4 have not been tried.

There were 2,901 investigations of applications of attorneys and agents to practice before the Treasury Department and 88 investigations of charges against enrolled agents and attorneys, resulting in the disbarment of 13, the suspension of 8, the reprimand of 6, and rejection of applications of 37.

There were investigated 5,253 cases of miscellaneous character, which included investigations of the field employees of the Alcohol Tax Unit; of a number of cases for the Bureau of Narcotics, the Federal Alcohol Control Administration, the Customs Service, and National Bank Examiners; and of persons under consideration for appointment to various positions in the Treasury Department, including officials of branches other than the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

LEGAL DIVISION

Organization of the Legal Division, begun the latter part of June 1934, was completed during the fiscal year 1935. The General Counsel, head of the Division, and six Assistant General Counsel have charge of all legal matters of the Department.

During the year the Legal Division prepared analyses and recommendations with respect to approximately 650 congressional bills affecting the Department. The Division also collaborated with the legislative counsel of both Houses of Congress and furnished technical assistance to congressional committees, particularly in matters relating to banking, taxation, and social security legislation.

The Division drafted, among other documents, Executive orders and proclamations relating to newly mined domestic silver, nationalization of silver, restrictions imposed on payment of money out of the German special deposit account, allocation of relief funds for continuance of rural health service, and the release of property held by the Alien Property Bureau; and the Secretary's orders and regulations covering the exportation of silver and importation of foreign silver coin and transactions in foreign exchange. The Division also cooperated with the Department of Justice in preparing a large number of cases in which the Treasury was interested, most outstanding of which were the so-called "gold clause cases." During the year, 83 formal legal opinions and numerous informal opinions were prepared for the information and guidance of the administrative officers of the Department. The legal sufficiency of a number of applications for relief projects was passed upon and approximately 5,000 surety bonds were examined and approved.

The Division conducted several legal research projects, including an analysis of the disposition of Treasury criminal cases in United States District Courts, a general survey of criminal law enforcement problems affecting the Department, and a compilation of statistics concerning Treasury offenders. Progress was also made in analyzing the causes of congestion in income tax and customs litigation. The work of compiling State and municipal ordinances and court decisions relating to public health matters was carried forward during the year. Regulations were drafted governing the admission, custody, and discharge of persons at United States narcotic farms and assistance was rendered to State authorities in connection with the adoption and enforcement of the uniform State narcotic law.

Legal questions were considered in connection with the formulation of regulations, issued June 29, 1935, by the Foreign Trade Zones Board (composed of the Secretaries of Commerce, Treasury, and War) respecting the act approved June 18, 1934, for the establishment, operation, and maintenance of foreign trade zones in the United States. Assistance was also rendered in formulating the text of foreign trade agreements negotiated with 5 countries and in the course of negotiation with 13 other countries.

The Division was concerned during the year with the legal aspects of the acquisition of 382 sites for construction purposes. A total of 951 contracts covering construction and related work were prepared, and more than 2,000 contracts prepared by the Branch of Supply of the Procurement Division and by other agencies of the Department were examined for legal sufficiency.

A revised edition of "Coast Guard Courts and Boards", and instructions for the guidance of Customs and Coast Guard officers in the enforcement of the Oil Pollution Act of 1924 were prepared during the year. In addition to reviewing the record of proceedings, the Division prepared the action of the reviewing authority in 88 general court cases, 166 summary court cases, and 287 deck court cases, and in 208 boards of inquiry, inquest, and investigation. It reviewed also as to legal aspects the record of proceedings in 116 retiring board cases. Twenty-one claims against the Government involving Coast Guard units and five claims of the Government against private parties involving Coast Guard units were examined and appropriate action in such cases was advised. A total of 23 life-saving medal of honor cases were examined and the necessary action taken to bestow awards in 7 such cases.

In the field of taxation the Division prepared and presented to the United States Board of Tax Appeals the defense in all appeals; reviewed and finally disposed of refunds, credits, and abatements in all cases where the amount involved exceeded $20,000; decided and advised in various administrative and Internal Revenue matters, including matters arising in corporate reorganization under section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act; prepared data for use in the prosecution or defense of tax cases (civil and criminal) in suit; handled the preparation and publication of regulations, Treasury decisions, and rulings for the guidance of officers and employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and others concerned; and reviewed a large number of cases of offers in compromise, extensions of time to pay tax, and closing agreements before transmission from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to the Secretary for approval. The Division also acted on 922 petitions for the remission or mitigation of the forfeiture of vehicles and other property which had been seized by Government officers for violations of the laws pertaining to the manufacture, sale, and transportation of alcohol.

BUREAU OF THE MINT

Institutions of the Mint Service

During the fiscal year 1935, six Mint Service institutions were in operation: The coinage mints at Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Denver; the assay office at New York, which handles much import-export gold; the mint at New Orleans conducted as an assay office; and the assay office at Seattle. The two last-named institutions are, in effect, bullion-purchasing agencies for the larger institutions and also serve the public by making assays of ores and bullion. Electrolytic refineries are operated at the New York, Denver, and San Francisco institutions.

Coinage

The United States mints executed during the fiscal year 608,414,207 pieces of domestic coin and 68,500,401 pieces for foreign governments, a total of 676,914,608 pieces. This compares with the prior year's total of 65,674,250 pieces consisting of 46,634,250 pieces of domestic coin and 19,040,000 pieces of foreign coin. The output of coins during the year has been exceeded only twice—in 1918 when the total was 766,887,460 pieces, and in 1920, 809,708,484 pieces.

The 1935 output of domestic coins consisted of 134,166,204 pieces of silver coin, including 5,635,557 silver dollar pieces, and 474,248,003 pieces of minor coin, of which 412,266,000 pieces were bronze 1-cent coins. The value of the domestic coinage executed was $39,131,127.65, as compared with the prior year's $3,499,125. The coinage mints operated for long periods on the basis of 2 or 3 shifts daily. The great demand for domestic coin during the year reflected increased business activity.

The foreign coinage executed consisted of 67,100,401 silver pieces, 200,000 nickel pieces, and 1,200,000 bronze pieces, for Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Honduras, Nicaragua, Colombia, and Venezuela. The foreign orders were extraordinarily large and were occasioned, in part, by the rise in the price of silver, which necessitated withdrawal from circulation and replacement of the silver coins of some countries because the silver in the old coins would produce greater returns, when marketed, than the face value of the coins.

Bullion deposit transactions

A new high record was established during the year for the number of bullion deposit transactions of the mints and assay offices. The total was 226,701 as compared with 115,870 for the preceding year, 73,238 in 1933, 54,105 in 1932, and 36,098 in 1931. The increase over 1934 was more than 95 percent, and over 1931, 528 percent. Receipts of both gold and silver in the form of newly mined metals, secondary material, and imports, and receipts of the nationalized domestic holdings of refined silver, were very large and necessitated large increases in personnel.

Gold operations

Gold acquired by the mints and assay offices during the year amounted to $1,301,432,727.11; gold transfers to the mints and assay offices consisted of $34,692,338.60 of bullion from the Federal Reserve banks, and $1,524,989,826.51 of domestic coin from other Treasury offices. Intermint service institution transfers amounted to $2,081,805,348.96. These items total $4,942,920,241.18, which compares with $989,932,126.68 for the prior year.

The acquisitions include $120,091.28 of gold received at $20.67+ per fine ounce, which had not previously been surrendered under the nationalization orders; the increment to $35 per fine ounce amounted to $83,245.09. The intermint institution transfers consisted almost wholly of gold shipped from the San Francisco Mint to the Denver Mint for storage.

Silver acquired during the year totaled 437,798,807 fine ounces, at an average cost of 53+¢ per fine ounce and a total cost of $232,435,879. The acquisitions consist of the following:

Item	Amount (fine ounces)	Value
Newly-mined domestic silver.....	30, 863, 349	$20, 214, 113
Nationalized silver.....	112, 301, 335	56, 162, 471
Purchase Act silver.....	293, 737, 702	155, 587, 533
Silver contained in gold bullion deposits, etc.....	599, 422	310, 834
Silver received in exchange for Government stamped bars.....	296, 999	160, 928
Total.....	437, 798, 807	232, 435, 879

United States coin received for recoinage totaled 5,878,270 fine ounces, with a recoinage value of $8,125,809; silver deposited in trust by other governments totaled 18,007,498 fine ounces; and silver transfers between Mint Service institutions amounted to 176,401 fine ounces. These items plus the silver acquired during the year amounted to 461,860,976 fine ounces, as compared with 55,707,098 fine ounces for the previous year.

During the year 242,324,825 fine ounces of silver were revalued to $1.29+ per fine ounce, the statutory monetary value, and set up as security against silver certificates. The monetary value was $313,308,863; the cost, $124,320,771; and the seigniorage, $188,988,092.

The open market price of silver in New York (mean of bid and asked) during the fiscal year 1935 averaged $0.5764. The lowest point was $0.463125 on July 23, 24, and 26, 1934; and the highest, $0.813125 on April 26, 1935. The prior year average was $0.4254, and the range was $0.353125 to $0.470625.

The price paid under the President's proclamations for newly mined domestic silver was $0.6464+ per fine ounce until April 9, 1935, $0.7111+ until April 23, and thereafter $0.7757+.

Commemorative coins

The following commemorative half-dollar coins of new design were executed during the year:

Event	Date of law	Pieces
Arkansas, centennial of statehood.....	May 14, 1934	500, 000
Connecticut, tercentennial of founding.....	June 21, 1934	25, 000
Hudson, N. Y., 150th anniversary of founding.....	May 2, 1935	10, 000

Commemorative half dollars which have been authorized but not yet issued are as follows:

Event	Date of law	Pieces
Providence, R. I., tercentennial of founding.....	May 2, 1935	50, 000
California-Pacific International Exposition.....	May 3, 1935	250, 000
Old Spanish Trail, four hundredth anniversary of opening.....	June 5, 1935	10, 000

Refineries

The electrolytic refinery at Denver remained closed throughout the year by reason of more urgent activities. The refineries at New York and San Francisco produced during the year 2,388,328 fine ounces (81.9 tons) of electrolytically refined gold, as compared with 2,387,817 fine ounces (81.8 tons) during the previous year; and 1,336,572 fine ounces (45.8 tons) of electrolytically refined silver, as compared with 703,284 fine ounces (24.1 tons) in the prior year.

The stock of gold and silver in unrefined bullion on hand increased by about 80 tons to 1,009 tons, as compared with the prior year's increase of 99 tons.

Stock of coin and monetary bullion in the United States

On June 30, 1935, the estimated stock of domestic coin in the United States was $991,097,706, of which $545,641,802 was standard silver dollars, $312,416,169 subsidiary silver coin, and $133,039,735 minor coin.

The stock of gold bullion, including coin, held in the Treasury on the same date was valued at $9,115,380,809, an increase over the previous year of $1,259,200,253; the stock of silver bullion was 482,989,512 fine ounces, an increase of 423,512,556 fine ounces.

Production of gold and silver

Domestic gold production during the calendar year 1934 was 3,091,183 fine ounces with a value of $108,191,400 at $35 per ounce, as compared with 2,556,246 fine ounces with a value of $52,842,300 at $20.67+ per ounce in 1933. The output was about 61 percent in quantity of that for the record year 1915, when the total was 4,887,604 fine ounces, valued at $101,035,700 at $20.67+ per ounce.

Domestic silver production during 1934 totaled 32,725,353 ounces, valued at $21,155,784 on the basis of the Government's buying price of 64+¢ per ounce, as compared with 23,002,629 ounces, valued at $8,050,920, for 1933. The record production of 1915 was 74,961,075 fine ounces, valued at $37,397,300.

Industrial consumption of gold and silver

Gold consumption in the industrial arts during the calendar year 1934 is estimated at $14,232,795. Gold returned from industrial use exceeded the total used by industry by $61,694,490, as compared with an excess of $5,792,700 during the previous year.

Silver used in the arts is estimated at 39,678,603 fine ounces, of which 11,492,425 fine ounces was new material.

As compared with the prior year, silver consumption increased about 700,000 ounces while gold consumption decreased about 417,000 ounces.

Appropriations, expenses, and income

Regular appropriations available for the Mint Service during the fiscal year 1935 totaled $1,108,559; additions for salary rate restorations, $50,688; allotments for meeting emergency expenses, $2,009,161; and reimbursements to appropriations for services rendered, $604,681; making a grand total of $3,773,089.

Expenses amounted to $3,573,606, of which $3,475,340 was chargeable to appropriations and $98,266 chargeable to income.

The regular income realized by the Treasury from the Mint Service aggregated $13,899,655, of which $9,179,144 was seigniorage. The seigniorage on silver dollar coin was $2,823,827; on subsidiary silver coin, $380,632; and on minor coin, $5,974,635. Extraordinary income aggregated $189,071,337 of which $188,988,092 was seigniorage on silver bullion revalued to $1.29+ per ounce, and $83,245 was the increment to $35 per ounce on revalued gold.

The number and value of deposits, transfers, gross income, and expenses for the fiscal year 1935, and the number of employees on June 30, 1935, at each institution are shown in the following table:

Deposits of gold and silver, income, expenses, and number of employees, by institutions, fiscal year 1935

BUREAU OF NARCOTICS

The Bureau's policy of directing its principal enforcement activities against major narcotic law violators has resulted in a progressive reduction in the supply of narcotics available to the domestic illicit traffic. This is indicated by the continued high prices of the drug in the illicit market, the high degree of adulteration found in drugs seized, and the marked decrease in the drugs seized, this decrease being noted in the seizures made at ports and borders. Greatly increased activities on the part of narcotic enforcement officers resulted in increased seizures in the internal traffic, and an increase in the violations reported. The total violations reported by narcotic officers exceeded those reported during the previous year by approximately 35 percent.

The decrease in the supplies of smuggled narcotics has forced peddlers and addicts to turn more and more to the channels of legitimate distribution for their supply. The robbery of wholesale and retail stocks, the forgery and false execution of narcotic prescriptions, and the improper prescribing and dispensing of narcotics are accordingly becoming more of an enforcement problem. Of the total violations reported during the year, 33 percent involved persons registered under the law, as compared with 30 percent involving such persons during the year 1934, 18 percent during 1933, and 14 percent during 1932. However, due to measures initiated by the Bureau to provide increased safeguards and more secure places of storage for narcotic stocks in the hands of registrants, the number of thefts reported and the amounts of drugs involved declined slightly during the year.

The Bureau solicits and continues to receive the cooperation of State and municipal enforcement agencies. The activities of these agencies become more effective with the adoption and enforcement of the Uniform State Narcotic Law. The law was adopted with little or no amendment during the fiscal year 1935 in 18 States—Arizona, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, and West Virginia. This makes a total of 26 States which have adopted this legislation. It had been previously adopted by Florida, Kentucky, Nevada, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Virginia.

The following table shows the number of cases of violation, by registered and nonregistered persons, of the narcotic laws and the cases disposed of during the fiscal year as reported by Federal narcotic enforcement officers:

Extent and trend of narcotic traffic

On June 30, 1935, there were 325,465 registrants under the Harrison Narcotic Law, as amended, 206 as importers and manufacturers, 1,405 as wholesale dealers, 51,080 as retail dealers, 148,317 as practitioners, and 124,457 as dealers in and manufacturers of untaxed narcotic preparations, the latter number including registrants not required to pay occupational tax under the act.

During the year 120,490 pounds of opium were imported, as compared with importations of 131,194 pounds during the previous year, or a decrease of 10,704 pounds. Coca leaves were imported for medicinal purposes only and amounted to 194,132 pounds, as compared with importations of 246,679 pounds during the previous year, or a decrease of 52,547 pounds.

Exports of narcotic drugs of all kinds amounted to 1,551 ounces in 1934 and 1,579 ounces in 1935, or an increase of 28 ounces. The drugs exported during 1935 involved 38,824 taxable ounces of products.

The net quantity of pure drugs of all kinds sold to domestic purchasers by manufacturers amounted to 375,248 ounces, as compared with sales of 374,622 ounces during the previous year.

DIVISION OF PRINTING

Treasury Department Order No. 10, of April 23, 1935, changed the name of the Division of Supply to the Division of Printing, and transferred to the Procurement Division the purchasing functions and the storage and distribution of stationery supplies.

The Division of Printing transacts all of the Treasury Department's printing and binding business with the Government Printing Office. This involves the placing of all orders, the handling of all inquiries regarding deliveries, estimates of cost, copy, proof, instructions, and the auditing of vouchers covering payments in connection therewith. It is charged with editing and preparing weekly "Treasury Decisions" under customs, internal revenue, narcotics, and other laws; preparing semiannual bound volumes thereof, and maintaining a mailing list for their distribution. It is also charged with the responsibility of authorizing engraving work to be done by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing for all Government departments and establishments unless money, bonds, or stamps are involved; control over newspaper and periodical advertising for the Treasury Department; binding confidential Department records; and the warehousing and distribution of blank books and forms for Washington and field offices of the Department. Appropriations to the Department for printing and binding and for purchases of stationery supplies are under the administrative control of the Division.

Printing and binding

The appropriation for printing and binding for the fiscal year 1935 was $525,000. This amount proved insufficient to cover the needs of the Treasury Department, and $78,750 was transferred from the appropriation "Collecting the Internal Revenue, 1935", as well as $24,750 from the indefinite appropriation carried in the act of March 28, 1934, which provides funds to cover the increased cost due to legislation reducing hours of labor in the Government Printing Office. It was also necessary to obtain $17,500 in the First Deficiency Act. With these additions, $646,000 was available from appropriations for 1935. Due to the heavy demands made on the Department for printing and binding, it later was necessary to obtain additional funds in the Second Deficiency Act of 1935-36, in the sum of $48,760. Of this amount, $5,000 was applied to cover encumbrances for 1935. Thus there was available from appropriations a grand total of $651,000 for printing and binding for the Treasury Department in the fiscal year 1935.

Reimbursements of $26,839 from sales of customs forms increased the total available amount to $677,839. Of this sum, $677,639 was expended, leaving an unobligated balance of $200. In addition, $333,224 was expended from appropriations other than the printing and binding appropriation made by Congress, bringing the total expenditure to $1,010,863.

Department advertising

Authorizations to publish advertising were issued to 4,604 newspapers and periodicals in the fiscal year 1935, compared with 2,605 in 1934, an increase of 1,999. The expenditures authorized were $37,911.20 in 1934 and $57,060.42 in 1935, an increase of $19,149.22.

Engraving work

A total of 99,756,992 certificates, checks, commissions, drafts, transportation requests, and warrants was approved by this office for execution by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing for the several departments and establishments of the Government during the fiscal year 1935, compared with 142,025,685 in the preceding year.

PROCUREMENT DIVISION

The functions of all agencies pertaining to policies and methods of procurement, warehousing and distribution of property, facilities, structures, improvements, equipment, and supplies are consolidated in the Procurement Division, which comprises two main branches, the Branch of Supply and the Public Works Branch.

During the fiscal year 1935 the Procurement Division took an important part in the organization of the Works Progress Administration and in the formulation of its policies especially with respect to contracts and purchases. The Executive order of May 6, 1935, directed the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Director of Procurement, to purchase, or to provide a system for the purchase of, all materials, supplies, and equipment to be procured from funds allotted under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935. The basis for the Executive order of June 24, 1935, defining the methods of procedure under which projects shall be prosecuted was prepared by the Division.

Branch of Supply

The Branch of Supply determines policies and methods of procurement, warehousing, and distribution of property, equipment, and supplies. During the fiscal year 1935, further consolidation of functions was effected, including: The transfer of the purchasing functions and activities involving the storage and distribution of stationery and supplies of the Division of Supply of the Treasury Department; transfer of all records of the General Counsel pertaining to real estate acquired by the United States in nonpayment of debts; and transfer of the functions of the Federal Contract Board, the Federal Specifications Board, and the Federal Standard Stock Catalog Board, which were abolished. The regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General issued on February 27, 1935, provide that forfeitures of distilled spirits, including pure and denatured alcohol and wines, shall be reported to the Director of Procurement and disposed of as provided by regulations governing the operations of the Branch of Supply.

In connection with purchases made during the fiscal year, 17,409 bids were received involving 51,398 samples, and 6,789 contracts were awarded, the value of which aggregated approximately $37,000,000.

Consolidated contracts were executed during the year covering tank car, tank wagon, and steel drum deliveries of motor gasoline for all Federal activities in 12 States, and, effective July 1, 1935, covering drayage service for all Federal activities in 55 cities.

Material, supplies, and equipment received at the Federal warehouse amounted to 26,723,095 pounds, and deliveries to departments and establishments aggregated 21,681,459 pounds. The number of items stocked in the warehouse increased from 850 on July 1, 1934, to 1,925 on June 30, 1935.

The fuel yards issued and delivered to the departments and establishments 318,766 tons of coal, 247 cords of wood, 10 tons of charcoal, 71 tons of coke, and 70,338 barrels of oil, valued at $1,925,266. Storage and reimbursable work performed amounted to $42,296.

The typewriter repair shop completed 1,579 overhauls and 13,265 adjustments of typewriters for Government activities in Washington, representing charges of $20,601.

The Federal Real Estate Section handled 4,013 requests for clearance to lease property, 84 applications to purchase, 39 applications to sell real property, and 93 transfers of land or buildings among the departments and establishments, including 57 C. C. C. camps declared surplus by the Director of Emergency Conservation Work. In the active Federal buildings, 129 assignments of space to Federal activities were effected, and 84 assignments of space were made in abandoned Federal buildings.

The Federal Traffic Section issued 2,636 routing orders, covering 29,666 cars, in addition to routing 6,068 less-than-carload shipments, and furnished 51,952 rate quotations to the departments and establishments.

The Federal Specifications Division promulgated 112 new specifications, 50 revisions, and 93 amendments to Federal specifications, bringing the total specifications in effect to 989. In addition 76 new proposed specifications and 61 proposed revisions were submitted to the departments for comment and criticism.

The Federal Surplus Property Section handled 2,821 lists of surplus property in the field, effecting 2,270 transfers to Federal activities and granting 1,583 clearances for sale. There were transferred to Federal activities 6,856 gallons of forfeited alcohol and 820 gallons of whisky. Proceeds from the sale of surplus property at auction and waste material in the District of Columbia amounted to $89,765.

The Motor Equipment Section completed 3,287 repair orders and dispensed 203,035 gallons of gasoline and 7,118 gallons of oil.

During the fiscal year numerous requests of executive departments to deviate from standard forms were handled, recommendations were submitted to the Director of Procurement for the revision of standard forms, and studies were made of contracts and contract procedure.

The Federal Catalog Section accomplished considerable work in connection with the preparation and revision of sections 1, 2, and 3 of the Federal Standard Stock Catalog, together with checking and arranging the stock lists of the various departments and establishments.

There were 135 Federal business associations, whose membership comprises Federal officials and employees, actively functioning as agents of the Director of Procurement. The associations rendered considerable assistance to the Procurement Division in the preparation and execution of consolidated drayage contracts, and made distinct achievements in the loan of property and surveys of electric power consumed by Federal activities.

Until certain sections of the National Industrial Recovery Act were declared invalid, the Branch of Supply acted as general liaison officer between the Government activities and the National Recovery Administration in matters arising from the application of Executive Order No. 6646.

The financial status of the Branch of Supply at the close of the fiscal year 1935 is shown on the attached statements:

Public Works Branch

The functions of the Public Works Branch are to collect and prepare for submission to Congress data and estimates for public building projects; to acquire land for public building sites; to prepare plans, specifications, and estimates for public building construction and to take bids and award contracts therefor; to supervise the construction, remodeling, extension, etc., of public buildings; to repair all public buildings formerly under control of the Treasury Department, which were transferred to the custody of the Post Office and Interior Departments under Executive order of June 10, 1933; and to operate, repair, equip, and maintain all public buildings in the custody of the Treasury Department outside of the District of Columbia.

Office of the Supervising Architect.—During the year an advisory committee on engineering was established, consisting of 5 consulting engineers, 2 of whom are specialists in mechanical and electrical engineering and 3 in structural engineering. This committee was appointed to assist the Supervising Architect in a review of the present practice and procedure of the engineering departments to determine any necessary changes with respect to the selection of suitable designs for buildings. As a result a Manual of Design in the form of a code is being prepared to serve as a guide in the development of plans and specifications for new structures. The committee has also undertaken the solution of special engineering problems assigned to it in connection with specific building projects.

A directive board was established to study the requirements of each project in its preliminary stage, taking into consideration the best utilization of the site selected, the general character of the design in its broad sense, the selection of the most appropriate materials for construction and finish, the availability of local materials, the relationship of the proposed building to its surroundings, and the development of an equitable balance in the use of materials that will spread the benefits of the public building program as much as possible among all producing industries.

Office of the Supervising Engineer.—The reorganization of this office, completed during the year, has resulted in improved coordination of the work. To facilitate control of the various functions and widely distributed personnel engaged in field work, the United States and its immediate territories were divided into eight districts, with headquarters located in a city in each district. Approximately 15,000 persons were employed directly and 100,000 persons indirectly in the execution of more than 1,500 contracts, ranging from $500 to $10,000,000.

The facility to make immediate site surveys and soil investigations at any place within the United States was perfected during the year.

An important adjunct of the Supervising Engineer's Office is the activity of an independent corps of special inspection engineers whose reports represent individual criticism of design, construction, and personnel. Their suggestions are finding valuable reflection in the character of design, nature of materials, and methods of construction used in public buildings.

Section of Painting and Sculpture.—This section was organized on October 16, 1934, for the purpose of securing suitable paintings and sculpture for the embellishment of public buildings and to stimulate the development of art in this country.

The executives of the section are in close touch with the art developments throughout the country as the result of their work in directing the former Public Works of Art Project of the Treasury Department. Under their direction competitions were instituted for national, regional, and State projects. These competitions were open and invited, and it is estimated that about 800 artists participated. During the year 824 sketches by 352 artists were passed upon by local committees and submitted to the Procurement Division.

During the year the section reviewed 854 public buildings in connection with art projects. Of these, 286 projects were authorized, 121 are still under consideration, and 447 were discarded for lack of space or insufficient funds.

The section publishes periodically a bulletin containing information about the projects that are under way and about those which it expects to initiate. During the year 575 photographs of the works of various artists were added to the large photographic file which had been transferred to the section from the Public Works of Art Project.

A number of artists were placed in civilian conservation camps by the section. In this connection, 100 painters have been placed in camps and 3,000 pictures have been received from them.

At the beginning of the fiscal year 1936, the section will be supplemented by the Treasury Relief Art Project, designed to select from artists on the relief rolls about 450 painters and sculptors to create murals and sculptures for public buildings.

Original public building program.—During the year 124 projects, with a total limit of cost of $259,565,882, were completed under the original public building program. Of the 735 construction projects previously under contract, 702, with a total limit of cost of $430,207,564, were completed by June 30, 1935; and 33 projects, with a total limit of cost of $12,792,575, remained under contract.

Program under the Public Works Administration.—The number of allotments for public buildings by the Administration of Public Works under the National Recovery Act, approved June 16, 1933, was reduced during the year from 465 to 442, due chiefly to the fact that the Post Office Department was able to effect reductions in the cost of leases of property for post office uses to an extent that rendered the construction of proposed new buildings unnecessary. Additional authorizations increased the total of the allotments during the year from $67,410,788 to $70,850,768.

The status of work under this program on June 30, 1935, is shown in the following table:

The value of contracts awarded both for land and construction and of certain administrative expenses incident thereto, as of June 30, 1935, was $47,990,207.87, leaving $22,860,560.68 unobligated.

Relief program.—The Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932, approved July 21, 1932, authorized and appropriated $100,000,000 for public building projects. Under the act of March 31, 1933, all moneys previously appropriated for public works, unless obligated in connection with projects on which actual construction had been commenced, or might be commenced within 90 days, were allocated to the conservation program. The following table gives an accounting to June 30, 1935, of the appropriation for public building projects under the Emergency Relief and Construction Act:

Emergency construction program.—In the Emergency Appropriation Act approved June 19, 1934, $65,000,000 was appropriated for the emergency construction of public buildings outside the District of Columbia, to be selected by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General from public building projects specified in statements 2 and 3 in House Report 1879, Seventy-third Congress. There was also authorized the expenditure of $2,500,000 from Public Works Administration funds for permitting increases up to 10 percent in the limits of cost of both Public Works Administration and Emergency Construction projects when the bid of the lowest responsible bidder exceeds the amount previously made available for any project.

Under this legislation, 355 projects were selected during the year with a total limit of cost of $65,166,945. The status of work under this program on June 30, 1935, is shown in the following table:

The value of contracts awarded both for land and construction and the amount of certain administrative expenses incident thereto as of June 30, 1935, were $25,310,169.86, leaving $39,856,775.14 unobligated.

Private architectural services.—Under the authorization by Congress for the employment of private architects to the extent deemed necessary by the Secretary of the Treasury, contracts had been made at the end of the fiscal year 1934 with architectural firms for 301 projects. During the fiscal year 1935, 61 additional contracts were made and 194 of those previously in force were terminated or settled, leaving 168 contracts in force at the end of the fiscal year 1935.

Administration and cost of Federal buildings under the control of the Treasury Department.—The administration, number, and cost of completed buildings under the control of the Treasury Department (exclusive of land) as of June 30, 1935, are shown in the following table. The control of these buildings is charged to the Procurement Division, and repairs thereto are payable from annual appropriations for repairs to public buildings.

PUBLIC DEBT SERVICE

Division of Loans and Currency

This Division is the active agent of the Secretary of the Treasury for the issue of all public debt obligations of the United States and for conducting transactions in such obligations after issue. It is also responsible for the issue of bonds or other obligations of Puerto Rico and the Philippine Islands, for which the Treasury Department acts as fiscal agent. The Division undertakes the safe-keeping of public debt and insular loan securities for certain Government offices. It also counts and delivers to the Destruction Committee the United States currency canceled as unfit and mutilated paper (spoilage, etc.) received from the Division of Paper Custody and the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Issue and retirement of securities.—The following is a summary of the issues and retirements of securities conducted through this Division during the fiscal year 1935. Complete details of all transactions in public debt securities are presented in formal statements elsewhere in the report.

Register of the Treasury

The Register of the Treasury conducts the final audit and has custody of all retired public debt securities, including interest coupons and checks; and, in addition, he performs a like function with respect to the securities of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation and the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, the consolidated obligations of the Federal land banks, and bonds of insular possessions retired on account of exchanges for other securities.

The Register renders monthly certification to the Comptroller General of all public debt securities redeemed by the Treasurer of the United States and establishes credits due the Federal Reserve banks and the Division of Loans and Currency for securities forwarded by them on account of exchanges, replacements, transfers of registration, etc.

The following statement sets forth, by class of security, the total number of documents, together with the face value thereof, which were received, examined, and filed during the fiscal year 1935:

Division of Public Debt Accounts and Audit

This Division maintains administrative control accounts for all official transactions in the public debt conducted by the various Treasury offices and the Federal Reserve banks as fiscal agents of the United States, and also for transactions involving paper used for printing public debt and other securities, United States currency, stamps, etc., and miscellaneous securities and documents in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Numerous administrative audit functions are performed in connection with the foregoing. The Division also maintains control accounts for various classes of unissued currency in reserve stocks of the Treasurer of the United States and the Comptroller of the Currency, and conducts administrative examinations and physical audits of such unissued stocks of currency and of cash balances in custody, and collateral securities held in trust in the offices of the Treasurer of the United States.

During the fiscal year, 79 physical audits were conducted, involving securities, currency, paper, interest checks, etc., amounting to over $53,000,000,000 in face value and 86,000,000 in number of pieces.

The Division determined and certified credits to the cumulative sinking fund and amounts in the sinking fund available for expenditure from time to time, interest on all classes of public debt securities which became due and payable on their respective interest-payment dates, and the amount of each form of public debt securities and unpaid interest outstanding each month. It prepared estimates of interest to become payable on public debt securities in future fiscal years, and of expenditures to be made on account of retirements for the sinking fund and other special accounts, and prepared statements showing the accountability of Federal Reserve banks for public debt securities for the use of Federal Reserve Board examiners in their periodical examinations of those banks. Numerous data pertaining to public debt transactions for various interested offices and individuals were also compiled.

During the fiscal year the personnel of this Division increased from 111 to 210 employees. The additional personnel was necessary on account of the greatly increased activities of the Division in connection with transactions involving various issues of bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation and the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, and of consolidated Federal farm loan bonds of the Federal land banks.

PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

Division of Sanitary Reports and Statistics

Health conditions in the United States, as revealed by mortality statistics, were good during the calendar year 1934. The preliminary mortality rate for 28 States was 10.9 per 1,000 population, as compared with 10.5 in 1933, the lowest ever recorded for these States.

An outbreak of poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) occurred in California in May 1934 and spread over most of the Pacific Coast States and into Nevada, Arizona, Montana, and Idaho. In May 1935 an outbreak occurred in the northeastern part of North Carolina, not including the coast section, and spread into southeastern Virginia. After the close of the fiscal year, increases in the prevalence of poliomyelitis were reported in New York, several of the New England States, and other parts of the country.

The work of collecting information concerning outbreaks of diseases dangerous to the public health and the current prevalence of these diseases was continued throughout the fiscal year. The data were made available to public health officers and other sanitarians throughout the United States by publication in the weekly Public Health Reports and by special bulletins. A total of 230,921 copies of publications was distributed as compared with 179,370 in the preceding fiscal year.

Division of Foreign and Insular Quarantine

Inspections by quarantine officers during the fiscal year 1935

	Vessels	Passengers	Seamen
Ports in continental United States.....	12,482	544,255	981,361
Insular ports.....	2,612	133,149	219,852
Foreign ports, prior to embarkation.....	168	43,860	2,079
Total.....	15,262	721,264	1,203,292

Of a total of 4,081 airplanes, carrying 34,135 persons, which arrived at 57 airports of entry in the United States from foreign countries requiring quarantine inspection, only 2,636 airplanes, carrying 30,249 persons, of whom 1,991 were aliens, were inspected by medical officers of the Public Health Service prior to entry, due to arrivals at airports of entry at which medical officers are not available.

Fumigations were made of 1,147 vessels either for the destruction of rats or because of some contagious disease. Examinations for plague infection were made of 4,207 of the 5,951 rats retrieved following fumigation.

No importation of a quarantinable disease into the United States or its possessions occurred during the year.

The International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation, opened for signature at The Hague on April 12, 1933, and signed on behalf of the United States on April 6, 1934, was ratified by the United States on June 13, 1935, and will become effective on November 22, 1935. Twelve nations had ratified the convention at the close of the fiscal year.

At the suggestion of the Public Health Service, the Consular Regulations of the United States were amended to authorize American consular officers in foreign ports to authenticate, at ports of issuance, foreign certificates of deratization exemption as well as foreign certificates of deratization issued under the provisions of article 28 of the International Sanitary Convention of Paris (1926 revision).

The Public Health Service has recommended favorable consideration on the part of the United States of a proposal submitted by the International Office of Public Health at Paris to amend article 25 of the International Sanitary Convention of Paris (1926 revision) so as to permit under special circumstances the fumigation of a vessel arriving from plague-infected ports before or during the unloading of its cargo and also to permit a repetition of such fumigation if necessary to complete deratization of the vessel.

At the request of the Quarantine Service of Habana, Cuba, the Public Health Service discontinued its routine supervision of maritime fumigations performed by officers of the Port Quarantine Service of Cuba for deratization purposes on vessels in Cuban ports destined to proceed to United States ports.

Medical examination of aliens.—Medical officers at the various ports of entry in the United States examined 730,777 alien passengers and 696,562 alien seamen. Of these numbers, 14,569 passengers and 1,250 seamen were certified to the proper immigration officials, in accordance with the act of February 5, 1917, as being afflicted with some mental or physical defect or disease.

At the request of the Commissioner General of Immigration and Naturalization, medical officers of the Public Health Service were authorized, upon request of immigration officials, to make physical examinations, in accordance with the standards set forth by the United States Civil Service Commission, of nominees tentatively selected by immigration officials for appointment to the position of immigration patrol inspector.

Because of the high mortality rate from malaria now existing in the southern part of Texas, and in an effort to restrict the introduction of malaria into the United States from Mexican territory, medical officers of the Public Health Service on duty at Texas-Mexican border stations were directed, in cooperation with the State Health Officer of Texas, to make a microscopic examination of the blood of any arriving person suspected of having malaria, and to notify the Texas State Health Department of the name and destination of persons with malaria released for entry into the United States.

Examination of prospective immigrants abroad.—A total of 35,978 applicants for immigration visas was examined by medical officers in American consulates in foreign countries. Of this number 23,868 were examined in Europe and the remainder in the Western Hemisphere. Of those examined, 574 in Europe and 130 in the Western Hemisphere were reported by the medical officers to the American consuls as having one or more of the defects or diseases requiring exclusion; and 4,745 in Europe and 1,443 in the Western Hemisphere were reported as being afflicted with a disease or condition which was likely to affect their ability to earn a living. Only two of the aliens examined in foreign countries to whom visas had been issued were certified upon arrival at United States ports as being afflicted with a defect or disease requiring deportation.

Division of Domestic Quarantine

Through the use of a special fund of $1,000,000 made available by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration it was possible for the Public Health Service to resume cooperative financial assistance to rural health organizations, both in reenforcing the personnel in existing county organizations and in establishing such units in counties not theretofore so provided. In 1934 there were 540 whole-time county or other local rural unit health services, representing a gain of 10 over the preceding year.

Trachoma-prevention activities in cooperation with the States were continued in Missouri, Kentucky, and Tennessee, 4,057 persons having been examined to determine the presence of the disease. In the field clinics and dispensaries, 1,933 treatments were given, while 704 patients were admitted to hospitals.

Plague-control measures were continued in California and on the Island of Maui, Hawaii, where trapping and poisoning of rats, as well as experimental work on control procedure, were conducted as a part of the program previously inaugurated. No human case of plague was reported in California during the year, but rodent plague in ground squirrels was reported in San Luis Obispo, Modoc, and Lassen Counties. Because of a human case of plague in Lake County, Oreg., at the beginning of the fiscal year, investigations were made through the use of a new mobile field laboratory, as a result of which two foci of rodent plague infection were found in Oregon and Montana. Extermination of rats by ship fumigation was continued in San Francisco but no infection was discovered.

In order to determine the efficiency of State control over sanitation of the shellfish industry in interstate commerce, surveys and inspections of shellfish-growing areas were continued. A total of 1,915 State certifications was approved during the year.

Approximately 45 percent of the time of the sanitary engineering field force was spent in assisting other Federal agencies in the solution of various sanitation problems. This represents a considerable increase over the volume of service rendered in previous years, due in part to allotments from the Public Works Administration to these Federal agencies for public works projects. In addition to the engineering services given the National Park Service and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, cooperative assistance was also afforded the Public Works Branch of the Procurement Division, the Bureau of Prisons, the Lighthouse Service, and others.

With the cooperation of State health agencies, the certification of sources of water used by interstate railroads, busses, vessels, and airplanes was continued. Of 2,269 water supplies used by interstate carriers, 95 percent were inspected and certified. Of vessels engaged in interstate traffic, 51 percent were reinspected and given certificates indicating compliance with the regulations governing drinking-water systems.

The study of pollution of the Hampton Roads area in the lower Chesapeake Bay, undertaken with funds allotted by the Public Works Administration, was closed at the end of the fiscal year. Assistance was also rendered a number of States engaged in stream pollution investigations.

An outstanding activity was the use of work-relief labor made available by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration on public health projects. Sanitary outdoor toilets were constructed in rural districts, malaria control drainage projects were carried out, and abandoned mines were sealed to prevent the pollution of streams by acid wastes. A project for the control of endemic typhus fever consisted in rat-flea surveys, rat extermination, and the promotion of rat-proofing of buildings.

Division of Scientific Research

The program of cancer research was continued during the year. The investigations pursued at the Office of Cancer Investigations located at the Harvard Medical School, Boston, Mass., included studies of the biological effects of radiation, resistance and susceptibility to malignant growths, and biochemical and cytological studies.

At the National Institute of Health, cancer research included an investigation of the effects of certain chemical agents upon the various phases of mitosis in Amoeba proteus, a continuation of the study of growth of the Walker 256 rat mammary carcinoma in vivo and in tissue culture, and an attempt to influence the growth of a spontaneous mammary tumor of the mouse.

Heart disease investigations dealt with the geographical distribution of the etiological types of heart disease in the United States, the methods of reporting, recording, and statistically presenting heart disease mortality, the epidemiology of rheumatic heart disease in a locality, and the etiology of rheumatic heart disease.

Clinical observations of leprosy were directed toward the development of better criteria for the diagnosis of cases in the early stages of the disease, including determination of the significance of a positive Wassermann or Kahn test in differentiating leprosy from syphilis, the administration of a heterologous antigen to produce a mild fever and leukocytosis, and the administration of small doses of colloidal and soluble bismuth preparations to stimulate acute progressions with succeeding regressions.

As a result of studies of malaria control by means of the drugs atabrine and plasmochin, it was concluded that drug treatment does not control the malaria rate in the tropics, although it does improve the general health of the population and its capacity to work.

During the year seven different foodstuffs were tested for their pellagra-preventive value by animal experimentation. Rabbit meat, lean pork shoulder, and chicken were found to be good sources of the pellagra-preventive vitamin; cottonseed meal and evaporated peaches to be relatively poor sources of the vitamin; and prunes and canned beets to contain little or none of the pellagra-preventive vitamin.

The net usable production of Rocky Mountain spotted fever vaccine was 248.4 liters, an increase of 36.6 liters over the 1934 production. This amount was sufficient for the immunization of about 60,000 persons. Cases of spotted fever were reported for the first time from the States of Illinois and Oklahoma, making a total of 34 States in which spotted fever is known to be endemic.

Child hygiene activities have been related to a study of the hearing of school children, studies of physical status, growth, and development of children, and a study of midwifery as practiced by colored midwives in Virginia and North Carolina. Data obtained from the dental examination of over a million and a half school children in 26 States are being analyzed in an effort to determine the dental needs of children of school age.

Studies were made of the manufacturing processes and their relations to skin hazards in 22 plants employing 8,770 persons. About 5,000 employees of these plants were examined for industrial skin diseases.

The study of the effect of dust exposure on the health of miners in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania, conducted at the request of the Governor of the State, with the cooperation of operators and workers, has been completed. Other industrial hygiene studies have included a series of injections of dusts of known chemical and petrographic composition into guinea pigs to determine the nature of the injury caused by these dusts when injected into the body tissue and, therefore, their relative harmfulness; an investigation of the relation of pulmonary infection to pneumoconiosis; a study of silicosis and tuberculosis in zinc and lead miners; the pollution of air; and the incidence of illness among industrial workers.

Milk sanitation investigations dealt with the effect of variations in pH concentration and the effect of variations in buffer concentration upon the thermal resistance of the Public Health Service test organism used in testing milk pasteurization equipment. As a result of these tests it was determined that future studies of pasteurization equipment should be conducted at a pH concentration of 7.2 or a buffer concentration of m/675. Further studies were made of the bactericidal treatment of milk cans by means of hot air, and it was concluded that a temperature of 170° F. for 30 minutes would devitalize all milk-borne pathogens.

Sugar researches were continued, with special reference to studies on the oxidation of sucrose, the action of various acidic hydrolyzing agents on methyl glycosides, and on the 4-carbon sugar threose.

As a result of enzyme researches on invertase, a relatively convenient method has been developed for obtaining concentrated solutions of this enzyme.

Studies of various phases of the relation of sickness to the depression have shown that sickness among those on relief greatly exceeds sickness among those of reasonably comfortable economic status and those with very low incomes but not on relief. The high rate in this group suggests that the relief population contains a disproportionately large number of persons who have chronic diseases or physical defects or who are susceptible to frequent attacks of acute illness.

Experimental and observational data collected in recent years have indicated the desirability of practical limits of pollution for lakes and streams, for the avoidance of nuisance conditions, and for the protection of surface sources of public water supplies. Studies have been continued in sewage treatment to determine the conditions which affect detrimentally the biological activity upon which purification of sewage by the activated sludge process depends. A series of experimental observations has been instituted dealing with the physical and biochemical changes occurring in sewage sludge deposits under conditions approaching those of natural streams.

Reports on the eastern type of Rocky Mountain spotted fever and typhus fever have shown a definite increase in the number of cases of typhus in some of the Southern States, spotted fever remaining practically the same.

Studies of epidemic encephalitis indicate that immunity to the St. Louis type of encephalitis is wide-spread in the United States. Experiments also have shown that the instillation of alum into the nostrils of white mice tends to render them less susceptible to intranasal infection with this virus. It was found that monkeys treated intranasally with sodium aluminum sulphate solution were rendered resistant to intranasal instillation of the poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) virus.

Studies on the epidemiology of the amoebic dysentery outbreak originating in Chicago in 1933 were completed. Work has now been initiated with special reference to the bacillary type of dysentery as it occurs among Indians of the Southwest.

The epidemiology of the California outbreak of poliomyelitis in the summer of 1934 was investigated. The epidemic was mild and showed a tendency to attack older children and young adults to a greater extent than did epidemics of former years.

Division of Marine Hospitals and Relief

The marine hospitals and other relief stations treated a daily average of 4,936 in-patients and 3,153 out-patients. There were 49,018 patients who received hospital treatment during the year, as compared with 42,611 the previous year. Hospital and out-patient care was furnished at marine hospitals and other relief stations to a total of 332,034 beneficiaries. The number of hospital days was 176,032 more than last year.

During June 1935, funds became so limited that it was necessary to reduce the number of in-patients in marine and contract hospitals from 4,945 on June 1 to 4,455 on June 30. Operation of the hospitals became exceedingly difficult on account of inadequate appropriations and personnel. Because of an increase in the number of old-line beneficiaries, and because of Civil Works Administration patients for whose care no additional funds were provided, together with a steady rise in the cost of hospital supplies, it was necessary in June to secure a release of additional funds from the Treasury.

Notwithstanding the increased prices for supplies, the per diem cost of operation was kept down to $3.31. This was accomplished by keeping personnel at the lowest practicable number and by foregoing replacement and repair of equipment in normal amount.

Division of Venereal Diseases

Among the activities concerned with venereal diseases are investigations related to the control of syphilis and gonorrhea, to clinical studies of syphilis, and to experimental work in the laboratory.

The control work has been of a general character and has been conducted in cooperation with State and local health departments. An attempt has been made to obtain more complete morbidity reports of syphilis and gonorrhea by releasing monthly statements of the number of new cases of these diseases reported to State health departments.

From studies of the trend of the venereal diseases in this country, covering representative areas with more than 25,000,000 people, it is estimated that 1,555,000 new cases of gonorrhea and 518,000 new cases of syphilis annually seek treatment in the United States.

The results of the study to evaluate serodiagnostic tests for syphilis indicate the relative value of the tests which have been described by the serologists of the United States. By further evaluating serologic tests for syphilis in State and local laboratories it will be possible to measure the adaptability of each test for workers other than the original serologist who described the test.

A series of scientific papers on the treatment of cardiovascular syphilis has been completed. These papers represent a portion of the clinical studies which have been under way for 6 or 7 years and are based upon records provided by 5 of the leading clinics of the country. In addition to the studies of the treatment of cardiovascular syphilis, a scientific paper was also published on the results attained by the modern treatment of early syphilis as compared with the treatment employed several decades ago.

The informative and educational program has been continued. For physicians the monthly abstract journal, Venereal Disease Information, has served a very useful function and its circulation has increased. References to current medical literature and reprints of scientific articles have been furnished to physicians and health officers. Pamphlets pertaining to the prevention and treatment of the venereal diseases and to sex education have also been available for general distribution.

The Public Health Service Clinic at Hot Springs National Park, Ark., continued to treat a constantly increasing number of patients, who came to seek the beneficial effects of the waters of Hot Springs. Approximately two-thirds of these individuals are infected with venereal disease.

Division of Mental Hygiene

The activities of the Division of Mental Hygiene included studies of the nature and treatment of drug addiction and dissemination of information upon the subject; studies of the abusive uses of narcotic drugs; administrative functions incident to the establishment of narcotic farms; provision of medical and psychiatric services for the Federal penal and correctional system; and cooperation with other agencies interested in various phases of the work of the Division.

Studies of the nature of drug addiction were continued at the United States Penitentiary Annex, Fort Leavenworth, Kans., during the first half of the year. Experimental investigations were conducted on the value of certain substitutes for morphine. All of these substitutes were found to have addictive properties similar to morphine. Studies were also undertaken in connection with the treatment of drug addiction.

A process for manufacturing dihydrodesoxymorphine-D was patented and its custody lodged, ex officio, with the Secretary of the Treasury. Further studies of the addiction liability of this new substance were carried on among cancer patients, the results of which indicate that the substance in question has very limited clinical value and exceedingly dangerous addictive properties.

Further information concerning the incidence and other factors in drug addiction were collected during the year, and several publications were issued on the various phases of this subject.

The first United States Narcotic Farm at Lexington, Ky., was formally dedicated and opened by the Surgeon General on May 25, 1935. Admissions were accepted on and after May 29, 1935, and at the close of the fiscal year 280 persons had been admitted for the treatment of drug addiction. Preliminary plans for the second institution at Fort Worth, Tex., have been approved, and it is anticipated that the contract for the necessary buildings will be accepted early in the autumn of 1935.

The Attorney General has requested the Public Health Service to extend the psychiatric work conducted for the Federal penal and correctional system to all Federal courts.

Division of Personnel and Accounts

Personnel.—The reduction of the personnel in marine hospitals and quarantine stations, made necessary by decreased appropriations, and the increase in the number of patients has presented administrative problems. At the hospitals for the past few years it has been necessary to assign medical internes to duties which should be performed by more experienced medical officers.

On July 1, 1935, the regular commissioned corps of the Public Health Service consisted of 335 commissioned officers and 64 reserve officers on active duty. Other personnel of the service totaled 5,896, not including 4,643 collaborating and assistant collaborating epidemiologists who served at nominal compensation and who were for the most part officers or employees of State and local health organizations.

DIVISION OF RESEARCH AND STATISTICS

The Division of Research and Statistics in the Office of the Secretary of the Treasury and the position of Director of Research and Statistics were created by an order of the Secretary dated September 17, 1934. By the terms of the order the Director of Research and Statistics exercises responsibility for the production, analysis, and publication of statistics, and the conduct of economic research in all branches of the Department.

The Division, which absorbed the duties of the Section of Financial and Economic Research, pursues intensive research in the fields of taxation, Federal financing, and monetary problems, and supplies information and analyses over a broad range of economic subjects.

Taxation

A continuing function of the research staff of the Division is the preparation of estimates of tax receipts for the current and the succeeding fiscal years. This work involves estimates in detail of receipts from each source of Federal revenue. Research is likewise undertaken in connection with all changes in the Federal tax structure. Studies are also in process relating to the extent and character of conflicting and overlapping taxation by Federal, State, and local governments.

Federal financing

The Division acts in a research capacity to the Secretary of the Treasury in problems relating to Treasury financing. Domestic conditions affecting the financing are analyzed, and foreign methods of financing are studied.

Monetary problems

The Division is charged with the responsibility of providing data, surveys, analyses, and reports on a broad range of domestic and foreign economic subjects to aid the Secretary of the Treasury in connection with the monetary problems arising out of the operation of the stabilization fund, the international movements of gold, the relationship of the dollar to foreign currencies, and the execution of the provisions of the numerous acts pertaining to the purchase of gold and silver.

The Emergency Banking Act of March 9, 1933, the Farm Relief Act of May 12, 1933, the London Silver Agreement of July 22, 1933, the Gold Reserve Act of January 30, 1934, the Silver Purchase Act of June 19, 1934, and the various Presidential orders contain provisions for action by the Secretary of the Treasury the performance of which requires careful economic analysis of the numerous factors involved. Among the subjects which call for constant study are production, stocks, use, and movements of gold and of silver; short-term and long-term capital movements; foreign exchange movements and controls; foreign central bank policies and actions; and those economic and financial conditions in foreign countries which have a direct bearing on these problems.

Machinery has been set up to obtain detailed reports weekly from all banks, brokers, and dealers, of changes in bank balances held by foreigners, and in balances held abroad by Americans, and of all international security transactions and foreign exchange operations. These data are tabulated and analyzed, and reports are made weekly to the Secretary.

Studies of price and exchange movements and of the results of current changes in international balances of payments and trade, are also carried on to determine the position of the dollar in relation to other currencies.

Actuarial analysis

The Government Actuary, who is a member of the Division of Research and Statistics, makes various studies relating to insurance, pensions, and finance, and serves as a member of the Federal Board of Actuaries under the provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act. The Social Security Act requires the Secretary of the Treasury to include in his annual report the actuarial status of the old-age reserve account. The actuarial work in this connection will be performed by the Government Actuary.

SECRET SERVICE DIVISION

During the fiscal year 1935, 3,657 persons were arrested by agents of the Service, or by their direction, on charges involving counterfeiting of the obligations and coins of the United States and forgery, as well as miscellaneous offenses against the statutes relating to the Treasury Department. Of this number, 1,562 were note counterfeiters and note passers, 57 were note raisers and passers of altered currency, 779 were coin counterfeiters and coin passers, 529 were check forgers, 15 were apprehended for negotiating stolen or forged bonds, 5 were held for fraudulent negotiation of adjusted service certificates, 15 were arrested for violating the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, and 191 for miscellaneous offenses; and 504 were dismissed.

Ten new counterfeit issues were discovered, all photo-mechanical productions and, for the most part, deceptive and warranting distribution of descriptive warning circulars. In addition, 66 counterfeits of varying types of workmanship were discovered in different sections of the country. The latter issues generally were extremely crude productions and were quickly suppressed.

Counterfeit notes aggregating $1,418,464 were captured or seized during the year by operatives of the Service. This total includes altered currency aggregating $4,270, of which $980 was made and passed in foreign countries, and fractional currency amounting to $276.25. Counterfeit coins to the amount of $74,847.27 were confiscated by agents in connection with raids and subsequent arrests, and $94 of counterfeit foreign notes and coins were also seized.

In connection with investigations and arrests, operatives captured or seized 349 metal plates, 249 film and glass negatives for printing counterfeit obligations and securities, 24½ steel dies, 57 metal molds, 466 plaster molds, and 3 wood molds for counterfeiting coins, and a large quantity of miscellaneous paraphernalia and materials.

Of the counterfeit notes captured during the year, a total of $379,539 was used in evidence against the makers and passers, and $1,140 of altered notes were likewise used in evidence in the prosecution of note raisers and passers of altered notes. Counterfeit coins totaling $5,101.64 were also used in evidence in cases of this character.

Of the cases brought to trial, 1,885 persons were convicted and sentenced, 158 were acquitted, 828 are awaiting action of the courts, while others were variously disposed of, some being committed to insane asylums and others delivered to the military and police authorities. The 504 persons who were dismissed after having been apprehended in company with known criminals are listed as suspects and their records are known to the Service.

Agents during the year conducted investigations of 2,374 check cases, 57 bond cases, and 3 war savings stamp cases. In check case investigations, the sum of $5,262.51 was received in restitution and transmitted to the Department.

There were referred to the Service for investigation 62 cases from the Veterans' Administration, involving violation of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act; 30 cases from the Farm Credit Administration, involving offenses against the Farm Loan Act; and 424 cases involving violation of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934. Inquiries in 173 cases were received from the Procurement Division for information concerning prospective bidders on Government supplies.

TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES

Public moneys are received and disbursed through the accounts of the Treasurer of the United States with designated Government depositaries and the Treasury at Washington.

Funds appropriated by Congress for the use of the various departments and establishments of the Government are advanced to disbursing officers as required and credited to their accounts on the books of the Treasurer, and all disbursements therefrom are made by checks drawn on the Treasurer.

The total receipts and total expenditures of the Government for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are compared in the following table. The figures used in this table and throughout this section of the report (pp. 173 to 177, inclusive), are on the basis of daily Treasury statements (revised). Funds were advanced to United States disbursing officers by accountable warrants issued in an aggregate amount of $7,054,861,015.02. Warrants aggregating $13,143,937,106.27 were also issued covering public debt principal and interest payments by the Treasurer. Treasurer's checks aggregating $124,811,711.37 were issued on settlement warrants in payment of claims settled by the Comptroller General.

Drafts were purchased in payment of claims settled in 57 different kinds of foreign currencies for the Comptroller General and for other departments and bureaus of the Government at a total cost of $170,290.61.

Checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States by Government disbursing officers and paid during the year numbered 71,340,442, a decrease of 33,276,202 checks as compared with the previous year. Balances to the credit of disbursing officers and Government agencies in 4,690 accounts on June 30, 1935, amounted to $1,277,067,364.17, an increase of $417,916,496.93 over the total of such balances in 4,467 accounts on June 30, 1934.

WAR FINANCE CORPORATION

(In liquidation)

By the act of Congress approved March 1, 1929, the liquidation of the War Finance Corporation's assets remaining after the close of business, April 4, 1929, and the winding up of the affairs of the Corporation thereafter were transferred to the Secretary of the Treasury. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 1935, the liquidation of the Corporation was continued.

Pursuant to an order of the Secretary of the Treasury approved by the President January 24, 1935, the disbursing functions of the War Finance Corporation were transferred, under the provisions of Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933, as amended, to the Division of Disbursement effective February 1, 1935, together with the personnel engaged in the performance of such disbursing functions.

The Corporation has outstanding only $10,000 of its original capital of $500,000,000, capital stock of $499,990,000 having been retired at par. During the year the Corporation collected the balance due on the security taken by the Corporation in the reorganization of an industrial company which had received an advance during the war. The liquidation of this war loan advance in full enabled the Corporation to pay into the Treasury on March 1, 1935, the sum of $100,000, increasing to $64,731,271.70 the amount paid into the Treasury on account of earnings.

The amount advanced by the Corporation for all purposes, from its creation, not including such part of new applications as represented proceeds used to retire other advances, was $690,431,100, of which $688,604,140 has been repaid.

The total assets carried on the Corporation's books on June 30, 1935, amounted to $130,192.77, which consisted of cash of $122,220.15; furniture and fixtures of $1; and agricultural and livestock loans (including expense advances of $372.22) of $7,971.62. During the year no expense advances were made. The total receipts amounted to $129,676.94, including repayments aggregating $128,201.86, of which $10,825.96 was applied on account of the Corporation's agricultural and livestock loans and $117,375.90 on account of war loans. Total expenditures, excluding $100,000 paid into the Treasury, amounted to $5,838.43.

EXHIBITS

THE PUBLIC DEBT

Issues and redemptions of United States bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness

Exhibit 1

Offering of 1½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1936, 2½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938, and 3¼ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46 (additional)

On September 10, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau offered for subscription two series of Treasury notes and an issue of bonds in exchange for Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TS-1934 maturing September 15, 1934, and Fourth Liberty Loan 4¼ percent bonds called for redemption October 15, 1934. In the related press release it was stated that the amount of Treasury certificates maturing September 15, 1934, was $524,748,500, and the amount of Fourth Liberty Loan bonds eligible for exchange for the new securities was slightly less than $1,250,000,000.

[Treasury notes, series D-1936. Department Circular No. 522]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, September 10, 1934.

EXCHANGE OFFERING OF NOTES

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for subscription, at par, 1½ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series D-1936, in payment of which only Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TS-1934, maturing September 15, 1934, may be tendered. The amount of the offering is limited to the amount of Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TS-1934 tendered and accepted.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The notes will be dated September 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable semiannually on March 15 and September 15 in each year. They will mature September 15, 1936, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

The notes shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

The notes will be accepted at par during such time and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes.

The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies.

Subject to the reservations made in the next succeeding paragraph, all subscriptions will be allotted in full.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment at par for any notes allotted under this circular must be made on or before September 15, 1934, or on later allotment, and may be made only in Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TS-1934, maturing September 15, 1934, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for notes allotted, to make delivery of notes on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive notes.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

[Treasury notes, series D-1938. Department Circular No. 523]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, September 10, 1934.

EXCHANGE OFFERING OF NOTES

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for subscription, at par, $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series D-1938, in payment of which only Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1933-38 included in the second call for redemption on October 15, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s),¹ may be tendered.

The amount of the offering is limited to the amount of second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s tendered and accepted. Fourth Liberty Loan bonds not included in the second call for redemption on October 15, 1934, will not be accepted for exchange under this circular.²

In addition to the exchange offering under this circular, holders of second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s are also offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of such called bonds for $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46, which offering is set forth in Department Circular No. 524, issued simultaneously with this circular.

The notes will be dated September 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent per annum, payable semiannually on March 15 and September 15 in each year. They will mature September 15, 1938, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.³ * * *

² First-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (which ceased to bear interest on Apr. 15, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 9, 0, or 1 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter J, K, or A, respectively), and uncalled Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s bear serial numbers ending in 3, 4, 5, 6, or 7 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter C, D, E, F, or G, respectively).

Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. * * *

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment at par for any notes allotted under this circular must be made on or before September 15, 1934, or on later allotment, and may be made only in second-called Fourth 4¼'s, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription. If any subscription is rejected, in whole or in part, the second-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered therewith and not accepted will be returned to the subscriber.

Interest on second-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered and accepted will be paid in full to October 15, 1934, on which date interest on all second-called Fourth 4¼'s will cease. Such payments will be made, in the case of coupon bonds, through payment of coupons dated October 15, 1934, when due, which coupons must be detached by holders before presentation of the bonds for exchange for the notes offered hereunder, and, in the case of registered bonds, through the issue of interest checks in regular course for final interest due October 15, 1934, in favor of the holders of record on September 15, 1934.

SURRENDER OF SECOND-CALLED FOURTH 4¼'S ON EXCHANGE

Coupon bonds.—Second-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in exchange for Treasury notes offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasurer of the United States and should accompany the application. All coupons bearing dates subsequent to October 15, 1934,⁴ should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the application must be accompanied with cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons.⁵ The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

Registered bonds.—Second-called Fourth 4¼'s in registered form tendered in exchange for Treasury notes offered hereunder, should be assigned by the registered payee or assigns thereof to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury notes of series D-1938", in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the application to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions * * *.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

³Omitted portions similar to corresponding sections of Department Circular No. 522, p. 181.

⁴It will be noted that second-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in exchange for 3¼ percent Treasury bonds under Department Circular No. 524 must have the Oct. 15, 1934, coupons attached as the interest represented by such coupons will be applied to the accrued interest on the 3¼ percent Treasury bonds issued in exchange and the balance paid on delivery of such bonds or promptly following allotment.

[Treasury bonds of 1944-46. Department Circular No. 524]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Washington, September 10, 1934.

EXCHANGE OFFERING OF BONDS

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, for refunding purposes, invites subscriptions, at par with an adjustment of accrued interest as of September 15, 1934, from the people of the United States, for $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46, in payment of which only Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1933-38 included in the second call for redemption on October 15, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) may be tendered.¹ The amount of the additional issue of $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46 will be limited to the amount of second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s tendered and accepted. Fourth Liberty Loan bonds not included in the second call for redemption on October 15, 1934, will not be accepted for exchange under this circular.²

In addition to the exchange offering under this circular, holders of second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s are also offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of such called bonds for $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938, which offering is set forth in Department Circular No. 523, issued simultaneously with this circular.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 508, dated April 4, 1934, are identical in all respects therewith, will be freely interchangeable, and are described in the following quotation from said Circular No. 508:

"The bonds will be dated April 16, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent per annum, payable on October 15, 1934, on a semiannual basis, and thereafter semiannually on April 15 and October 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature April 15, 1946, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after April 15, 1944, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption, the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

"Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached and bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds and for the transfer of registered bonds under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

"The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by said act approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed $5,000 owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

"The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, and will bear the circulation privilege only to the extent provided in the act approved July 22, 1932, as amended. They will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

² Footnote omitted here, see footnote 2, p. 182.

"The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter issued, governing United States bonds."

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies.

Subject to the reservations made in the next succeeding paragraph, all subscriptions will be allotted in full.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment at par and accrued interest to September 15, 1934, for any bonds allotted under this circular must be made on or before September 15, 1934, or on later allotment. Payment of the principal amount may be made only in second-called Fourth 4¼'s, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription. If any subscription is rejected, in whole or in part, the second-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered therewith and not accepted will be returned to the subscriber.

Interest on second-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered and accepted will be paid in full to October 15, 1934. In the case of coupon bonds accepted in exchange such interest will be anticipated and paid upon the terms and conditions hereinafter prescribed. Interest on all second-called Fourth 4¼'s will cease on October 15, 1934.

Coupon bonds.—Coupon bonds tendered in payment should have coupons dated October 15, 1934, as well as all subsequent coupons attached: 3¼ percent Treasury bonds in coupon form issued in exchange will have all coupons attached, including the coupon maturing October 15, 1934, and a payment of the amount by which the 4¼ percent coupon maturing October 15, 1934, exceeds the accrued interest from April 16 to September 15, 1934, of the 3¼ percent coupon maturing October 15, 1934 (such excess being $7.752732 per $1000 principal amount), will be made upon delivery of the 3¼ percent coupon bond; 3¾ percent Treasury bonds in registered form issued in exchange will bear interest from September 15, 1934; and a payment of the full amount of the 4¼ percent coupon maturing October 15, 1934, will be made promptly following allotment.

Registered bonds.—Interest on registered bonds tendered in payment and accepted will be payable on October 15, 1934, to the holders of record on September 15, 1934, the date of closing of the transfer books; 3¼ percent registered bonds issued in exchange for registered bonds will bear interest from September 15, 1934, and no cash payment for accrued interest will be required; 3¼ percent Treasury bonds in coupon form issued in exchange for registered bonds will have all coupons attached, including the coupon maturing October 15, 1934; accordingly, a cash payment for accrued interest from April 16 to September 15, 1934 ($13.497268 per $1,000 principal amount), must accompany the application.

SURRENDER OF SECOND-CALLED FOURTH 4¼'S ON EXCHANGE

Coupon bonds.—Second-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasurer of the United States and should accompany the application. Coupons dated October 15, 1934,³ and all coupons bearing dates subsequent to October 15, 1934, should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the application must be accompanied with cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons.⁴ The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

³ It will be noted that second-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in exchange for 2½ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938 under Department Circular No. 523 will not have the October 15, 1934, coupon attached; and there will, accordingly, be no anticipation of interest upon exchange for notes under such circular.

Registered bonds.—Second-called Fourth $\frac{1}{4}$'s in registered form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder should be assigned by the registered payee or assigns thereof in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange in one of the forms hereafter set forth, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the application to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. If Treasury bonds are desired registered in the same name as the so-called Fourth $\frac{1}{4}$'s surrendered, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1944-46"; if Treasury bonds are desired registered in another name, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1944-46 in the name of -----"; if Treasury bonds in coupon form are desired, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1944-46 in coupon form to be delivered to -----."

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments on the basis and up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 2

Allotments on exchange subscriptions, Treasury notes of series D-1936 and series D-1938, and Treasury bonds of 1944-46 (from press releases, Sept. 13, 17, 19, 21, and 25, Oct. 1, 1934, and Jan. 3, 1935, revised⁵)

On September 12, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced that the subscription books for the exchange offering of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series D-1936 would close at the close of business September 13, 1934. Subscriptions aggregating \$514,066,000 were received for these notes, which were open only to the holders of Treasury certificates of indebtedness maturing September 15, 1934.

The subscription books for the offering of $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series D-1938 closed at the close of business September 24, 1934. Subscriptions for these notes, offered in exchange for Fourth Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on October 15, 1934, aggregated \$596,416,100.

The subscription books for the offering of the additional issue of $3\frac{1}{4}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1944-46 remained open until the close of business October 11, 1934. Subscriptions for these bonds, also issued in exchange for the called Fourth Liberty Loan bonds, aggregated \$456,898,300.

The amount offered of each of the three issues was limited to the amount of tenders accepted of maturing Treasury certificates or called Fourth Liberty Loan bonds for which the particular issue was offered in exchange. Allotments were divided among the several Federal Reserve districts and the Treasury as follows:

Partial redemption on April 15, 1935, of Fourth Liberty Loan bonds before maturity (third call)

On October 12, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau issued a third call for the redemption on April 15, 1935, of three series of outstanding $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent Fourth Liberty Loan bonds. This call included about \$1,870,000,000 of bonds.

The first call, issued October 12, 1933, included about $1,880,000,000 of bonds called for redemption on April 15, 1934; and the second call, issued April 13, 1934, included about $1,250,000,000 of bonds called for redemption on October 15, 1934. Through refunding during the previous 12 months about $2,750,000,000 of bonds under the first two calls were exchanged for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, while about $380,000,000 of the bonds either were paid or were to be paid in cash.

The text of the formal notice of call of October 12, 1934, was as follows:

To Holders of Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ Percent Bonds of 1933-38 and Others Concerned:

Public notice is hereby given:

1. All outstanding Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1933-38 (Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) bearing serial numbers the final digit of which is 5, 6, or 7 (such serial numbers in the case of permanent coupon bonds being prefixed by the corresponding distinguishing letter E, F, or G, respectively), are hereby called for redemption on April 15, 1935, on which date interest on such bonds called for redemption will cease.

2. This third call for partial redemption is made pursuant to the provision for redemption contained in the bonds and in Treasury Department Circular No. 121, dated September 28, 1918, under which the bonds were originally issued, the bonds to be redeemed having been determined by lot in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

3. Outstanding Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s bearing serial numbers (and prefix letters) other than those designated are not included in or affected by this third call for partial redemption.

Holders of the Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s now called for redemption on April 15, 1935, may, in advance of that date, be offered the privilege of exchanging their third-called bonds for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, in which event public notice will hereafter be given.

Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s under this call is given in Department Circular No. 525, dated October 12, 1934.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Washington, October 12, 1934.

[Department Circular No. 525]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, October 12, 1934.

To Holders of Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent Bonds of 1933-38, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF THIRD CALL FOR PARTIAL REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY OF FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN $4\frac{1}{4}$ PERCENT BONDS OF 1933-38 (FOURTH $4\frac{1}{4}$ 'S)¹

1. All outstanding Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1933-38 (Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) bearing serial numbers the final digit of which is 5, 6, or 7 (such serial numbers in the case of permanent coupon bonds being prefixed by the corresponding distinguishing letter E, F, or G, respectively), are hereby called for redemption on April 15, 1935, on which date interest on such bonds called for redemption will cease.

2. This third call for partial redemption is made pursuant to the provision for redemption contained in the bonds and in Treasury Department Circular No. 121, dated September 28, 1918, under which the bonds were originally issued, the bonds to be redeemed having been determined by lot in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

3. Outstanding Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s bearing serial numbers (and prefix letters) other than those designated are not included in or affected by this third call for partial redemption.

II. TRANSACTIONS IN THIRD-CALLED AND UNCALLED BONDS

1. The bonds included in the third call for partial redemption on April 15, 1935, are hereby designated third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s.

2. The Treasury Department and the Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, will observe the division of Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s into four classes, first-called, second-called, third-called, and uncalled bonds.² Hereafter, in all transactions affecting third-called and uncalled Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s: (1) Only bonds falling within the class third-called will be issued upon exchange or transfer of third-called bonds, and (2) only bonds falling within the class uncalled will be issued upon exchange or transfer of uncalled bonds. Exchanges or transfers as between third-called and uncalled Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s will not be permitted. Denominational exchanges of coupon bonds within the class third-called will terminate on April 15, 1935. Transfers and exchanges of registered bonds within the class third-called will terminate on March 15, 1935, the date of the closing of the transfer books.

3. Pursuant to the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 121, dated September 28, 1918, the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 300, dated July 31, 1923, prescribing regulations with respect to United States bonds and notes, as modified by Department Circulars No. 501, dated October 12, 1933, and No. 509, dated April 13, 1934, are further modified to accord with the provisions of paragraph 2 of this section.

III. PAYMENT OR EXCHANGE

1. Payment of third-called bonds on April 15, 1935.—Holders of third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s will be entitled to have such bonds redeemed and paid at par

² First-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Apr. 15, 1934—Department Circular No. 501, dated Oct. 12, 1933) bear serial numbers ending in 9, 0, or 1 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter J, K, or A, respectively); second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Oct. 15, 1934—Department Circular No. 509, dated Apr. 13, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 8 or 2 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter H or B, respectively); third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Apr. 15, 1935) bear serial numbers ending in 5, 6, or 7 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter E, F, or G, respectively); and uncalled Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s bear serial numbers ending in 3 or 4 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds, preceded by the distinguishing letter C or D, respectively).

on April 15, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After April 15, 1935, interest will not accrue on any such bonds included in the third call for partial redemption. (Instructions for presentation of such third-called bonds for redemption on Apr. 15, 1935, are set forth in secs. IV and V of this circular.)

2. Optional exchange offering.—Holders of third-called Fourth 4¼'s may, in advance of April 15, 1935, be offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of their third-called bonds for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, in which event due public notice will be given. Holders who desire to avail themselves of any exchange privilege, if and when offered, should watch for an announcement thereof, and should request their bank or trust company to notify them when information regarding any exchange offering is received. (In case of an exchange offering, instructions then given in the public announcement should be followed in presenting third-called bonds for exchange.)

IV. REDEMPTION OF THIRD-CALLED FOURTH 4¼'S

1. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—Third-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for redemption on April 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 7 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1416 attached hereto). Checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

2. Coupons dated April 15, 1935, which become payable on that date, should be detached from any third-called Fourth 4¼'s before such bonds are presented for redemption on April 15, 1935, and such coupons should be collected in regular course when due. All coupons pertaining to such bonds bearing dates subsequent to April 15, 1935, must be attached to such bonds when presented for redemption, provided, however, if any such coupons are missing from bonds so presented for redemption the bonds nevertheless will be redeemed, but the full face amount of any such missing coupons will be deducted from the payment to be made on account of such redemption, and any amounts so deducted will be held in the Treasury to provide for adjustments or refunds on account of such missing coupons as may subsequently be presented.³

3. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—Third-called Fourth 4¼'s in registered form must be assigned by the registered payees or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments, in the form indicated in the next paragraph hereof, and should thereafter be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for redemption on April 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 7 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1417 attached hereto). In all cases checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

4. If the registered holder of record, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered holder of record, or a duly constituted representative of such registered holder or assignee, desires that payment of the principal be made to him, the bonds should be assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption." In case it is desired to have payment of the registered bonds made to someone other than the registered holder of record, without intermediate assignment, the bonds may be assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for account of ——" and in such case the name and address of the payee for whose account the redemption is to be made must be inserted. Assignments in this form must be completed before acknowledgment and not left in blank.

³ The final coupon attached to temporary coupon bonds became due on Oct. 15, 1920. The holders of any such temporary bonds which are included in the third call for partial redemption on Apr. 15, 1935, will receive all past-due interest from Oct. 15, 1920, when the bonds are redeemed pursuant to such call. Any coupons now attached to any such temporary bonds should be detached and collected in regular course.

5. Assignment in blank, or other assignment having similar effect, will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

6. Final interest due on April 15, 1935, on any third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s in registered form will be paid by checks issued in regular course in the same manner as if such bonds had not been called for redemption.

7. Transportation of bonds.—Bonds presented for redemption under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Coupon bonds should be forwarded by registered mail, insured, or by express, prepaid. Registered bonds bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but registered bonds bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail, insured, or by express. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail, insured, may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

V. TIME OF PRESENTATION OF THIRD-CALLED FOURTH $4\frac{1}{4}$ 'S FOR REDEMPTION

1. In order to facilitate the redemption of third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s on April 15, 1935, any such bonds may be presented and surrendered in the manner herein prescribed in advance of that date but not before March 15, 1935. Such early presentation by holders, on and after March 15, 1935, and well in advance of April 15, 1935, will assure prompt payment of principal when due. This is particularly important with respect to registered bonds, for payment cannot be made until registration shall have been discharged at the Treasury Department.

2. It will expedite redemption if bonds included in the third call for partial redemption are presented to Federal Reserve banks or branches, and not direct to the Treasury Department.

3. As hereinbefore provided: (1) Coupons due April 15, 1935, should be detached from any permanent coupon bonds included in the third call for partial redemption when such bonds are presented for redemption on that date, such coupons to be collected when due; and (2) final interest due on any registered bonds included in the third call for partial redemption will be paid by check issued in regular course. Accordingly, early presentation of bonds will not affect the payment of final interest due on April 15, 1935.

VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the partial redemption of third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., where copies of the Treasury Department's regulations governing assignments may also be obtained.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.

IMPORTANT NOTE.—Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s called for redemption on Apr. 15, 1935, should be presented well in advance of that date but not before Mar. 15, 1935, and the instructions given in this circular should be followed. If an exchange opportunity is afforded, and third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s are to be presented for exchange, the instructions given in subsequent announcement should be followed. Information concerning the redemption of third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s on Apr. 15, 1935, and information concerning an optional exchange if and when offered, may be obtained from the officers of banks and trust companies generally. As those banks and trust companies may offer their facilities in the matter of arranging redemption or exchange, it is suggested that holders of third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s consult their own bank or trust company.

Offering of 3½ percent Treasury bonds of 1949-52, 1½ percent Treasury notes of series E-1936, and 2½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1939 (additional)

On December 3, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau offered for subscription an issue of Treasury bonds and two issues of Treasury notes as described in the following circulars. In the related press release it was stated that about $992,496,500 of maturing Treasury certificates of indebtedness and about $137,000,000 of interest on the public debt would be payable on December 15, 1934.

[Treasury bonds of 1949-52. Department Circular No. 526]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
 Washington, December 3, 1934.

OFFERING OF BONDS

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States, for 3½ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury bonds of 1949-52. The amount of the offering is $450,000,000, or thereabouts.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds will be dated December 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 3½ percent per annum, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature December 15, 1952, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after December 15, 1949, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such methods as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, and will bear the circulation privilege only to the extent provided in the act approved July 22, 1932, as amended. They will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Applications, unless made by an incorporated bank or trust company, must be accompanied by payment in full or by payment of 5 percent of the amount of bonds applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any of all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, subscriptions for amounts up to and including $10,000 will be given preferred allotment, and all other subscriptions will be allotted on an equal percentage basis. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of allotment will be publicly announced.

PAYMENT

Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before December 15, 1934, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent payment with application shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depository will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions¹ * * *.

Secretary of the Treasury.

[Treasury notes, series E-1936. Department Circular No. 527]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, December 3, 1934.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for subscription, at par and accrued interest, 1½ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series E-1936. The amount of the offering is $450,000,000, or thereabouts, with the right reserved to the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the offering by an amount sufficient to accept all subscriptions for which Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934, are tendered in payment and accepted.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The notes will be dated December 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 in each year. They will mature June 15, 1936, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.² * * *

² Omitted portions similar to corresponding sections of Department Circular No. 522. p. 181.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. If payment is to be made in cash, each application, unless made by an incorporated bank or trust company, must be accompanied by payment in full or by payment of 5 percent of the amount of notes applied for. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, cash subscriptions for amounts up to and including $10,000 will be given preferred allotment, all other cash subscriptions will be allotted on an equal percentage basis, and subscriptions in payment of which Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934 are tendered will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment, and the basis of allotment will be publicly announced.

PAYMENT

Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted on cash subscriptions must be made or completed on or before December 15, 1934, or on later allotment. In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent payment with application shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States. Any qualified depository will be permitted to make payment by credit for notes allotted on cash subscriptions to it for itself and its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve bank of its district. Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934, will be accepted at par in payment for any notes subscribed for and allotted and such payment should be made when the subscription is tendered.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions * * *

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

[Treasury notes, series A 1939. Department Circular No. 528]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, December 3, 1934.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for subscription, at par, an additional amount of 2½ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series A-1939, in payment of which only Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934, may be tendered. The amount of the offering is limited to the amount of Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934 rendered and accepted.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The notes now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 2½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1939 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 513, dated June 4, 1934, are identical in all respects therewith (except that interest on the notes issued under this circular will accrue from Dec. 15, 1934), will be freely interchangeable, and are described in the following quotation from said circular no. 513:

"The notes will be dated June 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, on December 15, 1934, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year. They will mature June 15, 1939, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

"The notes shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

"The notes will be accepted at par during such time and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes.

"The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

"Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form."

As interest on the notes issued under this circular will accrue from December 15, 1934, notes will be delivered hereunder with coupon no. 1, dated December 15, 1934, detached.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT†

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

PAYMENT

Payment at par for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before December 15, 1934, or on later allotment, and may be made only in 2¼ percent Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subscriptions and allotments, Treasury bonds of 1949-52 and Treasury notes of series E-1936 and series A-1939 (from press releases, Dec. 4, 5, 7, and 12, 1934, revised²)

On December 4, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced that the subscription books for the cash offering of 3½ percent Treasury bonds of 1949-52 closed at the close of business December 3, 1934. Reports received from the Federal Reserve banks show that for this offering, which was for $450,000,000 or thereabouts, total subscriptions aggregated $2,334,467,500. Subscriptions in amounts up to and including $10,000 were allotted in full and those in amounts over $10,000 were allotted 18 percent but not less than $10,000 on any one subscription.

The subscription books for the offering of 1½ percent Treasury notes of series E-1936 also closed at the close of business on December 3, 1934, for the receipt of cash subscriptions, but remained open until the close of business December 6, 1934, for the receipt of subscriptions for which payment was tendered in Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934.

For the cash offering of Treasury notes of series E-1936, which was for $450,000,000 or thereabouts, subscriptions aggregated $3,036,069,900. Cash subscriptions in amounts up to and including $10,000 were allotted in full, and those in amounts over $10,000 were allotted 14 percent, but not less than $10,000 on any one subscription. Exchange subscriptions for the Treasury notes of series E-1936 aggregated $210,132,500 and were allotted in full.

The subscription books for the offering of the additional issue of Treasury notes of series A-1939, issued only in exchange for Treasury certificates of indebtedness of series TD-1934, maturing December 15, 1934, closed at the close of business December 6, 1934. Total subscriptions, amounting to $765,192,500, were allotted in full.

Subscriptions and allotments for the three issues were divided among the several Federal Reserve districts and the Treasury as follows:

Offering of United States Saving Bonds, series A

On March 1, 1935, the Secretary of the Treasury offered for sale, through the Postal Service, United States Savings Bonds, series A, as described in the following circular:

[Department Circular No. 529]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Washington, February 25, 1935.

OFFERING OF UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS, SERIES A

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers for sale, to the people of the United States, through the Postal Service, an issue of bonds of the United States, designated United States Savings Bonds, series A, which will be issued on a discount basis, will mature in 10 years, but will be redeemable before maturity at the option of owners. Beginning March 1, 1935, these bonds will be on sale at post offices of the first, second, and third classes and at selected post offices of the fourth class, in amounts of $25 (maturity value) and multiples thereof; and they will continue to be on sale until this offering is terminated by notice given by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Postmaster General.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS OFFERED

United States Savings Bonds, series A, will be issued only in registered form, in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500, and $1,000 (maturity value), at prices hereinafter set forth, and will bear the name and address of the owner, the date as of which issued, and the date of maturity, which on original issue shall be inscribed thereon by the authorized postmaster at the time of issue. All such Savings Bonds are to be dated as of the first day of the month in which the issue price is received, and will mature and be payable 10 years from such issue date. They may be redeemed prior to maturity (but not within 60 days after the issue date), at the owner's option, in accordance with the table of redemption values appearing at the end of this circular, and set forth on the face of each bond. No interest will be paid on Savings Bonds, but the purchase price has been fixed so as to afford an investment yield of about 2.9 percent per annum compounded semiannually if the bonds are held to maturity. If the owner exercises his option to redeem his bond prior to maturity the yield will be less, varying with the respective redemption values.

The Savings Bonds will not be transferable, and will be payable only to the owner named thereon, except in case of death or disability of the owner or as a result of judicial proceedings, and then only in accordance with regulations prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury. (See Treasury Department Circular No. 530, dated Feb. 25, 1935.) Savings Bonds issued through a post office shall be valid only if inscribed with the owner's name and address, dated the first day of the month in which the issue price is received, and duly delivered by an authorized postmaster; they will bear the facsimile signature of the Secretary of the Treasury, the seal of the Treasury Department will be impressed thereon, and they will bear the post-office dating stamp.

The Savings Bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above. For the purposes of determining taxes and tax exemptions, the increment in value of Savings Bonds represented by the difference between the price paid and the redemption value received (whether at or before maturity) shall be considered as interest.

PURCHASE

Savings Bonds of series A may be purchased for cash, at post offices of the first, second, and third classes, and at selected post offices of the fourth class, at any time while this offer is in effect; and, subject to regulations prescribed by the board of trustees of the Postal Savings System, the withdrawal of postal savings deposits, without loss of interest, will be permitted for the purpose of acquiring Savings Bonds. The issue prices of the various denominations of these bonds follow:

Denomination (maturity value)	Issue price
$25-----	$18.75
50-----	37.50
100-----	75.00
500-----	375.00
1,000-----	750.00

It shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold Savings Bonds issued during any one calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 (maturity value).

DELIVERY AND SAFEKEEPING OF BONDS

Postmasters from whom Savings Bonds may be purchased are authorized to deliver such bonds duly inscribed and dated upon receipt of the purchase price. Deliveries should not be accepted by any purchaser until he has verified that his name and address are duly inscribed on the face of the bond and that the bond is duly dated the first day of the month in which he made payment of the purchase price.

Any Savings Bonds will be held in safekeeping by the Secretary of the Treasury if the purchaser so desires, and in this connection the Secretary will utilize the facilities of the Federal Reserve banks as fiscal agents of the United States. The purchaser may arrange for such safekeeping at the time he purchases his bond or subsequently. Postmasters generally will assist owners in arranging for safekeeping, but will not act as safekeeping agents.

PAYMENT AT MATURITY OR ON REDEMPTION PRIOR TO MATURITY

Payment of any Savings Bond in accordance with its terms at maturity, or at the appropriate redemption value prior to maturity (but not within 60 days after the issue date), will be made following presentation and surrender of the bond, by registered mail or otherwise, at the expense and risk of the owner, to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C., or to any Federal Reserve bank, with the request for payment appearing on the back of the bond duly executed by the owner and certified by any United States postmaster from whom United States Savings Bonds may be purchased (authenticated by the imprint of his post-office dating stamp), by an executive officer of an incorporated bank or trust company (authenticated by the impress of the corporate seal of the bank or trust company), or by any other person duly designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose. Payment will be made by check drawn to the order of the owner, promptly after discharge of registration at the Treasury Department. In case of the death or disability of the registered owner, instructions should be obtained from the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C., before the request for payment is executed. Postmasters generally will assist holders in securing payment at or before maturity, but they will not make payment of Savings Bonds.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

All bonds issued pursuant to this circular shall be subject to regulations prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury. Such regulations may require, among other things, reasonable notice in case of presentation of Savings Bonds for redemption prior to maturity. The initial regulations governing Savings Bonds are contained in Treasury Department Circular No. 530, dated February 25, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury may designate agencies other than post offices for the sale of Savings Bonds of this series, and he reserves the right to refuse to issue or permit to be issued hereunder any such Savings Bonds in any case or class of cases if he deem such action to be in the public interest. The Secretary of the Treasury further reserves the right to terminate this offer at any time, on notice to the Postmaster General.

Postmasters of the first, second, and third classes, and selected postmasters of the fourth class, under regulations promulgated by the Postmaster General, and Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized to perform such fiscal agency services as may be requested of them in connection with the issue, delivery, safekeeping, redemption, and payment of Savings Bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time or from time to time supplement or amend the terms of this circular, information as to which will be promptly furnished to the Postmaster General and to Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Offering of 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 and 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940

On March 4, 1935, the Secretary of the Treasury announced an offering of 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 in exchange for Fourth Liberty Loan 4¼ percent bonds called for redemption on April 15, 1935 (third call) and an offering of 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 in exchange for 2½ percent Treasury notes of series C-1935, maturing March 15, 1935. In the related press release it was stated that about $1,870,000,000 of Fourth Liberty Loan bonds were included in the third call for redemption, on April 15, 1935, and that about $528,000,000 of Treasury notes of series C-1935 were to mature on March 15, 1935.

[Treasury bonds of 1955-60. Department Circular No. 531]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, March 4, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, for refunding purposes, invites subscriptions from the people of the United States for 2½ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury bonds of 1955-60, in payment of which only Fourth Liberty Loan 4¼ percent bonds of 1933-38 included in the third call for redemption on April 15, 1935 (hereinafter referred to as third-called Fourth 4¼'s) may be tendered.¹ Treasury bonds of 1955-60 will be issued at par and accrued interest, if any, and third-called Fourth 4¼'s will be received in payment at par, with an adjustment of accrued interest as of March 15, 1935, on the third-called Fourth 4¼'s so received. The amount of the offering will be limited to the amount of third-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered and accepted. Fourth Liberty Loan bonds not included in the third call for redemption on April 15, 1935, will not be accepted for exchange under this circular.²

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds will be dated March 15, 1935, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, on September 15, 1935, and thereafter on March 15 and September 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature March 15, 1960, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after March 15, 1955, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now on hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, and will bear the circulation privilege only to the extent provided in the act approved July 22, 1932, as amended. They will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

² First-called Fourth 4¼'s (which ceased to bear interest on Apr. 15, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 9, 0, or 1 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter J, K, or A, respectively), second-called Fourth 4¼'s (which ceased to bear interest on Oct. 15, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 2 or 8 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter B or H, respectively), and uncalled Fourth 4¼'s bear serial numbers ending in 3 or 4 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter C or D, respectively).

The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice * * *.³

Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for bonds allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before March 15, 1935, or on later allotment, and may be made only in third-called Fourth 4¼'s, which will be accepted at par with an adjustment of accrued interest thereon as of March 15, 1935, and should accompany the subscription. If any subscription is rejected, in whole or in part, the third-called Fourth 4¼'s tendered therewith and not accepted will be returned to the subscriber.

Coupon bonds.—Third-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in payment should have coupons dated April 15, 1935, as well as all subsequent coupons attached, and accrued interest from October 15, 1934, to March 15, 1935,⁴ will be paid to the subscribers.

Registered bonds.—As checks for interest covering the full 6-month period from October 15, 1934, to April 15, 1935, will be issued on April 15, 1935, to holders of record on March 15, 1935, of third-called Fourth 4¼'s in registered form, tenders of such registered bonds hereunder must be accompanied by payment of an amount equal to the interest to accrue thereon from March 15 to April 15, 1935.⁵

SURRENDER OF THIRD-CALLED FOURTH 4¼'S ON EXCHANGE

Coupon bonds.—Third-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasurer of the United States, and should accompany the application. Coupons dated April 15, 1935, and all coupons bearing dates subsequent to April 15, 1935, should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the application must be accompanied by cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons.⁶ The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

Registered bonds.—Third-called Fourth 4¼'s in registered form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder should be assigned by the registered payee or assigns thereof in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange in one of the forms hereafter set forth, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the application to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. If Treasury bonds are desired registered in the same name as the third-called Fourth 4½'s surrendered, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1955-60"; if Treasury bonds are desired registered in another name, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1955-60 in the name of -----"; if Treasury bonds in coupon form are desired, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1955-60 in coupon form to be delivered to -----."

⁶ The final coupon attached to temporary coupon bonds became due on Oct. 15, 1920. The holders of any such temporary bonds which are included in the third call for partial redemption on Apr. 15, 1935, will receive the past due interest from Oct. 15, 1920, if such bonds are tendered for exchange under this circular.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions * * *.⁷

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

[Treasury notes, series A-1940. Department Circular No. 532]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, March 4, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par, from the people of the United States, for 1½ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series A-1940, in payment of which only Treasury notes of series C-1935, maturing March 15, 1935, may be tendered. The amount of the offering will be limited to the amount of Treasury notes of series C-1935 tendered and accepted.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The notes will be dated March 15, 1935, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, on September 15, 1935, and thereafter on March 15 and September 15 in each year. They will mature March 15, 1940, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

The notes shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

The notes will be accepted at par during such time and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Treasury in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes.

The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, but will not bear the circulation privilege.

Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

APPLICATION AND ALLOTMENT

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

PAYMENT

Payment at par for notes allotted hereunder must be made or completed on or before March 15, 1935, or on later allotments, and may be made only in 2½ percent Treasury notes of series C-1935, maturing March 15, 1935, which will be accepted at par and should accompany the subscription.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions * * *

Exhibit 10

Call for redemption of 2 percent consols of 1930 and 3 percent Panama Canal loan bonds of 1916-36 and 1918-38 on July 1 and August 1, 1935, respectively

On March 9, 1935, the Treasury issued the following release:

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced today (Mar. 9) that the 2 percent consols of 1930 would be called by the Treasury on March 11 for redemption on July 1, 1935, and the 2 percent Panama Canal loan bonds of 1916-36 and 1918-38 for redemption on August 1, 1935. About $600,000,- 000 of the consols and about $75,000,000 of the Panama Canal bonds are now outstanding. These bonds bear the circulation privilege.

In retiring these bonds, the Treasury will make use of the free gold resulting from the reduction in the weight of the gold dollar. The Treasury proposes to issue to the Federal Reserve banks an amount of gold certificates about equal to the bonds being retired. The gold certificates will be issued under the authority of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, and for every gold certificate so issued there will be withdrawn from the General Fund of the Treasury and held as security an amount of gold equal to the gold certificates so issued.

By a provision of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, enacted July 22, 1932, all bonds of the United States bearing an interest rate of 3½ percent per annum, or less, were given the circulation privilege for a period of 3 years. This provision expires July 22, 1935. At that time, banks with circulating notes outstanding under this temporary authorization will have to replace the bonds, now serving as security, with lawful money to retire their outstanding notes thus secured.

The retirement of the 2 percent consols and the 2 percent Panama Canal bonds, and the expiration of the temporary authorization for issuance of national bank notes against other bonds will accomplish a simplification of the currency system through the elimination of national bank notes, an action contemplated at the time of the passage of the Federal Reserve Act. More than $500,000,000 of the bonds being called are now on deposit with the Treasurer as security for this type of currency.

The Federal Reserve bank notes authorized as emergency currency in the Emergency Banking Act of 1933 are now in process of retirement. National bank notes will be retired as rapidly as they are presented to the Treasury. It is expected that the great majority will be canceled within a year. This will leave as permanent circulation Federal Reserve notes, silver certificates, and United States notes. Additional Federal Reserve notes will be issued to replace the national bank notes as they are retired, and as demand arises. The gold certificates to be delivered to the Federal Reserve banks will form added reserves against which Federal Reserve notes may be issued.

At the time the gold content of the dollar was reduced, a gold increment of $2,812,000,000 was realized. Of this amount, $2,000,000,000 was placed in the stabilization fund. Congress has appropriated $139,000,000 for loans to industry through the Federal Reserve banks, some $13,500,000 of which has been used for that purpose. Congress has appropriated an indefinite sum to meet losses in melting gold coins estimated at $8,000,000, and has authorized an appropriation of over $23,000,000 for the Philippine currency fund. This leaves free gold of $642,000,000 which will now be used as a basis for debt retirement.

As the outstanding national bank notes are retired and replaced with Federal Reserve notes, these items will disappear from the public debt statement entirely. The total amount of outstanding currency should not be changed as a result of this program. National bank notes will merely be replaced by Federal Reserve notes. The effect on member bank reserves will be immaterial.

The texts of the formal notices of call were as follows:

To Holders of the 2 Percent Consols of 1930, and Others Concerned:

1. Public notice is hereby given that all outstanding United States 2 percent consols of 1930, dated April 1, 1900, issued under authority of the act of Congress approved March 14, 1900, are called for redemption on July 1, 1935.

2. For the purpose of terminating interest on July 1, 1935, this call shall be effective as of April 1, 1935. Accordingly, interest on all outstanding 2 percent consols of 1930 will cease 3 months thereafter, that is, on July 1, 1935.

3. Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of 2 percent consols of 1930 for redemption on July 1, 1935, will be given in a Treasury Department circular to be dated April 1, 1935.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Washington, March 11, 1935.

To Holders of the 2 Percent Bonds of the Panama Canal Loan, Series of 1916-36 and Series of 1918-38, and Others Concerned:

Public notice is hereby given that all outstanding United States 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal loan, series of 1916-36, dated August 1, 1906, and series of 1918-38, dated November 1, 1908, issued under authority of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1902, are called for redemption on August 1, 1935, and will cease to bear interest on that date.

Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of the 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal loan, series of 1916-36 and series of 1918-38, for redemption on August 1, 1935, will be given in a Treasury Department circular to be dated April 1, 1935.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Washington, March 11, 1935.

The circulars governing the redemption of these bonds were as follows:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, April 1, 1935.

To Holders of 2 Percent Consols of 1930, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF CALL FOR REDEMPTION OF 2 PERCENT CONSOLS OF 1930

On March 11, 1935, the following public notice of call for redemption was given:

(Notice of call is omitted here, see p. 205.)

II. REDEMPTION OF 2 PERCENT CONSOLS OF 1930

Pursuant to the call for redemption, as set forth in section I of this circular, the following rules and regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the presentation and surrender of the 2 percent consols of 1930 for redemption on July 1, 1935:

1. Payments of called bonds on July 1, 1935.—Holders of any outstanding 2 percent consols of 1930 will be entitled to have their bonds redeemed and paid at par on July 1, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After July 1, 1935, interest will not accrue on any such bonds.

2. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—Two percent consols of 1930 in registered form must be assigned by the registered payees or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments, in one of the forms hereinafter set forth, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, for redemption on July 1, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of owners, and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice. In order to facilitate redemption on July 1, 1935, such registered bonds should be presented and surrendered well in advance of that date. Such early presentation will insure prompt payment of principal and final interest when due. In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

3. If the registered payee, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee, desires that payment of the principal and final installment of interest be made to him, the bonds should be assigned by such payee or assignee, or by a duly constituted representative, to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption." If it is desired, for any reason, that payment be made to some other person, without intermediate assignment, the bonds should be assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for the account of _____", inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made. A representative or fiduciary should not assign for payment to himself individually, unless expressly authorized to do so by the instrument under which he is acting; he may, however, assign for payment to himself in his representative or fiduciary capacity.

4. Assignments in blank, or assignments having similar effect, should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration. However, such assignments will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer.

5. The transfer books for 2 percent consols of 1930 in registered form will not close prior to July 1, 1935, for the payment of interest on that date, and final interest due on July 1, 1935, will be covered by payments to be made simultaneously with payments made on account of principal.

6. Bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States in trust.—Two percent consols of 1930 in registered form on deposit with the Treasurer of the United States on July 1, 1935, to secure circulating notes of national banks, or to secure deposits of public money or postal savings funds, may be redeemed upon assignment as follows:

(a) If deposited to secure circulating notes of national banks, the board of directors of the national bank concerned should, by appropriate resolution, authorize the Comptroller of the Currency to withdraw the bonds on deposit and to redeliver such bonds to the Treasurer of the United States, and should further authorize the Treasurer of the United States to assign such bonds to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for account of _____", inserting in such form the name of the person or corporation to whom payment is to be made. If the proceeds of redemption are to be paid to the bank executing the resolution, its name should be inserted; if such proceeds are to be paid to someone other than such bank, the name of that person or corporation should be inserted; and if such proceeds are to be applied toward retirement of the circulating notes secured by such bonds,¹ the following should be inserted: "Treasury of the United States for account of _____" (name of bank executing the resolution). A certified copy of such resolution, together with the Treasurer's receipt for the bonds on deposit, should be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency, Treasury Department, Washington.

(b) If deposited to secure deposits of public money or postal savings funds, the board of directors of the bank or trust company should, by appropriate resolution, authorize the Treasurer of the United States to withdraw the bonds and assign them to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for account of _____", inserting in such form the name of the person or corporation to whom payment is to be made. If other collateral is substituted the name of the bank or trust company executing the resolution, or the name of any other person or corporation, may be inserted. If such proceeds are to be applied to the reduction of the deposits secured by the bonds, the following should be inserted: "Treasurer of the United States for account of _____" (name of bank or trust company executing the resolution). A certified copy of such resolution, together with the Treasurer's receipt for the bonds on deposit, should be forwarded to the Treasurer of the United States, Division of Securities, Washington, accompanied by the collateral to be substituted for the bonds, in case a substitution is to be made.

(c) The Comptroller of the Currency, or the Treasurer of the United States, will forward appropriate resolution forms to each bank or trust company having 2 percent consols of 1930 on deposit as security for the above accounts.

7. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—A small amount of 2 percent consols of 1930 in coupon form remain outstanding, without coupons attached covering interest accruing since April 1, 1930. Any such bonds should be presented and surrendered for redemption on July 1, 1935, to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder, and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice. Checks in payment of principal and accrued interest from April 1, 1930, to July 1, 1935, on such coupon bonds will be mailed to the address given in the advice accompanying the bonds when surrendered.

¹The circulation privilege temporarily conferred by the act of July 22, 1932, on all United States bonds bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 3½ percent per annum will expire July 22, 1935; 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal Loan of 1916-36 and 1918-38 have been called for redemption on Aug. 1, 1935.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of the 2 percent consols of 1930 on July 1, 1935, under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

[Redemption of Panamas of 1916-36 and 1918-38. Department Circular No. 534]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, April 1, 1935.

To Holders of 2 Percent Bonds of the Panama Canal Loan, Series of 1916-36, and Series of 1918-38, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF CALL FOR REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY OF THE 2 PERCENT BONDS OF THE PANAMA CANAL LOAN, SERIES OF 1916-36 AND SERIES OF 1918-38

On March 11, 1935, the following public notice of call for redemption before maturity was given:

(Notice of call is omitted here, see p. 206.)

II. REDEMPTION OF 2 PERCENT BONDS OF THE PANAMA CANAL LOAN

Pursuant to the call for redemption, as set forth in section I of this circular, the following rules and regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the presentation and surrender of the 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal Loan, series of 1916-36, and series of 1918-38, for redemption on August 1, 1935:

1. Payment of called bonds on August 1, 1935.—Holders of any outstanding 2 percent bonds of the Panama Canal Loan will be entitled to have their bonds redeemed and paid at par on August 1, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After August 1, 1935, interest will not accrue on any such bonds.

2. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—Two percent bonds of the Panama Canal Loan in registered form must be assigned by the registered payee or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments, in one of the forms hereinafter set forth, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, for redemption on August 1, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of owners and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice. In order to facilitate redemption on August 1, 1935, such registered bonds should be presented and surrendered well in advance of that date. Such early presentation will insure prompt payment of principal and final interest when due. In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

3. If the registered payee, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee, desires that payment of the principal and final installment of interest be made to him, the bonds should be assigned by such payee or assignee, or by a duly constituted representative, to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption." If it is desired, for any reason, that payment be made to some other person, without intermediate assignment, the bonds should be assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for the account of -----", inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made. A representative or fiduciary should not assign for payment to himself individually, unless expressly authorized to do so by the instrument under which he is acting; he may, however, assign for payment to himself in his representative or fiduciary capacity.

4. Assignments in blank, or assignments having similar effect, should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

However, such assignments will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer.

5. The transfer books for 2 percent Panama Canal bonds in registered form will not close prior to August 1, 1935, for the payment of interest on that date, and final interest due on August 1, 1935, will be covered by payments to be made simultaneously with payments made on account of principal.

6. Bonds held by the Treasurer of the United States in trust.—Two percent Panama Canal bonds in registered form on deposit with the Treasurer of the United States on August 1, 1935, to secure circulating notes of national banks, or to secure deposits of public money or postal savings funds, may be redeemed upon assignment as follows:

(a) If deposited to secure circulating notes of national banks, the board of directors of the national bank concerned should, by appropriate resolution, authorize the Comptroller of the Currency to withdraw the bonds on deposit and to redeliver such bonds to the Treasurer of the United States, and should further authorize the Treasurer of the United States to assign such bonds to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for account of _____", inserting in such form the name of the person or corporation to whom payment is to be made. If the proceeds of redemption are to be paid to the bank executing the resolution, its name should be inserted; if such proceeds are to be paid to some one other than such bank, the name of that person or corporation should be inserted; and if such proceeds are to be applied toward retirement of the circulating notes secured by such bonds,² the following should be inserted: "Treasurer of the United States for account of _____" (name of bank executing the resolution). A certified copy of such resolution, together with the Treasurer's receipt for the bonds on deposit, should be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Currency, Treasury Department, Washington.

(b) If deposited to secure deposits of public money or postal savings funds, the board of directors of the bank or trust company should, by appropriate resolution, authorize the Treasurer of the United States to withdraw the bonds and assign them to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for account of _____", inserting in such form the name of the person or corporation to whom payment is to be made. If other collateral is substituted the name of the bank or trust company executing the resolution, or the name of any other person or corporation, may be inserted. If such proceeds are to be applied to the reduction of the deposits secured by the bonds, the following should be inserted: "Treasurer of the United States for account of _____", (name of bank or trust company executing the resolution). A certified copy of such resolution, together with the Treasurer's receipt for the bonds on deposit, should be forwarded to the Treasurer of the United States, Division of Securities, Washington, accompanied by the collateral to be substituted for the bonds, in case a substitution is to be made.

(c) The Comptroller of the Currency, or the Treasurer of the United States, will forward appropriate resolution forms to each bank or trust company having 2 percent Panama Canal bonds on deposit as security for the above accounts.

7. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—A small amount of 2 percent Panama Canal bonds in coupon form are outstanding. Any such bonds should be presented and surrendered for redemption on August 1, 1935, to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington. Coupons dated August 1, 1935, should be detached from such bonds when presented, and collected in regular course, and coupons bearing subsequent dates should be attached to the bonds when presented. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice. Checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of the 2 percent Panama Canal bonds of August 1, 1935, under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

Secretary of the Treasury.

Call for redemption of First Liberty Loan bonds of 1932-47 on June 15, 1935

On March 14, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced that all outstanding First Liberty Loan bonds, including those of the original issue and those subsequently issued on conversion, would be called for redemption on June 15, 1935.

The First Liberty Loan, in the form of 3½ percent bonds, was originally issued June 15, 1917, in the total amount of $1,989,455,550. Subsequently three conversion privileges arose and the 3½ percent bonds were in part converted into other First Liberty Loan bonds bearing interest at 4 or 4¼ percent, and the 4 percent bonds issued on conversion were largely converted into 4¼ percent bonds. First Liberty Loan bonds outstanding on February 28, 1935, were divided among the four issues as follows:

First 3½'s.....	$1, 392, 226, 250
First converted 4's.....	5, 002, 450
First converted 4¼'s.....	532, 489, 100
First-second converted 4¼'s.....	3, 492, 150
Total.....	1, 933, 209, 950

The text of the formal notice of call follows:

To Holders of First Liberty Loan Bonds of 1932-47, and Others Concerned:
Public notice is hereby given:

1. All outstanding First Liberty Loan bonds of 1932-47 are hereby called for redemption on June 15, 1935. The various issues of First Liberty Loan bonds (all of which are included in this call) are as follows:

First Liberty Loan 3½ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 3½'s), dated June 15, 1917;

First Liberty Loan converted 4 percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 4's), dated November 15, 1917;

First Liberty Loan converted 4¼ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 4¼'s), dated May 9, 1918; and

First Liberty Loan second converted 4¼ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First-second 4¼'s), dated October 24, 1918.

2. Interest on all such outstanding First Liberty Loan bonds will cease on said redemption date, June 15, 1935.

3. Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of First Liberty Loan bonds for redemption under this call will be given in a Treasury Department circular to be issued later.

4. Holders of First Liberty Loan bonds now called for redemption on June 15, 1935, may, in advance of that date, be offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of their called bonds for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, in which event public notice will hereafter be given.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, March 14, 1935.

The circular governing the redemption of the First Liberty Loan bonds is as follows:

[Department Circular No. 535]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, April 22, 1935.To Holders of First Liberty Loan Bonds of 1932-47, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF CALL FOR REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY

On March 14, 1935, the following public notice of call for redemption was given:

[Notice of call is omitted here, see p. 210.]

II. OPTIONAL EXCHANGE OFFERING

1. Holders of First Liberty Loan bonds, called for redemption on June 15, 1935, are offered the privilege, for a limited period beginning April 22, 1935, of exchanging all or any part of their called bonds, either (1) for 2 $\frac{7}{8}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60, or (2) for 5-year 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, both bonds and notes being dated and bearing interest from March 15, 1935.

2. Full information concerning the optional exchange offering of Treasury bonds is set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 536, and full information concerning the optional exchange offering of Treasury notes is set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 537, both circulars being dated April 22, 1935. As the privilege of exchanging First Liberty Loan bonds will be accorded for a limited period only and may be terminated at any time without notice, holders of First Liberty Loan bonds who desire to take advantage of either offering should act promptly, following the instructions given in the Treasury Department circulars referred to above, copies of which may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

III. RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING REDEMPTION OF FIRST LIBERTY LOAN BONDS

Pursuant to the call for redemption, as set forth in section I of this circular, the following rules and regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the presentation and surrender of First Liberty Loan bonds for redemption on June 15, 1935:

1. Payment of called bonds on June 15, 1935.—Holders of any outstanding First Liberty Loan bonds will be entitled to have such bonds redeemed and paid at par on June 15, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After June 15, 1935, interest will not accrue on any First Liberty Loan bonds.

2. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in coupon form should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for redemption on June 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 8 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1435 attached hereto). Checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

3. Coupons dated June 15, 1935, which become payable on that date, should be detached from any First Liberty Loan bonds before such bonds are presented for redemption on June 15, 1935, and such coupons should be collected in regular course when due. All coupons pertaining to such bonds bearing dates subsequent to June 15, 1935, must be attached to any such bonds when presented for redemption, provided, however, if any such coupons are missing from bonds so presented for redemption the bonds nevertheless will be redeemed, but the full face amount of any such missing coupons will be deducted from the payment to be made on account of such redemption, and any amounts so deducted will be held in the Treasury to provide for adjustments or refunds on account of such missing coupons as may subsequently be presented.¹

4. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in registered form must be assigned by the registered payees or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments, in the form indicated in the next paragraph hereof, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for redemption on June 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 8 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1436 attached hereto). In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest due will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

5. If the registered payee, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee, desires that payment of the principal and final installment of interest be made to him, the bonds should be assigned by such payee or assignee, or by a duly constituted representative, to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption." If it is desired, for any reason, that payment be made to some other person, without intermediate assignment, the bonds should be assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for the account of -----", inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made. A representative or fiduciary should not assign for payment to himself individually, unless expressly authorized to do so by the instrument under which he is acting; he may, however, assign for payment to himself in his representative or fiduciary capacity.

6. Assignment in blank or other assignment having similar effect, will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

7. Final interest due on June 15, 1935, on registered bonds of the First Liberty Loan will be paid with the principal in accordance with the assignments on the bonds surrendered. Transfers and exchanges involving registered bonds will be permitted up to the close of business on May 31, 1935, but not after that date.

8. Transportation of bonds.—Bonds presented for redemption under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Coupon bonds should be forwarded by registered mail insured, or by express prepaid. Registered bonds bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but registered bonds bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail insured or by express. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

IV. TIME OF PRESENTATION OF CALLED BONDS FOR REDEMPTION

1. In order to facilitate the redemption of First Liberty Loan bonds on June 15, 1935, any such bonds should be presented and surrendered in the manner herein prescribed well in advance of that date, but not before May 15, 1935. Such early presentation by holders will assure prompt payment of principal when due. This is particularly important with respect to registered bonds, for payment cannot be made until registration shall have been discharged at the Treasury Department.

2. It will expedite redemption if the bonds are presented to Federal Reserve banks, or branches, and not direct to the Treasury Department.

3. As hereinbefore provided: (1) coupons due June 15, 1935, should be detached from any permanent coupon bonds when such bonds are presented for redemption on that date, such coupons to be collected when due; and (2) final interest due on any registered bonds will be paid with the principal amount.

4. If First Liberty Loan bonds called for redemption on June 15, 1935, are to be presented for exchange for 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1935-60, instructions given in Treasury Department Circular No. 536 should be followed; if to be presented for 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, instructions given in Treasury Department Circular No. 537 should be followed; if to be presented for redemption on June 15, instructions given in this circular should be followed.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of First Liberty Loan bonds under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., where copies of the Treasury Department's regulations governing assignments also may be obtained.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

Exhibit 12

Call for redemption on October 15, 1935, of Fourth Liberty Loan bonds before maturity (final call)

On April 14, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the call of the balance of the Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}\%$ percent bonds of 1923-38 for redemption on October 15, 1935. The Fourth Liberty Loan bonds included in this fourth and final call amounted to about \$1,250,000,000.

Bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan were originally issued under date of October 24, 1918, in the amount of about $6,965,000,000. Subsequent to their issue, and prior to the first call for partial redemption, which was made on October 12, 1933, nearly $700,000,000 of these bonds were retired. The first three calls for partial redemption paved the way for the retirement of about $5,000,000,000 more, leaving about $1,250,000,000 outstanding. Of the $5,000,- 000,000 of bonds included in the first three calls, about $4,315,000,000 were exchanged for other interest-bearing obligations, and about $320,000,000 more have been paid in cash. Most of the remaining $365,000,000 were to be redeemed on April 15 or shortly thereafter.

The text of the formal notice of call was as follows:

To Holders of Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ Percent Bonds of 1933-38, and Others Concerned:

Public notice is hereby given:

1. All outstanding Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1933-38 (Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) bearing serial numbers the final digit of which is 3 or 4 (such serial numbers in the case of permanent coupon bonds being prefixed by the corresponding distinguishing letter C or D, respectively), are hereby called for redemption on October 15, 1935, on which date interest on such bonds called for redemption will cease.

2. Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s for redemption under this call will be given in a Treasury Department circular to be issued later.

3. Holders of Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s now called for redemption on October 15, 1935, may, in advance of that date, be offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of their called bonds for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, in which event public notice will hereafter be given.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Washington, April 13, 1935.

The Department circular governing the redemption of the bonds was as follows:

[Department Circular No. 539.]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Washington, May 13, 1935.

To Holders of Fourth Liberty Loan $4\frac{1}{4}$ Percent Bonds of 1933-38, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF FOURTH AND FINAL CALL FOR REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY OF FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN $4\frac{1}{4}$ PERCENT BONDS OF 1933-38 (FOURTH $4\frac{1}{4}$ 'S)

On April 13, 1935, the following public notice of call for redemption was given:

[Notice of call omitted here, see above.]

II. TRANSACTIONS IN FOURTH-CALLED BONDS

1. The bonds included in the fourth and final call for redemption on October 15, 1935, are hereby designated fourth-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s.¹

2. Denominational exchanges of coupon bonds within the class fourth-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s will terminate at the close of business on October 14, 1935. Transfers and exchanges involving registered bonds within the same class will be permitted up to the close of business on September 30, 1935, but not after that date.

¹Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (temporary coupon, permanent coupon, and registered) are numbered serially beginning with no. 1 for each denomination; in the case of permanent coupon bonds each serial number is prefixed by a distinguishing letter, the letters A to K (omitting I) being used, which letters, in order, rotate with and correspond to the final digits from 1 to 0, respectively.

First-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Apr. 15, 1934—Department Circular No. 501, dated Oct. 12, 1933) bear serial numbers ending in 9, 0, or 1 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter J, K, or A, respectively); second-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Oct. 15, 1934—Department Circular No. 509, dated Apr. 13, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 8 or 2 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter H or B, respectively); third-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Apr. 15, 1935—Department Circular No. 525, dated Oct. 12, 1934) bear serial numbers ending in 5, 6, or 7 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter E, F, or G, respectively); and fourth-called Fourth $4\frac{1}{4}$'s (called for redemption on Oct. 15, 1935) bear serial numbers ending in 3 or 4 (in the case of permanent coupon bonds preceded by the distinguishing letter C or D, respectively).

III. PAYMENT OR EXCHANGE

1. Payment of fourth-called bonds on October 15, 1935.—Holders of fourth-called Fourth 4¼'s will be entitled to have such bonds redeemed and paid at par on October 15, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After October 15, 1935, interest will not accrue on any such bonds included in the fourth and final call for redemption.

2. Optional exchange offering.—Holders of fourth-called Fourth 4¼'s may, in advance of October 15, 1935, be offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of their fourth-called bonds for other interest-bearing obligations of the United States, in which event due public notice will be given. Holders who desire to avail themselves of any exchange privilege, if and when offered, should watch for an announcement thereof, and should request their bank or trust company to notify them when information regarding any exchange offering is received.

3. In case of an exchange offering, instructions then given in the public announcement and the official circular should be followed in presenting fourth-called bonds for exchange; otherwise the instructions hereinafter set forth in this circular should be followed for the presentation of such fourth-called bonds for redemption on October 15, 1935.

IV. REDEMPTION OF FOURTH-CALLED FOURTH 4¼'S

1. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—Fourth-called Fourth 4¼'s in coupon form should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for redemption on October 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 7 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1445 attached hereto). Checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

2. Coupons dated October 15, 1935, which become payable on that date, should be detached from any fourth-called Fourth 4¼'s before such bonds are presented for redemption on October 15, 1935, and such coupons should be collected in regular course when due. All coupons pertaining to such bonds bearing dates subsequent to October 15, 1935, must be attached to such bonds when presented for redemption, provided, however, if any such coupons are missing from bonds so presented for redemption the bonds nevertheless will be redeemed, but the full face amount of any such missing coupons will be deducted from the payment to be made on account of such redemption, and any amounts so deducted will be held in the Treasury to provide for adjustments or refunds on account of such missing coupons as may subsequently be presented.²

3. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—Fourth-called Fourth 4¼'s in registered form must be assigned by the registered payees or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments, in the form indicated in the next paragraph hereof, and should thereafter be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for redemption on October 15, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 7 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form P. D. 1446 attached hereto). In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

4. If the registered payee, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee, desires that payment of the principal and final installment of interest be made to him, the bonds should be assigned by such payee or assignee, or by a duly constituted representative, to "the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption." If it is desired, for any reason, that payment be made to some other person, without intermediate assignment, the bonds should be assigned to "the Secretary of the Treasury for redemption for the account of -----", inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made. A representative or fiduciary should not assign for payment to himself individually, unless expressly authorized to do so by court order or by the instrument under which he is acting; he may, however, assign for payment to himself in his representative or fiduciary capacity.

5. Assignment in blank, or other assignment having similar effect, will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

6. Final interest due on October 15, 1935, on any fourth-called Fourth 4½'s in registered form, will be paid with the principal in accordance with the assignments on the bonds surrendered.

7. Transportation of bonds.—Bonds presented for redemption under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Coupon bonds should be forwarded by registered mail insured, or by express prepaid. Registered bonds bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but registered bonds bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail insured or by express. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

V. TIME OF PRESENTATION OF FOURTH-CALLED FOURTH 4½'S FOR REDEMPTION

1. In order to facilitate the redemption of fourth-called Fourth 4½'s on October 15, 1935, any such bonds should be presented and surrendered in the manner herein prescribed in advance of that date but not before September 15, 1935. Such early presentation by holders will assure prompt payment of principal when due. This is particularly important with respect to registered bonds, for payment cannot be made until registration shall have been discharged at the Treasury Department.

2. It will expedite redemption if the bonds included in the fourth call for redemption are presented to Federal Reserve banks or branches, and not direct to the Treasury Department.

VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of fourth-called Fourth 4½'s under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., where copies of the Treasury Department's regulations governing assignments may also be obtained.

2. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 13

Offering of 27½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 (additional) and 15½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 (additional)

On April 22, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the offering of additional issues of 27½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 and of 15½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, both in exchange for First Liberty Loan bonds, of any series, called for redemption on June 15, 1935.

[Treasury bonds of 1955-60. Department Circular No. 536]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Washington, April 22, 1935.

I. EXCHANGE OFFERING OF BONDS

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, for refunding purposes, invites subscriptions from the people of the United States for 2½ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury bonds of 1955-60, in payment of which only First Liberty Loan bonds, of any series, called for redemption on June 15, 1935, may be tendered. The amount of the additional issue of 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 under this circular will be limited to the amount of First Liberty Loan bonds tendered and accepted.

2. First Liberty Loan bonds will be received on exchange at par, and 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 will be issued at par, with the right reserved by the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the issue price by public announcement effective as to subscriptions tendered after the time, not earlier than April 29, 1935, fixed in the announcement. On all exchanges, interest adjustments will be made as of June 15, 1935.

3. The outstanding bonds of the First Liberty Loan called for redemption on June 15, 1935, and which, under the terms of this circular, may be exchanged for 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60, follows:

3½ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 3½'s) dated June 15, 1917

Converted 4 percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 4's) dated November 15, 1917

Converted 4¼ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 4¼'s) dated May 9, 1918

Second converted 4¼ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First-second 4¼'s) dated October 24, 1918

4. In addition to the exchange offering under this circular, holders of First Liberty Loan bonds are offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of such called bonds for 5-year 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, which offering is set forth in Department Circular No. 537, issued simultaneously with this circular.

II. DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

1. The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 531, dated March 4, 1935, are identical in all respects therewith, will be freely interchangeable, and are described in the following quotation from said Circular No. 531:

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon subscriptions for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, subscriptions for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. TERMS OF PAYMENT AND ISSUE

1. Treasury bonds offered under this circular will be issued at par, or at such increased issue price as may be fixed by public announcement in the case of bonds issued upon subscriptions tendered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch or to the Treasury Department after the time stated in the announcement. The effective time for any increase which may be made in the issue price will be after the date of the announcement and in no event earlier than April 29, 1935. Any such announcement fixing an increase in the issue price and the time when such increase becomes effective will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks. Payment for any bonds allotted under this circular may be made only in First Liberty Loan bonds of any series, which will be accepted at par, provided that payment of the premium by reason of any increase in the issue price shall be made as provided in the next following paragraph. The bonds tendered in payment should accompany the subscription.

2. Interest adjustment as of June 15, 1935.—Subscribers will be credited with interest in full to June 15, 1935, on First Liberty Loan bonds tendered in exchange, and will be charged with accrued interest from March 15 to June 15, 1935 ($7.1875 per $1,000), on 2½ percent Treasury bonds of 1935-60 issued on exchange. The net interest adjustment per $1,000 principal amount on account of the various issues of First Liberty Loan bonds follows: First 3½'s—$10.3125; First 4's—$12.8125; First 4½'s and First-second 4½'s—$14.0625. This net interest adjustment (less any premium by reason of an increase in the issue price) will be paid to subscribers following acceptance of First Liberty Loan bonds under this circular.

V. SURRENDER OF FIRST LIBERTY LOAN BONDS ON EXCHANGE

1. Coupon bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in coupon form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasurer of the United States. Coupons dated June 15, 1935, and all coupons bearing dates subsequent to June 15, 1935, should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the subscription must be accompanied by cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons.¹ The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

2. Registered bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in registered form tendered in exchange for Treasury bonds offered hereunder should be assigned by the registered payee or the assignee thereof, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange, in one of the forms hereafter set forth, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. If Treasury bonds are desired registered in the same name as the First Liberty Loan bonds surrendered, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1935-60"; if Treasury bonds are desired registered in another name, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1935-60 in the name of -----"; if Treasury bonds in coupon form are desired, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury bonds of 1935-60 in coupon form to be delivered to -----."

VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions² * * *.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

¹ The final coupons attached to temporary coupon bonds of the First Liberty Loan became due as follows: First 4's, Dec. 15, 1919; First 4½'s, June 15, 1920; First-second 4½'s, Dec. 15, 1920. The holders of any such temporary bonds will receive the past due interest to June 15, 1935, if such bonds are tendered for exchange under this circular.

I. EXCHANGE OFFERING OF NOTES

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions from the people of the United States for $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series A-1940, in payment of which only First Liberty Loan bonds, of any series, called for redemption on June 15, 1935, may be tendered. The amount of the additional issue of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 under this circular will be limited to the amount of First Liberty Loan bonds tendered and accepted.

2. First Liberty Loan bonds will be received on exchange at par, and $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 will be issued at par, with the right reserved by the Secretary of the Treasury to increase the issue price by public announcement effective as to subscriptions tendered after the time, not earlier than April 29, 1935, fixed in the announcement. On all exchanges, interest adjustments will be made as of June 15, 1935.

3. The outstanding bonds of the First Liberty Loan called for redemption on June 15, 1935, and which, under the terms of this circular, may be exchanged for $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, follow:

$3\frac{1}{2}$ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First $3\frac{1}{2}$'s) dated June 15, 1917

Converted 4 percent bonds of 1932-47 (First 4's) dated November 15, 1917

Converted $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) dated May 9, 1918

Second converted $4\frac{1}{4}$ percent bonds of 1932-47 (First-second $4\frac{1}{4}$'s) dated October 24, 1918

4. In addition to the exchange offering under this circular, holders of First Liberty Loan bonds are offered the privilege of exchanging all or any part of such called bonds for $2\frac{7}{8}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60, which offering is set forth in Department Circular No. 536, issued simultaneously with this circular.

II. DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

1. The notes now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940, issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 532, dated March 4, 1935, are identical in all respects therewith (except that the additional denomination of \$50 will be made available), will be freely interchangeable, and are described in the following quotation from said Circular No. 532:

2. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. The notes will not be issued in registered form.

III. SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon subscriptions for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, subscriptions for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. TERMS OF PAYMENT AND ISSUE

1. Treasury notes offered under this circular will be issued at par, or at such increased issue price as may be fixed by public announcement in the case of notes issued upon subscriptions tendered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch or to the Treasury Department after the time stated in the announcement. The effective time for any increase which may be made in the issue price will be after the date of the announcement and in no event earlier than April 29, 1935. Any such announcement fixing an increase in the issue price and the time when such increase becomes effective will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks. Payment for any notes allotted under this circular may be made only in First Liberty Loan bonds of any series, which will be accepted at par, provided that payment of the premium by reason of any increase in the issue price shall be made as provided in the next following paragraph. The bonds tendered in payment should accompany the subscription.

2. Interest adjustment as of June 15, 1935.—Subscribers will be credited with interest in full to June 15, 1935, on First Liberty Loan bonds tendered in exchange, and will be charged with accrued interest from March 15 to June 15, 1935 ($4.0625 per $1,000), on 1½ percent Treasury notes of series A-1940 issued on exchange. The net interest adjustment per $1,000 principal amount on account of the various issues of First Liberty Loan bonds follows: First 3½'s, $13.4375; First 4's, $15.9375; First 4¼'s and First-second 4¼'s, $17.1875. This net interest adjustment (less any premium by reason of an increase in the issue price) will be paid to subscribers following acceptance of First Liberty Loan bonds under this circular.

V. SURRENDER OF FIRST LIBERTY LOAN BONDS ON EXCHANGE

1. Coupon bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in coupon form tendered in exchange for Treasury notes offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasurer of the United States. Coupons dated June 15, 1935, and all coupons bearing dates subsequent to June 15, 1935, should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the subscription must be accompanied by cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons.³ The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the United States under this circular.

2. Registered bonds.—First Liberty Loan bonds in registered form tendered in exchange for Treasury notes offered hereunder should be assigned by the registered payee or the assignee thereof, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department governing assignments for transfer or exchange, to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury notes of series A-1940", and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C. If the Treasury notes are to be delivered for the account of other than the registered payee or the assignee thereof, the assignment should be to "The Secretary of the Treasury for exchange for Treasury notes of series A-1940 to be delivered to _____." The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder.

VI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions⁴ * * *.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

³The final coupons attached to temporary coupon bonds of the First Liberty Loan became due as follows: First 4's, Dec. 15, 1919; First 4¼'s, June 15, 1920; First-second 4¼'s, Dec. 15, 1920. Titleholders of any such temporary bonds will receive the past due interest to June 15, 1935, if such bonds are tendered for exchange under this circular.

⁴Omitted portion similar to corresponding section of Department Circular No. 522, p. 181.

On May 3, 1935, the following announcement was made of an increase in the issue price of the Treasury bonds of 1955-60, effective as to subscriptions tendered after May 7, 1935.

To Holders of First Liberty Loan Bonds, and Others Concerned:

Public announcement is hereby made that, pursuant to the right reserved by the Secretary of the Treasury under Department Circular No. 536, dated April 22, 1935, inviting subscriptions for 2 $\frac{7}{8}$ percent bonds of the United States, designated Treasury bonds of 1955-60, in exchange for First Liberty Loan bonds of any series, the issue price of such 2 $\frac{7}{8}$ percent Treasury bonds of 1955-60 is increased to 100 $\frac{1}{2}$, effective as to subscriptions tendered after May 7, 1935. The increased issue price shall not be effective as against subscriptions duly tendered on or before May 7, 1935, including subscriptions received by mail at the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., enclosed in envelopes postmarked prior to midnight May 7, 1935.

This public announcement shall be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Inviting tenders for 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48 (additional)

On May 27, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau invited tenders for an additional issue of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48 as described in the following circular:

[Department Circular No. 541]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, May 27, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers to the people of the United States $100,000,000, or thereabouts, 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48, and invites tenders therefor at not less than par and accrued interest from December 15, 1934, to June 3, 1935.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 512, dated June 4, 1934; are identical in all respects therewith (except that interest on the bonds issued under this circular will accrue from Dec. 15, 1934); will be freely interchangeable; and are described (except as to interest payable Dec. 15, 1934) in the following quotation from said circular no. 512:

"The bonds will be dated June 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 3 percent per annum, payable semiannually, on December 15, 1934, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable. They will mature June 15, 1948, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after June 15, 1946, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

"The bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

"The bonds will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, and will bear the circulation privilege only to the extent provided in the act approved July 22, 1932, as amended. They will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

"Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached, and bonds registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds, and for the transfer of registered bonds under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

"The bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds."

As interest on the bonds issued under this circular will accrue from December 15, 1934, coupon bonds will be delivered hereunder with coupon no. 1, dated December 15, 1934, detached.

TENDERS AND ALLOTMENTS

Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and the branches thereof up to 3 p. m., eastern standard time, Wednesday, May 29, 1935, and unless received by that time will be disregarded. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must state the face amount of bonds bid for, which must be $1,000 or any even multiple thereof, and the price offered. The price offered must be stated exclusive of accrued interest from December 15, 1934, to June 3, 1935; and must be expressed on the basis of 100, with fractions expressed as 32ds of 1 percent, in accordance with usual practice; e. g., 103-29 32. Tenders at less than par will not be considered.

Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied in every case by a deposit of 5 percent of the face amount of bonds bid for, except where the tender is accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company. If the tender is accepted, in whole or in part, the deposit will be applied toward payment for the bonds, the balance to be paid as hereinafter provided. If the tender is rejected, the deposit will be returned to the bidder.

Tenders must be enclosed in envelopes, securely sealed, addressed to the Federal Reserve bank, or branch, of the district, and plainly marked "Tender for 3 percent Treasury Bonds of 1916-48." The Federal Reserve banks will supply printed forms and special envelopes for submitting tenders. Incorporated banks and trust companies not located in a city where a Federal Reserve bank or branch is located may, in their discretion, submit tenders by telegram, but such telegrams must be received at the Federal Reserve bank or branch before the time fixed for closing.

Immediately after the closing hour for the receipt of tenders on May 29, 1935, all tenders received in writing or by telegraph at the Federal Reserve banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour (3 p. m., eastern standard time) will be opened. The Secretary of the Treasury will determine the acceptable prices offered and will make public announcement thereof as soon as possible after the opening of tenders. Those submitting tenders will be advised by the Federal Reserve banks of the acceptance or rejection thereof, and payment on accepted tenders must be made as hereinafter provided. In considering the acceptance of tenders, the highest prices offered will be accepted in full down to the amount required; and if the same price appears in two or more tenders and it is necessary to accept only a part of the amount offered at such price, tenders for smaller amounts may be accorded preference and tenders for larger amounts prorated to the extent necessary in accordance with the respective amounts bid for. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right, however, to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to award less than the amount bid for, and any action he may take in any such respect or respects shall be final.

PAYMENT

Payment for any bonds allotted on accepted tenders must be made or completed on or before June 3, 1935, in cash or other immediately available funds, and must include the face amount and the premium, if any, which the bidder has agreed to pay, together with accrued interest on the face amount from December 15, 1934, to June 3, 1935.¹ In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent deposit with application shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid allotments, and to perform such other acts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this circular. Pending delivery of the definitive bonds, Federal Reserve banks may issue interim receipts.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the receipt of tenders and the sale of bonds under this circular, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 17

Acceptance of tenders for Treasury bonds of 1946-48 (from press release, May 31, 1935²)

On May 31, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the result of the offering by the Treasury of $100,000,000, or thereabouts, of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48, tenders for which were received at the Federal Reserve banks up to 3 p. m. on May 29.

Tenders for \$270,077,000 face amount of bonds were received, of which \$98,708,000 was accepted at prices ranging from $103\frac{3}{8}$ down to $103\frac{1}{2}$, and accrued interest from December 15, 1934, to June 3, 1935. Tenders were received for more than \$22,000,000 at 103, and it was deemed inadvisable to allot a small percentage. The average price of the bonds to be issued was about $103\frac{4}{8}$ and a total premium of \$3,082,864 would be received. Based on the average price at which the bonds were to be issued on June 3, 1935, the yield was about 2.67 percent to the earliest call date, June 15, 1946, and about 2.71 percent to maturity, June 15, 1948.

Offering of $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series B-1940

On June 10, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau offered for subscription $1\frac{1}{2}$ percent Treasury notes of series B-1940 in exchange for 3 percent Treasury notes of series A-1935 and for $1\frac{1}{8}$ percent Treasury notes of series B-1935. In the related press release it was stated that about \$416,600,000 of the notes of series A-1935 would mature on June 15, 1935, and about \$353,800,000 of notes of series B-1935 would mature on August 1, 1935.

[Department Circular No. 542]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, June 10, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States, for 1½ percent notes of the United States, designated Treasury notes of series B-1940, in payment of which only Treasury notes of series A-1935, maturing June 15, 1935, or Treasury notes of series B-1935, maturing August 1, 1935, may be tendered. The amount of the offering under this circular will be limited to the amount of Treasury notes of series A-1935 and of series B-1935 tendered and accepted.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

The notes will be dated June 15, 1935, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, on December 15, 1935, and thereafter on June 15 and December 15 in each year. They will mature June 15, 1940, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

The notes shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes¹) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.² * * *

Applications will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions generally will handle applications for subscribers, but only the Federal Reserve banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions or classes of subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of notes applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

PAYMENT

Payment at par and accrued interest, if any, for notes allotted hereunder must be made on or before June 15, 1935, or on later allotment, and may be made only in 3 percent Treasury notes of series A-1935, maturing June 15, 1935, or in 1½ percent Treasury notes of series B-1935, maturing August 1, 1935, which will be accepted at par, and should accompany the subscription. In the case of Treasury notes of series B-1935 tendered in payment, coupons dated August 1, 1935, must be attached to the notes when surrendered, and accrued interest to June 15, 1935,³ will be paid following acceptance of the notes for exchange.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions * * *.

Inviting tenders for 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48 (additional)

[Department Circular No. 544]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, June 24, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, offers to the people of the United States $100,000,000, or thereabouts, 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48, and invites tenders therefor at not less than par and accrued interest from June 15, 1935, to July 1, 1935.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48 issued pursuant to Department Circulars No. 512, dated June 4, 1934, and No. 541, dated May 27, 1935; will be freely interchangeable therewith; and (with the exception that interest on the bonds issued under this circular will accrue from June 15, 1935) are identical in all respects therewith and are described in the following quotation from Department Circular No. 512: [Description omitted here, see p. 223.]

As interest on the bonds issued under this circular will accrue from June 15, 1935, coupon bonds will be delivered hereunder with coupons nos. 1 and 2, dated December 15, 1934, and June 15, 1935, respectively, detached.

TENDERS AND ALLOTMENTS

Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches thereof up to 12 o'clock noon, eastern standard time, Wednesday, June 26, 1935, and unless received by that time will be disregarded. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must state the face amount of bonds bid for, which must be $1,000 or any even multiple thereof, and the price offered. The price offered must be stated exclusive of accrued interest from June 15, 1935, to July 1, 1935; and must be expressed on the basis of 100, with fractions expressed as 32ds of 1 percent, in accordance with usual practice, e. g., 103-16/32. Tenders at less than par will not be considered.¹ * * *

¹ Omitted portions similar to corresponding sections of Department Circular No. 541, p. 223.

Immediately after the closing hour for the receipt of tenders on June 26, 1935, all tenders received in writing or by telegraph at the Federal Reserve banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour (12 o'clock noon, eastern standard time) will be opened. * * *

PAYMENT

Payment for any bonds allotted on accepted tenders must be made or completed on or before July 1, 1935, in cash or other immediately available funds, and must include the face amount, and the premium which the bidder has agreed to pay, together with accrued interest on the face amount from June 15, 1935, to July 1, 1935.² In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent deposit with application shall, upon declaration made by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized and requested to receive tenders * * *.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 21

Acceptance of tenders for Treasury bonds of 1946-48 (from press release, June 27, 1935)

On June 27, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the result of the offering by the Treasury on June 24 of $100,000,000, or thereabouts, of 3 percent Treasury bonds of 1946-48, tenders for which were received at the Federal Reserve banks up to 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, June 26.

Tenders for $461,341,000 face amount of bonds were received, of which $112,669,000 was accepted at prices ranging from 103-24/32 down to 103-17/32 and accrued interest from June 15 to July 1, 1935. The average price of the bonds to be issued was about 103-18/32, and a total premium of $4,005,378 was to be received. Based on the average price at which the bonds were to be issued on July 1, 1935, the yield was about 2.62 percent to the earliest call date, June 15, 1946, and about 2.67 percent to maturity, June 15, 1948.

Issues of Treasury bills

Exhibit 22

Inviting tenders for Treasury bills dated July 3, 1934, and maturing January 2, 1935

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 27, 1934.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that tenders are invited for Treasury bills to the amount of $75,000,000, or thereabouts. They will be 183-day bills, and will be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidders. Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve banks, or the branches thereof, up to 2 p. m. eastern standard time, on Friday, June 29, 1934. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington.

The Treasury bills will be dated July 3, 1934, and will mature on January 2, 1935, and on the maturity date the face amount will be payable without interest. They will be issued in bearer form only, and in amount or denominations of $1,000, $10,000, $100,000, $500,000, and $1,000,000 (maturity value).

It is urged that tenders be made on the printed forms and forwarded in the special envelopes which will be supplied by the Federal Reserve banks or branches upon application therefor.

² Accrued interest from June 15, 1935, to July 1, 1935, on $1,000 face amount is $1.311475.

No tender for an amount less than $1,000 will be considered. Each tender must be in multiples of $1,000. The price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100, with not more than three decimal places, e. g., 99.125. Fractions must not be used.

Tenders will be accepted without cash deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied by a deposit of 10 percent of the face amount of Treasury bills applied for, unless the tenders are accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company.

Immediately after the closing hour for receipt of tenders on June 29, 1934, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened and public announcement of the acceptable prices will follow as soon as possible thereafter, probably on the following morning. The Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to allot less than the amount applied for, and his action in any such respect shall be final. Those submitting tenders will be advised of the acceptance or rejection thereof. Payment at the price offered for Treasury bills allotted must be made at the Federal Reserve banks in cash or other immediately available funds on July 3, 1934.

The Treasury bills will be exempt, as to principal and interest, and any gain from the sale or other disposition thereof will also be exempt, from all taxation, except estate and inheritance taxes. No loss from the sale or other disposition of the Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions.

Treasury Department Circular No. 418, as amended, and this notice prescribe the terms of the Treasury bills and govern the conditions of their issue. Copies of the circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch thereof.

Exhibit 23

Acceptance of tenders for Treasury bills dated July 3, 1934, and maturing January 2, 1935 (press release, June 30, 1934)

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced on June 29, 1934, that the tenders for $75,000,000, or thereabouts, of 183-day Treasury bills, dated July 3, 1934, and maturing January 2, 1935, which were offered on June 27, were opened at the Federal Reserve banks on June 29, 1934.

The total amount applied for was $205,138,000, of which $75,167,000 was accepted. The accepted bids ranged in price from 99.980, equivalent to a rate of about 0.04 percent per annum, to 99.960, equivalent to a rate of about 0.08 percent per annum on a bank discount basis. Only part of the amount bid for at the latter price was accepted. The average price of Treasury bills to be issued is 99.964 and the average rate is about 0.07 percent per annum on a bank discount basis.

Inviting tenders for Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation 3 percent bonds of 1944-49

On July 23, 1934, the Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, invited tenders for bonds of the Corporation, as described in the following circular:

[Department Circular No. 515]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, July 23, 1934.

The Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, offers to the public $100,000,000, or thereabouts, 3 percent bonds of 1944-49 of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, and invites tenders therefor, through the Federal Reserve banks, at not less than par and accrued interest from May 15 to August 1, 1934.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds of this issue are dated May 15, 1934, and bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, payable semiannually, on May 15 and November 15 of each year, until the principal amount becomes payable. These bonds will mature May 15, 1949. All or any part of this issue of bonds may be redeemed at par and accrued interest on May 15, 1944, or on any subsequent interest-payment date. In the event of any such redemption, notice thereof will be given in such manner as the Board of Directors of the Corporation may prescribe. Interest ceases to accrue on any bond after the redemption date of which notice is so given, whether the bond is then surrendered or not.

Bearer bonds, with interest coupons attached and bonds registered as to principal and interest are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000. Exchanges of denominations and of registered for coupon or coupon for registered bonds may be made through any Federal Reserve bank or at the Division of Loans and Currency of the United States Treasury, Washington, D. C., and through any other agency designated for the purpose by the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation.

These bonds are issued under the authority of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation Act, approved January 31, 1934, as amended, which provides that these bonds and the income derived therefrom shall be exempt from Federal, State, municipal, and local taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes).

Section 16(a) of that act contains the following provisions: "The first sentence of the eighth paragraph of section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, is further amended by inserting before the semicolon after the words 'Section 13(a) of this act' a comma and the following: 'or by the deposit or pledge of Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds issued under the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation Act'." Thus, the bonds are legally acceptable to secure 15-day borrowings from the Federal Reserve banks. However, they do not have the circulation privilege.

Section 4 of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation Act, as amended, also provides as follows: "* * * Such bonds shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States and such guaranty shall be expressed on the face thereof, and such bonds shall be lawful investments, and may be accepted as security, for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. In the event that the Corporation shall be unable to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, such bonds, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the holder the amount thereof which is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the Secretary of the Treasury shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of such bonds. * * *"

TENDERS AND ALLOTMENTS

Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and the branches thereof up to 2 p. m., eastern standard time, Wednesday, July 25, 1934, and unless received by that time will be disregarded. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Each tender must be in multiples of $100, must state the face amount of bonds applied for, and the price offered. The price offered (not less than par) must be expressed on the basis of 100 with not more than three decimal places, e. g., 101.125. The price offered must be stated exclusive of accrued interest from May 15 to August 1, 1934. Tenders at less than par will not be considered.

Tenders will be accepted without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied in every case by a deposit of 5 percent of the face amount of bonds bid for, except where the tender is accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company. If the tender is accepted, any deposit will be applied toward payment for the bonds, the balance to be paid as hereinafter provided. If the tender is rejected, any deposit will be returned to the bidder.

Tenders must be enclosed in envelopes, securely sealed, addressed to the Federal Reserve bank or branch of the district, and plainly marked "Tender for 3 percent bonds of Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation. The Federal Reserve banks will supply printed forms and special envelopes for submitting tenders.

Immediately after the closing hour for the receipt of tenders on July 25, 1934, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened. The Secretary of the Treasury will determine the acceptable prices offered and will make public announcement thereof as soon as possible after the opening of tenders. Those submitting tenders will be advised by the Federal Reserve banks of the acceptance or rejection thereof, and payment on accepted tenders must be made as hereinafter provided. In considering the acceptance of tenders, the highest prices offered will be accepted in full down to the amount required, and if the same price appears in two or more tenders and it is necessary to accept only a part of the amount offered at such price, the amount accepted at such price will be prorated in accordance with the respective amounts bid for. However, the Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to award less than the amount bid for, and any action he may take in any such respect or respects shall be final.

PAYMENT

Payment for any bonds allotted on accepted tenders must be made or completed on or before August 1, 1934, in cash or other immediately available funds, and must include the face amount and the premium, if any, which the bidder has agreed to pay, together with accrued interest on the face amount from May 15 to August 1, 1934.¹ In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent payment with application shall, upon declaration by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the United States.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid allotments, and to perform such other acts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this circular. Pending delivery of the definitive bonds, Federal Reserve banks may issue interim receipts.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the receipt of tenders and the sale of bonds under this circular, which will be promptly communicated to the Federal Reserve banks.

T. J. COOLIDGE,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

¹ Accrued interest from May 15 to Aug. 1, 1934, on $1,000 face amount is $6.358695.

Exhibit 26

*Acceptance of tenders for Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds of 1944-49
(from press release, July 26, 1934, revised¹)*

Acting Secretary of the Treasury Coolidge announced the result of the offering by the Treasury of $100,000,000 of 10-15 year, 3 percent bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, tenders for which were received at the Federal Reserve banks up to 2 p. m., July 25.

Tenders for $194,856,600 face amount of bonds were received, of which $100,045,300 was accepted at prices ranging from 102.250 down to 100.438, and accrued interest from May 15 to August 1, 1934. Only 10 percent of the amount tendered at the latter price was accepted. The average price of the bonds to be issued was 100.559, and a total premium of $558,291 was to be received. Based on the average prices at which the bonds were to be issued on August 1, 1934, the yield was about 2.92 percent to the earliest call date, May 15, 1944, and about 2.95 percent to maturity, May 15, 1949.

Exhibit 27

*Inviting tenders for Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds, series C, 1936
(1½ percent), series D, 1937 (1¾ percent), and series E, 1938 (2 percent)*

On August 6, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, invited tenders for three issues of bonds of the Corporation, as described in the following circular:

[Department Circular No. 516]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, August 6, 1934.

The Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, offers to the public not to exceed $150,000,000 of bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, in three series of not to exceed $50,000,000 each, and invites tenders therefor, through the Federal Reserve banks.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

Series C, 1936, for not to exceed $50,000,000.—The bonds of this series will be dated August 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. They will mature August 15, 1936, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

Series D, 1937, for not to exceed $50,000,000.—The bonds of this series will be dated August 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1¾ percent per annum. They will mature August 15, 1937, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

Series E, 1938, for not to exceed $50,000,000.—The bonds of this series will be dated August 15, 1934, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2 percent per annum. They will mature August 15, 1938, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, and $100,000.² The bonds will not be issued in registered form. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations of the same series, without charge by the Corporation, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Corporation.

These bonds are issued under the authority of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as amended, which provides that these bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any district, Territory, dependency, or possession thereof, or by any State, county, municipality, or local taxing authority.

² The denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, and $5,000 will be initially available, and those of $10,000 and $100,000 will be available after Sept. 1, 1934.

The bonds are acceptable at face value in payment of indebtedness due the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. They are also acceptable to secure 15-day borrowings from the Federal Reserve banks, but do not bear the circulation privilege.

Section 4 (c) of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as amended, provides as follows: " * * * Such bonds shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States, and such guaranty shall be expressed on the face thereof, and such bonds shall be lawful investments, and may be accepted as security for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds, the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. In the event that the Corporation shall be unable to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, such bonds, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the holder the amount thereof which is hereby authorized to be appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the Secretary of the Treasury shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of such bonds. * * * "

TENDERS AND ALLOTMENTS

Tenders will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and the branches thereof up to 2 p. m., eastern standard time, Wednesday, August 8, 1934, and unless received by that time will be disregarded. Tenders will not be received at the Treasury Department, Washington. Bidders will be required to specify the particular series for which each tender is made. Each tender must be in multiples of $100, must state the face amount of bonds applied for, and the price offered. The price offered must be expressed on the basis of 100 with not more than three decimal places, e. g., 100.125.

Tenders will be received without deposit from incorporated banks and trust companies and from responsible and recognized dealers in investment securities. Tenders from others must be accompanied in every case by a deposit of 5 percent of the face amount of bonds bid for, except where the tender is accompanied by an express guaranty of payment by an incorporated bank or trust company. If the tender is accepted, in whole or in part, the deposit will be applied toward payment for the bonds, the balance to be paid as hereinafter provided. If the tender is rejected, the deposit will be returned to the bidder.

Tenders must be enclosed in envelopes, securely sealed, addressed to a Federal Reserve bank, or branch, and plainly marked "Tender for bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation." The Federal Reserve banks will supply printed forms and special envelopes for submitting tenders.

Immediately after the closing hour for the receipt of tenders on August 8, 1934, all tenders received at the Federal Reserve banks or branches thereof up to the closing hour will be opened. The Secretary of the Treasury will determine the acceptable prices offered and will make public announcement thereof as soon as possible after the opening of tenders. Those submitting tenders will be advised by the Federal Reserve banks of the acceptance or rejection thereof, and payment on accepted tenders must be made as hereinafter provided. In considering the acceptance of tenders, the highest prices offered will be accepted in full down to the amount required, and if the same price appears in two or more tenders and it is necessary to accept only a part of the amount offered at such price, the amount accepted at such price will be prorated in accordance with the respective amounts bid for. However, the Secretary of the Treasury expressly reserves the right to reject any or all tenders or parts of tenders, and to award less than the amount bid for, and any action he may take in any such respect or respects shall be final.

PAYMENT

Payment for any bonds allotted on accepted tenders must be made or completed on or before August 15, 1934, in cash or other immediately available funds. In every case where payment is not so completed, the 5 percent payment with application shall, upon declaration by the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion, be forfeited to the Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized and requested to receive tenders, to make allotments as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid allotments, and to perform such other acts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this circular. Pending delivery of the definitive bonds, Federal Reserve banks may issue interim receipts.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the receipt of tenders and the sale of bonds under this circular, which will be promptly communicated to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 28

Acceptance of tenders for Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds, series C, 1936, series D, 1937, and series E, 1938 (from press release, Aug. 9, 1934, revised¹)

On August 9, 1934, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced the result of the offering by the Treasury of not to exceed $150,000,000 of bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation in three series of not more than $50,000,000 each, tenders for which were received at the Federal Reserve banks up to 2 p. m., August 8.

Tenders aggregating $233,126,600 were received for the three series, of which tenders amounting to $127,111,100 were accepted. In accordance with the right reserved to reject any tenders, all those below 99 for the 3- and 4-year bonds were rejected as being unsatisfactory in price, with the result that allotments for these two series were below the amounts offered. In addition to accepted bids the Treasury purchased for the benefit of its investment funds $8,000,000 of the 3-year and $14,000,000 of the 4-year bonds.

Exhibit 29

Offering of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 1½ percent bonds of series F-1939 (with circular of Home Owners' Loan Corporation governing redemption of its ¼ percent bonds of 1938-51)

On May 20, 1935, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau, on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, offered 1½ percent bonds of the Corporation in payment of which only ¼ percent bonds of the Corporation, series of 1933-51, called for redemption on July 1, 1935, might be tendered.

[Department Circular No. 540]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, May 20, 1935.

The Secretary of the Treasury, on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, invites subscriptions, from the people of the United States, for 1½ percent bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, designated bonds of series F-1939, in payment of which only Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51, called for redemption on July 1, 1935, of an equal principal amount, may be tendered. The amount of the offering under this circular will be limited to the principal amount of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 tendered and accepted. It is the intention to offer for cash subscription, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, an additional amount of bonds of series F-1939, approximately equal to the amount of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 not tendered and accepted hereunder.

The terms and conditions of the bonds offered under this circular, the manner in which such bonds shall be issued, and the prices at which they shall be sold are prescribed by the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, as follows:

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

The bonds will be dated June 1, 1935, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 1½ percent per annum, payable semiannually, on December 1, 1935, and thereafter on June 1 and December 1 in each year. They will mature June 1, 1939, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

These bonds are issued under the authority of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as amended, which provides that these bonds shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any District, Territory, dependency, or possession thereof, or by any State, county, municipality, or local taxing authority.

The bonds will be acceptable at face value in payment of indebtedness due the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. They will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys, and will also be acceptable in lieu of surety under the provisions of section 1126 of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended. They will be acceptable to secure 15-day borrowings from the Federal Reserve banks.

The bonds herein offered come within the following provisions of section 4 (c) of the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, as amended: " * * * Such bonds shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States, and such guaranty shall be expressed on the face thereof, and such bonds shall be lawful investments, and may be accepted as security, for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds, the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. In the event that the Corporation shall be unable to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, such bonds, the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay to the holder the amount thereof which is hereby authorized to be appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and thereupon to the extent of the amount so paid the Secretary of the Treasury shall succeed to all the rights of the holders of such bonds. * * *"

Bearer bonds with interest coupons attached will be issued in denominations of $25, $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000. The bonds will not be issued in registered form. Provision will be made for the interchange of bonds of different denominations, without charge by the Corporation, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Corporation.

SUBSCRIPTION AND ALLOTMENT

Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve banks and branches and the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice.

The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, to make allotments in full upon applications for smaller amounts and to make reduced allotments upon, or to reject, applications for larger amounts, to make classified allotments or to make allotments upon a graduated scale, or to adopt any or all of said methods or such other methods of allotment and classification of allotments as shall be deemed by him to be in the public interest; and his action in any or all of these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment for bonds allotted hereunder may be made only in Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51, called for redemption on July 1, 1935, of an equal principal amount, which should accompany the subscription. Cash payments will not be accepted. If any subscription is rejected, in whole or in part, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 tendered therewith and not accepted will be returned to the subscriber. Interest on Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 tendered and accepted will be paid in full to July 1, 1935.

SURRENDER OF HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION 4 PERCENT BONDS OF SERIES OF 1933-51

Coupon bonds.—Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 in coupon form tendered in payment for Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds offered hereunder, should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Coupons dated January 1, 1936, and all coupons bearing subsequent dates should be attached to such coupon bonds when surrendered, and if any such coupons are missing, the subscription must be accompanied by cash payment equal to the face amount of the missing coupons. Coupons dated July 1, 1935, should be detached and collected in regular course when due. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents.

Registered bonds.—Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 in registered form tendered in payment for Home Owners' Loan Corporation 1½ percent bonds offered hereunder, should be assigned by the registered payee or the assignee thereof to "Home Owners' Loan Corporation in payment for Home Owners' Loan Corporation 1½ percent bonds of series F-1939", and thereafter should be presented and surrendered with the subscription to a Federal Reserve bank or to the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C. If the 1½ percent bonds are to be delivered for the account of other than the registered payee or the assignee of the 4 percent bonds surrendered, the assignment should be to "Home Owners' Loan Corporation in payment for Home Owners' Loan Corporation 1½ percent bonds of series F-1939 to be delivered to -----." The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holder. Final interest due will be paid on July 1, 1935, by checks issued in favor of registered payees and for this purpose the persons entitled by assignment to receive the bonds of series F-1939 will be considered the registered payees.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments as directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, to issue interim receipts if required, and to perform such other acts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this circular.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering which will be promptly communicated to the Federal Reserve banks.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

The circular of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation governing the redemption of its 4 percent bonds, series of 1933-51, as follows:

[Home Owners' Loan Corporation Circular No. 11]

OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN,
Washington, May 20, 1935.

To Holders of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 Percent Bonds of Series of 1933-51, and Others Concerned:

I. NOTICE OF CALL FOR REDEMPTION BEFORE MATURITY

On May 20, 1935, the following public notice of call for redemption was given:

Public notice is hereby given that all outstanding Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51, dated July 1, 1933, each and every number of all denominations, are hereby called for redemption on July 1, 1935, and will cease to bear interest on that date.

Full information regarding the presentation and surrender of such Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51 for redemption on July 1, 1935, is given in Circular No. 11, dated May 20, 1935, of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

II. OPTIONAL EXCHANGE OFFERING

Holders of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds of series of 1933-51, now called for redemption on July 1, 1935, are offered the privilege, for a limited period, of acquiring with all or any part of their called bonds an equal principal amount of 4-year 1½ percent bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, dated and bearing interest from June 1, 1935, and fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States. Full information concerning the offering is set forth in Treasury Department Circular No. 540, dated May 20, 1935.

III. RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING REDEMPTION OF HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION 4 PERCENT BONDS

Pursuant to the call for redemption, as set forth in section 1 of this circular, the following rules and regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the presentation and surrender of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds for redemption on July 1, 1935:

1. The United States Treasury Department is the agency of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation for the redemption of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds, and the Home Owners' Loan Corporation has adopted the regulations of the Treasury Department governing the assignment and redemption of United States bonds in connection with the redemption of Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds. Therefore, Treasury Department regulations will be followed in connection with the assignment and redemption of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds, except as otherwise provided herein.

2. Payment of called bonds on July 1, 1935.—Holders of any outstanding Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds will be entitled to have such bonds redeemed and paid at par on July 1, 1935, with interest in full to that date. After July 1, 1935, interest will not accrue on any Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds.

3. Presentation and surrender of coupon bonds.—Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds in coupon form should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C., for redemption on July 1, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 9 of this section), and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form FA12 attached hereto). Checks in payment of principal will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the bonds surrendered.

4. Coupons dated July 1, 1935, which become payable on that date, should be detached from any Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds before such bonds are presented for redemption on July 1, 1935, and such coupons should be collected in regular course when due. All coupons pertaining to such bonds bearing dates subsequent to July 1, 1935, must be attached to any such bonds, when presented for redemption, provided, however, if any such coupons are missing from bonds so presented for redemption the bonds nevertheless will be redeemed, but the full face amount of any such missing coupons will be deducted from the payment to be made on account of such redemption, and any amounts so deducted will be held in the Treasury to provide for adjustments or refunds on account of such missing coupons as may subsequently be presented.

5. Presentation and surrender of registered bonds.—Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds in registered form must be assigned by the registered payees or assigns thereof, or by their duly constituted representatives, in accordance with the general regulations of the United States Treasury Department governing assignments of United States bonds in the form indicated in the next paragraph hereof, and thereafter should be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., for redemption on July 1, 1935. The bonds must be delivered at the expense and risk of holders (see par. 9 of this section) and should be accompanied by appropriate written advice (see form FA13 attached hereto). Final interest due July 1, 1935, on registered bonds will be paid with the principal amount thereof and check will be issued in regular course to the owner of the bond surrendered.

6. If the registered payee, or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee, desires that payment of the principal and final installment of interest be made to him, the bonds should be assigned by such payee or assignee, or by a duly constituted representative, to the "Home Owners' Loan Corporation for redemption." If it is desired, for any reason, that payment be made to some other person, without intermediate assignment the bonds should be assigned to the "Home Owners' Loan Corporation for redemption for the account of -----", inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made. A representative or fiduciary should not assign for payment to himself individually, unless expressly authorized to do so by court order or the instrument under which he is acting; he may, however, assign for payment to himself in his representative or fiduciary capacity.

7. Assignment in blank or other assignment having similar effect, will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the bond for redemption, since under such assignment the bond becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

8. Final interest due on July 1, 1935, on registered Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds will be paid with the principal in accordance with the assignments on the bonds surrendered. The transfer books for registered bonds will remain open until June 15, 1935.

9. Transportation of bonds.—Bonds presented for redemption under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve bank or branch, or to the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Coupon bonds should be forwarded by registered mail insured, or by express prepaid. Registered bonds bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but registered bonds bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail insured or by express. Facilities for transportation of bonds by registered mail insured may be arranged between incorporated banks and trust companies and the Federal Reserve banks, and holders may take advantage of such arrangements when available, utilizing such incorporated banks and trust companies as their agents. Incorporated banks and trust companies are not agents of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation under this circular.

IV. TIME OF PRESENTATION OF CALLED BONDS FOR REDEMPTION

1. In order to facilitate the redemption of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds on July 1, 1935, any such bonds should be presented and surrendered in the manner herein prescribed well in advance of that date but not before June 1, 1935. Such early presentation by holders will assure prompt payment of principal when due. This is particularly important with respect to registered bonds, for payment cannot be made until registration shall have been discharged at the United States Treasury Department.

2. It will expedite redemption if the bonds are presented to Federal Reserve banks, or branches, and not direct to the Treasury Department.

3. As hereinbefore provided: (1) Coupons due July 1, 1935, should be detached from any coupon bonds when such bonds are presented for redemption on that date, such coupons to be collected when due; and (2) final interest due on any registered bonds will be paid with the principal amount.

4. If Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds called for redemption on July 1, 1935, are to be presented in payment for Home Owners' Loan Corporation 1½ percent bonds of series F-1939, instructions given in Treasury Department Circular No. 540 should be followed; if to be presented for redemption on July 1, 1935, instructions given in this circular should be followed.

V. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Any further information which may be desired regarding the redemption of Home Owners' Loan Corporation 4 percent bonds under this circular may be obtained from any Federal Reserve bank or branch, or from the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., where copies of the Treasury Department's regulations governing assignments also may be obtained.

2. As fiscal agents of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Federal Reserve banks are authorized and requested to perform any necessary acts under this circular. The chairman of the board of directors of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the matters covered by this circular, which will be communicated promptly to Federal Reserve banks.

JOHN H. FAHEY,

Chairman of the Board of Directors.

An act to amend the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, and for other purposes

[Public No. 3, 74th Cong., H. R. 4304]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, is further amended as follows:

The first paragraph of section 1 is amended to read as follows:

"The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is hereby authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States for the purposes of this act, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet expenditures authorized for the national security and defense and other public purposes authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor bonds of the United States: Provided, That the face amount of bonds issued under this section and section 22 of this act shall not exceed in the aggregate $25,000,000,000 outstanding at any one time."

SEC. 2. The first sentence of subsection (a) of section 5 is amended to read as follows: "In addition to the bonds and notes authorized by sections 1, 18, and 22 of this act, as amended, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, subject to the limitation imposed by section 21 of this act, to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of this act, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor (1) certificates of indebtedness of the United States at not less than par (except as provided in section 20 of this act, as amended) and at such rate or rates of interest, payable at such time or times as he may prescribe; or, (2) Treasury bills on a discount basis and payable at maturity without interest."

SEC. 3. Section 5 is further amended by striking out the final sentence of subsection (a) thereof, reading as follows: "The sum of the par value of such certificates and Treasury bills outstanding hereunder and under section 6 of the First Liberty Bond Act shall not at any one time exceed in the aggregate $10,000,000,000."

SEC. 4. Subsection (a) of section 18 is amended to read as follows:

"In addition to the bonds and certificates of indebtedness and war-savings certificates authorized by this act and amendments thereto, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized, subject to the limitation imposed by section 21 of this act, to borrow from time to time on the credit of the United States for the purposes of this act, to provide for the purchase, redemption, or refunding, at or before maturity, of any outstanding bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or Treasury bills of the United States, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary and to issue therefor notes of the United States at not less than par (except as provided in sec. 20 of this act, as amended) in such form or forms and denomination or denominations, containing such terms and conditions, and at such rate or rates of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and each series of notes so issued shall be payable at such time not less than 1 year nor more than 5 years from the date of its issue as he may prescribe, and may be redeemable before maturity (at the option of the United States) in whole or in part, upon not more than 1 year's nor less than 4 months' notice, and under such rules and regulations and during such period as he may prescribe."

SEC. 5. The Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, is further amended, by adding a new section, as follows:

"SEC. 21. The face amount of certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills authorized by section 5 of this act, certificates of indebtedness authorized by section 6 of the First Liberty Bond Act, and notes authorized by section 18 of this act shall not exceed in the aggregate $20,000,000,000 outstanding at any one time."

SEC. 6. The Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, is further amended, by adding a new section, as follows:

"SEC. 22. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized to issue, from time to time, through the postal service or otherwise, bonds of the United States to be known as 'United States Savings Bonds.' The proceeds of the Savings Bonds shall be available to meet any public expenditures authorized by law and to retire any outstanding obligations of the United States bearing interest or issued on a discount basis. The various issues and series of the Savings Bonds shall be in such forms, shall be offered in such amounts within the limits of section 1 of this act, as amended, and shall be issued in such manner and subject to such terms and conditions consistent with subsections (b) and (c) hereof, and including any restriction on their transfer, as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe.

"(b) Each Savings Bond shall be issued on a discount basis to mature not less than 10 nor more than 20 years from the date as of which the bond is issued, and provision may be made for redemption before maturity upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the issue price of Savings Bonds and the terms upon which they may be redeemed prior to maturity shall be such as to afford an investment yield not in excess of 3 per centum per annum, compounded semiannually. The denominations of Savings Bonds shall be in terms of their maturity value and shall not be less than $25. It shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold Savings Bonds issued during any one calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 (maturity value).

"(c) The provisions of section 7 of this act, as amended (relating to the exemptions from taxation both as to principal and as to interest of bonds issued under authority of sec. 1 of this act, as amended), shall apply as well to the Savings Bonds; and, for the purposes of determining taxes and tax exemptions, the increment in value represented by the difference between the price paid and the redemption value received (whether at or before maturity) shall be considered as interest. The Savings Bonds shall not bear the circulation privilege.

"(d) The appropriation for expenses provided by section 10 of this act and extended by the act of June 16, 1921 (U. S. C., title 31, secs. 760 and 761), shall be available for all necessary expenses under this section; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to advance, from time to time, to the Postmaster General from such appropriation such sums as are shown to be required for the expenses of the Post Office Department, in connection with the handling of the bonds issued under this section.

"(e) The board of trustees of the Postal Savings System is authorized to permit, subject to such regulations as it may from time to time prescribe, the withdrawal of deposits on less than 60 days' notice for the purpose of acquiring Savings Bonds which may be offered by the Secretary of the Treasury; and in such cases to make payment of interest to the date of withdrawal whether or not a regular interest payment date. No further original issue of bonds authorized by section 10 of the act approved June 25, 1910 (U. S. C., title 39, sec. 760), shall be made after July 1, 1935.

"(f) At the request of the Secretary of the Treasury the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, shall require the employees of the Post Office Department and of the Postal Service to perform, without extra compensation, such fiscal agency services as may be desirable and practicable in connection with the issue, delivery, safe-keeping, redemption, and payment of the Savings Bonds."

SEC. 7. Section 1126 of the Revenue Act of 1926 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "In order to avoid the frequent substitution of securities such rules and regulations may limit the effect of this section, in appropriate classes of cases, to bonds and notes of the United States maturing more than a year after the date of deposit of such bonds as security. The phrase 'bonds or notes of the United States' shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section to mean any public debt obligations of the United States and any bonds, notes, or other obligations which are unconditionally guaranteed as to both interest and principal by the United States."

Approved, February 4, 1935.

Exhibit 32

Statement for the press, January 21, 1935, giving an explanation of the bill to amend the Second Liberty Bond Act

Representative Robert L. Doughton, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, submitted the following explanation of the bill which he introduced today to amend the Second Liberty Bond Act:

The present authority of the Government to issue bonds is limited to $2,549,512,885. The Second Liberty Bond Act in its present form carries authorization for the issuance of $28,000,000,000 of bonds, but since $25,450,487,115 have already been issued, the right to issue new long-term securities is very much restricted. Of the more than $25,000,000,000 which have been issued, there are now outstanding $13,474,947,650. But the nearly $12,000,000,000 which have been retired may not be reissued without specific authority, since the authorization in the Second Liberty Bond Act was not in the nature of a revolving fund.

It is now proposed to substitute a $25,000,000,000 revolving authorization for the previous $28,000,000,000 fixed authority. This will give to the Treasury authority to issue between 11 and 12 billions in bonds, which is approximately equivalent to the amount of those which have been retired out of those issued under the $28,000,000,000 authorization.

The bill also proposes to consolidate the two existing revolving funds relating to short-term obligations. At present notes may be issued to the amount of $10,000,000,000 outstanding at any one time, and certificates of indebtedness and Treasury bills may be outstanding in like amount. It is proposed to substitute one $20,000,000,000 limitation applicable to the aggregate outstanding notes, certificates, and bills, thus affording greater flexibility in financing the requirements of the Treasury. There were on December 31, $9,586,000,000 of notes outstanding, while certificates and bills aggregated $2,112,000,000. The amendment proposed in this regard would not increase the total authorization for the issuance of short-term obligations.

The bill would likewise authorize the issuance, at a discount, of United States Savings Bonds maturing in from 10 to 20 years, with the holder having the right in the interval to receive payment from the Treasury on an ascending scale of value. It would also permit the use of Government guaranteed bonds as security in lieu of surety bonds.

Regulations governing United States Savings Bonds

[Department Circular No. 530]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, February 25, 1935.To Owners of United States Savings Bonds, and Others Concerned:

The following regulations governing United States Savings Bonds are published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

I. REGISTRATION

1. United States Savings Bonds will be issued only in registered form. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these regulations, the Treasury Department reserves the right to treat as conclusive the ownership and interest in the bond as stated in the registration.

2. The following forms of registration are authorized:

(a) In the name of any individual, including minors.

(b) In the names of two (but not more than two) natural persons in the alternative, as, for example, "John Jones or Mary Jones." The addresses of both persons should be inscribed on the Savings Bonds. No other form of registration in two names is authorized except, as provided in subparagraphs (c) and (d) hereof.

(c) In the name of one individual and a single designated beneficiary in case of death, as for example, "John Smith, payable on death to Mary Smith", in which case the address of the registered owner and the address of the beneficiary should be inscribed on the face of the Savings Bond.

(d) In the name of one or more guardians, executors, administrators, trustees, or other fiduciaries, whose names shall be given, followed by a description as complete as possible of the capacity in which and the persons for whom they hold the Savings Bonds. Registration in a form indicating that the persons whose names appear on the bonds do not hold full legal title to the Savings Bonds, as, for example, "John Jones, under article 10, of the will of Henry Smith", will not be permitted.

(c) In the name of any corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, or joint stock company. The name of the owner should be followed by the word or words "corporation", "unincorporated association", "partnership", or "joint stock company", as the case may be. No designation may be made in the registration of an officer or agent to receive payment in behalf of the corporation, unincorporated association, partnership, or joint stock company.

II. BONDS NOT TRANSFERABLE

United States Savings Bonds are not transferable: and are payable only to the owner named thereon, except in case of the death or disability of the owner or as a result of judicial proceedings, and then only to the extent specifically provided in sections XIII, VIII, and XIV hereof.

III. LIMITATION ON HOLDINGS

Under the provisions of section 22 of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, it shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold Savings Bonds issued during any one calendar year in an aggregate amount exceeding $10,000 (maturity value). In determining whether the $10,000 limitation on the holdings of any one person has been exceeded, the full maturity value of Savings Bonds issued in any one calendar year held for the benefit of such person in the name of a fiduciary or fiduciaries, or held by such person with any other person (but not of bonds of which such person is merely the designated beneficiary in case of the death of the owner), shall be added to the full maturity value of such bonds held by such person in his or her own name, and the sum must not exceed $10,000 (maturity value). If any person who owns Savings Bonds should become the owner of additional Savings Bonds as the result of the death of any other person, and the total amount then owned by him is in excess of the lawful limit, he should immediately surrender the excess for payment at the redemption value for the period in which the excess was acquired.

IV. LOST, STOLEN, OR DESTROYED BONDS

1. Under the provisions of the Revised Statutes, duplicates may be issued or payment made upon proof of the loss, theft, or destruction of Savings Bonds. Application for relief in such cases will be governed by the regulations found in Department Circular No. 300. Full information as to the requirements, as well as appropriate forms, may be secured from the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C.

2. It is important that immediate notice of such loss, theft, or destruction be given to the Treasury Department.

V. SAFE-KEEPING FACILITIES

1. Any Savings Bond will be held in safe-keeping by the Secretary of the Treasury if the purchaser so desires, and in this connection the Secretary will utilize the facilities of the Federal Reserve banks as fiscal agents of the United States. The purchaser may arrange for such safe-keeping at the time he purchases his bond or subsequently. If the owner desires his bond held in safe-keeping, he can obtain from the postmaster an appropriate envelop, and an application blank which he should fill out, address to the appropriate Federal Reserve bank, sign and enclose with the bond in the envelop, which should be addressed to the appropriate Federal Reserve bank. The postmaster will then register the envelop, at the owner's expense, and the registry receipt will serve as the owner's temporary receipt.

2. When received at the Federal Reserve bank, the bond will be placed in safe-keeping and a receipt from the bank will be mailed to the owner at the address given in the application. The owner can subsequently regain possession of his bonds upon application to the Federal Reserve bank, and upon such identification as is required by such bank.

3. Postmasters generally will assist owners in arranging for safe-keeping, but will not act as a safe-keeping agent.

VI. GENERAL PAYMENT PROVISIONS

1. Savings Bonds will be payable at or after maturity at their full value, or at the option of the owner, prior to maturity (but not within 60 days after the issue date) at the appropriate redemption value as shown on the face of each bond. Payment, in each case, will be made following presentation and surrender of the bond, at the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Washington, D. C., or at any Federal Reserve bank, with the request for payment appearing on the back thereof properly executed in accordance with the succeeding paragraphs. Such presentation will be at the expense and risk of the owner and, for his protection, the bond, or bonds, should be presented in person or forwarded by registered mail.

2. The request for payment must be signed in ink or indelible pencil by the person in whose name the bond is inscribed, or by the person entitled to receive payment under the provisions hereof. The request must be signed in the presence of, and be certified by, one of the following officers:

(a) Any United States postmaster, acting postmaster, or official in charge of a post office authorized to sell Savings Bonds: Provided that in post offices of first class the assistant postmaster, the postal cashier, the superintendent of money orders, or the superintendent or clerk in charge of a classified station or branch may certify to the request for payment; and provided further that at any post office of the second class, the assistant postmaster, or the clerk in charge if there is no assistant postmaster, may certify to the request for payment. If an official other than a postmaster, acting postmaster, or an official in charge of an office certifies to a request for payment, he should certify in the name of the postmaster, acting postmaster, or official in charge, followed by his own signature and official title, e. g., "John Doe, postmaster, by Richard Roe, Superintendent of Money Orders." The certification of any post-office official must be authenticated by a legible imprint of the dating stamp of his post office;

(b) Any executive officer of an incorporated bank or trust company, whose signature must be authenticated by the impression of the corporate seal of the bank or trust company;

(c) Any officer authorized generally to witness assignments of United States registered bonds (see pars. 33-35 Department Circular 300).

3. No person authorized to certify requests for payment may certify a request signed by himself, either in his own right or in any representative capacity.

4. Certifying officers should require positive identification of the person executing the request for payment as the person whose name appears on the face of the bond, or the person entitled to request payment under the provisions of these regulations, and will be held fully responsible therefor.

VII. MINORS

1. If a Savings Bond is registered in the name of a minor and the Treasury Department has notice that a guardian of the estate of such minor has been appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, payment will be made only to such guardian. The request for payment appearing on the back of the bond should be signed: "A. B., minor, by C. D., guardian" and must be supported by a certificate from the proper court, or by a certified copy of the order appointing the guardian, showing his appointment and qualification. The certificate, or certified copy, must be under the seal of the court and should be dated not more than 1 year prior to the presentation of the bond.

2. If the Treasury Department has no notice of the appointment of a guardian of the estate of a minor owner of a Savings Bond, payment will be made direct to such minor owner, provided such minor is, at the time payment is requested, of sufficient competency and understanding to sign his name to the request and to comprehend the nature thereof. In general, the fact that the request for payment has been signed by the minor and duly certified in accordance with section VI hereof will be accepted as sufficient proof of such competency and understanding. If the Treasury is properly advised in the request for payment that such minor owner is not of sufficient competency and understanding to execute the request for payment, payment will be made to either parent of the minor with whom he resides, or in the event that such minor resides with neither parent, then to the person with whom he does reside. In executing the request for payment the parent or other person shall sign the minor's name as well as his own name, and state his relationship to the minor, and there shall be inserted above the space for signature in the request for payment a statement to the effect that the owner is a minor, that he is not of sufficient competency and understanding to execute the request for payment, and that the person signing the request is the person with whom the minor resides. An appropriate form is as follows:

"I am the ----- (state relationship) of A. B. and the person with whom he resides. He is not of sufficient competency and understanding to sign this request.

C. D. -----
On behalf of A. B.

VIII. DISABILITY OF OWNERS

1. If the owner of a Savings Bond has been legally declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs and the Treasury Department has noticed that a conservator or other legally constituted representative of his estate has been appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, payment will be made only to such conservator or other legal representative. The request for payment should be signed: "A. B. incompetent, by C. D., conservator (guardian or committee as the case may be), and must be supported by a certificate from the proper court or a certified copy of the order of the court appointing such conservator or other legal representative showing his appointment and qualification. The certificate, or certified copy, should be under the seal of the court and dated not more than 1 year prior to the date of the presentation of the Savings Bond for payment.

2. In cases where the owner of a Savings Bond has been judicially declared incompetent or insane and no guardian or other legal representative of his estate has been appointed, and the entire gross value of his personal estate, both real and personal, does not exceed $500, payment will be made to a member of his family standing in the position of voluntary guardian upon presentation of proof satisfactory to the Secretary of the Treasury that the proceeds of the bonds are required, and are to be used, for the purchase of necessities for the incompetent or for his wife or minor children or other persons dependent upon him for support.

IX. CO-OWNERS

A Savings Bond registered in the names of two persons in the alternative, as for example, "John Jones or Mary Jones", will be payable to either person named thereon without requiring the signature of the other person, but not to the representative of a deceased co-owner except as hereinafter provided, and upon payment to either person the other shall cease to have any interest in the bond. Should one of the owners die and then the survivor himself die before payment of the Savings Bond, the provisions of section XIII hereof, governing payment or reissue of Savings Bonds held by a deceased owner, shall govern the payment or reissue of the bond as though the survivor had been the sole owner.

X. BENEFICIARIES

1. A Savings Bond registered in the form "A. B. payable on death to C. D." will be payable, until the Treasury Department has received notice of the death of the registered owner, as if the beneficiary were not named on the bond. Upon proof of death of the registered owner, the bond will be payable to, or reissued in the name of, the beneficiary named on the bond, at his option (but only if such beneficiary did not predecease the original owner), as if he had been the registered owner.

2. If the beneficiary should predecease the registered owner, the Savings Bond will be payable to the registered owner as though such beneficial registration had not been made. Registration naming beneficiaries at the death of the registered owner cannot be changed so as to add, eliminate, or substitute beneficiaries.

3. Should the beneficiary die after the death of the registered owner, but before payment or issue of the Savings Bond, the provisions of section XIII hereof governing payment or reissue of Savings Bonds held by a deceased owner, shall govern the payment or reissue of the Savings Bond as though the beneficiary had been the registered owner.

XI. FIDUCIARIES

1. A Savings Bond registered in the name of a fiduciary will be paid to such fiduciary without proof of his authority upon presentation of the bond with the request for payment duly signed by him and certified in accordance with section VI hereof. The request for payment should be signed by the fiduciary in exactly the same manner as his name and designation as fiduciary appear on the face of the Savings Bond.

2. In the event of the death or disqualification of a fiduciary in whose name a Savings Bond is registered, such Savings Bond will be paid to, or, if desired, reissued in the name of, his successor upon satisfactory proof of the appointment and qualification of such successor. If there is no successor, the Savings Bond may be paid to, or, if desired, reissued in the name of the person or persons beneficially entitled thereto upon satisfactory proof of their beneficial ownership.

XII. CORPORATIONS, ASSOCIATIONS, PARTNERSHIPS, ETC.

1. A Savings Bond registered in the name of a corporation, unincorporated association, or joint stock company will be paid upon a request for payment signed by a duly authorized officer of such organization. The signature to the request should be in the form, "The ——— Company, by John Jones, President." The fact that the request for payment is signed and duly certified in accordance with section V hereof may be accepted as sufficient proof of the officer's authority.

2. A Savings Bond registered in the name of a partnership will be paid upon a request for payment signed by any general partner. The signature to the request should be in the form, "Smith and Jones, a partnership, by John Jones, a general partner." The fact that the request for payment is signed and duly certified in accordance with section VI hereof may be accepted as sufficient proof that the person signing the request is a general partner.

XIII. DECEASED OWNERS

1. With administration.—If the owner of a Savings Bond dies leaving a will which is duly admitted to probate and on which letters testamentary are issued, or dies intestate and the estate is administered in a court of competent jurisdiction, payment will be made to the duly appointed representative of the estate. The request for payment should be signed in the form, "A. B., executor (administrator) of the estate of C. D., deceased", and must be supported by a certificate under the seal of the court appointing such representative, dated not more than 6 months prior to the presentation of the Savings Bond for payment, showing the appointment and qualification of such representative and stating that the appointment is still in force; or, in the absence of such a certificate, by a duly certified copy of the representative's letter of appointment, the certification of which must be dated not more than 6 months prior to the presentation of the bond for payment, and must state that the appointment is still in force. A Savings Bond will be reissued in the name of an heir or legatee of the deceased owner upon the request of the representative accompanied by his certificate to the effect that the person in whose name reissue is requested is entitled to the Savings Bond as such legatee or heir. If the representative is himself the heir or legatee entitled to the Savings Bond and desires reissue in his own name, a special order of the court authorizing such reissue must be submitted.

2. Without administration.—If the owner of a Savings Bond dies and no legal representative of his estate is to be appointed and it is established to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, either that the gross value of the personal estate does not exceed $500, or that administration of the estate is not required in the State of the decedent's domicile, the Savings Bond will be paid to, or reissued in the name of, one (but not more than one) of the persons entitled to the bonds under the laws of the State of the decedent's domicile without administration. The request for payment should be signed in the form, "A. B., C. D., E. F., heirs and persons entitled to the estate of X. Y., deceased", and should be accompanied by an agreement signed by all persons entitled, specifying the person to whom payment is to be made or in whose name the bond is to be reissued. Proof will be required that the debts of the decedent and of his estate have been paid or provided for, and that the person to whom payment is requested or in whose name reissue is requested, is entitled to the bonds; such proof will include affidavits of all persons entitled to any share in the estate setting forth the facts in detail and agreeing to the payment or reissue in question, supported by affidavits of two disinterested persons having personal knowledge of the decedent and his family, and by a death certificate or other proof of the death of the owner. (Use Form L. & C. 285, copies of which may be procured from the Treasury Department or any Federal Reserve bank.) If the gross value of the personal estate exceeds $500 the Secretary of the Treasury may further require an affidavit or a certificate from a practicing attorney or judicial officer of the State of the decedent's domicile showing that administration of the estate is not required in such State and referring specifically to the statutes or the decisions of the courts of such State under which exemption from administration is claimed, or showing that it is a general and well-recognized practice in that State to settle such estates without administration.

3. No payment or reissue without administration will be permitted in a case where any of the persons entitled are minors or under disability, except to them or in their names or upon compliance with the provisions of sections VII and VIII hereof governing the payment of Savings Bonds in the names of such persons.

XIV. CREDITORS' RIGHTS

Payment of a Savings Bond will be made in accordance with a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, or proceedings pursuant to such judgment or decree, except in cases where the action is instituted for the purpose of giving effect to an attempted transfer by the owner contrary to section 11 hereof. In appropriate cases the Treasury Department will require proof that the court acting had jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter, and proceeded in due course of its jurisdiction, and that the judgment or decree is final and conclusive, that it has fully and effectually transferred the title of the owner, and that it is not open to attack in any jurisdiction whatever. For this purpose duly authenticated copies of the complaint, order of service, return of service, answer, or other pleading, and the final judgment or order of the court must be furnished, together with a certificate, under seal, from the clerk of the court showing that the time for appeal has elapsed without an appeal having been taken, or that an appeal has been taken and determined by the court of last resort (in which case certified copy of the rescript or mandate of such court must be furnished) and that no further appeal is possible.

XV. DENOMINATIONAL EXCHANGE OR REISSUE

No denominational exchanges of Savings Bonds will be permitted, and except as expressly provided by this circular no reissue of Savings Bonds will be made, whether in the same name or in another name.

XVI. FURTHER PROVISIONS

These regulations are prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury as governing United States Savings Bonds issued under the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, approved September 24, 1917, as amended, and the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 300 have no application to such Savings Bonds except as hereinbefore specifically provided.

The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing United States Savings Bonds.

“Commanding officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States (only for members of the Military and Naval Establishments of the United States);

“Diplomatic and consular representatives of the United States on duty abroad, and those officers of the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States who have certain consular powers under the act approved April 25, 1935; “Certain officers of the United States Treasury at Washington.

“(b) Assignments for redemption: Assignments by registered payees or assignees of such payees for redemption for their account (where checks in redemption are to be issued to the payee or assignee, as the case may be) may also be witnessed in the United States by notaries public, postmasters, or acting postmasters, or by assistant postmasters at first-class post offices, provided that the signatures of notaries public shall be authenticated by their official seals and the dates of expiration of their commissions shall be given and that the signatures of postal officials shall be authenticated by their office stamps.

"(c) Postal savings bonds: In addition to the officers listed in (a) hereof, assignments of postal savings bonds may be witnessed by a postmaster designated to receive postal savings deposits and, in the case of bonds assigned to the board of trustees of the Postal Savings System, by assistant postmasters, postal cashiers, and money-order cashiers at offices designated to receive postal savings deposits. In all cases where the assignment is witnessed by a postal official other than the postmaster, the form of signature to the certificate of acknowledgment should be the following: 'John Doe, postmaster, by Robert Roe, postal cashier'."

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw or amend at any time, or from time to time, all or any of the provisions of this supplemental circular.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Statutes relating to lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, and defaced bonds and notes

[Extract from regulations of the Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds and notes (Treasury Department Circular No. 300, dated July 31, 1923, as amended)]

The following statutes of the United States relate to lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, and defaced United States bonds and notes, and claims for relief arising in connection therewith:

COUPON BONDS AND NOTES¹

Whenever it appears to the Secretary of the Treasury, by clear and unequivocal proof, that any interest-bearing bond of the United States has, without bad faith upon the part of the owner, been destroyed, wholly or in part, or so defaced as to impair its value to the owner, and such bond is identified by number and description, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, under such regulations and with such restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise as he may prescribe, issue a duplicate thereof, having the same time to run, bearing like interest as the bond so proved to have been destroyed or defaced, and so marked as to show the original number of the bond destroyed and the date thereof. But when such destroyed or defaced bonds appear to have been of such a class or series as has been or may, before such application, be called in for redemption, instead of issuing duplicates thereof, they shall be paid, with such interest only as would have been paid if they had been presented in accordance with such call.

(2) Whenever it appears to the Secretary of the Treasury by clear and unequivocal proof that any interest-bearing bond of the United States, fully identified by number and description, has, without bad faith on the part of the owner, been lost to such owner under such circumstances and for such period of time after it has matured or has become redeemable pursuant to a call for redemption as in the judgment of the Secretary would indicate that it had been destroyed or irretrievably lost, is not held by any person as his own property, and will not be presented by a bona fide holder for value, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make payment of the amount which would have been due on such bond had it been presented at the time it became due and payable. But no payment shall be made on account of interest represented by coupons claimed to have been attached to a missing coupon bond at the time of its loss or destruction, unless the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that such coupons have not been paid and are in fact destroyed or can never be made the basis of a claim against the United States: Provided, That where relief is authorized under the provisions of this paragraph the bond of indemnity required by section 3703 of the Revised Statutes shall be in a penal sum of double the amount to be paid and shall be executed by an approved corporate surety. The Secretary of the Treasury is further authorized to make from time to time such regulations and restrictions as he may prescribe with respect to the administration of this paragraph.

(3) The term "bond" wherever used in this section and in sections 3703, 3704, and 3705 of the Revised Statutes shall be deemed, for the purposes of these sections, to include any interest-bearing obligation of the United States or those issued on a discount basis. (Sec. 3702, Revised Statutes; U. S. Code, title 31, sec. 735, as amended Apr. 9, 1934.)

The owner of such destroyed or defaced bond shall surrender the same, or so much thereof as may remain, and shall file in the Treasury a bond in a penal sum of double the amount of the destroyed or defaced bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon until the principal becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim upon such destroyed or defaced bond. (Sec. 3703, Revised Statutes; U. S. Code, title 31, sec. 736.)

REGISTERED BONDS

Whenever it is proved to the Secretary of the Treasury by clear and satisfactory evidence, that any duly registered bond of the United States, bearing interest, issued for valuable consideration in pursuance of law, has been lost or destroyed, so that the same is not held by any person as his own property, the Secretary shall issue a duplicate of such registered bond, of like amount, and bearing like interest and marked in the like manner as the bond so proved to be lost or destroyed. (Sec. 3704, Revised Statutes; U. S. Code, title 31, sec. 737.)

The owner of such missing bond shall first file in the Treasury a bond in a penal sum equal to the amount of such missing bond and the interest which would accrue thereon, until the principal thereof becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim because of the lost or destroyed bond. (Sec. 3705, Revised Statutes; U. S. Code, title 31, sec. 738.)

"NOTES" INCLUDED IN CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF STATUTES

The word "bond" or "bonds" where it appears in sections 8, 9, 10, 14, and 15 of this act as amended, and sections 3702, 3703, 3704, and 3705 of the Revised Statutes, and section 5200 of the Revised Statutes as amended, but in such sections only, shall be deemed to include notes issued under this section. (Sec. 18 [d], Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended; U. S. Code, title 31, sec. 753 [d].)

CORPORATE SURETY

Whenever any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking conditioned for the faithful performance of any duty, or for doing or refraining from doing anything in such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking specified, is by the laws of the United States required or permitted to be given with one surety or with two or more sureties, the execution of the same or the guaranteeing of the performance of the condition thereof shall be sufficient when executed or guaranteed solely by a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States, or of any State having power to guarantee the fidelity of persons holding positions of public or private trust, and to execute and guarantee bonds and undertakings in judicial proceedings: Provided, That such recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking be approved by the head of department, court, judge, officer, board, or body executive, legislative, or judicial required to approve or accept the same. But no officer or person having the approval of any bond shall exact that it shall be furnished by a guaranty company or by any particular guaranty company. (Act Aug. 13, 1894, sec. 1; 28 Stat. 279; U. S. Code, title 6, sec. 6.) See also sections 2-8 of the same statute, as amended by the act approved March 23, 1910; United States Code, title 6, sections 7-13.

PROVISIONS OF PENAL CODE WITH RESPECT TO FALSE CLAIMS, ETC.

Making or presenting false claims (sec. 35, as amended): Whoever shall make or cause to be made or present or cause to be presented, for payment or approval, to or by any person or officer in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States, or any department thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, any claim upon or against the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent; or whoever, for the purpose of obtaining or aiding to obtain the payment or approval of such claim, or for the purpose and with the intent of cheating and swindling or defrauding the Government of the United States, or any department thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, shall knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal or cover up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent statements or representations, or make or use or cause to be made or used any false bill, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition, knowing the same to contain any fraudulent or fictitious statement or entry, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both. (Sec. 5438, Rev. Stats., as amended; U. S. Code, title 18, sec. 80.)

Conspiracy to commit offense against the United States (sec. 37): If two or more persons conspire either to commit any offense against the United States, or to defraud the United States in any manner or for any purpose, and one or more of such parties do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each of the parties to such conspiracy shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than 2 years, or both. (Sec. 5440, Rev. Stats., as amended; U. S. Code, title 18, sec. 88.)

Exhibit 37

Press release, Sept. 25, 1934, respecting the guarantee of bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and the Home Owners' Loan Corporation

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Washington, September 25, 1934.

The phrase "fully and unconditionally guaranteed" as applied to the bonds of both the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation and Home Owners' Loan Corporation, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, concurred in by the Attorney General, means that this is a guaranty of payment—not merely of collection—with the effect that, should either corporation default, the United States is obligated to make payment of either principal or interest immediately when due without requiring the holders first to proceed against the corporation.

Bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation issued under the act approved January 31, 1934, and bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation issued under the amendment of April 27, 1934, to the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, are guaranteed fully and unconditionally both as to interest and principal by the United States.

Secretary Morgenthau today made public the text of a letter, addressed to John H. Fahey, chairman, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, with the announcement that a letter to the same effect had been sent to W. I. Myers, Governor of the Farm Credit Administration. The letter follows:

"SEPTEMBER 10, 1934.

"MY DEAR MR. FAHEY: Reference is made to your inquiry respecting the Government guaranty of the bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, issued under the amendment of April 27, 1934, to the Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933.

"Section 4 (c) of the act, as so amended, provides: 'Such bonds shall be fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States, and such guaranty shall be expressed on the face thereof * * *.' The bonds issued pursuant thereto recite upon their face, over the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury, that 'This bond is fully and unconditionally guaranteed both as to interest and principal by the United States.'

"The Treasury takes the view that this guaranty is a guaranty of payment—not merely of collection—with the effect that should your corporation fail to pay upon demand, when due, the principal of, or interest on, these bonds, the United States would be obligated to make such payments immediately without requiring the respective holders first to proceed against your corporation.

"The Attorney General, in an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury, dated September 14, 1934, has confirmed the correctness of this view. The opinion reads in part as follows:

"The guaranty being stated by the statute as full and unconditional, there is no occasion to consider whether a condition should be implied. The separate provision that the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay if the corporation is unable to pay upon demand is no part of the guaranty, but merely a provision for carrying it out in the only reasonably conceivable contingency that would require such action.

"Considering the foregoing, it is my opinion that if * * * the corporation should fail, upon demand by a bona fide and accredited holder, to pay either principal or interest when due, the United States would thereupon become obligated to make such payment and its obligation would not be conditioned upon the institution of any proceeding by the bondholder against the corporation."

"Very truly yours,

"H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

"JOHN H. FAHEY,

Chairman, Federal Home Loan Bank Board, Washington, D. C."

Exhibit 38

Proclamations and orders relating to silver

PROCLAMATION, AUGUST 9, 1934, AUTHORIZING THE MINTS TO RECEIVE ALL SILVER SITUATED IN THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES ON THAT DATE

Whereas, by paragraph (2) of section 43, title III, of the act of Congress, approved May 12, 1933 (Public No. 10), as amended by the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, the President is authorized "By proclamation to fix the weight of the gold dollar in grains nine-tenths fine and also to fix the weight of the silver dollar in grains nine-tenths fine at a definite fixed ratio in relation to the gold dollar at such amounts as he finds necessary from his investigation to stabilize domestic prices or to protect the foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to provide for the unlimited coinage of such gold and silver at the ratio so fixed, * * *"; and "The President, in addition to the authority to provide for the unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio so fixed, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, is further authorized to cause to be issued and delivered to the tenderer of silver for coinage, silver certificates in lieu of the standard silver dollars to which the tenderer would be entitled and in an amount in dollars equal to the number of coined standard silver dollars that the tenderer of such silver for coinage would receive in standard silver dollars"; and "The President is further authorized to issue silver certificates in such denominations as he may prescribe against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates, and to coin standard silver dollars or subsidiary currency for the redemption of such silver certificates"; and

Whereas, the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, approved June 19, 1934, provides in sections 2, 5, and 7, in part, as follows:

"SEC. 2. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States that the proportion of silver to gold in the monetary stocks of the United States should be increased, with the ultimate objective of having and maintaining, one-fourth of the monetary value of such stocks in silver.

"SEC. 5. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to issue silver certificates in such denominations as he may from time to time prescribe in a face amount not less than the cost of all silver purchased under the authority of section 3, and such certificates shall be placed in actual circulation. There shall be maintained in the Treasury as security for all silver certificates heretofore or hereafter issued and at the time outstanding an amount of silver in bullion and standard silver dollars of a monetary value equal to the face amount of such silver certificates. All silver certificates heretofore or hereafter issued shall be legal tender for all debts, public and private, public charges, taxes, duties, and dues, and shall be redeemable on demand at the Treasury of the United States in standard silver dollars; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to coin standard silver dollars for such redemption.

"SEC. 7. Whenever in the judgment of the President such action is necessary to effectuate the policy of this act, he may by Executive order require the delivery to the United States mints of any or all silver by whomsoever owned or possessed. The silver so delivered shall be coined into standard silver dollars or otherwise added to the monetary stocks of the United States as the President may determine; and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so delivered less such deductions for seigniorage, brassage, coinage, and other mint charges as the Secretary of the Treasury with the approval of the President shall have determined: Provided, That in no case shall the value of the amount returned therefor be less than the fair value at the time of such order of the silver required to be delivered as such value is determined by the market price over a reasonable period terminating at the time of such order. * * *

Now, therefore, finding it necessary, in my judgment, to effectuate the policy of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, to assist in increasing and stabilizing domestic prices, to protect our foreign commerce against the adverse effect of depreciated foreign currencies, and to promote the objectives of the proclamation of the 21st day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, relating to the coinage of silver; by virtue of the power in me vested by the Acts of Congress above cited, and other legislation designated for national recovery, and by virtue of all other authority in me vested:

I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do proclaim and direct that each United States mint shall receive for coinage or for addition to the monetary stocks of the United States, as hereinafter determined, any silver which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied was situated on the effective date hereof in the continental United States, including the Territory of Alaska.

The silver so delivered shall be added to the monetary stocks of the United States and shall be coined from time to time into standard silver dollars in such amounts as are required to carry out the provisions of this proclamation and to provide for the redemption of silver certificates; and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so delivered (that is, \$1.2929+ a fine troy ounce), less a deduction of 61 $\frac{1}{2}$ percent thereof for seigniorage, brassage, coinage, and other mint charges, such deduction having been determined by the Secretary of the Treasury with my approval.

The provisions hereof are supplemental to the provisions of the proclamation of the 21st day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, and the United States coinage mints shall continue to receive for coinage in accordance with the provisions of such proclamation silver which such mint, subject to regulations prescribed thereunder by the Secretary of the Treasury, is satisfied has been mined subsequently to the date of such proclamation, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof: Provided, however, That the Director of the Mint shall, at the option of the tenderer of such silver, deliver silver certificates in lieu of the standard silver dollars to which the tenderer of such silver for coinage would be entitled and in an amount in dollars equal to the coined standard silver dollars that the tenderer of such silver for coinage would receive in standard silver dollars.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this proclamation.

Notice is hereby given that I reserve the right by virtue of the authority vested in me to revoke or modify this proclamation as the interest of the United States may seem to require.

This proclamation shall bear the date of, and becomes effective on, the day on which the Secretary or Acting Secretary of State countersigns the same, affixes thereto the Seal of the United States, and deposits this proclamation so countersigned and sealed in the Office of the Secretary of State, as a part of the archives of the Nation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

By the President; and countersigned and sealed with the Seal of the United States, by direction of the President, this 9th day of August, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth.

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

EXECUTIVE ORDER, AUGUST 9, 1934, REQUIRING THE DELIVERY OF SILVER TO THE UNITED STATES MINTS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 and of all other authority vested in me, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do hereby require the delivery of all silver situated in the continental United States on the effective date hereof, by any and all persons owning, possessing, or controlling any such silver, and do hereby require any and all persons owning, possessing, or controlling any such silver to deliver the same in the manner, upon the conditions and subject to the exceptions herein contained, such action being in my judgment necessary to effectuate the policy of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934.

SEC. 2. Silver required to be delivered.—There shall be delivered in accordance with the terms of this order all silver situated in the continental United States on the effective date hereof, except silver falling within any of the following categories so long as it continues to fall thereunder:

- a. Silver coins, whether foreign or domestic;
- b. Silver of a fineness of 0.8 or less, which has not entered into industrial, commercial, professional, artistic, or monetary use;
- c. Silver mined, after December 21, 1933, from natural deposits in the United States or any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof; provided, however, that so much of such silver so mined in the continental United States on or before the effective date of this order which shall not have been deposited with a United States mint under the proclamation of December 21, 1933, shall, if processed to a fineness greater than 0.8 within seventy-five days from the effective date of this order, be delivered in accordance with this order, not later than ninety days from the effective date hereof, or if processed to a fineness greater than 0.8 after seventy-five days from the effective date of this order, be delivered within 15 days thereafter in accordance with this order;
- d. Silver held for industrial, professional, or artistic use and unmelted scrap silver and silver sweepings in an amount not exceeding in the aggregate five hundred fine troy ounces belonging to any one person;
- e. Silver owned on the effective date hereof by a recognized foreign government, foreign central bank, or the Bank for International Settlements;
- f. Silver contained in articles fabricated and held in good faith for a specific and customary use and not for their value as silver bullion; or
- g. Silver held under a license issued in accordance with section 6 hereof.

SEC. 3. Time and place of delivery.—The silver required to be delivered hereunder shall be delivered not later than ninety days from the effective date hereof to the United States mint nearest to the place where the silver is situated immediately prior to delivery; provided that such silver temporarily falling within the exempt categories enumerated in section 2, shall be delivered at the end of ninety days from the effective date hereof, or 15 days after the time when it ceases to fall within such categories, whichever date is later. Any person acquiring ownership, possession, or control of silver required to be delivered under this order after seventy-five days from the effective date hereof, shall deliver such silver within 15 days of such acquisition.

SEC. 4. Amount returnable for silver.—The silver herein required to be delivered shall be coined into standard silver dollars, or otherwise added to the monetary stocks of the United States in accordance with the proclamation, bearing the same date as this order, relating to the coinage of silver, and there shall be returned therefor in standard silver dollars, silver certificates, or any other coin or currency of the United States, the monetary value of the silver so delivered (that is, $1.2929— a fine troy ounce), less a deduction of 61.25 percent thereof for seigniorage, brassage, coinage, and other mint charges, as provided in such proclamation; that is, the amount returnable for the silver delivered in accordance herewith shall be an amount equal to 50— cents a fine troy ounce, which amount is not less than the fair value, at the time of this order, of the silver required to be delivered hereunder as determined by the market price over a reasonable period terminating at the time of this order.

SEC. 5. Reimbursement of costs.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall pay all necessary costs, actually incurred, of the transportation of such silver and standard silver dollars, silver certificates, and other coin or currency of the United States, including the cost of insurance, protection, and such other incidental costs as may be reasonably necessary. Persons desiring reimbursement of such costs shall submit their accounts on voucher forms which may be obtained by writing to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

SEC. 6. Licenses.—The Secretary of the Treasury, subject to such regulations as he may prescribe, acting directly or through such agency or agencies as he may designate, shall issue licenses authorizing the withholding of silver which the Secretary of the Treasury, or such agency as he may designate, is satisfied:

(a) Is required for legitimate and customary use in industry, profession, or art, by a person regularly engaged in such industry, profession, or art or in the business of processing silver or furnishing silver therefor;

(b) Has been imported for reexport; or

(c) Is required to fulfill an obligation to deliver silver in such amount to a third person, incurred or assumed by the applicant on or before the effective date of this order; provided that, at the date of the application, the applicant owns such silver or holds the obligation of another to deliver to him such silver.

The Secretary of the Treasury may, with the approval of the President, issue licenses authorizing the withholding of silver for purposes deemed to be in the public interest and not inconsistent with the purposes of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 and of this order.

SEC. 7. Deliveries in fulfillment of obligations or to licensees.—No person required to deliver silver owned by him or in his possession or control shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of this order, if such silver is delivered in fulfillment of an obligation incurred or assumed by such person on or before the effective date of this order or is delivered to a person licensed to acquire and withhold silver in such an amount under section 6.

SEC. 8. Definitions.—As used in this order the term "person" means an individual, partnership, association, or corporation:

The term "continental United States" means the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Territory of Alaska.

The term "United States Mints" means the following mints and assay offices:

United States Mint, Philadelphia, Pa.
 United States Assay Office, New York, N. Y.
 United States Mint, Denver, Colo.
 United States Mint, San Francisco, Calif.
 United States Assay Office, Seattle, Wash.
 United States Mint, New Orleans, La.

SEC. 9. Penalties and forfeitures.—All persons are hereby informed of the following provisions of section 7 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 with respect to penalties and forfeitures:

" * * * Any silver withheld in violation of any Executive order issued under this section or of any regulations issued pursuant thereto shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized and condemned by like proceedings as those provided by law for the forfeiture, seizure, and condemnation of property imported into the United States contrary to law; and, in addition, any person failing to comply with the provisions of any such Executive order or regulation shall be subject to a penalty equal to twice the monetary value of the silver in respect of which such failure occurred."

This order shall bear the date of, and become effective on, the day on which the Secretary or Acting Secretary of State countersigns and deposits this order so countersigned in the office of the Secretary of State, as a part of the archives of the Nation.

This order may be modified or revoked at any time.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

Countersigned, by direction of the President, this 9th day of August 1934.

CORDELL HULL.

EXECUTIVE ORDER, NOVEMBER 2, 1934, AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER OF AUGUST 9, 1934

Executive Order No. 6814 of August 9, 1934, requiring the delivery of silver to the United States mints, is hereby amended by adding a new section after section 2 thereof, reading as follows:

"SEC. 2A. Silver not required to be delivered.—Silver which at the close of business on November 7, 1934, falls within category (a), (b), (d), (e), or (f) of section 2 shall be permanently exempt from the requirement that such silver be delivered under this order. Silver which after November 7, 1934, but prior to the time that it is first required to be delivered by any person, is manufactured in good faith into articles described in subdivision (f) of section 2 shall be permanently exempt from the requirement that it be delivered under this order."

The order, as so amended, may be modified or revoked at any time.

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY OF MAY 20, 1935, AMENDING THE ORDER OF JUNE 28, 1934, RELATING TO SILVER

The order of the Secretary of the Treasury of June 28, 1934, relating to silver, issued in order to effectuate the policy of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, and under authority of said act is amended, effective from the time of approval by the President of this amendatory order, by adding after section 11 thereof the following additional sections which, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, are necessary further to effectuate the policy of said act:

SEC. 12. Importation or transportation into the United States.—Except as otherwise specifically provided in section 14, no person shall import or transport into the continental United States any foreign silver coin, or any other conventional pieces or forms of silver commonly used in any foreign country as money or coin, except under license issued pursuant to section 13 of this order.

SEC. 13. Import licenses.—The Secretary of the Treasury, subject to such regulations as he may prescribe, acting directly or through such agency or agencies as he may designate, may issue licenses authorizing the importation or transportation into the continental United States of such silver coin or other conventional pieces or forms of silver which he, or the designated agency, is satisfied:

a. Are required to fulfill an obligation to deliver such silver in the continental United States, incurred or assumed by the applicant on or before the effective date of this order;

b. Are shipped to the continental United States by, or on behalf or with the consent of, a recognized foreign government, foreign central bank, or the Bank for International Settlements;

c. With the approval of the President, for other purposes not inconsistent with the purposes of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, or the Silver Agreement executed at London on July 22, 1933.

SEC. 14. Exempt silver coin.—Silver coins of a monetary value equal at the time of entry to 110 percent or more of the market value of their silver content and United States silver coins may be imported or transported into the continental United States without the necessity of obtaining a license under this order.

Exhibit 39

Statements and official orders relating to the issue of silver certificates

STATEMENT BY THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT, AUGUST 10, 1934

The Gold Reserve Act of 1934 authorizes the President to issue silver certificates against any silver bullion, silver, or standard silver dollars in the Treasury which, at the time of such issue, is not held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates.

In accordance with an order of the President issued pursuant to this authority, the Secretary of the Treasury is now issuing silver certificates against all the free silver which was in the Treasury prior to the approval of the Silver Purchase Act. This amounted to approximately 62,000,000 ounces, the cost of which was about $46,900,000. These silver certificates are being issued on a basis of $1.29 an ounce, because that is required by law for all silver certificates. The total amount to be issued, under the President's order, against these 62,000,000 ounces will be of a face amount of approximately $80,000,000. The difference between the cost of the silver involved and this face amount constitutes seigniorage under the law and, as these certificates are issued, that difference will be shown on the daily statement as such.

While "seigniorage" now appears in the daily statement for the first time as a separate item, it has always appeared in the Treasury receipt account. Since the beginning of the Government, the Treasury has received a total of $387,000,000 in seigniorage, which hitherto had been included on the daily statement under the item "Other miscellaneous."

The silver now being acquired under the Silver Purchase Act will, in regular course, also form the basis of the issuance of silver certificates. The silver certificates to be issued against this silver will also, of course, be issued on the basis of $1.29 per ounce, as required by law. For the present the Treasury will issue against this silver an aggregate face amount of certificates equal to its cost. The difference between the cost of the silver which will have to be held to secure these certificates when they are issued and the monetary value ($1.29 an ounce) of the silver so held will be carried as seigniorage as indicated above.

OFFICIAL ORDERS, AUGUST 13, AND SEPTEMBER 10, 1934

AUGUST 13, 1934.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 12 of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, I hereby authorize and direct the issuance of silver certificates against silver in the Treasury not then held for the redemption of any outstanding silver certificates and in a face amount equal to the amount returned for silver received at the United States mints and assay offices on and after June 15, 1934, whether under the proclamation of December 21, 1933, or under the proclamation of August 9, 1934.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 7 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, I hereby direct that such portion of the foregoing silver as is not held for the redemption of silver certificates shall be added to the monetary stocks of the United States and held as bullion in the General Fund of the Treasury, but shall be carried on the books of the Treasury at cost.

Sincerely yours,

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT,
President.

The Honorable the SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

AUGUST 13, 1934.

THE TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES.

SIR: Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 5 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, I hereby authorize and direct the issuance of silver certificates in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20, and $100 against silver in the Treasury not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates, and in a face amount equal to the cost of the silver heretofore or hereafter purchased under the authority of section 3 of such act, whether purchased from the stabilization fund constituted by section 10 of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 or from other sources.

The portion of the foregoing silver not held for redemption of the silver certificates referred to shall be added to the monetary stocks of the United States and held as bullion in the General Fund of the Treasury, but shall be carried on the books of the Treasury at cost.

Respectfully,

H. MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

SEPTEMBER 10, 1934.

MY DEAR MR. PRESIDENT: Reference is made to your orders dated March 12, June 14, and August 13, and to my order to the Treasurer of the United States, approved by you on August 13, 1934, all with respect to the issuance of silver certificates.

Inasmuch as the order of June 14 in part supersedes the order of March 12, and in turn is closely related to the orders of August 13, I submit for your approval the following statement combining and, in minor respects, revising the provisions of such orders:

1. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to issue silver certificates in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20, and $100 (or in one or more of such denominations), against any silver in the Treasury not at the time held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates and in a face amount equal to the total of the following items:

(a) $80,000,000, being an amount approximately equal to the monetary value of all of the silver bullion in the Treasury on June 14, 1934, not then held for redemption of any outstanding silver certificates. This amount does not include silver held in the stabilization fund on June 14, 1934.

(b) $1,560,000, being the amount of series of 1933 silver certificates outstanding on March 12, 1934 (including those held in the Treasurer's cash). Silver certificates issued in this amount shall be of the series of 1934 and shall be issued in lieu of the series of 1933 silver certificates as they are redeemed or otherwise received into the Treasury and retired.

(c) A sum equal to the amount heretofore or hereafter returned to the depositors for silver received at the United States mints and assay offices on and after June 15, 1934, whether under the proclamation of December 21, 1933, or under the proclamation of August 9, 1934.

2. In addition to the foregoing, the Secretary of the Treasury will issue, as authorized and directed in section 5 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, silver certificates, in denominations of $1, $5, $10, $20, and $100 (or in one or more of such denominations), against any silver in the Treasury not at the time held for the redemption of any outstanding silver certificates, in a face amount equal to the cost of all silver heretofore or hereafter purchased under the authority of section 3 of such act, whether purchased from the stabilization fund constituted by section 10 of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934, or from other sources.

3. The silver bullion held as security for silver certificates shall be carried at the monetary value of the bullion as defined in the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 (i. e., $1.2929+ a fine troy ounce), and there will be held at all times, pursuant to law, an amount in silver dollars and silver bullion of monetary value, equal to the face amount of all silver certificates at the time outstanding.

4. Such of the silver as is now in, or shall hereafter come into, the Treasury as bullion and as is not held as security for outstanding silver certificates, shall be held as bullion in the General Fund of the Treasury, until coined into standard silver dollars or subsidiary silver coin; and, until pledged as security for silver certificates or until so coined, shall be carried on the books of the Treasury at cost, except that such an amount of such silver as represents (a) melted down subsidiary silver coins shall be carried on the books of the Treasury, as heretofore, at the value of the subsidiary silver coins which can be minted therefrom, and (b) silver previously held for the redemption of silver certificates, at the monetary value of such silver (as defined in the Silver Purchase Act of 1934).

If the foregoing restatement of the provisions of your orders of March 12, June 14, and August 13, 1934, and my order to the Treasurer of August 13, 1934, meets with your approval, I should appreciate it if you would indicate your approval by signing the notation at the foot hereof.

Faithfully yours,

H. MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

THE PRESIDENT,
The White House.

STATEMENT BY THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OCTOBER 18, 1934, RELATING TO THE ACCOUNTING PROCEDURE WITH REGARD TO SEIGNIORAGE ON SILVER.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau announced today that seigniorage resulting from the issuance of silver certificates against silver bullion acquired under the terms of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934, whether by purchase in the market or by nationalization, will be covered into the Treasury as a special receipt in the same manner as the increment resulting from reduction in the weight of the gold dollar. Seigniorage of this character will appear on the daily Treasury statement, not under ordinary receipts of general and special funds, but as a separate item under the same classification as trust funds and increment on gold.

The General Fund balance on the daily statement will be segregated to show the amount of seigniorage from this source, and also the amount of the gold increment in the fund.

Beginning with the daily statement as of the close of business October 16, the General Fund balance will be shown as follows:

Balance of increment resulting from reduction in weight of the gold dollar	$-----
Seigniorage.....	-----
Working balance.....	-----
Total net balance.....	$-----

All seigniorage on silver other than that received through the issuance of silver certificates against silver acquired under the provisions of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 will be covered into the Treasury as an ordinary receipt and will so appear in the daily Treasury statement.

Exhibit 40

Statement by the Secretary of the Treasury, February 11, 1935, relating to the stabilization fund

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

February 11, 1935.

1. Since January 14, banks and dealers in foreign exchange and gold, have practically stopped buying and selling gold, within gold import and export points—which means that the international gold standard as between foreign countries and the United States has ceased its automatic operation.

2. Thanks to the foresight of the Seventy-third Congress, we now have a stabilization fund.

3. When we saw that the external value of the dollar was rapidly going out of control, we put the stabilization fund to work on a moment's notice, with the result that for the past four weeks we have successfully managed the value of the dollar in terms of foreign currencies.

The country can go about its business with assurance that we are prepared to manage the external value of the dollar as long as it may be necessary.

Exhibit 41

Proclamation, February 14, 1935, extending for two years the period within which the Federal Reserve Board may authorize the Federal Reserve banks to offer, and the Federal Reserve agents to accept, direct obligations of the United States as collateral security for Federal Reserve notes

Whereas, the second paragraph of section 16 of the Federal Reserve Act (38 Stat. 265), as amended by the act of March 6, 1934 (48 Stat. 398), provides:

"Any Federal Reserve bank may make application to the local Federal Reserve agent for such amount of the Federal Reserve notes hereinbefore provided for as it may require. Such application shall be accompanied with a tender to the local Federal Reserve agent of collateral in amount equal to the sum of the Federal Reserve notes thus applied for and issued pursuant to such application. The collateral security thus offered shall be notes, drafts, bills of exchange, or acceptances acquired under the provisions of section 13 of this act, or bills of exchange indorsed by a member bank of any Federal Reserve district and purchased under the provisions of section 14 of this act, or bankers' acceptances purchased under the provisions of said section 14, or gold certificates: Provided, however, That until March 3, 1935, or until the expiration of such additional period not exceeding two years as the President may prescribe, the Federal Reserve Board may, should it deem it in the public interest, upon the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of its members, authorize the Federal Reserve banks to offer, and the Federal Reserve agents to accept, as such collateral security, direct obligations of the United States * * *"

And whereas it is deemed advisable that the authority of the Federal Reserve Board to authorize the Federal Reserve banks to offer, and the Federal Reserve agents to accept, direct obligations of the United States as collateral security for Federal Reserve notes issued to the Federal Reserve banks be continued for an additional period after March 3, 1935:

Now, therefore, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by the aforesaid section 16 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, do hereby proclaim, declare, and prescribe an additional period of two years from and after March 3, 1935, during which the Federal Reserve Board may, should it deem it in the public interest, upon the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of its members, authorize the Federal Reserve banks to offer, and the Federal Reserve agents to accept, direct obligations of the United States as collateral security for Federal Reserve notes issued to the Federal Reserve banks under the provisions of the aforesaid section.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

OBLIGATIONS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

Exhibit 45

Statements by the Treasury Department concerning the indebtedness of certain foreign governments to the United States

AUSTRIA

Announcing the postponement of the payment due from Austria on January 1, 1935 (press release, Dec. 21, 1934)

The Treasury has been notified by the Department of State that a note dated November 30, 1934, has been received from the Austrian Minister stating that the Austrian Government received on November 26, 1934, a communication from the trustees of the Austrian Government guaranteed loan of 1923-43, in which objections were raised against the payment to the creditor governments signatory to the agreements relative to the settlement of relief debts of the amounts due to them in 1935, and that in view of these objections no remittance can be made to cover the installments due within the next year.

The lien upon the assets and revenues of Austria pledged for the payment of Austrian relief bonds has been subordinated to the lien upon such assets and revenues pledged for the payment of the Austrian guaranteed loan of 1923. The objections by the trustees to the payments due from Austria on account of the relief bonds is in accordance with the agreements concluded between Austria and the international relief bonds committee and the agreements between Austria and the United States dated May 8, 1930, and September 14, 1932.

In accordance with the provisions of the agreement of May 8, 1930, bond no. 7 in the face amount of $460,093, due January 1, 1935, will be postponed and said amount together with interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum compounded annually to December 31, 1943, is repayable together with further interest at 5 percent per annum in 25 equal annuities on January 1 of each of the years 1944 to 1968, inclusive. The 1935 annuity under the September 14 agreement is postponed and repayable in a similar manner.

The Treasury has heretofore listed Austria as one of the countries that failed to make certain payments as required by agreements to which the United States was a party for the reason that the Treasury took the view that the objections raised by the trustees in November 1933, did not apply to the annuity of $34,767.23 due January 1, 1934, under the agreement dated September 14, 1932. The Treasury has recently received through the State Department a copy of a letter dated September 6, 1934, from the trustees to the Austrian Minister of Finance in which the trustees state that they confirm that their letter of November 21, 1933, must be considered as covering all payments due by Austria under the relief credit agreements, including those postponed under the Hoover moratorium which fell due on January 1, 1934. Information furnished to the Government of the United States indicates that Austria has not made any payment due creditors inconsistent with the trustees' letter of September 6, 1934, and also that no creditor, among those who have replied, has opposed the position taken in that letter.

The Treasury is of the opinion that it would be appropriate to take the view that the notice of the trustees of November 21, 1933, as more recently clarified, postponed, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement dated September 14, 1932, the annuity amounting to $34,767.23, otherwise payable on January 1, 1934. A note to this effect has been made upon the records of the Treasury.

FINLAND

Announcing the receipt of payments due from Finland (press releases, Dec. 15, 1934, and June 15, 1935)

DECEMBER 15, 1934.

The Treasury received today the sum of $228,538 from the Government of Finland, representing a payment of principal in the amount of $62,000, and the semiannual payment of interest in the amount of $147,507.50 under the funding agreement of May 1, 1923, and $19,030.50 as the third semiannual annuity due under the moratorium agreement of May 23, 1932. This payment represents the entire amount due from the Government of Finland and was paid in cash through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

JUNE 15, 1935.

The Treasury received today the sum of $165,453 from the Government of Finland, representing the semiannual payment of interest in the amount of $146,422.50 under the funding agreement of May 1, 1923, and $19,030.50 as the fourth semiannual annuity due under the moratorium agreement of May 23, 1932. This payment represents the entire amount due from the Government of Finland and was paid in cash through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

GREECE

Announcing the receipt of interest payments due from Greece (press release, July 6, 1934)

Acting Secretary of the Treasury Coolidge today announced that the Greek Government had transferred to the United States Treasury the sum of $196,128, representing 27½ percent of the interest amounting to $435,840 due during the calendar year 1933, and 35 percent of the semiannual interest amounting to $217,920 due May 10, 1934, on the 4 percent loan of 1929.

By the transfer of this sum the Greek Government has accorded to the United States treatment equal to that accorded to the bondholders of the Greek stabilization and refugee loan of 1928. Such equal treatment is provided for by the terms of the American-Greek debt funding agreement of May 10, 1929.

BELGIUM

To the Secretary of State from the Belgian Chargé d'Affaires, December 13, 1934

MR. SECRETARY OF STATE:

In your note of November 22, 1934, Your Excellency informed me of the total of the amounts due to the Government of the United States by the Belgian Government on December 15, 1934, in accordance with the terms of the understanding of August 18, 1925, and of the moratorium agreement of June 10, 1932. In the same note Your Excellency was good enough to assure me that the Government of the United States was entirely prepared to discuss through diplomatic channels any proposal of the Belgian Government regarding a settlement of this debt.

I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the King has noted this communication. It regrets that the reasons which prevented it from resuming on December 15, 1932, the payments interrupted by the Hoover moratorium, and which were called to the attention of the American Government in the note of December 14, 1933, continue to exist in their entirety.

In view of this the Belgian Government finds itself unable to make the payments in question on December 15 next.

PRINCE EUGENE DE LIGNE.

To the Secretary of State from the Belgian Ambassador, June 14, 1935

MR. SECRETARY OF STATE:

By your note of June 1, 1935, Your Excellency informed me of the amounts due to the Government of the United States by the Belgian Government on June 15, 1935, in execution of the agreement of August 18, 1925, and of the moratorium agreement of June 10, 1932.

The Belgian Government has had occasion, notably in its notes of December 6, 1932, and of December 14, 1933, to set forth to the Government of the United States the reasons why the Belgian Government found it impossible to resume the payments interrupted by the Hoover moratorium. It will be sufficient to recall that the failure of Germany to make payments, by depriving Belgium of receipts which solemn engagements permitted it to count on, overthrew the financial plan worked out for the liquidation of the situation created by the war.

To this fundamental difficulty there had been added all the difficulties which result from the depression. Belgium, an export country, has been particularly affected by the paralysis of international commerce. Unemployment became even more serious in 1934, thus considerably increasing the burden of charges upon the treasury. The financial capacity of Belgium is closely dependent on business recovery. The Belgian Government is convinced that an essential condition for such recovery is the lowering of the barriers which impede international trade. The agreement recently concluded with the United States constitutes a first step in this direction.

It is necessary to continue to pursue this policy; its success appears as the essential condition on which depends the comprehensive solution of the eco-conomic and financial problems raised by the Great War. The Belgian Government hopes for this general settlement.

While recognizing its obligations toward the Government of the United States, it finds itself, to its great regret, not in a position to alter, under the present conditions, the attitude which circumstances have obliged it to adopt since December 15, 1932.

I avail myself [etc.].

CZECHOSLOVAKIA

To the Acting Secretary of State from the Minister of Czechoslovakia, December 14, 1934

EXCELLENCY:

In acknowledging the receipt of Your Excellency's note of November 22, I have the honor to convey to Your Excellency the following observations of the Czechoslovak Government.

The Czechoslovak Government having taken a careful estimate of present circumstances as compared to the situation which prevailed at the occasion of the presentation of the last note, arrived at the conclusion that no substantial change so far has taken place in the conditions predominating at that time. The arguments then set forth unfortunately have lost nothing in their pertinency and validity, and, in the opinion of the Czechoslovak Government, present circumstances would hardly warrant encouraging prospects for the immediate resumption of the negotiations.

Notwithstanding these facts the Czechoslovak Government, noting with great satisfaction the willingness on the part of the Government of the United States to receive any further suggestion, proposes to follow assiduously any future developments in existing conditions. The Czechoslovak Government, in accordance with the conclusion of the note of June 11, reiterates its sincere assurances that in the event of any changes arising which might justify substantial hope of a successful conclusion of the final settlement, the Czechoslovak Government will not fail to avail itself of the opportunity of concurring with the intimation conveyed in Your Excellency's note relative to proposals for payment of this indebtedness and the eventual submission of it to the American Congress.

Accept [etc.].

Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Czechoslovakia.

To the Secretary of State from the Minister of Czechoslovakia, June 10, 1935

EXCELLENCY:

In acknowledging the receipt of Your Excellency's note of June 1, 1935, I have the honor to refer to my note of December 14, 1934, number 804, in which I was instructed by my Government to stress the fact that the Czechoslovak Government is taking a careful estimate of current circumstances and prevailing economic and financial conditions underlying the problem of international indebtedness and causing the temporary suspension of due installments.

The Czechoslovak Government continued to do so in the intervening period and profoundly regrets that this assiduous study led to the same conclusion that no essential change has taken place to warrant substantial prospects for the resumption of negotiations in this matter at this moment.

Nevertheless, the Czechoslovak Government received with much gratification the reiteration of the assurance that the Government of the United States is fully disposed to discuss through diplomatic channels any proposals in regard to the payment of the Czechoslovak indebtedness, and will not fail to avail itself of the first opportunity of presenting any such proposal whenever general conditions substantiate a genuine hope of arriving at a satisfactory conclusion of such negotiations.

DR. FERDINAND VEVERKA,
Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Czechoslovakia.

ESTONIA

To the Secretary of State from the Estonian Minister of Foreign Affairs, December 4, 1934

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to invite your attention to my note of the 31st May, 1934, no. 2-R, regarding the debt funding agreement of 1925 between Estonia and the United States, and to state the following:

As the economic and financial conditions of Estonia, in spite of the vigorous steps taken by the Government, have not improved to any appreciable extent during the last six months, the Estonian Government feel bound to bring to the knowledge of the United States Government that to their deep regret they are unable, under the terms of the agreement of 1925, to effect the payment of the instalment falling due on December 15, 1934.

I avail myself [etc.].

JULIUS SELJAMAA,
Minister of Foreign Affairs.

To the Secretary of State from the Acting Estonian Minister of Foreign Affairs, May 28, 1935

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to inform you that the Estonian Government, for reasons stated in their previous notes, regret to be unable to effect, under the terms of the debt funding agreement of 1925, between Estonia and the United States of America, the payment of the instalments falling due during the present financial year, i. e., on June 15th, 1935, and December 15th, 1935.

I avail myself [etc.].

H. LARETEI,
Acting Minister of Foreign Affairs.

FRANCE

To the Secretary of State from the French Ambassador, December 13, 1934

[Translation]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's note of November 22, containing a statement of the amounts due by France to the United States on December 15, next, under the terms of the agreements of April 29, 1926, and of July 6, 1931.

In that note you were good enough to assure me that the American Government is prepared to discuss, through diplomatic channels, any proposals which my Government may desire to present concerning payment of this debt, and to give consideration to such proposals with a view to presenting them to the American Congress.

The French Government highly appreciates these assurances and thanks the American Government for them.

It desires to reaffirm that it does not contest the validity of the debt and that it remains prepared to seek a settlement with the American Government on such basis as may appear acceptable to the two countries. Although it finds it at present impossible to formulate proposals, it can only hope that the situation will develop sufficiently to justify, in the near future, undertaking negotiations with a view to assuring the early attainment of the understanding desired equally by the two Governments.

Kindly accept [etc.]

ANDRE DE LABOULAYE.

To the Secretary of State from the French Ambassador, June 12, 1935

[Translation]

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's note of June 1, transmitting a statement of the amounts due by France to the United States, June 15, 1935, under the terms of the agreements signed by the French Government.

In presenting this statement, you took occasion to reiterate that the American Government is fully disposed to discuss through diplomatic channels any proposals which the Government of the Republic may desire to put forward in regard to the payment of this indebtedness, and to give them careful consideration with a view to their eventual submission to the American Congress.

The French Government thanks the American Government for having been so kind as to renew these assurances. It desires in turn, referring to its previous communications, to repeat that it is prepared to seek, as soon as circumstances permit, a settlement of its debt upon bases acceptable to both countries.

Still finding itself, however, unable to put forward proposals at the present time, it can only hope that the situation will develop sufficiently to justify, in the near future, undertaking negotiations with a view to assuring the early attainment of the understanding desired equally by the two Governments.

Please accept [etc.].

GREAT BRITAIN

To the Secretary of State from the British Ambassador, December 10, 1934

SIR:

In accordance with instructions from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note of November 22nd enclosing a statement of the amounts due from His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom under the provisions of the debt agreement of June 19th, 1923, and of the moratorium agreement of June 4th, 1932.

His Majesty's Government welcome the assurance that the United States Government are fully disposed to discuss any proposals that may be put forward in regard to the payment of this indebtedness and that such proposals would receive careful consideration with a view to their eventual submission to Congress.

In June last His Majesty's Government explained the circumstances which had forced them to decide to suspend payments under the funding and moratorium agreements pending the final revision of the war debt settlement. In that note it was stated that recent events had shown that discussions with a view to a final revision of the settlement could not at that time usefully be renewed.

His Majesty's Government have again most carefully reviewed the position, but they regret that they have reached the conclusion that the considerations which governed their decision six months ago apply with equal force today. Accordingly they feel that it would be useless and therefore unwise to initiate negotiations at present, but they will continue to watch for any effective opportunity of taking steps in that direction.

I have the honour [etc.]

R. C. LINDSAY.

To the Secretary of State from the British Ambassador, June 7, 1935

SIR:

In accordance with instructions from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note of June 1st enclosing a statement of the amounts due from His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom under the provisions of the debt agreement of June 19th, 1923, and of the moratorium agreement of June 4th, 1932.

In their note of June 4th, 1934, His Majesty's Government explained in full the reasons for which they were reluctantly compelled to suspend payments under the above-mentioned agreements pending the negotiation of a final revised settlement.

His Majesty's Government have constantly given most careful consideration to the matter, but they regret that it does not appear to them that the essentials of the situation have changed since that note was written. They observe with appreciation the readiness of the United States Government to discuss any proposals for dealing with the present situation and wish to state that they will be fully prepared to resume discussions whenever circumstances would appear to warrant the hope that a result satisfactory to both Governments might be expected.

I have the honour [etc.]

HUNGARY

SIR:

I have the honor to inform you that I have been instructed by my Government to advise the Government of the United States that owing to continued unfavorable economic conditions, the Hungarian Government regrets exceedingly its inability to pay the amount of $49,771.93, representing the principal and semiannual interest due on December 15, 1934, under the funding agreement or to deposit its pengő equivalent at the Hungarian National Bank. However, on that date my Government will deposit to the Foreign Creditors Account at the Hungarian National Bank a Hungarian Treasury certificate in the pengő equivalent of the amount due bearing interest at the rate of 2 per centum per annum.

Accept [etc.].

ITALY

To the Secretary of State from the Italian Ambassador, December 14, 1934

SIR:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of November 22, enclosing a statement of the amounts due from the Italian Government up to the 15th of December 1934, under the provisions of the debt agreement of November 14, 1925, and the moratorium agreement of June 3, 1932.

My Government has taken note of the assurance that the United States Government is fully disposed to discuss, through diplomatic channels, any proposals the Italian Government may desire to put forward in regard to the payment of this indebtedness, and has directed me to thank you for this communication.

The Italian Government, while regretting to be now unable to submit any proposals, will not fail to closely follow the situation. Under the present circumstances, it can only refer to the considerations contained in my note of June 14, 1934, dealing with the situation existing on that date, which has remained unchanged.

Accept [etc.]

To the Secretary of State from the Italian Ambassador, June 10, 1935

SIR:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of June 1st, 1935, enclosing a statement of the accounts due from the Italian Government up to the 15th of June 1935, under the provisions of the debt agreement of November 14, 1925, and the moratorium agreement of June 3rd, 1932.

My Government has taken note with appreciation of the renewed assurance that the United States Government is fully disposed to discuss, through diplomatic channels any proposals which the Italian Government may desire to put forward in regard to the payment of its indebtedness and that such proposals would receive careful consideration with a view to eventual submission to the American Congress.

While thanking you for this communication, my Government regrets to be unable at present to submit any proposals and wishes to refer to the considerations contained in my note of June 14, 1934, dealing with the situation existing on that date, which does not appear to have changed.

LATVIA

Note from the President of the Council and Minister for Foreign Affairs to the American Chargé d'Affaires, Riga, December 13, 1934

MONSIEUR LE CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES :

I have the honor to refer to the correspondence exchanged between the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and the American Legation regarding the indebtedness of Latvia to the United States and to refer, in particular, to the note of the State Department of November 22 last, addressed to Mr. A. B. Lule, Latvian Consul General in New York in charge of Legation, in which a statement was made concerning the amounts due from Latvia and Mr. Lule was assured that the United States Government are "fully disposed to discuss, through diplomatic channels, any proposals your Government may desire to put forward in regard to the payment of this indebtedness," and that "such proposals would receive careful consideration with a view to eventual submission to the American Congress."

The attitude of the Latvian Government regarding the settlement of their indebtedness to the United States has, as you will remember, already been defined in my former communications on the subject, in the Aide-Memoire presented to His Excellency Monsieur Skinner on December 3rd, 1932, and, recently, in my note no. R. 763, 00/32 of June 12th last. In this note the Latvian Government declared themselves obliged to suspend all payments pending the final revision of the debt-funding agreement of September 24th, 1925. At the same time they took the opportunity to emphasize once more their willingness to enter upon a further discussion of the subject at any time when such a discussion would be agreeable to the Government of the United States.

No reply to this note has up to now been received, and I may therefore assume that the note of the State Department, dated November 22nd last, may be regarded as a reply to the statements of the Latvian Government, Mr. Lule now being assured that the American Government are willing at present to discuss the proposals the Latvian Government may desire to put forward. As pointed out to you at the time, such a further discussion of the subject of their indebtedness is also the desire of my Government.

In view of the fact that the next term of payment falls due on December 15th, it stands to reason that no definite settlement can be reached at such short notice. The Latvian Government therefore regret that, for reasons stated in their previous notes on the subject and owing to the present adverse economic and financial situation, they will be unable to pay the instalment of their debt to the United States which falls due on December 15th. It is, however, the earnest hope of my Government, that it will be found possible to begin the discussion of the whole subject at the earliest possible date, so that an understanding might be effective which would prove acceptable to both the Governments concerned.

K. ULMANIS.

Press release, June 14, 1935

The Department of State was informed by a telegram received from Mr. Felix Cole, American Chargé d'Affaires at Riga, Latvia, that the Latvian Government in a note delivered to the American Legation at Riga on June 14, 1935, has expressed regret owing to inability to pay the current installment due on its debt to this Government.

LITHUANIA

*To the Secretary of State from the Lithuanian Chargé d'Affaires ad interim,

SIR:

With reference to your note of November 22, 1934, transmitting a statement of the amounts due from my Government June 15, 1933, December 15, 1933, June 15, 1934, and December 15, 1934, under the provisions of the debt agreement of September 22, 1924, and of the moratorium agreement of June 9, 1932, I have the honor to state that I have been instructed by my Government to inform you as follows:

The adverse economic and financial conditions which existed in Lithuania, as set forth in my note of June 14, 1934, have shown no improvement, but, on the contrary, the difficulties which confronted Lithuania at that time have since further increased.

Reaffirming the acknowledgment of its indebtedness to the United States, the Lithuanian Government regrets very much that it is again forced to arrive at the conclusion that it is unable to effect payments due the United States Government on December 15, 1934.

The Lithuanian Government is deeply grateful for the assurance that the United States Government is disposed to discuss, through diplomatic channels, any proposals the Lithuanian Government may desire to put forward in regard to the payment of its indebtedness, and that such proposals would receive careful consideration with a view to eventual submission to the Congress of the United States of America.

The Lithuanian Government will be glad to submit proposals relative to its indebtedness to the United States Government as soon as it will be found that discussions regarding this matter would be likely to produce mutually agreeable and practicable results.

M. BAGDONAS,
Chargé d'Affaires ad interim.

*To the Secretary of State from the Lithuanian Chargé d'Affaires ad interim,

SIR:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of June 1, 1935, enclosing a statement of the amounts due and payable June 15, 1933, December 15, 1933, June 15, 1934, December 15, 1934, and June 15, 1935, from my Government pursuant to the terms of the debt agreement of September 22, 1924, and the moratorium agreement of June 9, 1932.

In accordance with instructions from my Government, I have the honor to inform you that no favorable changes have taken place in the economic and financial conditions which prevailed in Lithuania at the time of the presentation of my notes of June 14, 1934, and December 14, 1934.

In view of the above, the Lithuanian Government regrets exceedingly that it is unable to meet the payments due the United States Government on June 15, 1935.

The Lithuanian Government, reaffirming the acknowledgment of its indebtedness to the United States, reiterates its assurance, as set forth in my note of December 14, 1934, that it will be glad to submit proposals relative to its indebtedness as soon as it will be found that discussions regarding this matter would be likely to produce mutually agreeable and practicable results.

Accept [etc.].

MIKAS BAGDONAS,

POLAND

To the Department of State from the Polish Ambassador, December 14, 1934

[Memorandum]

The Ambassador of Poland has been instructed by his Government to inform the Government of the United States that for reasons analogous to those stated in the note of December 8, 1932, and confirmed by later declarations, they are obliged to request similarly a deferment of payment of the instalment payable on December 15th, 1934. The Polish Government are still not in a position to resume the service of the debt toward the United States.

[Memorandum]

The Ambassador of Poland has been instructed by his Government to inform the Government of the United States that for reasons analogous to those stated in the note of December 8, 1932, and confirmed by later declarations, they are obliged to request similarly a deferment of payment of the instalment payable on June 15, 1935. The Polish Government are still not in a position to resume, toward the United States, the service of the debt.

RUMANIA

To the Secretary of State from the Rumanian Minister, December 20, 1934

SIR:

In accordance with instructions from my Government, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of November 22nd, enclosing a statement of the amounts due from my Government June 15, 1933, January 2, 1934, June 15, 1934, and December 15, 1934, under the provisions of the debt agreement of December 4, 1925, and of the moratorium agreement of June 11, 1932.

In the note of June 12, 1934, my Government explained the reasons why it was obliged to suspend the payments on the above-mentioned agreements, and referred to the note of June 15, 1933, in which it stated the unprecedented financial difficulties it was facing.

The Rumanian Government, after having carefully reexamined the prevailing conditions, feels that the reasons which determined its decision last June are still valid, as no changes have occurred in the general situation which would permit to expect a favorable result by initiating negotiations at the present time.

Please accept [etc.].

GOVERNMENT DEPOSITS

Exhibit 47

Instructions for collecting agents regarding the receipt of postal money orders drawn on points outside the district in which received

[Accounts and Deposits, Division of Deposits, Circular No. 1]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
July 27, 1934.

To the Heads of Departments and Establishments Concerned:

Under the authority contained in the Act of June 16, 1934 (Public No. 366—73d Cong.) the Postmaster General has prescribed regulations exacting a fee of the same amount as that charged for the issue of a money order when such money order is paid at an office other than that on which drawn. The Postmaster General has ruled that money orders drawn in favor of governmental establishments and agencies are not excepted from the operation of the law.

Paragraph 4, of Treasury Circular No. 176 provides, in part, that payments made by express or postal money order shall be handled subject to collection in the same manner as cash. Authority is granted, under the terms of the circular, to deposit cash with general depositories of public moneys where available. Paragraph 26, of Treasury Circular No. 176, however, provides that general depositories are not authorized to maintain any collection account for deposits of public moneys, but are required to give immediate credit in the Treasurer's account and to issue certificates of deposit for the full amount of all public moneys deposited with them for credit in the Treasurer's account in accordance with the circular.

It is requested that all departments, independent establishments, bureaus, and offices instruct their collecting agents in the field that if postal money orders drawn on outside points are received, all such money orders should be forwarded to the Federal Reserve bank or branch of the district for collection and credit in accordance with the procedure set up by Treasury Circular No. 176 in the case of checks. Depositors located in the District of Columbia may continue to deposit all postal money orders, including those drawn on outside points, direct with the Treasurer of the United States.

STEPHEN B. GIBBONS,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 48

Supplement to regulations governing deposit of public moneys and payment of Government checks and warrants

[Eighth supplement to Department Circular No. 176]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
April 23, 1935.

To the Treasurer of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and Others Concerned:

Treasury Department Circular No. 176, dated September 2, 1930, as amended, is hereby amended so that the last paragraph of section 34 on page 15 will read as follows:

"After the expiration of 1 year following the close of the fiscal year (ending June 30) in which they are drawn, checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States are not payable by him but should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, for payment from the "Outstanding liabilities" appropriation, accompanied by an application for payment over the signature and address of the owner of such checks: Provided, however, That the 1-year restriction does not apply to checks issued on account of public debt obligations and checks issued on account of transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws."

Treasury Department Circular No. 57, dated September 11, 1916, with regard to "Treasury warrants and official checks of public disbursing officers pertaining to 'Outstanding liabilities'", is hereby rescinded.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

ORGANIZATION CHANGES

Exhibit 49

Orders changing organization and procedure in the Treasury Department

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ORDER NO. 8, SEPTEMBER 17, 1934

The Section of Financial and Economic Research in the Office of the Secretary (Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits) is hereby abolished, and there is hereby created and established in the Office of the Secretary a Division of Research and Statistics. There is also hereby created the position of Director of Research and Statistics.

The Division of Research and Statistics will function under the immediate supervision of the Director. The Division will absorb the duties heretofore assigned to the Section of Financial and Economic Research, and will maintain statistical and other series, and conduct economic studies. The Director of the Division will also exercise direct authority over and responsibility for the production, analysis, and publication of statistics, and the conduct of economic research and over the purchase and maintenance of equipment utilized in connection therewith in all branches of the Department, including the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the Bureau of the Mint, the Customs Bureau, and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency; and with the approval of the Secretary will exercise control over the hiring, classification, and salaries of all employees in the Treasury who are primarily engaged in statistical compilation or analysis or in economic research.

This order shall be effective September 17th, 1934, and department orders of December 6th, 1921, and June 3rd, 1927, establishing the Section of Statistics and the Section of Financial and Economic Research of the Treasury Department, are hereby modified accordingly.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ORDER NO 9, SEPTEMBER 26, 1934

All medical relief activities in the Treasury Department in the District of Columbia, not now a part of or under the supervision of the United States Public Health Service, are hereby transferred to that Service and placed under the general supervision of the Surgeon General. These activities in addition to those already a part of the Public Health Service embrace emergency relief units at the following locations:

1. Main Treasury Building.
2. Treasury Annex No. 1, Madison Place and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW.
3. Internal Revenue Building, 12th Street and Constitution Avenue NW.
4. Old Southern Railway Building, 1300 E Street, NW. (so long as under the supervision of the Treasury Department).
5. Office of the Register of the Treasury, Fourteenth and B Streets, SW.
6. Branch Treasurer's Office, 119 D Street, NE.
7. Federal Warehouse, Ninth and D Streets, SW.
8. Division of Loans and Currency, Fourteenth and D Streets, SW.
9. Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Fourteenth and C Streets, SW.
10. Washington Building, Fifteenth Street and New York Avenue, NW. (in process of organization).

All personnel, records, books, furniture, equipment, and supplies connected with the medical activities concerned are hereby placed under the jurisdiction and control of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, the costs of the personnel and other expenses involved to be paid from the appropriations heretofore chargeable with such costs.

The Surgeon General will detail a commissioned medical officer of the Public Health Service to direct the operation of all emergency relief stations in the Treasury Department.

Emergency medical measures are to be available at the relief stations under the control of the Public Health Service and such stations are not to be operated as dispensaries where repeated and long-continued treatment may be obtained.

This order shall be effective October 1, 1934.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.
Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT ORDER NO. 10, APRIL 23, 1935

The Division of Supply of the Treasury Department shall be known hereafter as the "Division of Printing." The Division of Printing shall perform the same functions as were formerly exercised by the Division of Supply with the exception that the purchasing functions and the storage and distribution of stationery supplies, together with such equipment and personnel, including salaries, as are not required by the Division of Printing are hereby transferred to the Procurement Division, established under the provisions of Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933, and order of the Secretary of the Treasury, approved by the President on October 9, 1933, and placed under the immediate jurisdiction of the Assistant Director, Branch of Supply.

Requisitions for printing, binding, and stationery supplies shall be forwarded to the Division of Printing for administrative approval.

Requisitions for all other supplies shall be forwarded direct to the Division of Procurement on the forms prescribed by the Director of Procurement. Payments for all issues will be made by transfer and counter warrants prepared by the Procurement Division.

The stationery stock now in the custody of the Division of Supply shall be inventoried, priced, and transferred to the Division of Procurement. Credit shall be given to the Division of Printing in an amount equal to the current value of stock transferred.

All allotments of appropriations made to the Division of Supply by the several bureaus and divisions of the Department will be canceled on an effective date to be later determined by the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary. Thereafter bureaus and divisions will maintain such appropriation accounts as may be necessary.

H. MORGENTHAU, Jr.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MISCELLANEOUS¹

Exhibit 51

Executive Order No. 6869, October 10, 1934, requiring certain financial statements to be furnished the Secretary of the Treasury

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and in furtherance of the provisions of Executive Order No. 6226, of July 27, 1933, I hereby prescribe the following regulations:

1. Every executive department and every independent establishment of the Government shall furnish the Secretary of the Treasury, not later than the 15th day of each month, a statement of all bonds, notes, debentures, shares of stock, and other such evidences of indebtedness or interest, held by it for account of the United States, but exclusive of trust funds, and of all liabilities of the United States incurred through it represented by bonds, notes, debentures, or other such evidences of indebtedness. The statements herein required to be furnished shall be made as of the close of business on the last business day of the preceding month.

2. Every corporation in which the Government of the United States has a proprietary interest shall furnish the Secretary of the Treasury, not later than the 15th day of each month, a statement of its assets, liabilities, capital, and surplus as of the close of business on the last business day of the preceding month. Corporations in which the United States has no proprietary interest other than that evidenced by preferred stock and/or capital notes acquired through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, shall not be considered corporations in which the Government of the United States has a proprietary interest within the meaning of such phrase as used in this order.

3. The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be published monthly on the daily statement of the United States Treasury a combined statement of the assets, liabilities, capital, and surplus, reported pursuant to the provisions of this order at such times and in such manner as he shall prescribe.

4. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe a form or forms on which the required reports shall be made and to issue such regulations or instructions as he may consider necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this order.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

THE WHITE HOUSE,

Exhibit 52

Regulation no. 1—Administrative procedure for the maintenance of the system of accounts and disbursements under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, established pursuant to section II (A) of Executive Order No. 7034

[Department Circular No. 543]

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Washington, June 18, 1935.

Pursuant to the provisions of section IV, of Executive Order No. 7034, dated May 6, 1935, issued by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in the President of the United States under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, approved April 8, 1935 (Pub. Res. No. 11, 74th Cong.), the following regulations governing the maintenance of a system of accounts and disbursements under section II (A) of such order are hereby prescribed:

GENERAL PURPOSES

1. Section II (A) of Executive Order No. 7034 directs:

"The Secretary of the Treasury, (1) through the disbursing and accounting facilities under the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits of the Treasury Department, to make provision for all disbursements from the funds appropriated by the 'Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935', subject only to such exceptions as the Secretary may authorize, and to maintain a system of accounts necessary to enable the President—

"(a) to exercise Executive control over such funds,

"(b) to provide current financial and accounting information for governmental agencies concerned, and

"(c) to make a complete report to the Congress concerning expenditures made and obligations incurred, by classes and amounts * * *."

DEFINITIONS

2. As used herein:

(a) The word "allocation" means the amount made available by the President as carried in appropriation warrants for which separate appropriation accounts will be carried. An allocation may cover one or more projects. Such allocations are identified with an applicable appropriation limitation in the act.

(b) The words "official project" mean an undertaking approved by the President for which a separate official project number has been assigned by the Bureau of the Budget. An official project may be either a single work project or a general work relief program consisting of a number of work projects.

(c) The words "work project" mean a particular job or subdivision of an official project, as designated by an Administrator. This may be a single work relief job or a group of jobs in a particular locality under a project manager. A work project may be identical with an official project or it may be a subdivision or part of an official project for which separate limitations are to be observed through administrative accounts.

(d) The words "project authorization" mean that part (or all) of an allocation which has been set up on the books of the central or other Treasury accounts office of the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits on account of a particular project or of a subdivision of an allocation designated by an administrator.

(e) The word "administrator" means a board, commission, or the head of a department, bureau, or other agency authorized to administer an allocation.

(f) The words "State administrator" mean a person having general supervision of work or relief in a State or other area who is under the supervision of an administrator.

(g) The words "district director" mean a person having supervision over work or relief in a county or district within a State who is under the general supervision of an administrator or a State administrator.

(h) The words "project manager" mean a person having supervision of a work project who is authorized to incur obligations under an allotment.

This term may include administrators, State administrators, or district directors who act in the capacity of project managers.

(i) The words "certifying officer" mean a person duly authorized to attest to the correctness and legality of the services rendered or articles furnished as set forth on pay rolls or vouchers to be submitted to a disbursing officer for payment.

(j) The word "allotment" means the amount of an authorization on a prescribed form issued by an administrator or other authorized person to a project manager, authorizing the latter to enter into contracts, to make purchases or pay-roll commitments or to incur other obligations, for a work project.

(k) The words "Treasury accounts office" mean the United States Treasury-State accounts office located in the State in which detailed accounts will be kept with respect to allotments and expenditures for particular projects, and to which all accounting documents relating to such projects must be sent.

ORGANIZATION

3. The Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, Treasury Department, is authorized and directed to establish and maintain a Treasury Central Accounts Office in the District of Columbia and such United States Treasury-State accounts offices and United States Treasury-State disbursing offices there and elsewhere as in his judgment may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of section II (A) of Executive Order No. 7034, and the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is authorized to employ personnel for such purposes. The Commissioner is further authorized to prescribe such administrative procedures and take such other action as may be necessary. Treasury accounts offices shall maintain such detail records for projects undertaken within their respective districts as may be necessary for accounting purposes.

FISCAL PROCEDURE

4. Appropriation.—The amount made available by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 shall be set up in administrative appropriation control accounts to be maintained in the United States Treasury Central Accounts Office, in accordance with the limitations contained in said act and such other limitations as the President may fix.

5. Resolutions.—In order that the Treasury Department may be kept currently informed, the executive secretary of the Advisory Committee on Allotments shall transmit to the Treasury Central Accounts Office not later than the day following the date of each meeting of such Committee, a certified copy of each resolution agreed to concerning the earmarkings, allocations, reallocations, releases, reductions, cancelations, allotments, transfers, or other disposition of funds.

6. Reserves.—Certified copies of all orders issued by the President earmarking or reserving funds shall be furnished to the Treasury Central Accounts Office by the Bureau of the Budget for the maintenance of controlling accounts.

7. Allotments or authorizations.—The Advisory Committee on Allotments shall furnish the Treasury Central Accounts Office with a certified copy of each resolution passed by it, accompanied by copies of applications upon which each resolution is based. The Advisory Committee on Allotments shall also furnish the Treasury Central Accounts Office a schedule of applications submitted by the Committee to the President which are rejected or are increased or decreased above or below the amounts previously reported under section 5.

8. Allocations.—(a) The Bureau of the Budget shall transmit currently to the Treasury Central Accounts Office and to the General Accounting Office copies of all orders issued by the President making allocations or any other disposition of funds, including any limitations which the President has imposed in connection with such allocations or allotments or any amendment of a prior allocation or allotment.

(b) Allocations shall be numbered by the Bureau of the Budget in the order of their approval by the President.

(c) Upon receipt in the Treasury Department of an order or letter of the President making an allocation, the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, Treasury Department, shall issue an appropriation warrant against the proper limitation contained in the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, and a copy of such order or letter, supported by such detail as may be required by the Comptroller General of the United States, shall be furnished to the General Accounting Office. After the appropriation warrant has been countersigned by the Comptroller General of the United States, a certified copy thereof shall be forwarded by the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants to the Treasury Central Accounts Office. On the basis of such certified copies of appropriation warrants, the Treasury Central Accounts Office shall charge the proper limitations and establish the necessary controlling accounts.

9. Advice of allocations.—(a) The Treasury Central Accounts Office shall notify the proper Administrator of any allocation through the issuance of an "Advice of Allocation."

(b) Advices of Allocations shall be numbered by the Treasury Central Accounts Office in regular numerical sequence.

10. Advice of project authorization.—(a) The Administrator shall issue an "Advice of Project Authorization" on a prescribed form for the purpose of advising State Administrators and other designated persons, through the Treasury Central Accounts Office, of the amounts to be set up on the books of the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office for expenditure on a particular project or subdivision of an allocation. Advices of Project Authorization shall show the number and date of the Advice of Allocation under which such authorizations are made.

(b) Advices of Project Authorizations shall be made in quintuplicate, viz, for (1) the Treasury Central Accounts Office, (2) the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office, (3) the Administrator, (4) the State Administrator or other proper person, and (5) the General Accounting Office.

(c) The Administrator shall number Advices of Project Authorization in regular numerical sequence, and shall designate, subject to the approval of the Treasury Central Accounts Office, the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office which shall maintain detail records of such authorization. A schedule showing the location of each Treasury Accounts Office will be furnished to administrators by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits.

(d) Advices of Project Authorization shall show the appropriation symbol and title, official project number, and such other references and information as may be required by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits.

(e) The Administrator shall furnish the Treasury Central Accounts Office, on forms provided by the Treasury Department, with authenticated specimen signatures of persons authorized to sign Advices of Project Authorization, together with a statement of the limitations, if any, on their authority to issue such Advices.

11. Advice of allotment.—(a) State administrators or persons designated in an Advice of Project Authorization shall issue, in accordance with such authorization, an "Advice of Allotment" to project managers for the purpose of authorizing them to procure services, to make purchases through authorized procurement procedure, to make pay-roll commitments, or to incur other obligations, for the objects indicated on the said advices of allotment.

(b) Advices of Allotment shall be numbered in regular sequence by the State Administrator or other designated person, and this number shall be entered on all purchase requisitions, contracts, pay rolls, and vouchers relating to the allotment.

(c) Advices of Allotment shall show the official project number, the appropriation symbol and title, the Treasury Accounts Office on which issued, and such other information as the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits may require in connection with the checking of vouchers and pay rolls submitted thereunder.

(d) Immediately after issuance of each Advice of Allotment, a duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office for entry in its accounts. The Treasury Accounts Office shall determine that vouchers subsequently received and chargeable thereto do not exceed the amount of the allotment and are for the objects or purposes specified thereon.

(e) The Administrator shall furnish the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office with authenticated specimen signatures of State Administrators or other persons authorized to issue Advices of Allotment, together with a statement of the limitations, if any, on the authority of such persons to issue Advices of Allotment.

12. Encumbrances for contracts, purchase orders, etc.—(a) The records of the Treasury Accounts Offices shall reflect as currently as practicable the accruing liability of the Government on account of each project. To this end administrators and other designated officers shall furnish the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office such information as it may require.

(b) Copies of contracts and purchase requisitions or orders and copies of papers, advices, or documents covering encumbrances or obligations incurred, shall be sent, promptly after issuance, to the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office designated on the related Advice of Allotment.

(c) Each purchase requisition, purchase order, contract, or other advice of obligation incurred shall show the official project number, the work project number (if any), the serial number of the Advice of Allotment under which such obligation was incurred, the appropriation symbol chargeable, and such other references as may be required by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits.

(d) Original contracts shall be numbered and forwarded to the General Accounting Office in accordance with General Accounting Office General Regulations No. 51, and supplements thereto.

13. Vouchers and pay rolls.—(a) All vouchers and pay rolls shall be certified by project managers or by such other persons as may be authorized to do so.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, all vouchers and pay rolls chargeable against an allocation made under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 shall be forwarded to the appropriate Treasury Accounts Office designated on the Advice of Allotment, where they will be checked against the records of Project Authorizations and Allotments and forwarded to the appropriate Treasury Disbursing Office as provided in section 16 hereof.

(c) Vouchers and pay rolls shall be certified only by authorized project managers or other "certifying officers" who either have personal knowledge or documentary evidence of the facts upon which the vouchers or pay rolls are based, or who have immediate charge of the persons who have such knowledge.

(d) Adequate timekeeping records shall be maintained, showing for each employee time and earnings chargeable to the various project or cost accounts, deductions, and net earnings, and a procedure shall be established to verify the fact that each individual to whom payment is made is legally entitled thereto.

(e) Certifying officers shall keep or be responsible for the keeping of time records and other records herein provided to avoid duplicate payments, and will be accountable for the legality of vouchers and pay rolls certified by them. Such officers shall be responsible for the correctness of the facts on which the vouchers and pay rolls are based and also for the mathematical computations.

(f) Authenticated specimen signatures of certifying officers shall be filed in the appropriate Treasury accounts offices and Treasury disbursing offices, together with a statement of the limitations, if any, on the authority of such persons to certify vouchers and pay rolls.

(g) All vouchers shall show the appropriation symbol and title, and official project number, against which such vouchers are chargeable, the number of the purchase order, contract, or other document obligating funds under the project, and such other material facts as may be necessary to enable the General Accounting Office to settle and adjust the amounts for which credit is to be claimed by the disbursing officer.

14. Voucher distribution form.—The certifying officer shall transmit to the appropriate Treasury accounts office attached to each voucher or pay roll, a prescribed form of Voucher Distribution Form showing the amounts included in the voucher or pay roll, classified according to different objects of expenditure, and such other data as may be required by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits.

15. Examination of vouchers and pay rolls in Treasury accounts offices.—No Treasury accounts office shall transmit a pay roll or voucher to a disbursing office for payment unless such office shall find that sufficient money is available in the proper account to meet the payment; that the voucher or pay roll is covered by a contract, purchase requisition, or other proper obligating document; that the mathematical computations in the voucher are correct; and that the voucher or pay roll has been certified by an authorized certifying officer, whose authenticated specimen signature is on file in such Treasury accounts office.

16. Scheduling of vouchers and pay rolls.—(a) Vouchers and pay rolls shall be scheduled on Standard Form 1064, in the offices where the vouchers are administratively approved, and transmitted, in quadruplicate, to the appropriate Treasury accounts office. Schedules of vouchers and pay rolls shall be summarized on Standard Form 1064, by appropriation symbols and titles.

(b) Checks for travel advances will be issued only upon approved applications therefor (Standard Form 1038 or 1038a) when supported by authenticated copies of the travel orders issued to the employees and such approved applications shall be scheduled in the Treasury Accounts Office to the proper Treasury disbursing office.

(c) Cash for disbursing purposes may be carried only when specifically authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to Section 3620 of the Revised Statutes. In making requests for authority to carry cash, which will be at personal risk of disbursing officers, justification therefor must be fully set forth. Checks issued in exchange for cash will be scheduled in the Treasury Disbursing Office and a copy of each such schedule shall immediately be forwarded to the appropriate Treasury accounts office.

(d) After examination pursuant to section 15 hereof, vouchers and pay rolls, accompanied by the original and two copies of the schedules, shall be transmitted by the Treasury Accounts Office to the Treasury Disbursing Office for payment, except as to items of transportation furnished on Government transportation requests and bills of lading forms and questionable claims which shall be scheduled to the General Accounting Office for preaudit and then returned to the appropriate Treasury accounts office for completion of records and forwarding to the appropriate Treasury Disbursing Office for payment. Bills of lading and transportation requests must show the office to be billed and other necessary information.

17. Advance of funds to disbursing officers and rendition of accounts.—(a) In order to expedite the placing of funds to the credit of bonded disbursing officers and to facilitate the audit and settlement of their accounts, funds shall be advanced upon accountable warrants to the Chief Disbursing Officer, Division of Disbursement, under the several appropriation-allocations, based upon requisitions approved by the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, or such other officers as the Secretary of the Treasury may designate. The Chief Disbursing Officer shall transfer to the official credit of such of the various bonded Disbursing Officers with the Treasurer of the United States in Washington or in the Treasurer's account with the Federal Reserve banks as directed by the Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, or by such other officers as the Secretary of the Treasury may designate, the amounts necessary to make current disbursements. The Chief Disbursing Officer shall take credit in his accounts under the proper appropriation-allocations for the amounts so transferred to disbursing officers, and they, in turn, shall charge themselves with such transfers and render an accounting therefor in their own names to the General Accounting Office, through the Central Treasury Accounts Office.

(b) All officers disbursing funds appropriated by the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935 shall render to the General Accounting Office as at the close of business on the 10th, 20th, and last day of each month a separate and complete accounting for all funds coming into their custody during the period covered by each account, by reason of their official positions, in accordance with General Accounting Office General Regulations No. 80, dated August 15, 1934.

18. Administrative verification of check payments.—(a) Treasury disbursing officers shall transmit promptly to the appropriate Treasury accounts offices copies of all checks issued by them for verification against copies of schedules and pay rolls on file in the Treasury Accounts Office.

(b) Stocks of blank checks shall be kept in the custody of Treasury disbursing officers. Treasury disbursing officers shall account to the appropriate Treasury accounts offices for all checks delivered to them under a procedure prescribed by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, which shall provide for the transmission of notices of delivery directly to the appropriate Treasury accounts office by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. Treasury accounts offices shall take inventories of stocks of unused checks not less than once in each quarter and without advance notice to the disbursing officer.

(c) Spoiled checks shall be voided and the space provided thereon for signatures effectively mutilated. They shall then be forwarded to the Treasury Accounts Office for examination, and the check copies in such cases shall also be voided. After examination in the Treasury Accounts Office the voided checks shall be returned to the Treasury Office for disposition in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Department Circular No. 8, and General Accounting Office General Regulations Nos. 31 and 35.

19. Disbursements not made through Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department.—In cases where disbursements are not made through the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, copies of allotments, purchase requisitions, purchase orders, contracts, disbursement schedules, vouchers, pay rolls, check registers, etc., will be promptly forwarded to the Treasury accounts office specified by the Commissioner of Accounts and Deposits, and the general principles embodied in the system of accounting for project authorizations, allotments, etc., as outlined herein for payments made through the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, will be followed.

20. Interdepartmental work.—In cases where one Government department or establishment has agreed to perform services or furnish materials for another department or establishment, the amounts involved being relatively small, the work shall be done from the requisitioned Department's own appropriation on a reimbursable basis. However, where, upon a proper showing to the Bureau of the Budget, the requisitioned Department or establishment is unable to perform the services or furnish the materials on a reimbursable basis, within the limits of its own appropriation, the transactions shall be handled through the issuance of an Advice of Allotment (approved by the Bureau of the Budget) on account of the official project involved to the requisitioned department or establishment by the requisitioning department or establishment.

21. Requisitions for forms.—Upon receipt of these regulations each administrator concerned is requested to make requisition at once upon the Public Printer for a supply of the forms provided for herein which it is estimated will be required for his service for a period of 12 months from July 1, 1935. In so doing, it is understood and agreed by the said administrator that he thereby consents to the plan of combining all the requisitions submitted and printing the total amount thereof in one edition, to be delivered to him or placed in stock at the Government Printing Office subject to his order, or partly delivered and partly placed in stock as the case may be, and that the administrator authorize the Public Printer to prorate the cost of printing and to render bill against him for his proportionate share on the basis of the number of forms ordered by him.

22. Budgetary apportionments of funds.—The provisions of Executive Order No. 6226, dated July 27, 1933, and Treasury Department Circular No. 494, issued pursuant thereto relating to apportionments shall be applicable to allocations of funds under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935.

23. Duplication of records.—The heads of departments, establishments, boards, commissions, bureaus, and offices are requested to utilize to the fullest extent the accounting records provided herein and to avoid, as much as possible, unnecessary duplications of accounting records.

24. Special instructions.—When the Secretary of the Treasury finds that the public interest requires, he may issue special instructions to cover the procedure for exceptional cases, which instructions shall conform as nearly as practicable to the principles embodied in the foregoing regulations.

25. Compliance with regulations.—Full compliance with the regulations herein prescribed is essential to prompt payment of accounts and the compilation of current and accurate information required under the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935, and Executive Order No. 7034.

Secretary of the Treasury.

Exhibit 53

Executive Order No. 6981, March 2, 1935, removing, in certain cases, restrictions imposed by Public Resolution 53, of June 27, 1934, as to payments, transfers, and deliveries of property under the Trading with the Enemy Act and the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by Public Resolution 53, approved June 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 1267), the Trading with the Enemy Act, approved October 6, 1917 (40 Stat. 411), as amended, and the Settlement of War Claims Act of 1928, approved March 10, 1928 (45 Stat. 254), I do hereby order as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purposes of the said resolution, it is hereby determined that Germany has been and is now in arrears in payments of principal and interest under the debt-funding agreement between Germany and the United States dated June 23, 1930, with respect to the obligations of Germany on account of awards entered and to be entered by the Mixed Claims Commission, United States and Germany. The period in which Germany is in arrears shall be deemed to continue for the purposes of this order until it is determined by the President that such period has terminated.

SECTION 2. The restrictions imposed by the said resolution are hereby removed except as to the following payments, conveyances, transfers, or deliveries of money or property or of the income, issues, profits, or avails thereof:

1. To any person who was on April 6, 1917, or who at any time since that date has been, a German national, unless such person is entitled to receive payment under section 9, subsection (b) (1), of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, or unless such person is a national of the United States at the time of payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery, and was on June 1, 1934, the legal and beneficial owner of the claim to the money or property or the income, issues, profits, or avails thereof, and on or before June 1, 1934, the United States received written notice of such ownership.

2. To any person domiciled or resident within the territory of Germany, except a natural person who is a national of the United States at the time of payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery.

3. To any corporation, association, or partnership, or other unincorporated body of individuals or a body politic which on or at any time since April 6, 1917, was organized or existed under the laws of Germany or had its principal place of business in Germany.

4. To any corporation, association, or partnership, or other unincorporated body of individuals, or a body politic in which a substantial legal or beneficial interest is owned directly or indirectly by any person to whom payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery continues to be postponed under subdivision 1, 2, or 3 hereof, or to any person who is a trustee of such money or property for a person to whom payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery continues to be postponed under subdivision 1, 2, or 3 hereof.

5. To the heirs, devisees, legatees, executors, administrators, representatives, creditors, successors, or assigns of any person to whom payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery continues to be postponed under subdivision 1, 2, 3, or 4 hereof, except to such heirs, devisees, or legatees as are natural persons and have been nationals of the United States from June 1, 1934, to the time of payment, conveyance, transfer, or delivery.

SECTION 3. For the purposes of this Executive order, (a) the nationality, residence, domicile, or other qualification of claimants under the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, shall be that determined by the Attorney General; and (b) the nationality, residence, domicile, or other qualification of claimants to money or property or the income, issues, profits, or avails thereof, held in the German special deposit account, and in the Austrian and Hungarian special deposit accounts, shall be that determined by the Secretary of the Treasury.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
March 2, 1935.

Exhibit 54

Letter of the Acting Postmaster General to the Secretary of the Treasury, dated November 26, 1935, certifying extraordinary expenditures contributing to the deficiency of postal revenues for the fiscal year 1935, in pursuance of Public Act No. 316, Seventy-first Congress, approved June 9, 1930 (40 Stat. 523)

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 26, 1935.

The honorable the SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY:

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: In accordance with the provisions of the act of June 9, 1930, embodied in section 260, Postal Laws and Regulations, the amounts set forth below with respect to certain mailings during the fiscal year ended

June 30, 1935, are certified to you in order that they may be separately classified on the books of the Treasury Department in stating the expenditures made from the appropriation to supply the deficiency of postal revenues:

(a) The estimated amount which would have been collected at regular rates of postage on matter mailed during the year by officers of the Government (other than those of the Post Office Department) under the penalty privilege, including registry fees:
Postage-----	$28, 418, 484
		$31, 281, 600
(b) The estimated amount which would have been collected at regular rates of postage on matter mailed during the year by:
1. Members of Congress under the franking privilege--	$577, 162
2. By others under the franking privilege-----	180
		577, 342
(c) The estimated amount which would have been collected during the year at regular rates of postage on publications going free in the country--		575, 597
(d) The estimated amount which would have been collected at regular rates of postage on matter mailed free to the blind during the year--		131, 700
(e) The estimated difference between the postage revenue collected during the year on mailings of newspapers and periodicals published by and in the interests of religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, and fraternal organizations, and that which would have been collected at zone rates of postage-----		203, 434
(f) The estimated excess during the year of the cost of aircraft service over the postage revenues derived from air mail-----		8, 474, 738
(g) The estimated amount paid during the year to vessels of American registry for carrying the ocean mail in excess of what would have been paid at pound rates if carried in vessels of foreign registry----		28, 292, 841
Total-----		69, 537, 252

Very truly yours,

W. W. HOWES,
Acting Postmaster General.

TABLES

EXPLANATION OF BASES USED IN TABLES

Figures in the following tables are shown on various bases, namely: (1) Daily Treasury statements, unrevised (current cash); (2) daily Treasury statements, revised (actual); (3) warrants issued; (4) checks issued; and (5) collections reported by collecting officers.

Daily Treasury statements (unrevised) (receipts and expenditures).—The figures shown in the daily statement of the United States Treasury are compiled from the latest daily reports received by the Treasurer of the United States from Treasury officers and public depositaries holding Government funds. The daily Treasury statement, therefore, is a current report compiled from latest available information, and, by reason of the promptness with which the information is obtained and made public, it has come into general use as reflecting the financial operations of the Government covering a given period, and gives an accurate idea of the actual condition of the Treasury as far as it is ascertainable from day to day. This is known as "current cash basis", according to daily Treasury statements (unrevised). Table 3 (p. 316) shows receipts and expenditures on this basis. The current assets and liabilities of the Treasury and the outstanding public debt are also available on this basis.

Daily Treasury statements (revised) (receipts and expenditures).—On account of the distance of some of the Treasury offices and depositaries from the Treasury, it is obvious that the reports from all officers covering a particular day's transactions cannot be received and assembled in the Treasury at one time without delaying for several days the publication of the daily Treasury statement. It is necessary, therefore, in order to exhibit the actual receipts and expenditures for any given month or fiscal year, to take into consideration those reports covering the transactions for the last few days of the month or fiscal year concerned which have not been received in the Treasury until the succeeding month or fiscal year, and to eliminate receipts and expenditures relating to the preceding month. After taking into consideration these reports, the revised figures indicate the condition of the Treasury on the basis of actual transactions occurring during the period under review. This is known as "the basis of daily Treasury statements (revised)."

It is not practical to delay the publication of the daily Treasury statement in order to include the later reports, as the difference between the revised and the unrevised figures is immaterial. The unrevised figures as shown in current daily Treasury statements are the basis for the Budget estimates submitted to Congress by the President. The revised figures are of no practical use except to enable the use of a true General Fund balance on the monthly statement of the public debt of the United States and to bring the daily Treasury statement figures into agreement with the figures based on warrants issued. The table on page 173 shows receipts and expenditures on this basis. The current assets and liabilities of the Treasury and the outstanding public debt are also available on this basis.

Warrants issued (receipts).—Section 305 of the Revised Statutes provides that receipts for all moneys received by the Treasurer of the United States shall be endorsed upon warrants signed by the Secretary of the Treasury, without which warrants, so signed, no acknowledgement for money received into the Public Treasury shall be valid. The issuance of warrants by the Secretary of the Treasury, as provided by law, represents the formal covering of receipts into the Treasury.

Certificates of deposit covering actual deposits in Treasury offices and depositaries, upon which covering warrants are based, cannot reach the Treasury simultaneously, and for that reason all receipts for a fiscal year cannot be covered into the Treasury by warrants of the Secretary immediately upon the close of that fiscal year. It is necessary to have all certificates of deposit before a statement can be issued showing the total receipts for a particular fiscal year on a warrant basis. The figures thus compiled will agree with the figures compiled on the basis of daily Treasury statements (revised). The details in table 1 (p. 296) show receipts on this basis.

Warrants issued (expenditures).—The Constitution of the United States provides that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law. Section 305 of the Revised Statutes requires that the Treasurer of the United States shall disburse the moneys of the United States upon warrants drawn by the Secretary of the Treasury. As the warrants are issued by the Secretary they are charged against the appropriate appropriations provided by law. Some of these warrants do not represent actual payments to claimants, but are merely advances of funds to be placed to the credit of disbursing officers of the Government with the Treasurer of the United States for the payment of Government obligations. The disbursing officer then issues his check on the Treasurer in payment of such obligations. As far as the appropriation accounts are concerned, the warrants issued and charged thereto constitute expenditures, but it will be observed that such expenditures necessarily include unexpended balances to the credit of the disbursing officers. Under normal conditions these balances over a period of several years fluctuate very little in the aggregate, and the difference between the total expenditures on a warrant basis and a cash basis (revised) is immaterial. Statement of the expenditures on a warrant basis from 1789 to 1915 is shown on page 324 of this report.

Checks issued (expenditures).—This basis, more than any other, reflects the real expenditures of the Government. Expenditures for a given fiscal year on the basis of checks issued differ from the corresponding figures on the basis of warrants in that the former include expenditures made by disbursing officers from credits granted during the previous fiscal year, and exclude the amount of unexpended grants remaining to their credit at the end of the fiscal year. The basis of checks issued differs from the basis of the daily Treasury statement (revised) in that the former includes checks outstanding at the end of the fiscal year, and excludes unpaid checks outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year. A detailed explanation of the basis of checks issued will be found on page 89 of the Secretary's report for 1927. Table 2 (p. 302) shows expenditures on this basis.

Collections reported by collecting officers (receipts).—Statements showing receipts on a collection basis are compiled from reports received by the various administrative offices from collecting officers in the field, such as collectors of internal revenue and collectors of customs. These reports cover the collections actually made by these officers during the period specified. The collections are then deposited in a designated Government depository to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, which depository renders a report to the Treasurer. The reports of the collecting officers and the depositories do not, of course, coincide, for the reason that the collecting officers make collections during the last few days of the fiscal year which are not deposited until after the close of the fiscal year. On this account the two reports do not agree. The receipts are reported on a collection basis merely for statistical purposes and to furnish information as to detailed sources of revenue. Classification of such items on the basis of deposits has been found to be impracticable and uneconomical. Tables 7, and 13 (pp. 341 and 355) show receipts on a collection basis.

DESCRIPTION OF ACCOUNTS THROUGH WHICH TREASURY OPERATIONS ARE EFFECTED

All receipts of the Government are covered into the General Fund of the Treasury from which all expenditures are made. Receipts and expenditures, however, are classified in the Treasury's records according to the class of accounts through which operations are effected. Transactions are segregated in order to exhibit separately those effected through general fund accounts, as contrasted with those effected through special and trust accounts representing restricted or specially allocated receipts and expenditures chargeable thereto. This classification was first shown in published records for 1927 for the warrants and checks-issued bases and on the daily Treasury statements beginning with the July 1, 1930, issue, in order to conform to the practice of the Bureau of the Budget. In some tables in this report, however, transactions in the three types of accounts are combined for purposes of historical comparison. A brief general explanation of the three classes of accounts is presented below.

General fund accounts.—The principal sources of general fund account receipts are income taxes, miscellaneous internal revenue, and customs duties. In addition, a large number of miscellaneous receipts come under this head including such items as proceeds of Government owned securities (except those which are applicable to public debt retirement), sale of surplus and condemned property,

Panama Canal tolls, fees (including consular and passport fees), fines, penalties, forfeitures, rentals, royalties, reimbursements, immigration head tax, sale of public land, tax on national bank circulation, interest on public deposits, seigniorage on coinage of subsidiary silver and minor coins, etc. Moneys represented in the general fund accounts may be withdrawn from the Treasury only in pursuance of appropriations made by Congress. There are four classes of appropriations payable through the general fund accounts of the Treasury, namely: (a) Annual, being those made each year in the several departmental supply bills and limited for obligation during the fiscal year for which made; (b) continuing (no year), being available until expended or until the object for which appropriated has been accomplished, such as construction of public works; (c) permanent-specific, being fixed amounts provided for each of a series of years by permanent legislation, without annual action of Congress; and (d) permanent-indefinite, being indefinite amounts (so much as may be necessary) provided by permanent legislation without annual action of Congress, such as the indefinite appropriation to cover interest on the public debt.

A statement of general fund receipts and expenditures is, therefore, in the nature of a general operating statement, and gives a picture of the relationship between the general revenues of the Government and the operating expenditures (including capital outlays and fixed charges) chargeable against them.

Special accounts.—Special account receipts may be generally defined as funds received under special authorizations of law which may be expended only for the particular purposes specified therein. Special account receipts may not be used for the general expenditures of the Government. The most important items of receipts included under this heading, from the standpoint of amounts, are those applicable to the retirement of the public debt. Other important special account receipts are the reclamation fund under the Department of the Interior, funds received for river and harbor improvements, Forest Service cooperative funds, and proceeds from sales of ships, etc., by the United States Shipping Board available for construction loans. There are many other special account receipts of lesser importance.

Trust accounts.—Trust account receipts represent moneys received by the Government for the benefit of individuals or classes of individuals. Moneys held in trust, being payable to or for the use of beneficiaries only, are not available for general expenditures of the Government. There are several classes of trust account receipts, the beneficiaries under which may be either individuals or groups of individuals. The funds may represent (a) moneys received directly from or for account of individuals, as in the case of moneys received from foreign governments or other sources in trust for citizens of the United States or others under the act of February 27, 1896; (b) moneys collected as revenues and held in trust, such as the proceeds of sales of Indian lands which are held as interest-bearing funds for the benefit of Indian tribes; and (c) proceeds of grants from the general fund accounts of the Treasury in pursuance of treaty or other obligations such as the perpetual trust fund created for the Ute Indians under section 5 of the act of June 15, 1880.

Transactions in checking accounts of governmental agencies (net).....	-----	-----	-----	²⁰ $429,528,749.56
Total cash expenditures on basis of daily Treasury statements (unrevised).....	3,721,234,634.76	$3,651,590,530.81	7,375,825,165.57	150,546,457.42

² Stated under the Department of Justice, pursuant to Executive Order No. 6694 of May 1, 1934, effective July 1, 1934.

⁴ Included under National Industrial Recovery Administration.

⁶ See below for this item.

⁸ Under the Treasury Department.

⁹ Included under Federal Emergency Relief Administration.

¹⁰ Included under Office of the Secretary, Department of the Interior.

¹¹ Stated under Division of Territories and Island Possessions, Department of the Interior, by act of June 3, 1935 (49 Stat. 320).

¹² Heretofore stated under Veterans' Administration. See note 5.

¹³ Transferred to Civil Service Commission by Executive Order No. 6731 of June 5, 1934. See note 12.

¹⁴ See note 18.

¹⁵ Included with Office of Education.

¹⁶ Included with Division of Geographic Names.

¹⁷ For classification of extraordinary expenditures contributing to the deficiency in postal revenues for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1935, see exhibit 54 on p. 289 for statement of account.

The Postal Deficiency represents advances from the General Fund of the Treasury to the Postmaster General to meet deficiencies in the postal revenues. These figures do not include any allowances for offsets on account of extraordinary expenditures or the cost of free mailings contributing to the deficiency of postal revenues certified to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Postmaster General pursuant to the act of Congress, approved June 9, 1930.

²² Excess of receipts over expenditures.

NOTE.—Excess credits and adjustments in italics to be deducted.

¹ Additional expenditures on these accounts for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are included under emergency expenditures—public works.

² The classification of general expenditures for public building construction and sites, Treasury Department, and for War Department (nonmilitary) prior to the fiscal year 1934 is not available. Such expenditures are therefore included in general expenditures under Treasury Department and National Defense—Army, respectively.

⁴ Emergency expenditures prior to the fiscal year 1934 (except Reconstruction Finance Corporation) are included in general expenditures and are not available for comparison with emergency expenditures for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935. Therefore, neither the totals of general expenditures nor the totals of emergency expenditures for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are comparable with the totals for prior fiscal years.

⁵ Revised to adjust classification.

⁷ The receipts and expenditures on account of contributed funds were classified prior to the fiscal year 1934 as special funds and were included in general and special fund receipts and expenditures. Subsequently they were classified as contributed funds under the general heading of "Trust and contributed funds and increment on gold." Beginning with the statement on Oct. 15, 1934, these receipts and expenditures for the current fiscal year and the fiscal year 1934 are included in "Other" trust funds.

⁹ Since July 1, 1932, deductions from salaries credited to the civil service, foreign service, and Canal Zone retirement funds and the earnings from investments of such funds and of the adjusted service certificate fund have been classified as receipts, whereas prior to that date such items were used to offset expenditures for the respective funds.

NOTE.—Excess credits and adjustments in italics, to be deducted.

² On basis of warrants issued from 1789 to 1935.

¹² Beginning with the fiscal year 1932 tonnage tax has been covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

¹⁵ Exclusive of $2,811,375,757, increment resulting from reduction in the weight of the gold dollar.

¹ Additional expenditures on these accounts for the fiscal years 1934 and 1935 are included under Public Works.

² The Executive order of June 10, 1933, as amended, provides for the transfer of the function of disbursement of all moneys of the United States (except those relating to the Military and Naval Establishments, rivers and harbors, and Panama Canal) to the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department. The transfer of such functions in Washington, D. C., of the several departments and establishments subject to the Executive order of June 10, 1933, was completed on July 1, 1934. Therefore, effective July 1, 1934, in the interest of economy and efficiency, the disbursements by the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, which appear in daily Treasury statements under the caption "Departmental Expenditures" are on the basis of checks issued. The totals shown, after making adjustment for outstanding checks of the Division of Disbursement, relating to such "Departmental Expenditures" are on the basis of checks paid as published heretofore.

³ The classification of general expenditures for public building construction and sites, Treasury Department, and for War Department (nonmilitary) prior to the fiscal year 1934 is not available, and such expenditures are therefore included in general expenditures under Treasury Department and National Defense—Army, respectively.

⁶ The receipts and expenditures on account of contributed funds were classified prior to the fiscal year 1934 as special funds and were included in general and special fund receipts and expenditures. Subsequently they were classified as contributed funds under the general heading of "Trust and contributed funds and increment on gold." Beginning with the statement on October 15, 1934, these receipts and expenditures for the current fiscal year and the fiscal year 1934 are included in "Other" trust funds.

NOTE.—Excess credits and adjustments in italics to be deducted.

² The amounts shown in this column have been revised to include the payments to the Government of Panama under the treaty of Nov. 18, 1903, of $250,000 per annum, the first payment being made during the fiscal year 1913, and similar payments continuing each year since that date; but do not include the payments to the Government of Colombia growing out of the construction of the Panama Canal of $5,000,000 per annum during the fiscal years 1923 to 1927, inclusive, an aggregate sum of $25,000,000, as provided for under the treaty of Apr. 6, 1914. Includes expenses of civil government, Panama Canal and Canal Zone.

⁵ After deducting amounts officially estimated to have been lost or irrevocably destroyed.

TAX EXEMPTIONS:

⁶ Exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from all taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. (The Supreme Court has held that this exemption does not extend to estate or inheritance taxes imposed by Federal or State authority.)

⁷ Exempt, both as to principal and interest from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the act approved Sept. 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above.

⁸ Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of bonds authorized by the act approved Sept. 24, 1917, as amended, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in clause (b) above. For the purposes of determining taxes and tax exemptions, the increment in value of savings bonds represented by the difference between the price paid and the redemption value received (whether at or before maturity) shall be considered as interest.

Attention is invited to Treasury Decision 4550 ruling that bonds, notes, bills, and certificates of indebtedness of the Federal Government or its agencies, and the interest thereon, are not exempt from the gift tax.

⁹ Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

¹⁰ Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate and inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; and the amount of discount at which Treasury bills are originally sold by the United States shall be considered to be interest within the meaning referred to herein.

Any gain from the sale or other disposition of Treasury bills shall be exempt from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority; and no loss from the sale or other disposition of such Treasury bills shall be allowed as a deduction, or otherwise recognized, for the purposes of any tax now or hereafter imposed by the United States or any of its possessions.

In hands of foreign holders.—Bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States, shall, while beneficially owned by a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership, or association, not engaged in business in the United States, be exempt both as to principal and interest from any and all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

RECEIVABILITY IN PAYMENT OF CERTAIN TAXES:

Federal estate or inheritance taxes.—Liberty bonds, Treasury bonds, and Treasury notes, bearing interest at a higher rate than 4 percent per annum, which have been owned by any person continually for at least 6 months prior to the date of his death and which upon such date constitute part of his estate are receivable by the United States at par and accrued interest in payment of Federal estate taxes.

Federal income and profits taxes.—Treasury notes, Treasury certificates of indebtedness, and Treasury bills, maturing on tax-payment dates, are receivable at par in payment of income and profits taxes payable at the maturity of the notes, certificates, or bills.

CIRCULATION PRIVILEGE:

General.—Bonds of the 2 percent consols of 1930, 2 percent Panama Canal loan of 1916-36, and 2 percent Panama Canal loan of 1918-38 are receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issuance of circulating notes to national banking associations until called for redemption on the dates given above.

Limited.—Under the provisions of sec. 23 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, approved July 22, 1932, for a period of 3 years from that date, all outstanding bonds of the United States theretofore issued, or issued during such period bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 3½ percent per annum, shall be receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issuance of circulating notes to national banking associations.

² Exclusive of the bonds issued to the Pacific railways (provision having been made by law to secure the Treasury against both principal and interest) and the Navy pension fund (which was in no sense a debt, the principal being the property of the United States).

MEMORANDUM

Amount due the United States from the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad on account of bonds issued (Pacific Railroad aid bonds, acts approved July 1, 1862, July 2, 1864, and May 7, 1878):

	Principal amount held
Principal.....	$1,600,000.00
Interest.....	1,695,442.13
Total.....	3,295,442.13

¹ This statement is made on the basis of the face value of the securities therein described as received by the United States, with due allowance for repayments. To the extent that the securities are not held in the custody of the Treasury, the statement is made up from reports received from other Government departments and establishments.

² Indebtedness of Czechoslovakia has been funded under the agreement of Oct. 13, 1925, but the original obligations have not been exchanged for the new bonds of that Government.

⁴ Original amount ($66,560,560.43) included bonds aggregating $21,970,560.43 representing interest accruing and remaining unpaid during first 14 years, payment of which under the funding agreement is extended over the last 48 years.

⁵ Division of German bonds between private awards and Government awards is an estimate based upon best information available at this time. When the Mixed Claims Commission has completed its duties, a more accurate division may be made. Awards generally bear interest at 5 percent per annum. Bonds do not bear interest, but the aggregate face amount thereof will be sufficient to cover payment of the principal and interest due on the total awards finally entered by the Mixed Claims Commission. Bonds for private awards are held in trust, the proceeds thereof when received at maturity to be distributed by the Treasury to the claimants. Bonds mature on Mar. 31 and Sept. 30 of each year in the principal amount of RM20,400,000 each. No payments are to be made on Government awards until all private awards are paid in full.

⁸ Reconstruction Finance Corporation funds.

Note.—Figures are rounded to nearest million and will not necessarily add to totals. For complete figures see daily Treasury statement for July 31, 1935.

³ Less than $500,000.

⁵ Nonstock (or includes nonstock proprietary interests).

⁶ Excess interagency assets (deduct).

⁸ Includes U. S. Housing Corporation; U. S. Railroad Administration; U. S. Spruce Production Corporation; and notes received on account of sale of surplus war supplies.
⁹ Includes Agricultural Adjustment Administration; Electric Home and Farm Authority, Inc.; Farm Credit Administration (crop production and other loans); Federal Housing Administration; Federal Prisons Industries, Inc.; Resettlement Administration, Division of Subsistence Homesteads; Inland Waterways Corporation; R. F. C. Mortgage Co.; Tennessee Valley Authority; loans to railroads, and interagency interests held by the U. S. Treasury.

¹³ Includes unissued bonds covering loans in process.

¹⁴ Assets not classified. Includes only amount of capital stock subscribed by the United States.

¹⁶ In liquidation.

¹ The figures in this table differ from the monthly circulation statements for the following reasons: (a) Beginning June 30, 1922, the form of circulation statement was revised so as to include in the holdings of the Federal Reserve banks and agents, and hence in the stock of money, gold bullion, and foreign gold coin held by the Federal Reserve banks and agents, and to include in the holdings of the Federal Reserve banks and agents, and hence exclude from money in circulation, all forms of money held by the Federal Reserve banks and agents, whether as reserve against Federal Reserve notes or otherwise. For the sake of comparableness the figures in this table for earlier years have been revised to include these changes. For full explanation of this revision, see annual report for 1922, p. 433. (b) The form of the circulation statement was revised again beginning Dec. 31, 1927, so as to exclude earmarked gold coin from the stock of money, and hence from money in circulation; to include in the holdings of the Federal Reserve banks and agents, and hence in the stock of money, gold held abroad for the account of the Federal Reserve banks; and to include in all categories, minor coin (the bronze 1-cent piece and the nickel 5-cent piece). Beginning on Dec. 31, 1927, the circulation statement is dated for the end of the month instead of the beginning of the succeeding month, as was the practice theretofore, and figures on the revised daily Treasury statement basis for "money held in the Treasury", instead of the unrevised basis are used. For the sake of comparableness the figures in this table for earlier years have been revised to include these changes. For full explanation of this revision, see annual report for 1928, pp. 70-71, and for figures for years prior to 1913, pp. 550-551. Final revisions, minor in amount, are made in some figures of the June 30 circulation statements for use in these annual report tables.

² The amount of gold certificates, silver certificates, and Treasury notes of 1890 is excluded from the total stock of money to avoid duplication, since the gold and silver held in the Treasury as security against these currencies are included. However, gold certificates, silver certificates, and Treasury notes of 1890 outside of the Treasury, are included in money outside of the Treasury and must be deducted from the total of such money in combining with money in the Treasury to arrive at the total stock of money.

¹ Payments of governments which have funded were made prior to the date of the funding agreements.² Differences between principal of funded indebtedness and amounts here stated represent deferred payments provided for in the funding agreements, for which gold bonds of the respective debtor governments have been or will be delivered to the Treasury.³ Increase over amount funded due to exercise of options with respect to the payment of interest due on original issue of bonds of debtor governments.⁴ Represents proceeds of liquidation of financial affairs of the Russian Government in this country. (Copies of letter dated May 23, 1922, from the Secretary of State and of reply of the Secretary of the Treasury dated June 2, 1922, in regard to loans to the Russian Government and liquidation of affairs of the latter in this country, appear in the Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1922, as exhibit 79, p. 283, and in the combined annual reports of the World War Foreign Debt Commission, exhibit 2, p. 84.)⁵ Includes balances of amounts postponed under provisions of joint resolution of Dec. 23, 1931. (For amounts postponed, see p. 35 of Annual Report of the Secretary of the Treasury for 1932.)

¹ Revised in 1935.² Securities outstanding of States, counties, cities, etc., estimated. Based on decennial censuses of the United States Bureau of the Census for 1913, 1922, and 1932, centered within each of the 3 years as indicated by frequency distributions of the endings of fiscal years. Adjusted from year to year on the basis of new-issue statistics published in the State and Municipal Compendium of the Commercial and Financial Chronicle and incomplete annual census data.³ Figures for 1934 and 1935 are adjusted by the deduction of the amount of debt of drainage, levee, and irrigation districts compromised through the instrumentality of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.⁴ An indeterminate amount of short-term special assessment debt is included with "long term."⁵ On basis of daily Treasury statements (revised), see p. 293.⁶ Includes Federal land bank bonds (both those issued by the individual banks and the consolidated series), Federal intermediate credit bank debentures, and joint stock land bank bonds. Does not include stocks.⁷ Excludes stabilization fund and Federal Reserve banks.⁸ "Total outstanding issues" less "Held in United States Government trust funds, or owned by United States Government or by governmental agencies" and "Held in sinking funds."

Total..... 10,134,014.67

NOTE.—Data for fiscal years 1921 to 1930 are shown in the annual report for 1930, pp. 617-622; and for fiscal years 1931, 1932, and 1933, in annual reports for those years, pp. 563, 440, and 379, respectively.

TABLE 48.—Expenditures made by the Government as direct payments to States during the fiscal year 1935 ¹

[The records of the Treasury Department, except in the cases mentioned in notes at end of this statement, do not show the amounts disbursed or allotted to the several States and Territories under the respective appropriations shown in this statement, such matters being under the control of the department or establishments of the Government that administers the activities covered by the appropriations. The Treasury Department, however, for general information has compiled from its records so far as available, and in other cases from figures furnished by the departments and establishments concerned, the following statement, exhibiting by States and Territories the amounts paid to each under the appropriations for Federal aid to States shown under class I in the preceding statement (table 47). Any discrepancies between this and the preceding table are due to unavoidable differences in the bases upon which these figures have been compiled. The amounts in this table, derived from the accounts of various departments and establishments, are not on the same accounting bases, and are consequently not strictly comparable. This table includes only direct payments to States and does not include amounts expended in cooperation with States, appropriations for certain of which are included under class II, table 47]
